Dick Ward donated a book. "Thomas Seavy and Robert Irwin" by Crockett Allen Harrison. He said it is best genealogy book on Saranac families he has seen! He also donated, "French Migration to North America 1600 to 1900" by Jean-Louis Houde.

We also received, "Chasing Mosby, Killing Booth the 16th New York Volunteer Cavalry" donated by author James Carson. The author came to the Saranac Town Hall to talk. Several of "Lincoln's Avengers" lived in the local area.

Our series on Civil Marriages in Clinton County has been fruitful for many visitors.

Our library is growing very fast. It would be worth it just to come in to see what's new!

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Hello NNYACGS Members,

Just a few lines about the past few months at NNYACGS.

We are making changes in the ways that we do some things at the library. We are trying to become more autonomous in the way we do business. In past years, we have payed to have our journal and locally-authored books to be printed. We have purchased a new printer and binder to accomplish this now. This allows us to print these books as needed, thus cutting down on storage space needed. This has also allowed us to reduce Gloria Pratt's workload. Gloria has been a very important part of the society for many years and we can always count on her for advice and help. Thank you, Gloria.

I would also like to thank our past treasurer John Dancoes, who resigned this year due to health issues. As the interim treasurer, I can say that I miss John and his attention to details!

I must also thank all the members of our board who have helped us to continue to be a great source for all things genealogical.

As stated above, we are in need of a treasurer. If you can volunteer your services, it would be greatly appreciated. We are also looking for more board members and librarians. If you can help us, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Pat Buckley

President NNYACGS

EDITOR'S LETTER

Dear Members,

This year seems to be the year of DNA tests. I bet many of you got or gave one as a present. I've had many people tell me they were surprised, and some tell me they were disappointed. Others tell me the tests are just plain wrong. You have to remember to take family lore as is not scientific evidence and that there are often there are secrets in the closet that were never disclosed by anyone – especially on the mothers' sides. Remember too that DNA gets "watered down" for want of a better word and that siblings may get different results.

Results also are affected by which type of test you take. For genealogical purposes, there are three main types of DNA tests that are available: Y-chromosome (Y-DNA) tests for the direct paternal line, mitochondrial DNA (mtDNA) tests for the direct maternal line, and autosomal DNA (atDNA) tests for finding matches on all your ancestral lines. You may have to try all three types before you get the result you think you should have received. It pays to do your research before you send your money off. Velida Ford submitted an interesting article on her DNA circles.

A reminder – our subject files at the library are full of family history. Next time you're there, take a peek. We also have many family histories submitted by private people that are worth looking into. Our Drouin database is getting lots of use. Try it next time you're here.

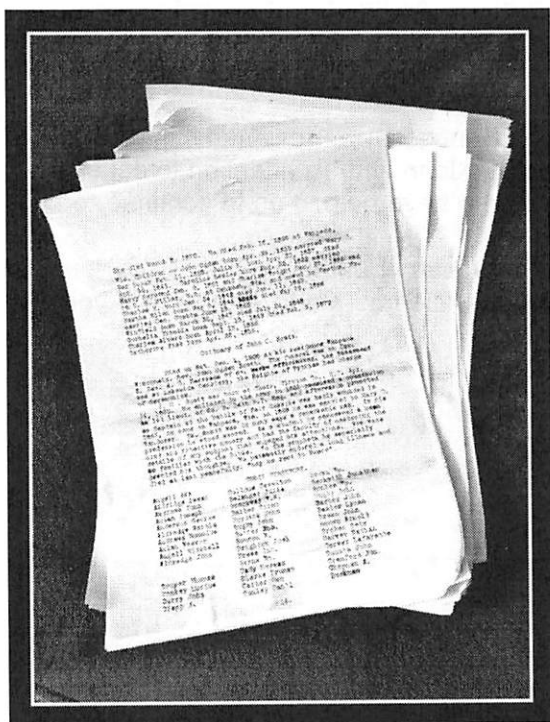

Have a great genealogical year – visit our library, talk with the relatives and write the names and dates on the back of your pictures.

Although we had a lot of fun with the "Walked With Champlain" project in 2009, and put many of your ancestor trees online, we are no longer accepting trees. You can find them online at: <http://www.nyacgs.com/descendant.html>

PROMOTED TO CAPTAIN – WOUNDED NEXT DAY – The 34th Infantry was a 2-year regiment. John Ogden Scott and 72 other men enlisted in May 1861. John was mustered in as a 1st lieutenant. They organized in New York City and left for Washington on June 19th. They stayed in the capital area for the first few months and on September 1st their first battle was at Seneca Mills, MD, followed by 3 more battles in that state. The next spring, they were at the Siege of Yorktown starting on April 5th. On May 30th, John was promoted to captain, and the next day, at Fair Oaks, VA, he was wounded in battle. This was their 2nd worst battle of the war – 23 killed, 6 mortally wounded, 65 wounded and 3 who went missing or were captured. He recovered and mustered out with his company on June 30, 1863. Before they mustered out, they had their bloodiest battle at Antietam on September 17, 1863 – 33 killed, 13, mortally wounded, 98 wounded and 10 who went missing or were captured.

After the war he had returned to Champlain and he and his extended family moved to Wisconsin.

John's obituary was in the local newspaper in Waupaca, WI – "Died on Saturday, December 1, 1900, at his residence in Waupaca, Rev. John Ogden Scott. The funeral was on December 3rd, with Rev. A. G. Harrison of St. Mark's officiating. The interment was at Lakeside Cemetery, the Knights of Pythias had charge of ceremonies.

J. O. Scott was born in Chazy, NY, April 24, 1835. He enlisted in the army in 1861, received a commission as 1st lieutenant of Company D of the 34th NY Regiment, and was afterwards promoted to captain. At the battle of Fair Oaks. In 1867, he came to Waupaca, and in 1868, was married to Mary G. Vanduzer. Dr. Scott was in many ways a remarkable man. As a student, he possessed a keen mind and a retentive memory and had the faculty of mastering the details of any subject that engaged his attentions. Few were so familiar with the Bible. To the prophets he especially devoted his thoughts. He patiently endured a long illness and died at last peacefully. May he rest in peace."

John was buried in the Lakeside Memorial Park Cemetery in Waupaca with his parents, Charles Scott and Sabina Fisk, and his wife, Mary, who died in 1923.

CATHOLIC CHURCHES IN CLINTON COUNTY UP TO 1914

For the celebration of Pope Pius X's Golden Jubilee, a 3-volume set of a description of all the churches in the United States was published in 1914 – "The Catholic Church in the United States of America". The Diocese of Ogdensburg had a whole section, and these are the Clinton County churches from that section. If you're interested in checking out other churches in the diocese, you can find the book online in Google Books.

This article is useful for genealogists because it will tell you when parishes formed and when they broke off from other parishes and which missions belonged to the main churches.

ASSUMPTION or ST. MARY'S - CHAMPLAIN

St. Mary's - Champlain

This parish is an old gathering place for Canadians, especially Quebecois. In 1818, Father Mineault came to hunt up the scattered sheep of the flock, and said Mass in the house of Louis Marney. The McKenzie Rebellion in Canada sent many of its exiles here, all of whom, until 1860, attended the church at Coopersville. In that year, Rev. Francis Van Campenhout of Coopersville suggested the building of a church. A Methodist meeting-house was bought and moved to a site in the village, and repairs were made, the total cost being about $800. Father Van Campenhout paid a part of this sum by giving a series of public conferences in the new church to Protestants.

The church was blessed by Bishop Louis Joseph Marie de Goesbriand of Burlington, and Canon Édouard-Charles Fabre (afterwards Bishop of Montreal) was present. In 1861 Father Van Campenhout left his assistant in charge of the mission, and this assistant, Rev. Octave Lasalle, was the second priest in the north to maintain a school out of the small revenues of a small parish. The teacher was Monica Bordeau. Father Lasalle soon became parish priest, and remained in Champlain until 1869, when he was appointed to take charge of the French Catholics of Cohoes. His successor, Rev. J. H. Carrières, remained until 1877, and, besides improving the property, built a substantial rectory.

In 1877 Rev. Francois Xavier Chagnon, took charge of the parish. On his arrival, he opened the Catholic school, which soon had 80 pupils in charge of an efficient teacher. A debt of $5,000 was removed from the church property, the house refitted, and the parish placed on a firm financial basis. In 1884 a public school was bought at a cost of $1,000, and soon after, the cornerstone of the new church was laid. Father Chagnon was succeeded by Rev. Claudius Gobet. Father Gobet is a native of France. He was ordained at Springfield in 1898, and was assistant at Notre Dame, Ogdensburg, and rector of Clintonville, NY. The parish consists of farmers, boatmen and laborers, who number in all about 1000.

On August 15, the parish children make their First Communion, and the day is made a festival one. The school was entrusted to the Daughters of Charity of the Heart of Jesus, and its roll in 1914 shows 200 children in charge of 7 Sisters.

