MESSAGE FROM THE REORGANIZING COMMITTEE

This issue of the French, Canadian, Metis Journal completes publications due in 2003 and represents the beginning of the reorganization of the former NWT-French Canadian-Metis group. This is also an opportunity for our Reorganizing Committee to inform our members that a committee has been meeting for several months to reorganize the former NWT-French Canadian-Metis group. Thus far we have drafted a revised constitution and by-laws; we have appointed temporary officers and; we are working on a mission statement and logo. We are not there yet. We need to select a board of directors and committees to ensure that we can accomplish this transition. Since our re-organizing began in June 2005, we have a core group of twelve and have had 35 branch members, interested MGS members and other interested individuals join us for one or more meetings.

Over the years we have expanded our collection in the library and intend to expand our research to include the multi-cultural origins of our Canadian heritage. Researchers are still on hand as mentors as we recruit new members and volunteers. .

We ask for, and appreciate, your comments as to what we can do to make this a viable group and your interest in continuing your association with us. Suggestions can be sent to:

Canadian Genealogical & Heritage Society of Minnesota (CG&HS of MN), 5768 Olson Memorial Highway, Golden Valley, MN 55422. We continue as a branch of MGS, and have a link on the MGS website at <http://www.mn.mgs.org>. Calls can be made to MGS at 763-595-9347.

INTRODUCTION

The Book That Never Ends... is the story of the Rioux and the LeMay family. Although it begins in Seventeenth century France, its main focus is on the family when Augustin Rioux and Luce LeMay marry and move to the Little Canada/Forest Lake area of Minnesota.

The story begins when Jean Riou and Michel LeMay (separately) left their family, friends, and countrymen, spent weeks crossing the immense Atlantic Ocean and started a new life in a strange land populated by strange people with an unknown culture. Why? Was it because Jean saw no future for himself in his native Brittany? Or Michel in Anjou-Angers? Was it to satisfy a need for adventure? Or was it, as some mountain climbers say, "because it was there." We'll probably never know.

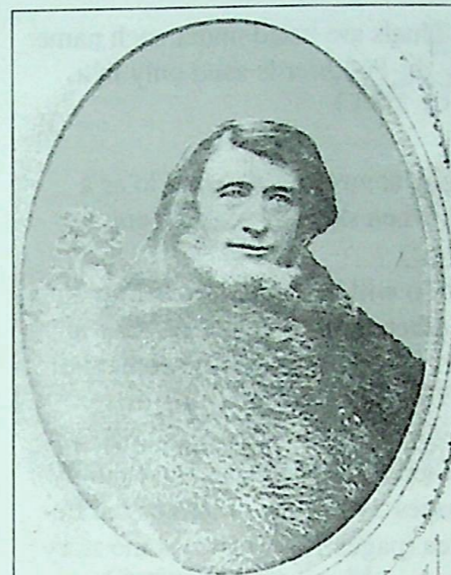

What we do know is that they came, managed to acquire and clear some land along the St. Laurence seaway, and married women whose families had also traveled to this new world and settled in the same area. Their descendants:

Jean Riou (b.1657) married (1678) Catherine LaBlond (b.1664).
From this union came Vincent (b.1690) who married (1732) Catherine Cote (b.1700).
From this union came Jean Baptiste (b. 1733) who married (1764) Marie Reine Boucher (b.1739).
From this union came Vincent (b.1768) who married (1798) Julienne Cote (b. 1782).
From this union came Augustin (b.1799) who married (1844) Luce LeMay (b.1824).

Michel LeMay (b.1630) married (1659) Marie Dutaut (Dutost) (b.1640).
From this union came Ignace (I) (b.1667) who married (1687) Anne Girard (b.1670).
From this union came Ignace(II) (b.1689) who married (1728) Catherine Lemire (b.1700).
From this union came Ignace(III) (b.1732) who married (1747) Marie Louise Frechette (b.1716).
From this union came Jean Baptiste (b.17??) who married (1783) Cecile Maillot (b.17??).
From this union came Isaie (b.1792) who married (1814) Julie Jacques (b.1798).
From this union came Luce (b.1824) who married (1844) Augustin Rioux (b.1799).

Thus the Rioux and the LeMay families were united. In the mid-1850s this pioneer French-Canadian family decided to come to Minnesota. Perhaps they had heard of the fertile farmlands that were available; perhaps it was because Luce's parents, Isaie and Julie, had come earlier along with her sisters Marie Adelaide who married Servius Jarvais (Gervais), and Marie Julie who entered the convent of St. Joseph (1854) and was known as Sister Mary Pauline. Augustin and Luce settled and farmed in the Little Canada, Minnesota, area.

Luce gave birth to twenty children including two sets of twins. One twin set and one single birth were stillborn. The second to last child, Oliver, did not marry and had no children. The remaining sixteen children married and blessed Augustin and Luce with 142 grandchildren.

Augustin Rioux

Luce LeMay

The major portion of The Book That Never Ends (430 of its 546 pages) tells the story of these children, grand-children and their progeny. The total number of descendants has not been counted. Stella Holcombe Schaefer, fifth generation descendant, spent fourteen years (wearing out four typewriters, she said) researching, visiting with, and recording these descendants' names and stories. She published her book in 1986.

Most genealogists, looking for their family names, read books starting with the index. This book does not have one making it difficult to use as a research tool for family historians. Yet it is a most valuable book because of the impact this family has had on Minnesota, especially the Little Canada/Forest Lake area. Even though twenty years have passed since publication this book still needs an index. Thus, this publication has been created.

