LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

To those of you who received a renewal notice with your November issue and thought that it was in error because your address label said "84", and you thought it meant 1984, I will direct you to the Letter From The Editor in the February issue. The "84" means Volume 8 #4 is the expiration date. It was an unfortunate co-incidence that it happened in 1982. This year is Volume 9, so there should be no problems. Unfortunately, many people who made that mistake will not receive this issue to read the explanation!

Once again I have to ask your understanding and patience. The mail pile grew mighty high during Dad's illness and death. One month later my grandmother went in the hospital. This all occured about 100 miles from here, so you know where much of my time has been spent.

The Letter From The Editor is the last page written and printed so that I can be as current as possible. Some of the items that I was going to mention will be left out in order for me to contribute something to my personal genealogy. Following are obituaries of two people who were very dear to me, and I would like to make this tribute to them and the future.

Alvin John (Slim) Deters was born 15 December 1901, Hanson County, South Dakota. He was the son of Franz Anton Deters (born Harpendorf, Germany) and Anna Elizabeth Koppert (born New Vienna, Iowa). He married Adeline Latew 22 February 1934 at Plum City, WI. He died in Durand, WI 15 November 1982, just one month before his 81st birthday, and was buried in the Free Home Cemetery near Plum City. He is survived by his wife and five children: Mrs. James (Joy) Reisinger of Sparta, WI; Mrs. John (June) Wulff of Port Washington, WI; John Deters of Rogers, MN; Linda Deters of Aspen, CO; Lanny Deters of Sparta, WI. Also by grandchildren: Barbara Reisinger of Colorado Springs, CO; Mary Reisinger of Boulder, CO; Mrs. J. David (Martha) McKenzie and Jane Reisinger of Sparta; Mrs. Michael (Sandra) Echart of Dallas, TX; Cynthia Wulff of Eau Claire, WI; Jeffrey Wulff of Port Washington, WI; John Deters of Mankato, MN; Karen Deters of Rogers, MN; Heidi and Tony Deters of Sparta. Also by a great-grandchild: Emelie McKenzie of Sparta. In addition there are three brothers: George of Long Beach, CA; Edward of Salem, SD; Joseph of Hartford, SD; and four sisters: Mrs August (Agnes) Weinberg of Hudson, WI; Mrs. Herman (Regina) Klunder and Mrs. Charles (Marie) Hunt both of Bridgewater, SD; Mrs. Earl (Frances) Petree of Montrose, SD. He was preceeded in death by a grandson Mark Wulff, and two sisters: Rosemarie who died in infancy, and Mrs. Earl (Hilda) McCabe.

Emma Magdelena (Staehli) Schultz was born 20 April 1888 at Pittsville, Wood Co, WI to Melchior Staehli (born Meiringen, Switzerland) and Anna Bartsch (born Mertendorf, Bohemia). In 1892 the family moved to a farm near Plum City, WI. She married Archie Latew in 1907, and had two children. The first died at birth, and the other was Adeline (Mrs. Alvin Deters). In 1919 she married Gus Schultz. They had a farm near Exile, Waterville Township, Pepin Co, WI. They retired to Durand, WI in 1945, and in 1980 she went to the TAD Memorial Home in Plum City. She died 9 January 1983, age 94, and is buried in the Free Home Cemetery. She is survived by her daughter, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and one great-great grandchild (see above). Also by two brothers: Henry Staehli of Plum City and Harvey Staehli of Red Wing, MN; and three sisters: Mrs. Leland (Ann) Schoniger of Philip, SD; Mrs. Albert (Elizabeth) Schultz and Mrs. George (Edith) Johnson of Red Wing. She was preceeded in death by a brother Arthur, a sister, Mrs. Arthur (Lydia) Fredrickson, and a great-grandchild.

Besides being very short of time to answer you, there often is another reason. If I have corresponded with you before and have found nothing, and the answer is still negative, I keep your SASE on file in the event that I find something in the future. Often more time is spent on research with negative results than on the queries that have a long answer. Although I don't have time to file correspondance, the SASEs are kept in a separate box, filed alphabetically. (I passed this suggestion on to another genealogist who had a similar problem, and she thought it was a great idea until her young grandchild found the box and carefully sealed all of the envelopes.)

GOOD HUNTING!