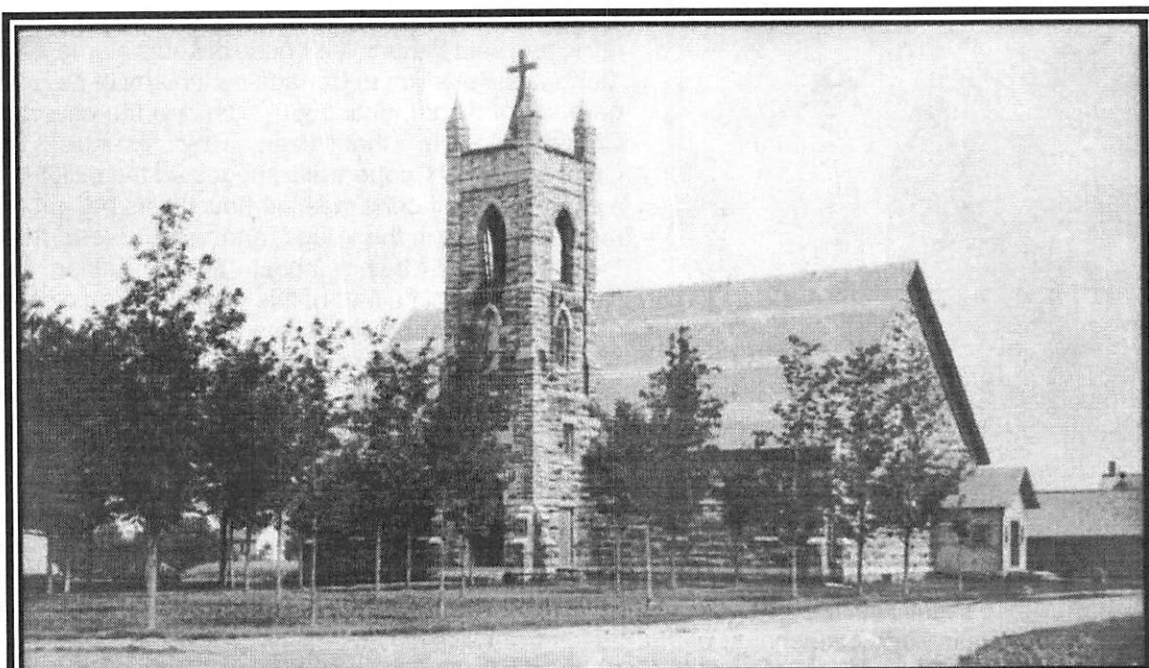

Rev. Victor Joseph Vandenhende

SACRED HEART - CHAZY The Catholics of Chazy were for many years attended from Coopersville. The church at Chazy was built in 1901 through the efforts and good will of the people, assisted by the first pastor, Rev. N. Bergeron, who also enlarged the church. Under the supervision of Rev. Victor Joseph Vandenhende, a vestry was built, and the church finished with a beautiful altar, Stations of the Cross, confessionals and an altar-rail. Ground was bought in 1909 for a hall and school. The church was dedicated in 1911, and two new side-altars, a pulpit and a pipe-organ placed in it by benefactors. The parish numbers about 500 souls, chiefly of French-Canadian descent.

Father Vandenhende was born in Belgium in 1871, and was ordained on June 9, 1899, at the Cathedral of Ogdensburg, by Bishop Gabriels. He served as assistant at Notre Dame Church, Malone (until September 28, 1902), and pastor of St. Michael's, Standish (until May 1, 1907), before taking charge at Chazy. In October 1907, he formed the Holy Name Society for men and boys and the St. Ann Sodality for women and girls.

ST. PHILOMENA OR IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY - CHURUBUSCO

Immaculate Heart of Mary - formerly St. Philomena's - and before that St. Briget's

Ellenburgh and Churubusco were organized as a parish with Rev. Ambrose Nolin as first pastor. In Churubusco, Mass was said at that time in a dilapidated old building, built by the parishioners, which had been previously attended by Rev. Edmund De Pauw from Chateaugay. Father Nolin enlarged this building, and erected a large frame church building at Ellenburgh on a foundation which was started under Father De Pauw. Father J. H. O'Rourke was appointed in 1877; Rev. John Conlon in 1879; and Rev. Jeremiah P. Murphy, the present pastor, in 1880.

Father Murphy (1843-1925) was born at Bellows Falls, VT, and was educated at St. Mary's College, Montreal. He studied for the priesthood at St. Joseph's Seminary, Troy, and at Montreal, where he was ordained on March 19, 1880. He was assistant for a short time at Hogansburg, and at Fort Covington, and was appointed to St. Philomena's Church on May 10. He razed the rectory which was built by Father O'Rourke, and replaced it by a substantial structure. He then built a beautiful stone church, which was entirely paid for and consecrated in 1905; he also provided a fine new cemetery. He repaired and renovated the old church at Ellenburgh which in 1893, was made an independent parish. The parish now includes the station at Clinton Mills.

There are about 1,250 Catholics in the parish. The church and cemetery are valued at $52,000 and are entirely free from debt. The rectory, upon which there is a debt of $7,000, is worth $10,000. The societies are: Holy Rosary, League of the Sacred Heart, and Holy Name.

St. Catherine of Siena

ST. CATHERINE OF SIENNA - CLINTONVILLE

This parish, formerly a mission of Keeseville, from which it was separated in 1903, comprises some 60 families, and includes a mission station at Arnolds, Essex County. The succession of pastors is: Revs. Alexander L. A. Klauder (1903-04); H. Duval (1904-06); Claudius Gobet, who built a fine house and hall; John J. Kelly (1911), who was transferred to Cadyville in 1913; and James J. Torsney. Father Torsney was born at Mineville, NY, in 1881. He studied at Louvain and Dunwoodie and was ordained in New York on December 18, 1909.

ST. JOSEPH - COOPERSVILLE

The first Catholic settlers in Clinton County were John LaFramboise and his brother Frenchmen, who, about 1760, came through Canada to settle on Lake Champlain. After the War of the Revolution a number of exiles, Acadians, and young men belonging to Canadian villages south of Montreal who had sympathized with the American invaders of Canada, were given land by the State of New York around Chazy and Corbeau (Coopersville). They were heartily welcomed by the LaFramboises. The settlers numbered 250 families and were all Catholics, prominent among them being Captain Antoine Paulent, Amable Paulent, Prisque Asselin, Lieutenants Francois Monty, André Pepin, and Amable Boileau.

According to tradition, these families met in each other's homes on Sundays to recite the Rosary and the prayers of Mass and to sing hymns. They were unattended by a priest except when a missionary or military chaplain occasionally visited them. For the Sacraments, they sailed down the lake and Richelieu River to Chambly. In 1818, however, Rev. Peter Mignault of Chambly took charge of all the Canadians of northern New York, and Corbeau, having the greatest number of inhabitants, became the seat of the parish. Mass was at first said in private houses and then in a log chapel. This chapel was built on the Chazy River about 1820, on the site of old St. Joseph's Cemetery which was laid out in 1815. This little chapel, the rallying-point of Catholicism in the north, and the first church in the diocese under the American dispensation, was burned after a few years, but was soon replaced by another.

Father Mignault was made vicar-general by the Bishop of New York, an office also held by him under the Albany bishops until his death, and served the parish until 1828. His successors are: Revs. Victor Dugas (until 1844), Louis Lapić (1845), Louis Lebarbanchon (from 1856-57, there having been a vacancy for two years), Jacob Sasseville (1859), Francis Van Campanhout (1861), Antoine Boyer (1865), Jean-Baptiste Legrand (1866), Louis Lapić (again until 1873), F. N. Roy (1877), J. N. Beaudry (1880), A. A. Thomas (1895), A. Constantineau (1898), B. Granottier (1899), and N. W. Bergeron (1902).

In 1902, Corbeau was attached as a mission to Chazy, where a new church had been built. A stone church was built at Coopersville by Father Lapić in 1845, to accommodate the increased congregation, which was due partly to the rebellion in Canada in 1837, which drove hundreds of Canadians into America, and partly to the Irish emigration to Quebec.

The Irish emigrants crossed the line from Montreal and settled on the east and west shores of Lake Champlain. This church is still used; it is of Gothic architecture, with a seating capacity of about 600. The cost, $3,000, was a great sum in those days, but far inferior to the present value of the church; and much expense was spared by voluntary help. Over 600 families belonged to Corbeau in this period. The increasing population, however, soon made many changes. Champlain village became an independent parish in 1861, Mooers Forks in 1865, Rouse's Point in 1869 and a dozen other parishes were detached from it, so that in 1902, Corbeau was reduced to a district 5 or 6 miles square and a population of from 75 to 80 families.

In 1902, the brick rectory was burned, and a few years later, the church steeple was blown down. Another steeple replaced the old one, and the church looks as solid as in the early 50s. The change of the parish seat to Chazy resulted in dissatisfaction and a weakening of faith on the part of many members. In 1909, for the first time in the history of the parish, one of its children, Walter J. LaRocque, was ordained to the priesthood, and this event did much to stimulate the faith of many parishioners. Another member of the parish, Catherine Murnane, entered the Order of the Sisters of Mercy, and made her solemn vows in 1913. She is stationed at Gabriels Sanatorium, NY. In November 1912, Bishop Gabriels appointed Father LaRocque, in addition to his parish work at Standish, to reorganize the old Coopersville parish. In less than six months $3,000 was subscribed and a splendid rectory was built. On June 27, 1913, Bishop Gabriels visited Coopersville to confer confirmation and bless the rectory, which is free from debt. The parish being completely reorganized, thanks to the untiring devotion and efforts of Father LaRocque, Rev. George Garand was appointed resident pastor in July 1913.