No attempt has been made to update the data on any of the families. The names and vital data are as they are used and appear in the book. Some individuals on the list have died, married, divorced, and given birth to another generation. It is up to this new generation to use this book to update their family histories and fulfill its title as: The Book That Never Ends....

THE INDEX

The index consists of three data elements: Surname, given name, and page number(s).

Surnames: Appear as they are used in the book with a few exceptions. Generally a woman's birth surname is sometimes included as part of her given name when she is listed under the surname she acquired through marriage.

Generally the names appear in the list as they appear in the book. When looking for a specific name seek possible combinations of spelling and alternative spousal names. E.g. Mary Rioux (daughter of Honore Rioux) married Peter Crete. In the earlier section of the book she is listed as Mary Rioux and in the later chapter as Mary Crete.

Unknown surnames are listed on the last page with only the given name.

Edward Rioux changed the spelling of his surname to Reiox. Some of his descendants used both spellings.

Two "dit" names were found: (1.)Tousignant-dit-Vaudreuil. Individuals are listed under each name: Tousignant-dit-Vaudreuil, Tousignant, and Vaudreuil. (2.) LeMay-dit-Poudrier is used only in a footnote on page 63.

Given Name: is the name given to an individual at birth or baptism, sometimes referred to as a "First Name". A new given name is also used to identify a woman when she enters a convent.

Page(s): of the book on which the surname/given name combination will be found. A separate line and page number is used even though it may seem to duplicate another name. e.g. Tom Abel and Thomas Abel may be different individuals or the same person. If it is not clear from the context of the story their names are listed separately.

The book was written as three books. Book One (pages 1 to 53) describes the Riou (Rioux) family in Canada from immigrant (Jean Riou) to Augustin. Book Two (pages 54 to 113) describes the Le-May family in Canada from immigrant Michel to Luce. Book Three (pages 114 to 546) is the story of Augustin and Luce and their descendants.

Abbreviations for given names and titles:

Bte Baptiste e.g. Jean Bte is Jean Baptiste.
 Jas James
 Jos Joseph
 M. Mary or Marie if preceding a female given name e.g. M. Adeline is Mary Adeline.
 Ths Thomas
 Wm William

Col. Rank of Colonel in the Military.
 Mme. Madame.
 Mr. Mister.
 Mrs. Missus.
 Rev. Reverend, refers to any ordained priest or minister.
 Sr. Sister, member of a religious order.
 St. Saint, when used in a name St. appears after "Ss" not "Sa" unless spelled out.

The designation of Junior (Jr.) or Senior (Sr.) is not used since the junior designation may be dropped when the senior has died. The appendage of I, II, or III to persons with the same name in order to designate different generations is not used. e.g. Ignace LeMay I, Ignace LeMay II, and Ignace LeMay III are listed only as Ignace LeMay.

Accuracy. Every attempt was made to ensure the accuracy of the data, recording each name with its applicable page. Even so, some names may have been missed or miss-applied. If you are aware of any mistakes please let the authors know. We apologize and take full responsibility for these errors.

The Book That Never Ends... is not available for purchase. It may be perused at the Minnesota Genealogical Library (a non-lending library) located at; 5768 Olson Memorial Highway, Golden Valley, Minnesota, 55422. Telephone (763) 595-9347. Library hours are posted on the MGS web site www.mnngs.org

I dedicate this book for posterity so they too may feel as an integral part of this world and know how their web of life has been spun into so many, many places
by so many, many people
but also that they may get to know their ancestors better and have pride in their heritage.

SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS WITHIN THE F/C/MGS

ACADIANS— are best described as French colonists that originally settled primarily in what is now Nova Scotia in the years 1604 to 1713. Our collection includes materials to help those interested in tracing their Acadian ancestors.

AMERICAN INDIAN— records deal mainly with those people native to the western hemisphere before the arrival of the European colonists. The Center has been collecting information and records on this group of people for many years.

CANADIANS NOT FRENCH— This group includes all those Canadians not covered by the other interest groups. This part of our collection is the fastest growing and with continued member support we will continue to enhance the collection as funds allow.

FRENCH GLOBAL— This group covers all French other than those in Canada and the United States. Our collection is limited, however, more and more is being published. This group is in need of an enthusiastic person who can make recommendations for purchases.

FRENCH CANADIANS— French Canadians have been active since that first round table. It has been largely the efforts of the French Canadians that have amassed the collection of the Center. When Msgr. Cyprien Tanguay gathered together the Catholic Church records from the small historic parishes along the St. Lawrence River in Quebec in the nineteenth century, he started a tradition of family consciousness that carries down to the present day among persons of Quebecois descent, whether they live in Quebec or in other parts of the world. Many books of genealogy, registers of baptisms, marriages, burials, and other historical documents published since Tanguay's time have made French-Canadian families some of the best researched in the world. The French/Canadian/Metis Genealogical Society (formerly NorthWest Territory Canadian & French Heritage Center) is simply one of a long list of societies founded to assist persons of French-Canadian descent in the researching of their ancestors.

HUGUENOTS— are most easily described as French Protestants. Some of our French Canadian members may find that their ancestor was a Protestant in France, and converted to Catholicism by the Jesuits after their arrival in New France. Our Huguenot collection is small but useful. The collection is expanding as more publications are found.

METIS(SE)— records are related to those covering the American Indian. The word Metis or Metisse signifies that the individual was a person who descended from Native American and white or black parents. During the early years of the fur trade, the traders did not have access to women of their race and cohabited with the native Indian women. Many fur traders married Indian women and had children with them. These children were called Metis or mixed bloods. Many of these mixed blood children remained in the woods and became trappers themselves helping the white fur traders. Others went to the white man's school and then returned to work at the fur trading posts.