QUERIES

PLEASE READ. Readers are asked to please direct correspondence to the questioner.  following the parents' names in an answer means that their marriage and ascending line will be found in Dictionnaire Genealogique des Familles Canadiennes (Tanguay, 7 volumes) and/or Dictionnaire National des Canadiens Francais (Drouin, 2 volumes). Acadian lines may be found in Acadian Descendants (Jehn, 3 volumes) and/or Histoire et Genealogie des Acadiens (Arsenault, 6 volumes). Extensions to lines of subscribers are kept on the "hunt list" until the answer contains . Answers are printed because, in French-Canadian genealogy especially, one "found" marriage may provide the answer for many researchers. Following are some of the abbreviations used in queries. No periods are used. There are no specific rules for queries, but some advice: mention a time era and place, if you can. DO NOT USE ABBREVIATIONS WHEN SUBMITTING QUERIES - I will convert them to the standard used. If you are sending a number of queries for future issues, please submit each on a separate sheet. If you want a query to appear each time (I believe once in a year is enough) please submit it each time in writing. Query deadline for the May issue is March 15.

THE CARIGNAN REGIMENT

(Third in a series of eight articles by Elmer Courteau)

Originally, the only officers were company commanders who held the rank of captain. The senior company captain in the regiment was the regimental commander of colonel.

In Europe, mercenary soldiers often went for long periods without pay and often survived on what they could loot. In Canada, the soldiers' regular pay was five sous per day (30 sous in periods which armies now call hazardous pay periods).

Every soldier was outfited with a waistcoat, cap, hat, trousers, cravet, two pairs of shoes, and two pairs of socks every year and a new cape every two years. When the soldiers were manning a garrison or a fort, each soldier was allowed to have a garden to grow what he wanted.

In the settled areas, according to Douville-Casanova in their book, "Daily Life in Early Canada," (MacMillan, N.Y., 1967), the soldiers usually were billeted with the habitants and the officers with the seigneur or the more well-to-do families. The soldiers usually worked for those with whom they were billeted and received a small sum (10 sous per day) and food. Both they and their officers were obviously placed in a position where they would meet the unmarried French Canadian women and many matches were the result.

Lieutenants had come into being earlier when military positions were created for a large number of impoverished cadets of petty noble families. Ensigns, the company guidon bearers, were also cadet members of petty noble families and this rank eventually became what is now a second lieutenant. The earlier rank of lieutenant became first lieutenant. Some companies also carried a number of cadets, also generally of the minor nobility, who were, in effect, officers in training, and it wasn't unusual for the regiment or companies to include a number of gentlemen who served as "volunteer officers."

The Carignan Regiment had completed its arrival in Quebec by September 1665. For most, the Atlantic crossing was miserable and many of the men were deathly sick, but even as winter approached, the soldiers who could march received their orders.

They were sent to the River Richelieu, the traditional invasion route of the Iroquois, to set up a series of forts to block the savage onslaughts.

The Iroquois would leave Lake Champlain, canoe down the Richelieu into the St-Lawrence and then attack settlers up and down the river, often traveling hundreds of miles along other tributaries, such as the Ottawa. One of their favorite haunts was among the hundreds of thickly wooded islands on Lake St-Pierre where they could camp in hidden safety for indefinte periods until some hapless French Canadians or Indians friendly to the French passed.

The soldiers built their series of blockading forts, the first Fort Richelieu, on the St-Lawrence where the Richelieu River entered. Fort St-Louis and Fort St-Jean were built at advance points up the river and Fort Ste-Anne was built near the point the Richelieu left Lake Champlain.

Now it was decided to strike terror into the hearts of the Iroquois once and for all by invading the Iroquois heartland 500 kilometres away. The European officers, unaware of the unbelievably cold American winters and ignoring the advice of the French Canadians, started the march. The Jesuit Journal reported that over 60 soldiers lost their lives on the march, often abandoned in the woods without burial, Douville-Casanova mentioned.

Others were killed by the Iroquois who were able to harry the troops in their camps or on the march. It was the very tactics that the French Canadians and their Indian allies were to use in defeating Braddock and his British troops at Fort Duquesne (Pittsburgh).