Father Garand was born at Champlain in 1880, educated at Ottawa University and at the Grand Seminary, Montreal, ordained in September 1909, and appointed assistant to his brother, Rev. P. S. Garand, pastor of Clayton.

The congregation numbers from 75 to 100 families, mostly French-Canadians, and the records from November 1912, until August 1913, show 21 baptisms, 55 confirmations, 2 deaths and 1 marriage.

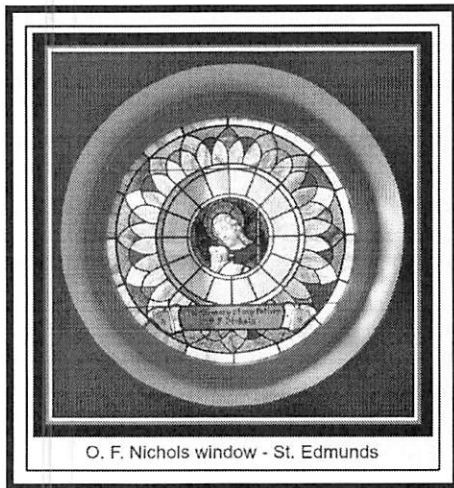

St. Joseph's Mission Church

ST. EDMUND - ELLENBURG

In the early settlement days, the region comprising Ellenburg parish was known as Forest; the hamlet to the east of the village still retains that name. A number of Irish and French-Canadian families followed the building of the Ogdensburg and Lake Champlain Railway, and settled on farms and cleared up the land. Among them were O. Sandiford, M. Gorden, A. Suprenaw, P. Turcat, Augustus and Robert Dumont, P. Labombarde, Shertland, Gregory, Francois Xavier Nichols, H. Trudel, Tremblay, P. C. L. Robidoux, O'Gurno, A. C. N. Duval, James H. and E. Duffy, P. Clark, Downs and R. Sherlock.

A priest from Chateaugay visited these families and said Mass in their houses. About 1870 Rev. E. M. DePauw of Chateaugay laid the foundation for a church 100 by 50 feet, and a frame building was erected, enclosed and roofed. In 1872, Rev. A. Nolin was appointed to Churubusco and Ellenburg; then followed Revs. Delphos, Hubert and Scanlon, who attended the mission off and on from Mooers Forks. Rev. J. H. O'Rourke came in 1877, and Rev. J. Conlon in 1879. In May 1880, Rev. J. P. Murphy was appointed to Churubusco and Ellenburg. He at once started to rebuild the church at Ellenburg and say Mass regularly there every other Sunday.

O. F. Nichols window - St. Edmunds

But order had to be made out of chaos. A large debt existed on the structure and one of the creditors threatened to buy it for a hop house. However, with the money made on speaking excursions and a bazaar, the debt was paid off. In the meantime, the pastor called on the congregation to donate work with teams and men. Augustus Dumont gave ample timber from his woods and the dilapidated building was braced. Stone foundations for chimneys were built, and the church was reconstructed to withstand the hurricanes so prevalent in these hills. Later a belfry was built, and the church shingled anew and furnished with pews, a new bell, Stations, organ, sanctuary rail and a marble altar with a stone foundation. Thus, the church, which possessed neither chalice, altar, linen nor vestments, was completed, fully furnished and paid for, ready for consecration, when the mission was made a parish in 1893 with Rev. Charles Goulet as resident pastor. A barn was also built, and a cemetery drained and fenced. The people, whose efforts were mainly directed to building their homes, responded nobly to Father Murphy's appeals. In all $6,000 was raised to complete and furnish the church, which is now a beautiful and substantial structure, and of this amount $5,333 was raised by picnics, excursions, bazaars, plays, concerts, etc. When the mission was separated from Churubusco, the congregation was in a splendid condition. The children were instructed in their religion and a fine library was established. Father Murphy was aided in this work by Revs. J. H. Conroy (afterwards Bishop), E. G. Brice, Hallihan, McKewan, Caraher, Cody, M. W. Holland and P. McCabe.

Father Goulet was born in Canada in 1847. As soon as he became resident pastor of Ellenburg, he built a substantial and commodious rectory. Later, he added the bells to the church, which he also improved in many ways. He attended the station at Ellenburg Center, and was assisted by Rev. Adonat Dufresne. He died on December 1, 1913, and was succeeded by Rev. Onésime Boyer, S. T. L. of Benson Mines. Father Boyer was born in Canada in 1874, and studied at St. Thérèse, where he was ordained in 1903. He then went to Catholic University. He is the diocesan non-Catholic missionary.

The parishioners, mostly farmers of French-Canadian origin, number 315 families or about 2,000 souls, and although scattered over a territory of 7, 8 and 10 miles, they come to church on Sundays in spite of very poor roads, and manifest in many ways that the seed sown years ago by the pioneers of the Church in Northern New York is cultivated with zeal, devotion and self-sacrifice. The records for 1913, show 68 baptisms and 13 marriages.

ST. ALEXANDER'S - MORRISONVILLE

The mission of Morrisonville was established in 1872, and attended by the priests from Plattsburgh, and later from Peru, until 1897, when it was erected into an independent parish with Rev. Albert Deslauriers as pastor. The parish embraced a territory of 4 miles and included the mission of St. Alexis at Rand Hill. This, however, was afterwards detached. Father Deslauriers erected a church, a wooden structure, in Gothic and Roman style, with a seating capacity of 500, at the cost of $8,000. In the same year (1897) built a rectory for $1,500. The pastors who had charge of Morrisonville from its erection as a mission until 1914, are: Revs. Amyot, O. M. I. (1872-1880); Mathirid, O. M. I. (1880-88); Burke (1887-97), a secular who attended from Peru; Deslauriers (1897-1898); Benedict Granottier (1898-1910); and Heliodore Valois (1910).

Many of Clinton County's early priests trained at St. Sulpice Seminary in Montreal

Father Valois was born in Vaudreuil, Quebec, in 1880; educated at the Sulpician College and Grand Seminary in Montreal; and ordained on October 28, 1904. He served as assistant at Malone for a year and a half and then Champlain, as a pastor at Chasm Falls (August 15, 1907), until his appointment to Morrisonville on November 24, 1910.

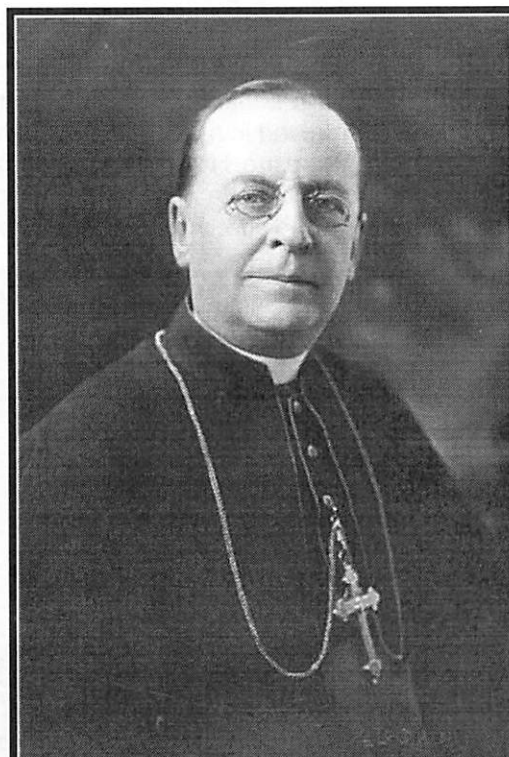

The congregation numbers 1,348 souls and shows an increase of almost double in four years. The parochial property is valued at $15,000, and is free from debt. The parish records for 1913 show 60 baptisms and 12 marriages, and in 1914, there were 97 members in the Altar Society and 56 in the Union of Prayer.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION - KEESEVILLE

The first Mass was said here in 1825 by the indefatigable Father Callaghan, in the house of Hugh McCarthy. Before this, Fathers Mignault and Dorgan visited the place when the only Catholic family was that of John Keenan. Later the mission was attended by Fathers McGilligan, Rogers, Raftery, Rafferty, Burns, Drummond and Rooney, from Plattsburgh, Mass being generally said in the residence of Mr. Sheridan, and later in a school house near the present church. In 1835 Father Rogers built a church, the people contributing both money and labor to its erection. It was dedicated by Bishop DuBois, and Catholics for miles around attended the ceremony, many of them witnessing Mass for the first time. The venerable bishop did much to unite and strengthen the congregation in his brief stay. In 1848 Keeseville became a separate parish with Ausable and Peru as missions, and with Father MacDonnell as first resident priest. He remained until 1851, and is remembered for his oratory and genial disposition. He died in the West Indies, where he had gone in search of health. His successors were: Fathers B. F. McLoghlin; James Keveny (1852-61), who built the old and new churches at Ausable; Philip Keveny (1861-63); William Carroll (1863-66); John MacDonald (1866-69); Tobias Glenn (1869-80); Conlan (1880-81); Peter Devlin (1881-89); Thomas Fitzgerald (1889-99); Michael Ambrose (1899-1907); Jeremiah Manning (1907-09); and Daniel O'Reilly.

Father O'Reilly was born in Ireland, made his collegiate course at St. Brendan's, Killarney, graduating in 1895. He then entered the Grand Seminary at Montreal, and was ordained by Archbishop Bruchési in 1900. He was assistant to Rev. P. J. Devlin at Chateaugay in 1901, and during 1901-09 was pastor at Crown Point.

