Good Old Winter Time

I love the good old winter time,
I love to shovel snow.
I love the good old snappy air
And all the winds that blow.
I love to shovel in the coal,
As all good husbands do,
And watch my hard-earned salary
Go scooting up the flue.
I love red flannel underwear;
I love the gum galosh;
I love to wade 'round in the storm
And slip and slide and slosh.
I love the snowballs as they fly
At random through the air
And knock my hat off in the ditch
And disarrange my hair.
I love the old cough syrup dope
Like father used to take;
I love the old yarb remedy
Like mother used to make.
I love to have colds in the head
And sniff and cough and sneeze
And choke and snort and shake and quake
And shiver, pant and wheeze.
All of these joys and other ones
That good old winter's got
I think you'll agree with me
I surely love them-NOT.

WARNING: Genealogy Pox

SYMPTOMS: Continual complaint as to need for names, dates and places. Patient has blank expression, is sometimes deaf to spouse and children. Has no taste for work of any kind, except feverishly looking through records at libraries and court houses. Has compulsions to write letters. Swears at mailman when he does not leave any mail. Frequents strange places such as cemeteries, ruins, remote-desolate areas. Makes secret phone calls at night. Hides phone bills from spouse and mumbles to self. Has strange faraway look in eyes.

NO KNOWN CURE . . .

TREATMENT: Medication is useless. Disease is not fatal but gets progressively worse. Patient should attend genealogy workshops, subscribe to genealogical magazines and be given a quiet corner in the house where he or she can be alone.

Extra Warning Enclosed: This disease is contagious.

From AMERICAN-CANADIAN GENEALOGIST, Volume 18, number 2 Issue 52

Have you ever wondered what your ancestors did for a living? Mgr. Tanguay in his famous "Dictionnaire Genealogique des familles Canadiennes" lists many occupations covering almost every walk of life.