The Iroquois faded into the surrounding woods as the French advanced and sustained few casualties compared to the French, but the soldiers did manage to burn many of the Iroquois villages and destroy many stores of foods, causing a great amount of misery for the Iroquois. In addition, the huge number of soldiers stunned the Iroquois and they decided to sue for peace, a peace that lasted twenty years although the Iroquois continued to make scattered smaller attacks and continued to attack the French Canadians' Indian allies.

The majority of the members of the Carignan Regiment when they returned to Quebec and later had a choice of staying in Quebec or returning to France, voted to leave the Quebec winters behind. But the promise of land convinced many to stay.

The officers who stayed were granted seigneuries and the soldiers were given land in the seigneuries, most staying with an officer of their original unit. Many of these seigneuries were located near or along the Richelieu River, the idea being to use the soldiers to permanently block the invasion route of the Iroquois. The idea was adopted from the Romans who had settled retired Roman soldiers in their colonies, including France, centuries before.

Known members of the Carignan Regiment from the Companies Poitou/ Monteil, and D'Orleans/ La Brisardiere. Not all of these soldiers, especially among the officers, remained in New France.

Sheriff's Return for New Carlisle Gaol 1830-1842

Appendix to the Third Volume of the Journals of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, 1843, Volume 3 (Appendix G.).

No. 41 is the Sheriff's Return of Commitments and Discharges at New Carlisle Gaol, from the year 1830 to 1842. Entries include the date received into gaol, the prisoner's name and residence, his occupation, his crime, the person who committed him, the date of discharge, and the name of the person who discharged him.

No. 42 is the Sheriff's Return of Commitments and Discharges at Perce Gaol, from the year 1841 to 1842 (2 entries only).

No. 43 is the List or Tabular Description of Writs of Capias ad respondendum issued out of the Provincial Court for the Inferior District of Gaspe, from the year 1834 to the year 1842, inclusively. These entries give the names of the litigants, the date of the writ, date when returnable and date of actual return, the name of the bailiff and the advocate.

No. 44 is the List of Executions issued out of Her Majesty's Provincial Court for the Inferior District of Gaspe, from the years 1839 to 1842, inclusively. Entries give the names of the litigants, the amount of judgement, amount of costs taxed, amount levied, sheriff's fees, bailiffs' fees, and the place where the writ originated. This extraction from the lists will give only name, residence (when given), occupation (when given), and the list number. Included are the names of the officials.

There are Gremlins

In response to the Letter From The Editor, Volume 8, #IV (November 1982) regarding my question "Are there really gremlins?", I received a letter from a subscriber. I decided to edit the letter for publication by an anonymous author.

"I just had to stop my activity to write you a letter to let you know that there are in truth GREMLINS. Actually, I have noticed them for some time here in my study where I ponder genealogy. I have decided that they are curious and mischievious spirits, and I figure that in the interest of positive thinking, I should refer to them as such.

My suspicions were confided to my husband some time ago . . . he grinned. Later, he commented that MY spirits were playing in his files as well. "That is cowardly", I countered! "they are YOUR spirits and you had better acknowlege them".

Example: he spent several hours at the archives, copying endless lists, and the next night, when he wanted to refer to them, they were gone! Not in his briefcase! Not on the floor of the car! Not between the garden catalogs and the bills! Nowhere! Last night he came in here and showed me his writing tablet. After about ten pages were the stubs of three torn out pages -- the very ones he was looking for! Said he, very seriously, "What do you suppose 'they' did with them?" "Don't ask me", said I, "I have problems of my own."

Now, I feel that these mischievious spirits are interested in our research, and feel that this kind of contact keeps us alert and aware of their pleasure. I have been working very hard -- at red lights; waiting for return phone calls at the office; sitting in the dentist's office -- to find a way to get positive results from their interest in my interest in the past. Just think of the help they could be. Instead of hiding a letter I wanted to answer, they could put a copy of what I need on my typewriter -- a marriage certificate; a death notice; a phone number of one who knows the answers to what I am looking for.

Much as I hesitate to mention it, writing this letter as I am, there is a (you know what) that lives in this machine. I am sure that this machine knew how to spell when I bought it. However, I no sooner than got it home, than it forgot everything it ever knew. Not only that, but it mixes up c and v, and writes ou for you. Not only that, but it drinks ribbon ink, so that I have to keep buying new ribbons to see what I have written.

These spirits aren't all bad. I quite often find in the middle of something on great uncle John Merrill just what I was looking for about Aunt Suzie Jones. Wasn't that nice of them to see that I found it?