The Catholic population numbers 310. The church property is valued at about $15,000, with no debt. Attended from the parish are the mission of the Sacred Heart, Port Kent, and the Convent, Keeseville. The McAuley Academy is conducted by 7 Sisters of Mercy, and attended by 95 pupils. The societies established are: the Rosary Society and League of the Sacred Heart, with a combined membership of about 150.

Louis Joseph Napoléon Paul Bruchési was ordained in 1878 and appointed archbishop in 1897.

He was a priest for over 60 years.

ST. JEAN-BAPTISTE, KEESEVILLE

This parish was established in October 1853, for the French-Canadian Catholics of Keeseville, who, until then, attended the Irish Church of the Immaculate Conception. When Bishop McCloskey gave the Oblate Fathers charge of the French Catholics in the southern part of Clinton County, the new Canadian congregation here was formed, and a church was bought from the Presbyterians for their use. Before this time, in 1828, they were visited by a French missionary, Father Petit, and they were also attended by Father Mignault up to the time when the church was built at Keeseville.

Father Negron, the first pastor, bought the church and began to organize the congregation. He was succeeded in 1856 by Father Ruiz, who founded a boarding-school for Catholic boys, which, however, was a short-lived enterprise. His successors were: Fathers Lebarbanchon (1858); La Marque (1865); J. B. Legrand (1865); Fabian Barnabé (1869), a Canadian, whose pastorate was most fruitful both materially and spiritually. He bought the rectory; improved the church property, which he also freed from debt; formed numerous societies; and won the reverent affection of his people by his piety, charity, devotion to duty, and the stern and honorable uprightness of his character. He died in 1883, and at his funeral the Bishop and a distinguished concourse of priests and citizens were present.

His successor, Father Guilbault, also a Canadian, was born in 1862 at L'Assomption, Quebec; studied at the college in his native town; and was ordained there in 1881. He was curate at Ogdensburg and Fort Covington before his appointment to Keeseville. He built a church in Peru, then a mission of Keeseville. Succeeding him were: Revs. John Beaudry (1896) and Michael Charbonneau (1897). Father Charbonneau was born at St. Benoit, Lower Canada, in 1848; educated at the colleges of St. Therese and St. Mary, Montreal, and the Seminary of St. Therese; and ordained by Bishop Fabre in 1877. He was sent to the Manitoba Mission, where he was nearly killed by anti-Catholic ruffians. He returned with shattered health to Montreal, and was later appointed first as assistant at Redford and Keeseville, and then as pastor at Black Brook, where his nominal parish included towns over twenty miles away, but in reality, had no limits save the endurance of the priest. At his death in 1909 his brother, Rev. Francis Charbonneau, became pastor, and was succeeded by Rev. Télesphore Campeau of West Chazy. Father Campeau is a native of Canada, was born at Vaudreuil in 1869, and studied with the Oblate Fathers at Ottawa, where he was ordained in 1894. He came to Ogdensburg in 1901.

The parish has a population of 1,200, and includes the mission at St. Ann's, Port Kent; St. Stanislaus' Academy, the parochial school has 262 pupils, in charge of the Sisters of the Holy Cross. The chapel at Holy Cross Convent is attended by the pastor.

ST. BERNARD - LYON MOUNTAIN

This parish was established in 1881, when it was known as Rogersfield, and was cut off from the parish of Redford. Monsignor Lorrain said Mass here when the houses did not number a dozen, and Father Decarie built the church when the opening of the mines brought in several hundred families of French-Canadians. The succession of pastors is: Revs. J. H. Lecomte, first resident pastor; Francis X. Lachance; L. B. Demers; Michael Charbonneau (1884-92); Francis Cinq-Mars (1892-1902); Leo Cochard (1902-03); George Montreuil (1903-08); and Rev. Joseph Hervieux. Father Hervieux was born in Canada in 1864. He studied at Rochester, where he was ordained by Bishop McQuade in 1900. He served at North Lawrence and at Derrick till 1908. The Catholic population of the parish numbers about 700.

ST. ANN, MOOERS FORKS

Rev. Francis Van Campenhout, about 1861, superintended Mooers Forks, along with the whole territory as far west as Ellenburgh, from his residence at Cooperville. There were many French Catholics at Mooers Forks, and in 1861 he said Mass in the house of Michel Morin, organized the Catholics and set them to work at building a church. The building was completed within the year and dedicated to St. Ann. The priests who had charge of the mission as curates and pastors were: Fathers Boyer, Jeannotte, Crevier, Legrand, Lapiç, Clement, Laporte, Langlois, Nolin, Delphos, Hubert, Scanlon, Brennan, Roy, Beaudry, Demers, Lachance, F. X. Charbonneau, Leon Cochard and Henry Cormerais (1907). Father Demers died at Mooers Forks on March 1, 1888. Father Cochard (born in France in 1853) returned from Tupper Lake, and again took charge of St. Ann's, where he was assisted by Rev. James Reusing. He retired to France in 1913 on account of ill health, leaving Father Reusing administrator.

The parish at one time embraced the villages of Mooers Junction, Altona and Irona; Altona, however, was made its own parish. Father Charbonneau added a steeple and beautiful altar to the church, and made other improvements; and Father Cormerais in 1911 erected the first church at Mooers Junction, and made an addition to the cemetery. The Catholic population of the parish is 1,250.

ST. ALEXANDER - MORRISONVILLE

The mission of Morrisonville was established in 1872, and attended by the priests from Plattsburgh, and later from Peru, until 1897, when it was erected into an independent parish with Rev. Albert Desaulniers as pastor. The parish embraced a territory of four miles and included the mission of St. Alexis (St. Alexander's) at Rand Hill. This, however, was afterwards detached. Father Desaulniers erected a church, a wooden structure, in Gothic and Roman style, with a seating capacity of 500, at a cost of $8,000, and in the same year (1897) built a rectory for $1,500. The pastors who had charge of Morrisonville from its erection as a mission until 1914 are: Revs. Amyot, O.M.I. (1872-80); Mathirid, O.M.I. (1880-88); Burke (1888-97), a secular who attended from Peru; Desaulniers (1897-98); Benedict Granottier (1898-1910); and Heliodore Valois (1910).

Father Valois was born at Vaudreuil, Canada, in 1880; educated at the Sulpician College and Grand Seminary, Montreal; and ordained on October 28, 1904. He served as assistant at Malone (one year and a half) and Champlain, and as pastor at Chasm Falls (August 15, 1907), until his appointment to Morrisonville on November 24, 1910.

The congregation numbers 1,348 souls and shows an increase of almost double in four years. The parochial property is valued at $15,000, and is free from debt. The parish records for 1913 show 60 baptisms and 12 marriages, and in 1914, there were 97 members in the Altar Society and 56 in the Union of Prayer.

St. Augustine's

ST. AUGUSTINE, PERU

Peru formed from part of St. Jean-Baptiste's parish of Keeseville, and St. Augustine's church, Peru, was begun in 1883, by Rev. Damase Guilbault of Keeseville. In July 1886, Bishop Wadhams erected Peru into the parish of St. Fabian. The name was afterwards changed to that of St. Augustine. The congregation was originally composed of French-Canadians, but today the Irish families living within the limits of the parish are members of the congregation. The first pastor, Rev. G. Burque, completed the church, and purchased property adjoining it from Mrs. Elmore for $1,200. On this site he built a rectory. He also attended Morrisonville and Rand Hill as out-missions. The site of the church and the cemetery were donated by Mrs. H. U. G. Elmore. Father Burque died on July 27, 1897, and was buried in the cemetery behind the church. His successors were: Revs. Alphonse Perron (1897-1904); John Simard (1904-10); and B. Granottier (Nov. 23, 1910).

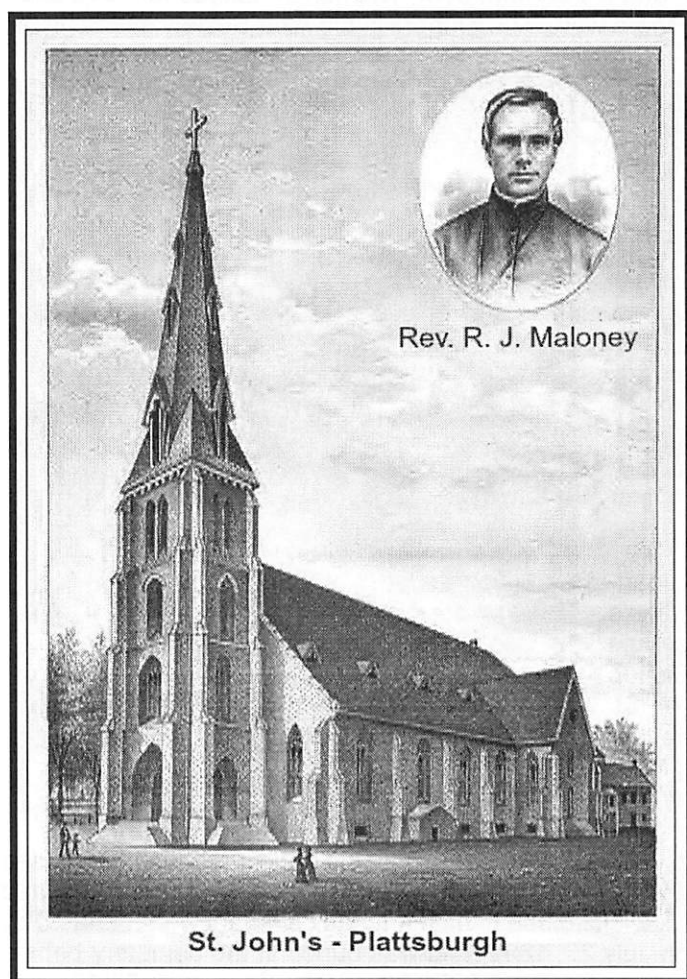

Father Granottier enlarged the church in 1911, to which he also added a vestry and Sunday-school room. In April 1913, electric light was installed in the church and rectory, and other improvements were made. Father Granottier also attends the station at Schuyler Falls. He was born at Valfleury, Loire, France, in 1852. Since 1895 he labored at Crown Point, Coopersville and Morrisonville.

The congregation is composed of 140 families, one-half French and one-half Irish. The records for 1913 show 25 baptisms and 6 marriages. There are 600 Catholics in the parish and the property is worth about $17,000. The societies are: the Holy Rosary, the Union of Prayer, the Stations of the Cross and the League of the Sacred Heart.

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST, PLATTSBURGH

This is one of the oldest parishes in the diocese, and was inhabited by Catholics long before it was settled from Poughkeepsie. When the land was in the possession of Count de Fredenburgh, in the colonial period, John LaFramboise, a Frenchman, was his nearest neighbor; and when lands were granted to Acadian soldiers who fought in the Revolution, Father Mignault of Chambly came to Coopersville to attend them. In 1825, he found French families and an Irish soldier at Plattsburgh, and was entertained at the house of Zephaniah Piatt, founder of the town. It is not known if Father Mignault said Mass at Plattsburgh. Afterwards the Catholics of this place were attended by Father Dorgan, of whom nothing further is known, and by Father O'Callaghan of Burlington, who seems to have discovered and attended every Catholic family on either side of Lake Champlain.

The parish was formally organized by Rev. Patrick McGilligan in 1827. Tradition has it that the first Mass said was in the residence of Hugh McGuire, a shoemaker in Broad Street. Under the direction of Father McGilligan the congregation hired and furnished a building known as the Red Store. The pastor died in November 1828, and for several years the parish was attended by many different priests. Father Mannigan remained for three months. In 1832 a newly-ordained priest, Father Rogers, was sent to take permanent charge of the place, and in the same year several

Irish families came from Boston and formed what was known as the Irish Settlement. In the spring of 1834 Father Rogers was able to buy from Judge John Palmer a lot for the site of a church, the conveyance being made to Hugh McMurray and Edward Kelley, who in turn conveyed it to the trustees of the church two years later. Father Rogers also visited the French and Irish Catholics at Keeseville, Au Sable and Black Brook. Among the priests who followed him were: Fathers Raftery, Rafferty, and Burns, who died in April 1836, and was buried beside Father McGilligan. Rev. George Drummond then came from Syracuse to take charge of the parish, and in May, the church was incorporated, and Patrick Foy, William Eagan, Richard Cullen, Michael Kearney, James Trowlan, John Hogan, Barney McWilliams and Christopher Sherlock were elected trustees. A church was then begun, and Father Drummond went to Canada to raise money for it; he died at Quebec in the fall of 1839 and was buried there.

His successor, Father Rooney, remained for fifteen years and is well remembered by the people. He is described as "a medium-sized, rosy, well-knit and choleric Irishman," and was pastor of all the territory north of the mountains, west of the lake and east of Chateaugay. He pushed the church to completion with a vigor that did not always take into account the purses of the parishioners. It was of stone, square, and seating four or five hundred persons, and was dedicated on September 25, 1842, by Archbishop John Hughes, who confirmed many hundred children and preached a memorable sermon to a huge congregation of both Catholics and Protestants. It was the Archbishop's first and only visit to the northern limits of his vast archdiocese, and a few years after his return to New York, the Diocese of Albany was formed.

Father Rooney spent twelve years in paying off the debt on the church and in consolidating his parishes. Keeseville was made an independent parish in 1848, and in 1853 the French Catholics formed a separate organization in charge of the Oblate Fathers. A parish residence was bought, and the cemetery and the church improved. Bishop McCloskey visited Plattsburgh in 1850, and in 1854 he removed Father Rooney to Albany, the good priest being then well advanced in years. Father Rooney left his entire property to the Church with a special bequest for Plattsburgh. Father Kinney, who followed Father Rooney as pastor, remained two years, and was succeeded by Father Cahill. In May 1860, Rev. Richard J. Maloney, an Oblate missionary, took charge.

At this time, it became apparent that the new Diocese of Ogdensburg was a thing of the near future, and it was thought that Plattsburgh would be its seat. Father Maloney determined that the new church to be erected should be worthy of the name of cathedral. In 1867 the lots were bought, and on July 1, 1868, the cornerstone was laid by Bishop Conroy. On May 27, 1869, the church was reincorporated under the new acts of 1863 with the title of St. John the Baptist; the lay trustees being Bernard McKeever and Patrick Delaney. In the fall of 1871 the roof of the church was finished, and in the winter of 1874 the building was used for a service. In August 1875, Bishop Wadhams dedicated it, assisted by Bishop de Goesbriand of Burlington. It is stone, cruciform in shape, 201 feet long, and in the transept 84 feet wide and 90 feet high. The parishioners dug the stone from the quarries and hauled the timbers, and gave their labor as well as their money.

Father Maloney left Plattsburgh in 1879, and was followed by Father Normandeau and Father Shields. Very Rev. Thomas Walsh was appointed in 1881. Father Walsh was born in Ireland in 1842, and made his classical course there; he studied theology at Troy Seminary, and was ordained in 1868. He served as curate for a year at St. Mary's, Oswego, and St. John's, Albany, and was then appointed in 1869 pastor of Hogansburg. During Bishop Wadhams' absence in Rome he acted as administrator of the diocese. In 1878, he was sent to Watertown and, in 1879, he was appointed vicar-general with temporary residence in Ogdensburg. He was then placed in charge of Plattsburgh. Within a few years he reduced the debt of the church by $11,000, bought and fitted up a parochial residence, and did much to improve church property. In 1901, he was succeeded by Rev. William Kelley, who was pastor until 1908, when Rev. James H. Driscoll, D.D., D.C.L., took charge. Father Driscoll is assisted by Rev. Matthew Sweeny, and has congregation numbering 1,900 souls. Dr. Driscoll was born at Lawrence, NY, in 1865. He studied at Montreal and Rome. He served at Evans Mills, North Lawrence and Rouses Point.

He is an episcopal consultor and a defensor matrimonii a defender of the bond. Such a defensor is a church official whose duty is to defend the marriage bond in the procedure prescribed for the hearing of matrimonial causes which involve the validity or nullity of a marriage already contracted.

ST. PIERRE (ST. PETER), PLATTSBURGH

In 1853, when the French-Canadian Catholics of Plattsburgh grew so numerous as to make a church of their own a necessity, Bishop McCloskey founded this parish for them, and entrusted it to the Oblate Fathers. In October 1853, the parishioners brought their first bell in Troy, and on October 25, the bell was formally blessed and given the name, Marie-Pierre.

In addition, the parish comprised the missions of Redford, Black Brook, Dannemora, Cadyville, Rogersfield, Morrisonville and Rand Hill. Fathers John Bernard and Claude Sallaz were sent in August to organize the parish, and Mass was said in a hall for a time. On September 5, Father Bernard broke ground for the church; the first Mass was said in February 1855, in the sacristy, and the church was dedicated by Bishop Guigues of Ottawa, on June 29. Notable among those present was Father Mignault of Chambly, who for a quarter of a century traveled as a missionary priest through this territory. The first trustees of St. Pierre's were: D. Laforce, F. Davis, Joseph Fontaine, Louis Chauvin and Z. Jourdonnais. The Oblate priests in charge of the parish were: Fathers Garin, Chauvin, Thonier, Mourier, Bournigalle, Lauzon, Trudeau, Gaudet, Lebre, Peltier, Medieville, Amyot, Fournier, Lavoie, Napoleon J. Pelletier, and J. A. Sirois, the present pastor, who is assisted by Revs. Athanese Marion, Victor Viaud and H. Racette, all Oblates.

The Gray Nuns of Ottawa established a school, which now has 525 pupils in charge of 18 sisters. St. Peter's College and school, on Catherine Street, north of the church, has 250 pupils in charge of 8 Brothers of Christian Instruction. The parish includes the stations of The Creek and Clinton County Home, and has a Catholic population of 4,230. The Sisters' chapel and the chapel of Assumption Institute are attended by the parochial clergy.

NOTRE DAME DES VICTOIRES (OUR LADY OF VICTORY), PLATTSBURGH

This parish was founded by a decree of Bishop Henry Gabriels on October 1, 1907, for the French-Canadian families living between the Saranac and Salmon Rivers, and also for the mixed families (one Catholic spouse) of the rural part of that region, at their option. Rev. Joseph Desjardins, the first pastor, who had as assistant Rev. A. Dufresne, was succeeded by Rev. Joseph A. Bachand. Father Bachand's jurisdiction extends over the missions of Treadwell Mills and Rand Hill. He and his assistant, Rev. Louis Lefort, also attend the Plattsburgh Barracks. Father Bachand was born in Canada in 1874, studied at St. Hyacinth and Montreal, and was ordained in 1903. Until 1911 he was assistant at Redford.