Actually, there are some nights when after working all day at the office, running the household, tending the dog, working on my book, etc., that these spirits get so frisky that I just say right out loud -- "OK you fellers! I have had it. I am going to bed, and you can play all by yourself." Then I close the door, and sure enough the next morning things are working out pretty well.

I did not mean to go on so long, but you mentioned spirits first. I sort of hate to bring them up outside the family, and I just thought you would be one of the people who would understand."

At the Seminar held last March in Pontiac, Michigan, a question was asked about the Tweedsmuir Papers and the Tweedsmuir Histories. Marie Baker Gordon has pointed out that the answer appeared in the July 1982 issue of "Trails". Many persons who attended are also readers of LOST IN CANADA? and might appreciate the information. This is the publication of the Essex County Branch of the OGS. Question Box, page 51 - "What is the Tweedsmuir Papers? What is a Tweedsmuir History?". The reply - "John Buchan, 1st Baron Tweedsmuir, historian and novelist, was Governor General of Canada from 1935 to 1940. His private library was presented to Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario in 1954. His wife, Lady Tweedsmuir (Susan Charlotte Grosvener), also an author, took a special interest in the provision of libraries for rural areas in Canada. She encouraged women's institutes to compile and publish local histories which are called 'Tweedsmuir Histories'. e.g. 'The History of the Township of Sandwich South', by W.A. Crowder, and 'The History of Rochester Township 1853-1978', by Madeline Wallace. Both of these can be found in the reference Dept. of Windsor's Main Library.

GENEALOGICAL REFERENCE BUILDERS "NEWSLETTER", Volume XII, #1, Box 249, Post Falls, ID 83854. Subcription rates are $12.50 per year for four issues plus free queries. After a hiatus of several years, this valuable publication is back in business. There have been a number of items in the past that have become standard reference sources for me, and I look forward to more in the future. This issue has 40 pages, plus a surname index, and contains queries, 1850 census of Texas Co, MO; 1782 Tax List of Fauquier Co, VA; inscriptions from a small cemetery in Jefferson Co, IL; abstractions from Warren Co, NC records; marriages 1803-1812 by George Wack, minister of the Gospel in Montgomery Co, PA.

OUR FRENCH CANADIAN FOREFATHERS, Lucille Fournier Rock. Soft cover, 164 pages including an every name index, 6" x 9", $9.95 ($14.95 hard bound) plus $1.50 postage, from Rock Publications, 463 South Main Street, Woonsocket, RI 02895. This is the first in a series of biographical books of French Canadian pioneers and some of their descendants. Biographies and stories are included for Guillaume Couture, the Gouin family, the Baudoin family, "Perche of Long Ago", Mathieux Chaure (Choret), the Crevier family, Pierre Rondeau, Louis Guillet and Elizabeth Chateauneuf, "Marie Pontonnier and the men in her life". Each chapter is followed by a bibliography of sources used. Most of the sources are materials that were published in French. For the many American researchers who don't read French, this is an opportunity to read some interesting stories about your ancestors. Even if one of the above named isn't in your line, you can gain an insight into the lives of early Quebec pioneers. I believe that many will find it very interesting.

A note was received from the newest branch of the Ontario Genealogical Society - the Brant County Branch OGS, Box 2181, Brantford, Ontario N3T 5Y6. They say they are a friendly group that is trying to expand its' membership and promote genealogy. Membership is $7 for Americans (postal or bank money orders only - no personal checks).

A newsletter for anyone researching the surname ROSE in Canada. Subscription is $12 (in US funds) for Americans. For details send SASE to Shawn R. Mooney, Box 3, Plenty, Saskatchewan SOL 2RO.

A repertoire of marriages of the parish of St-Charles Borromee, Joliette, 1843-1982 is available from Societe de Genealogie de Lanaudiere, c.p. 221, Joliette, Quebec J6E 3Z6. Cost is $20.00 plus $5.00 postage and handling. Also, the repertoire of marriages for the parish of Ste-Melanie, Joliette County, 1832-1981 is available for $12.00 from Jacques Forest, 922 Blvd Manseau, Joliette, Quebec J6E 3G5.

The Record, newspaper at Sherbrooke, Quebec, Thursday, 8 April 1982 has an article about the archives at Sherbrooke. Rev. Harold Brazel sent the clipping which states that the Societe Genealogique des Cantons de l'Est is sifting through the non-Catholic parish registers of the Eastern Townships. They are copying each entry onto an index card, color-coded to indicate baptism, marriage, or burial. The registers date from 1820 to 1880. Specific requests will be answered by mail: National Archives of Quebec, 740 Galt West, Sherbrooke, Quebec J1H 1Z3. PLEASE! don't write asking for every thing they have on Grandpa Jones, or some similar vague request. In my opinion, that can jeopardize the future for the researcher who knows what he is looking for. A friend recently wrote for information there, and received a prompt reply. He stated the time era that the family had lived in the area, their religion, and the names. He did not know the mother's maiden name. He received the marriage record of the couple, which stated the names of the bride and groom and one witness (as with most non-Catholic records, the parents names were not given). The 1833 marriage was an Episcopal ceremony at Hatley, with both parties being from Stanstead. The researcher will now attempt to locate a marriage contract.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

There are only a few items to mention in this Letter. The issue is printed and ready to be collated, and I must finally write this. Have you ever stared at a blank sheet of paper in the typewriter and discovered that your mind matched it?

The query section is a full 35 pages in this issue, with more than 14 pages of answers beyond the first marriage. It is obvious that something needs to be done about this situation, but I'm not sure what it should be. I have a few ideas, but would welcome suggestions from any subscriber.

Another reminder about SASE--if you ask a question and expect an answer, please include that courtesy. It is surprising to see that letters without a Self-Addressed Stamped Envelope are becoming more frequent, even though every publication that I read publishes reminders. Many genealogists have told me that they have simply place those letters firmly into the round file. Also, remember that Canadians must now put a 37 cent stamp on their letters to the USA.

The Wisconsin State Genealogical Society is sponsoring their first two-day workshop. It will be held in Madison on Friday, May 6th and Saturday May 7th. Clifford Neal Smith and Dr. Robert E. Ward will be the speakers on the topics of German research. The number of persons who can attend will be limited, due to the facilities. For further information or registration form, write the WSGS treasurer at 2109 - 20th Avenue, Monroe, WI 53566.

To other editors or publishers: I am looking for a used paper jogger, and have a (new) 12-bin Swingline collator for sale (not for use with mimeographed material).

When I was in Salt Lake City I used the microfilmed parish registers for St-Chrysostome, Chateauguay County, and began copying marriages. When I stumbled on a marriage that I had been hunting for a long time for a subscriber, I realized that this unpublished parish likely held answers for many more persons. I contacted the members of the NWTF&CHI (North West Territory French & Canadian Heritage Institute) and asked if anyone would finish copying the marriages. Dorothy Chandler immediately began the task, and soon I will have it ready for publication. I estimate there will be over 1000 entries, even though the last marriage on the microfilm was on 20 November 1871. The parish began in 1838 and many of the marriages were of persons from the USA. This information is included in the repertoire. Ordering information should be ready by the next issue of LOST IN CANADA?

Work on the monograph about the German mercenary soldiers who remained in Canada after the Revolutionary War is progressing, and a pre-publication offer should also be ready by the next issue. It is hoped to have this published during this bi-centennial year. It is obvious that many "dead-end" researches will be solved with this publication. The German names became anglicized in Ontario and the Maritimes, and gallicized in Quebec. Also, the names became mixed with Loyalists of Germanic origin. I have traced the lines of two Quebec cousins (the side of the family unrelated to mine) and both persons were startled to learn that their immediate line went back to a German mercenary soldier.

Because of the amount of time needed to published both of the above works, as well as this magazine, and to answer correspondence, I have decided not to serve again as an officer of WSGS. I will certainly miss the association, but feel that my time is more needed in my business. Good luck to the new Board! and GOOD HUNTING! to all of my subscribers.