On November 13, 1907, Father Desjardins commenced the foundations for the church and school; on August 26, 1908, the church was dedicated by Bishop Gabriels. The church cost $18,000 and the parish house $6,500. A parochial school was founded in 1909, and entrusted to the Sisters of Charity of St. Louis. The roll in 1913 shows 148 children in charge of 5 Sisters. There are about 205 families in the parish and 50 more at Treadwell Mills (1,900 souls). The congregation has the Archeon Fraternity of the Holy Rosary and the Union of Prayer, and publishes a parish monthly.

ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, REDFORD

This parish had its origin as far back as 1821, when the first settlers found their way into the wilderness. In 1847, the iron mines were discovered by a Canadian, Pierre Tremblay, and the Canadian population began to increase. The French and Irish Catholics were attended from St. John's, Plattsburgh, until the Oblate Fathers took charge of them in 1853. From the foundation of the parish in September of that year to August 15, 1869, Redford was attended from St. Pierre in Plattsburgh. Rev. C. N. F. Sallaz, who is considered the father of the mission, attended it from 1853 until 1869. He found but 60 families in the parish, and built a small chapel which afterwards served as a sacristy. The stone church in Gothic style and with a seating capacity of 500, was built in 1853 and blessed on

Assumption of Mary Church, Convent and Rectory, Redford

August 15, 1855. The mission 'at that time comprised the parishes of Lyon Mountain, Standish, Dannemora and a part of Black Brook.

Rev. Narcisse Zéphirin Lorrain (later Bishop of Pembroke, ON) was appointed first resident pastor on August 14, 1869. He enlarged the church, bought two lots, and a brick house costing $5,000 for a rectory. He was succeeded in 1879 by Rev. R. M. Decarie (afterwards honorary Canon of Montreal).

During his stay at Redford, Father Decarie built the church at Lyon Mountain, made important repairs to that of Dannemora, and established the Society of the Union of Prayer. To his efforts is due the establishment of the parochial school. In 1882, he opened a school in the Richmond House, which was previously purchased by the congregation, and then he erected a building adjoining the church and entrusted the school to the Franciscan Nuns. This building, however, was replaced in 1883 by a handsome one combining convent and school which Rev. J. N. Beaudry (1882-96) erected at a cost of $5,000.

In 1885 the Franciscans were superseded by the Sisters of the Holy Cross from St. Laurent. Father Edward Charles Laramée, the present incumbent, succeeded on September 1, 1896. He was born on February 3, 1857, in Plattsburgh; educated at St. Mary's College, L'Assomption College, and Sulpician Seminary, Montreal; and ordained on January 22, 1882. He was assistant at Mooers Forks and pastor at St. James's Church, Gouverneur, NY, until transferred to Redford. His assistant is Rev. Domina J. Brault. The church was consecrated on October 13, 1898, by Bishop Gabriel's, the debt of $2,000 which Father Laramée found, having been wiped out. Father Laramée enlarged and remodeled the rectory, built a hall, enlarged the cemetery and made many other improvements to the church property. The population is composed of 1,433 French and 150 Irish. Of its members, one became a priest and three entered various sisterhoods. The property is valued at about $35,000 and the church is out of debt. The parish records for 1913 show: 52 baptisms; 6 marriages and 15 First Communions. The parochial school roll for 1914 shows: 140 pupils under the direction of 5 Sisters. The school was placed under the Regents of the State of New York in 1904. The societies connected with the church are: Ladies of St. Ann (60 members); Archconfraternity of the Most Holy Rosary (450); Conseil Bourget, No. 71 of L'Union St. Jean Baptiste D'Amerique (93).

ST. PATRICK, ROUSES POINT

This church was incorporated on May 31, 1857, and a small church and rectory were built by Father Lebanbarchon. Father Mignault laid the cornerstone in 1857, and in 1858 the church was dedicated by Bishop de Goesbriand of Burlington. The trustees were: John Myers, William Collopy, Robert Condon, John Sweeny and Ambroise David. The first resident pastor, Rev. James Scanlan (1869-70), paid the debt on the church and built a pastoral residence. He was followed by Revs. L. D. Laferhere (1871-73); D. M. Archambault (1873-75), who died here and is buried near the altar; Francis Poissant (1875-77); Father Scanlan again, until his death in 1879; P. J. Devlin, who did much for the finances of the parish; Joseph H. Conroy, who was appointed in 1883 to the cathedral parish; John Talbot Smith (1883-89); Michael R. Burns (1889-92); Michael Charbonneau (1892-97); James Driscoll, D.D. (1897-1908); and Adolphe Saurel (May 26, 1908).

Father Saurel was born at Fournels, Lozere, France, on February 3, 1859; was educated at the Catholic and Christian Brothers schools and the Petit Seminaire de Beaucaire, Gard, College of St. Stanislaus and the Grand Seminaire, Nimes, France; and was ordained on December 22, 1883. He served as curate at St-Étienne, Uzes, and St. Paul, Nimes, and came to America on June 1, 1890. He was curate at Renfrew, ON; St. Bridget's, Trout River, NY, (August 31, 1892-March 8, 1897); and St. Lawrence's, North Lawrence, NY, before coming to Rouses Point. He is diocesan director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. He translated many works into French, including "The Faith of Our Fathers," by Cardinal Gibbons, and "Notes on Ingersoll," by Father Lambert, which gained great popularity, in Paris and Montreal, 25,000 copies of the former being sold in Montreal.

The Catholic population of the parish numbers 910. The church, convent and rectory are free from debt, in good condition and worth about $16,000. The Sisters of Mercy have charge of St. Patrick's Academy, which is under the Regents. The roll for 1913 shows 230 pupils in charge of 8 Sisters. The parish societies are: Catholic Foresters, St. Michael's Court (80 members); Sodality of the Holy Rosary (40); and Children of Mary (27).

A complete history of the parish can be seen at:

ST. LOUIS, SCIOTA

Sciota was a mission of Coopersville until its erection into a parish on June 25, 1899. The early settlers had to walk ten or twelve miles to attend Mass, but, as their number increased, a priest came to the village once a month. In 1874, a church was built, all the men helping with the work, and was dedicated in 1875 by Father Bournigalle, O.M.I., of Plattsburgh.

Rev. Leon Cochard, the first resident pastor, built the rectory and decorated the church. He was succeeded by Rev. Louis F. Lussier in 1902, and on July 20, 1912, Rev. George E. Racette, D.D., took charge. Dr. Racette was born at West Warren, MA, in 1882, and studied at Montreal and the Propaganda, where he was ordained by Cardinal Respighi in Rome in 1910.

Sciota forms part of the township of Chazy. The original population of 80 families increased (1914) to 110. The members are mostly French-Canadians. The church property is valued at $6,000 and the financial condition of the parish is excellent.

ST. MICHAEL, STANDISH

Williamstown, or 81 Mine, as Standish was formerly called, was first settled by Catholics about 1873, when French-Canadians moved there. Mass was said there for the first time in 1879, by Father Decarie, pastor at Redford, of which Standish became a mission. When Lyon Mountain was created a parish, Standish was attached to it as a mission. In 1889, however, Rev. M. Charbonneau of Lyon Mountain organized it into a separate parish, and built a cruciform Gothic church, to seat 200, at a cost of $1,973. Rev. Victor Van Dehede, who was pastor from 1902 until 1907, built a rectory at a cost of $5,000. Rev. Louis Lefort (1907-09) was succeeded by Rev. Walter J. La Rocque, the present pastor. Father La Rocque was born at Coopersville, NY, on February 14, 1881; educated at Joliet College, Quebec, and at St. Sulpice Seminary, Montreal; ordained on December 18, 1909, and immediately appointed to Standish as pastor. The parish then labored under financial difficulties, but within two years the debt was paid off. In November 1912, Father La Rocque was appointed by the Bishop to reorganize the old Coopersville parish, while at the same time taking charge, with the aid of an assistant, of Standish.

The congregation is a floating one, the members being chiefly workers in the iron industry. In 1903 there were 125 families, and in 1914, only 50 families. The estimated value of the church is $3,000, and of the church property (including rectory, hall, cemetery) $10,000; the parish debt amounts to $400. Stations are attended at Loon Lake, Middle Kiln, Plumadore, Twin Ponds and Wolf Pond. The records for 1913 show 37 baptisms, 1 marriage and 5 deaths.

St. Joseph's - West Chazy

ST. JOSEPH, WEST CHAZY

This parish formed part of Mooers Forks, from which it was cut off in 1884 by Bishop Wadhams, and formed with Sciota into an independent parish. Sciota was later detached, however. The church was built (1884) by Rev. L. A. Brosseau. He began its erection in May, and Bishop Wadhams laid the cornerstone. The first Mass was said in the building early in July, and the church was completely finished in September and dedicated under the title of St. Joseph.