QUERIES

PLEASE READ. Readers are asked to please direct correspondence to the questioner.  following the parents' names in an answer means that their marriage and ascending line will be found in Dictionnaire Genealogique des Familles Canadiennes (Tanguay, 7 volumes) and/or Dictionnaire National des Canadiens Francais (Drouin, 2 volumes). Acadian lines may be found in Acadian Descendants (Jehn, 3 volumes) and/or Histoire et Genealogie des Acadiens (Arsenault, 6 volumes). Extensions to lines of subscribers are kept on the "hunt list" until the answer contains . Answers are printed because, in French-Canadian genealogy especially, one "found" marriage may provide the answer for many researchers. Following are some of the abbreviations used in queries. No periods are used. There are no specific rules for queries, but some advice: mention a time era and place, if you can. DO NOT USE ABBREVIATIONS WHEN SUBMITTING QUERIES - I will convert them to the standard used. If you are sending a number of queries for future issues, please submit each on a separate sheet. If you want a query to appear each time (I believe once in a year is enough) please submit it each time in writing. Query deadline for the August issue is June 15.

THE CARIGNAN REGIMENT

(Fourth in a series of eight articles by Elmer Courteau)

Nations and their citizens, even in this day, have seldom ranked soldiering as among the more honorable professions. Citizen-soldiers, volunteers in times of war, have been rated higher when a major portion of a nation's populace was involved, but in smaller wars, even volunteers are seldom given much honor or respect.

Thus, from the beginning of time, even in periods of depression and except for some early years in the formation of the Grecian city states and Rome before mercenaries replaced citizen-soldiers, armies became the employment of last resort for most men. Mercenary units traveled throughout Europe, fighting for any side offering payment.

Moving about, creating havoc in regions torn by war, the mercenary units also found it easier to recruit in the areas where the wars were taking place. If a unit moved a great deal, its ranks could become rather international with soldiers from many nations.

We should remember, however, that nations as we know them today, did not exist in the years the Carignan Regiment was being formed. With the possible exception of England, these soldiers and our ancestors, in general, thought of themselves in much narrower terms as Normans, Burgundians, Percherons, and Parisians.

Regions on the borders of what we now recognize as the nations of Europe often owed allegiance to more than one king. This gave much of the higher nobility in Europe, linked by blood and marriage, an international status and nationality.

Titles and land passed only to the oldest of a noble family's sons. We have mentioned how this gave impetus to younger sons in noble families to move throughout Europe in search of land and the title that went with it. Eventually, this meant that every European nation had large segments among the nobility with ancestral roots of different nationalities. Examples today: England and Spain's monarchs have Germanic roots; the Swedish monarch traces his ancestry to France and a Napoleonic noble.

We are repeating much of this because of a recent article in the quarterly, "Memoires," the publication of La Societe Genealogique Canadienne-Francaise. By Bruno Villata and entitled, "Le regiment de Carignan etait-il vraiment francais?" ("Was the Carignan Regiment really French?") it disputes the popular belief in the regiment's start.

There will be some volatile replies to Villata's theory that the regiment was Italian, not French, and we plan to go into more depth on his reasoning later, but for now we will mention only three arguments: 1) There was no such thing as an Italy or an Italian until late in the last century; 2) While the Prince de Carignan was a junior member of the House of Savoy, much later the royal family of Italy, he was also the French Comte de Soisson through his marriage to Marie de Bourbon Soisson in 1625, and 3) We know nothing about the background or nationality of the majority of the Carignan Regiment who returned to France, but of those who remained and whose origins can be pinpointed, almost to a man they give baptismal sites in what is now part of France.

Finally, Villata lists 19 known surnames from the regiment and gives a Piemontaise equivalent from which these surnames may have derived. While this is interesting, and in some cases could be correct, the study of the origin of surnames indicates the possibility of other ethnic backgrounds as well.

For informational purposes, Villata's list included: Morin, Morino; Morel, Morello; Michel Malet, Maletto; Louis Chiron, Chirone, Chironi; Jean Berard dit La verdure, Berardo, Berardi; Jean Martinet dit Fontblanche, Martinetto, Martinetti; Armand Piat; Paul Perrot dit Lagorge, Perrot, Perotto, Perotti; Antoine Gros (LeGros) dit LaVilette, Gros, Grosso; Hugues Randin, Randino; Maurice Olivier, Olivieri; Laurent Bouy dit Lavergne, Bollito, Buy; Mathurin Collin dit Laliberte, Collino; Nicolas Audet dit Laliberte, Audetto; Michel Rognon, Rognoni, Rognone, Guerin, Guerrini, Guerrino; Rene Siret dit Lafleur, Siretto; Etienne Charles dit Lajeunesse, Carli, and Francois Cuque, Cucco.