Father Brosseau was born at La Prairie, Quebec, in 1854. He made his classics at the Jesuit College and his theology with the Sulpicians in Montreal. Father Brosseau was ordained in 1879 by Bishop Édouard-Charles Fabre. He served at St. Martin's, St. Cunegonde's, St. Gabriel's, Montreal, at Mooers Forks and then at Chazy, where he was succeeded in 1885 by Rev. J. T. O'Brien. He was followed at West Chazy by Fathers John Varrily (1887), George Montreuil (1892-1900), Jean B. Arnolis (1900), Moses Legault (1900-08), Anthime Constantineau, Télesphore Campeau and Francis Xavier Charbonneau, the present pastor. Father Charbonneau was born in Quebec in 1856, studied at St. Therese and Montreal and was ordained in 1886. His former parishes were Mooers Forks, Tupper Lake, Brushton and Keeseville.

The parishioners, 935 in number, are nearly all Canadians, some of them being descendants of the Acadian soldiers of the Revolution to whom lands were granted by the State of New York in 1789.

U. S. AND OTHERS INVENTORY AS OF AUGUST 17, 2017

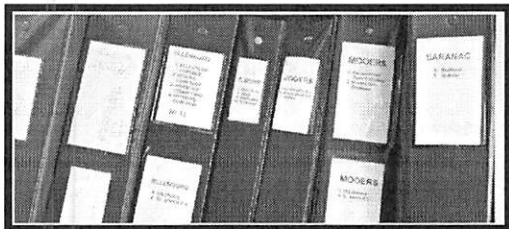

This year, Melissa McCort Facteau completed the second part of our inventory. She was active in the society many years ago, when Addie Shields, Bill Marquis and others used to go to Montreal to do research. Melissa became an active member again and is now also our Membership Coordinator and works the third Wednesday of every month at our library.

Thanks to Dick Lynch's leadership as librarian, our library has grown. We often receive donations of books which we add to the stacks, Dick orders books to fill in the holes and members suggest books that might be good for us to have.

When you look through this list, you'll find books you never knew we had, but that would be good in your research. One of our latest is on the 16th NY Cavalry in the Civil War. Several men from Clinton County were in the regiment. The author of the book, "Chasing Mosby, Killing Booth", James Carson gave a well-attended talk at the Saranac Town Hall on September 28th.

A photograph showing three volumes of genealogy records standing upright on a shelf. The spines are dark with gold lettering. From left to right, they appear to be labeled "CLINTON COUNTY GENEALOGY VOL. I", "VOL. II", and "VOL. III". To the right of the books, there is a vertical label that reads "The Clifford Family".

THE GENEALOGY OF JOSEPH BEAUHARNOIS AND PHILOMENE PREMORE

By Dick Lynch NNYACGS librarian

Almost all researchers encounter "Brick Walls" in their research. This family was mine. There were many reasons for the wall. No family history or lore. There was most likely those "dit" names and a lot of false speculation. Even some misleading church records. All in all, these two families and their parents, Jean Baptiste Beauharnois and Mary Larose and Charles Premore and Marine Bourdeau were a 30-year search. Except for Bourdeau and Aguenier, who were the first lines I found.

In hindsight, had I just sent for death certificates of their siblings, I would have found the answers a lot sooner in most cases.

So why did this take so long? The Beauharnois name in Quebec was not common and none of them matched this family. The lore was this was a descendent of Napoleon's mistress, Josephine de Beauharnais. Not even close, as those children did not come to Quebec. The Marquis de Beauharnois did not have any children so no connection there. There is a town, county, canal all named Beauharnois but few people.

The same problem for Mary Larose. Larose has around 20 "dit" names and finding the correct one was a 30-year search.

The Premore family I actually had from the beginning, but could not prove it. Charles' father's name was Hyacinthe, not a common name, and turned out to be a dit name for Francis. And there were not a lot of Premores in Quebec, so, it was just a matter of solving the first name.

I can say that I am the first person I know of that has found the Beauharnois family and documented it. There may be others who have solved this line, but it has not been made public to my knowledge. So, I am presenting it here for the first time.

I will however start with the other families first and how they were solved.

The Premore Family

As I mentioned, the problem here would not be Premore but the father's first name, Hyacinthe. An uncommon name that could be male or female. Not able to find an answer I was forced to table this for 30 years.

Then a friend, who also has the Premore name in her family, told me the brother of Charles, John, was killed in the Civil War and that there would be a file on him. I got the file, all 33 pages, and there was the answer to my puzzle.

The government requires a crazy amount of documentation and proof of relationship in order to collect a pension. It turned out that John, along with Charles, was supporting their parents, who were in poor health and in need financially. His father, being mostly blind, applied for his pension. However, he was known as Francis Premore not Hyacinthe. The same problem I had. So, he was required to furnish proof of marriage and of his name.

Thanks to the parish priest at Chateaugay, Quebec, the answer was simple. He wrote in testimony that Hyacinthe was, in that area, a "dit" name for Francis, and unusual for a first name. Hyacinthe and his father both carried this name and used them both.

The priest also provided the marriage document translated into English, which I already had. Thus, confirming this line with great documentation.

The next page has the testimony of a friend stating the name variations was verified by the Catholic Church in Chateaugay, Quebec.

The wife of Charles Premore, Marine or Mariah Bourdeau was the daughter of Julien and Flavia Aguenier both of St-Constant de La Prairie. They were pioneers of the Saranac Valley, arriving around 1835. The family would later move to Plattsburgh. Flavie Aguenier had other family arrive in the Saranac Valley including a brother, Constant Aguenier. These are old Quebec families both arriving in the 1600's. Leger Aguenier, arriving as early as 1651, was killed by the Iroquois in 1663. His wife, Marie Frit was a fille à marier. They had only one child, Paul.

There is little else written on this family so not a lot of information, so I present the line chart. Had they arrived earlier there might have been more written on them.

As I pointed out earlier, the Bourdeau family was the first family I did, and the easiest. I found them by accident while doing the St. Joseph's parish records book in Dannemora, my home parish. This area in 1840 was still wilderness so this family was a pioneer of the Saranac Valley. Probably involved in the mining or logging. Julien is listed as a miner in one census.

Finding them in Quebec was a wild guess as I knew many came from the La Prairie area, so I went there first and found them at St-Constant.

These two families are extremely well-documented, so I will simply use the generation charts. They are simple and quick to follow. The photo below is of Marine Bourdeau who died in 1914. The cemetery in background is St-Johns Mt. Carmel.

Another 6-generation chart from Louis Bourdeau and wife Catherine Moquin showing her side. All pioneer families with 4 filles a marier, 2 Carignan soldiers and 2 filles du roi.

Jean-Baptiste Beauharnois married Mary Larose. This family was hard for a couple of reasons. There were just too many dit names for Larose for one and no family lore to go give me a clue.

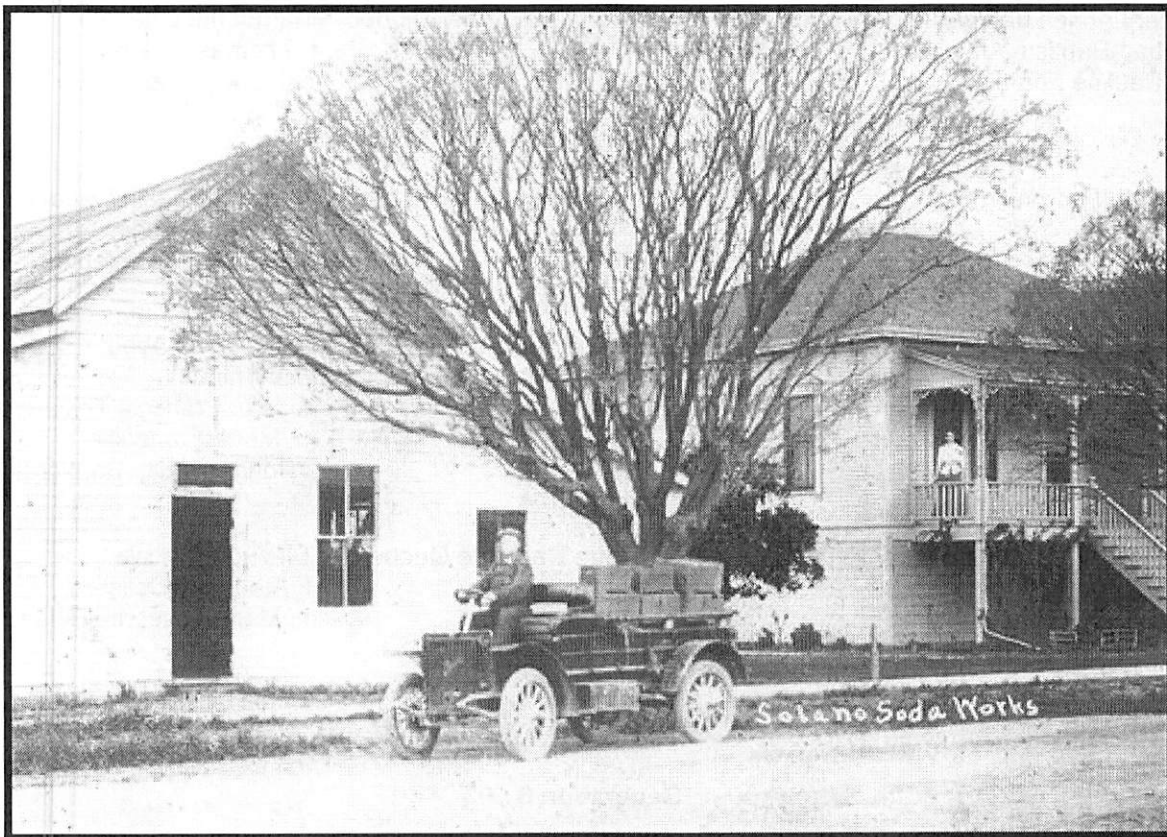

Many family trees have her as the Mary Larose from Plattsburgh and she is not. There is misleading information. Her obituary states she was a life-long resident of Dannemora when she lived there only 17 years. I ended up sending for her brother and sister's death certificates and they both had the missing information.