Because few of our ancestors in Quebec could spell, most of us will find our surname spelled many ways in the original manuscripts. It was often only after decades that a final spelling became the accepted form.

To use my own family name, Courteau, we have never found it spelled in this form during the lifetime of the immigrant ancestor. Thus, only a meticulous search among the roots of a family could tell of the possibility of other ethnic origins. It is enough to say, that Europe, including France, was the traveling ground of many peoples and all of us are of mixed backgrounds, at best. But when this blending took place is generally unknown.

There were unquestionably Piemontese in the Carignan regiment. The regiment fought and recruited in this region a few years before being incorporated into the French Army as a royal regiment. The Prince de Carignan financed this recruitment and as was the custom, was rewarded by having his name attached to the regiment.

Ensign Jean Nicalis de Brandis of La Freydiere Company is listed as a native of Turin. Other known officers of the company, Capt. Balthazar de Flotte de la Freydiere and his brother, Lt. Annibal de Flotte, may have been Piemontese as Villata claims. But none of the three remained in Quebec in any case. Villata can give us the more correct spelling for the ensign: Ensign Giovanis Nicolis di Brandizzo, a village 12 kilometers from Turen. But that is the only certainty among all the names in his essay. Villata has provided an interesting vignette about the Carignan Regiment but one that can neither be fully proven or disproven. We only know that among members of the regiment remaining behind in New France when the majority of the soldiers returned to France, those who remained behind and left records indicate that the vast majority were natives of what is now France.

(Note: If you have an ancestor you believe to be a member of the regiment and he is not listed in a company when you think he should be, please write and present your proof. We will list all possibilities in our eighth and final article. Write: Elmer Courteau, 201 Liberty Place, South St. Paul, MN 55075)

REBELLION LOSSES

Claims arising as a result of the Rebellion (1837-38) were presented to the Legislative Assembly. Inhabitants were assembled at various locations across the Province, at which time they could present their claims for losses. The claims were not always totally allowed, and were sometimes totally rejected. Correspondence with the Public Archives of Canada reveals that the original claims have not been preserved. The Journals of 1849 list the claimants, the sums claimed, the sums allowed, and the sums rejected altogether. In a very few instances details of the claim were given, i.e. "for loss of horse going to Kingston with Troops" or "for use of house as Guard-house".

EASTERN DISTRICT

Meetings were held at Broeffle's Hotel, Williamsburg Township, Dundas County, Eastern District on the 10th, 11th, and 12th days of June, 1846, and at the Court House in the Town of Cornwall, Cornwall Township, Stormont County on the 15th, 16th, 17th, and 20th of June.

Follow-up information regarding the French-Canadian and Acadian Genealogical Review:

In response to the many inquiries regarding the promised issue of FC&AGR since the death of the editor, Roland Auger, I contacted his family through Benoit Pontbriand. The text is at the printer, but the problem lies in the fact that the estate is not yet settled. One of the largest problems is that the account for that publication was kept in a bank in the US, and we all can imagine the red-tape that is involved. When the estate is settled, you will receive your issues. The family is trying very hard, with a lot of help from M. Pontbriand, but cannot answer mail about this, nor can I. Please be patient with the situation.

Deadline for queries to be included in the August issue is June 15, 1983.

LOWER CANADA LAND PATENTS 1795-1848

Return of Patents granted in Lower Canada for Lots of Land, of Five Hundred Acres and upwards, from the year 1795 to the year 1848, inclusive, with the date of each Patent, and such other information relative thereto as can be furnished from the Records of the Provincial Registrar's Office. This list appeared in chronological order in the Journals of the Legislative Assembly, 1849, Volume 8, Appendix 3, and also included occasional remarks and conditions of the grant. The list printed here includes only the given name, surname, date and Township, with occasional remarks of genealogical value. The earlier grants were generally to persons of Anglo-Saxon background, with the French names appearing later. Since this is a mixture of persons with different origins, and because researching "Anglos" in Quebec is often difficult, this list should be valuable to genealogists, even though it will have to be published in installments.

Where a person's name is listed with more than one grant following, it is not necessarily the same person, but could be another of the same name.

(to be continued next issue)

From Mrs. Katherine M. Crawford, 1293 Rte. de l'Eglise, Ste-Foy, Quebec G1W 3P3:

I am the archivist of Chalmers-Wesley United Church of Canada, 78 Ste-Ursule Street, Quebec City. We hold registers for the following churches:
St. Johns Congregational 1800-1830
The Congregational Church of Quebec 1838-1882
St. John's Presbyterian Church 1830-1853
Chalmers Free Presbyterian Church 1853-1925
Wesley Methodist Church 1827-1925 (including their registers for the Champlain Street Chapel and Bourg Louis registrations)

Chalmers and Wesley both became United Churches in 1925 and in 1930 they joined to become Chalmers-Wesley United Church of Canada housed in our present building, the former Chalmers Free Church.

We also hold registers for a Huguenot Congregation--St. Jean Presbyterian, which joined Chalmers Church about 1924--and two registers of Port Chaplains for the early 20th century. The Port Chaplains' registers have many immigrant marriages. Apparently an immigrant would take up residence in the USA. His bride would enter Canada. He would meet and marry her and then they would leave for the American mid-west. There is one more small register for the Methodist Church of Temiscouata County which was placed in our archives when that church was closed. In addition to these official registers we have unofficial members' rolls for some of these churches, which we are planning to put on an alphabetical file as soon as possible.

We are working on exhibits for the tourist season. 1983 will be on military men who have been in our congregations and 1984 will be on shipbuilders, lumbermen and allied tradesmen. An on-going project is the gathering of materials and biographies for a new church history.

My name, as a researcher, is on the Provincial Archives list and I do answer queries and direct people to other sources if I cannot help them--if they send a (Canadian) stamped self-addressed envelope.

A complete catalogue of our archives is available at the Provincial Archives. We will search for people however, and request a donation to the church in return. Cheques should be made out to Chalmers-Wesley Church and an official receipt for income tax purposes will be issued by the church secretary at the end of the fiscal year.

REFERENCE SHELF

MICHIGAN VOYAGEURS, edited by Donna Valley Russell, C.G., and published by the Detroit Society for Genealogical Research. This contains the names of the men granted licenses (engages) to ply the fur trade from Mackinac Island to their winter outposts. The list is taken from the notary book of Samuel Abbott, who practiced at Mackinac Island 1807-1817. The employer, destination, and date of license are included, as well as the names of the voyageurs. There is an every-name index, and a history of the fur trade at Mackinac in those years. This notary was not published in the Rapport de la Archiviste de la Quebec, and his notes represent an exciting find in that field of research. A must for libraries and individual researchers--and a bargain at $3.00 postpaid! 6" X 9", paperback, 53 pages, illustrations, map, 845 entries. Order from the Society, c/o Burton Historical Collection, 5201 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, MI 48202.

UTOPIA IN UPPER MICHIGAN, Olive M. Anderson. The story of the attempt to form the Hiawatha Village Association in Schoolcraft County in the 1890s. This was the utopian dream of Abraham Sneathen BYERS who, along with others, was dissatisfied with the Republican and Democratic parties failure to solve the country's problems. Although lacking a name index, this book is an interesting account of the people and includes many photographs of persons and buildings. The author was aided in her research by Alex Meron, the Schoolcraft County historian. 6" X 9", paperback, 67 pages. Available from the Schoolcraft County Historical Society, %Alex Meron, 103 North 3rd Street, Manistique, MI 49854 for $4.50 plus .95 postage.

SURNAME QUERY INDEX, 1982. The Monroe, Juneau, Jackson Genealogical Workshop has published the latest issue of the surnames and locations that members are researching. There are entries from 353 members, and an index of about 1600 surnames. Location is not limited to Monroe, Juneau, or Jackson Counties (Wisconsin). Available from the president, Carolyn Habelman, at Rt. 3, Box 253, Black River Falls, WI 54615 for $4.50.

GENEALOGICAL NEWSLETTER of the Whitby-Oshawa Branch OGS (Ontario Genealogical Society). The first three issues (May, August, and December 1982) of their publication contain news of their activities and purposes, a story about James and Agnes MONTGOMERY who left Scotland in 1839 for the area around Whitby; cemetery inscriptions for sale; queries; and abstracts from the Index of the General Register of Ontario County. Welcome to another branch of the OGS! Membership is $5.00 per year. P.O. Box 174, Whitby, Ontario L1N 5S1.