I had actually found them right away with the Beauharnois family in Troy, NY, where John and Mary were married, and Joseph was born. The census states two of her younger siblings were born in Wisconsin, but I was unable to find any information on them there. Why they moved to Wisconsin is unclear, and why did they go back east to Troy? Most often it was because that was where the work was. So still many unanswered questions but the main one solved.

It turned out the dit name was unusual for Larose in that the name was Fournier. This was a dit for Amien. The family chose their mother's maiden name as their dit name when arriving in Quebec. As was custom, Carignan soldiers chose a nick name or alias and Emery chose Fournier. Some of the family later took Larose while other family kept Fournier. Our branch took Larose. So, it is Amien dit Fournier dit Larose.

Once I had the parents of Mary Larose, the rest was easy. Her parents were Francis Xavier Fournier dit Larose and Eleanore Delisle. Our great ancestor on the Delisle side was also a Carignan soldier and married Louise Desgrange a fille du Roi. So, another family of pioneers - founding mothers and fathers.

It seems like every branch of these two families traces back to a pioneer of New France - many filles a marier, filles du roi and Carignan soldiers. These two families were fun to research as much is written about these early settlers.

The Larose name is not as old as New France with Emery arriving around 1757 where he married Marguerite Guinet. However, she is the great-granddaughter of two filles du roi. Marguerite's mother was an "enfant naturel" – a child born out of wedlock. Her mother, a fille du roi, was married but had an affair with Jean Maheu, who was also married to a fille du roi.

It is a fact that each of the Larose men we descend from married into a pioneer Quebec family. So, though they were late arriving, they married well.

The Delisle family is also a pioneer, with Louis arriving in the 1660's and marrying fille du roi Louise Desgrange. Again, here plenty of old families going back to founding fathers and mothers.

In researching the Larose name, I was able to find plenty of information on her sister, Agnes, who married at Troy, NY, and stayed there the rest of her life until her death when she went to Long Island to live with her daughter. She is buried in St-Jean Baptiste cemetery in Troy.

Her brother, George, went west at an early age. He turns up in California by age 18, and later married Alabama Coffman. They had twin daughters. I have more information on George than anyone I have researched. Her family was a pioneer of the west and she was the first white child born at Lake Tahoe. Page meadow bears her mother's family name. The playmate of the twins was none other than Gracie Allen the future wife of George Burns. George was a fireman and was badly burned fighting the Palace Hotel fire resulting from the 1906 California earth quake. He would go on to run a deli, and the Solano soda water company. The picture above is of George on his delivery truck. The woman on the porch is Alabama, his wife.

The Larose chart is only 9 generations to me as they were late arrivals. The Delisle family is much older and a pioneer line.

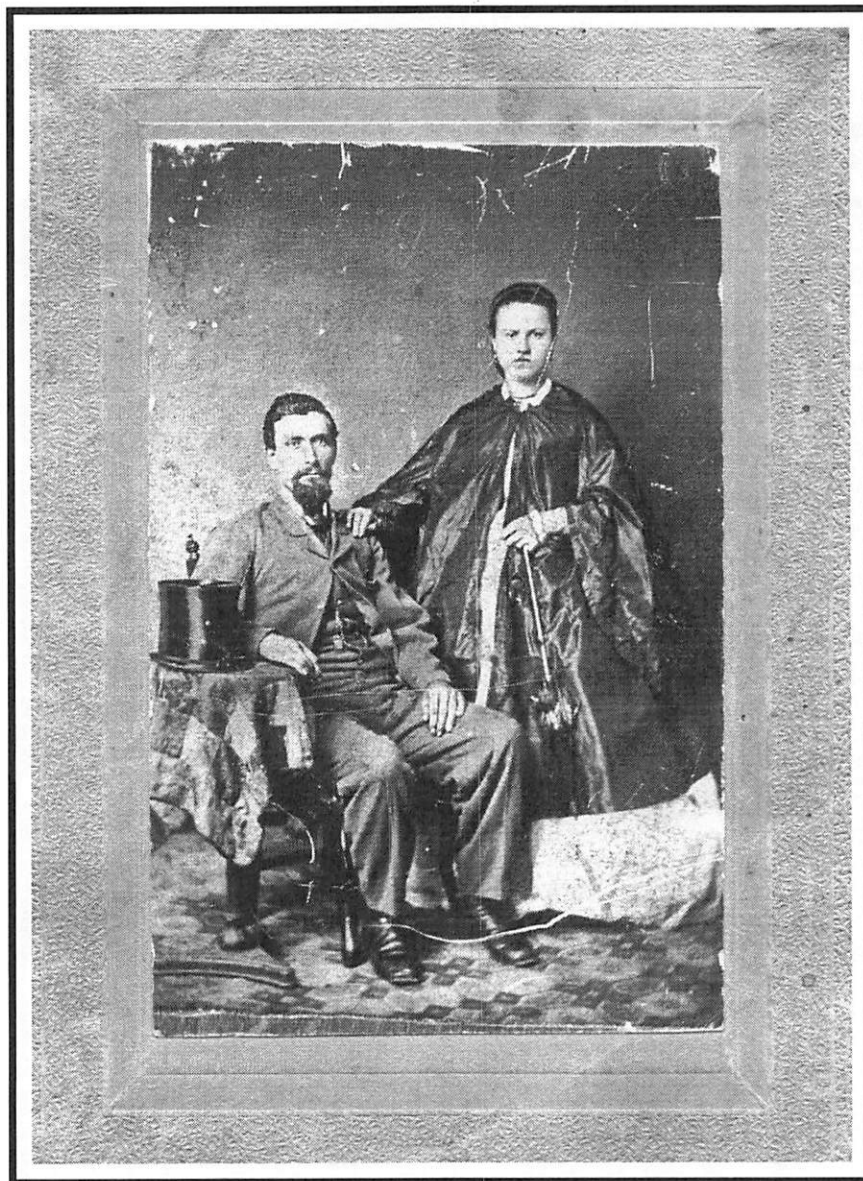

So now that all the connected families of Joseph Beauharnois and his father Jean are covered, here is how I was able to find the Beauharnoi dit Bornais family.

Bornais dit Beauharnois

As I mentioned at the beginning, this family along with Larose and Premore took 30 years to find. With Larose, it was all the dit names, with Premore it was a first name dit and Beauharnois didn't exist, at least not that I could find.

Like so many finds in genealogy, I found it while looking for someone else. I was looking for my Acadien ancestor on my mother's side and knew they had moved from Massachusetts to Quebec.

I found a database labeled "index of Acadien baptisms" at Notre Dame de Quebec. It turned out to have been attached to it an index of "Dit" names put together from the records of Notre Dame - and there was my Acadien but also our Beauharnois dit name.

Below the index of Baptisms that was actually an index of Dit names. At the top you can see the Bornais dit Beauharnois name. From here it was easy to locate and document this family. To my knowledge, this is the only database that lists this Dit name for Beauharnois. Below that is the Boudreau family I was looking for when I found this. We have this entire index at our library here in Dannemora.

One of the reasons Beauharnois was so hard to research was that all the early census records contained a corrupt spelling of the name. 1870 Troy has it spelled Bronns. The city directory has it spelled correctly and lists their street, so I went page by page in the census to find them.

By 1880 they were in Plattsburgh, but again, with a perverted spelling. This time it was Burness. I got excited when I saw this, as it was one of the rare dit names for Beauharnois, but it turned out to be a dead end. I found this one by using the 1881 St. Peter's Parish Census and looking up their neighbor first then checking the 1880 census around them - and it worked! Below are those two records.

The 1892 census had the name correctly, but the information was confusing. I also found an 1898 City of Plattsburgh Census, now missing. This one was good but not a lot of help. See below.

John had died by then and Mary had not yet re-married and moved to Dannemora.

The 1900 census did not turn up this family again because of a perverted spelling. However, when searching for Premore, there they were, living with Philemone's parents, and Beauharnois is spelled Vaharnois.

St. Peter's records also had some misleading information. They list a dit name in one record as Beauharnois dit Benoit. Again, I got excited, but this was an error as Benoit is not a dit name for Beauharnois. Don't know where that came from. With all this misleading and incorrect information, my search was stalled until that index from Notre Dame 30 years later.

There are of course still many questions. This family left Quebec suddenly following the death of the mother of Jean, Magdelaine Alain. It is unusual for everyone to disappear but that is what happened. Where they went is unclear until they turn up in Troy and Plattsburgh. Magdelaine died in 1843 so for 20 years they are missing. There were six children in this family and they do not show up in any more records in Quebec until the 1866 marriage of Jean and Mary Larose in Troy. So, there is still a story that needs to be found. It may be again that the father left with six young children and went where the work was. So, though I solved the puzzle, the story is far from over.

You can see my book with all the research and photos at our Library in Dannemora. They will

THE McGEES OF PERU, NY

By Ron Allen, great grandson of Israel McGee

Chestine Modeste Mousseau and Israel McGee

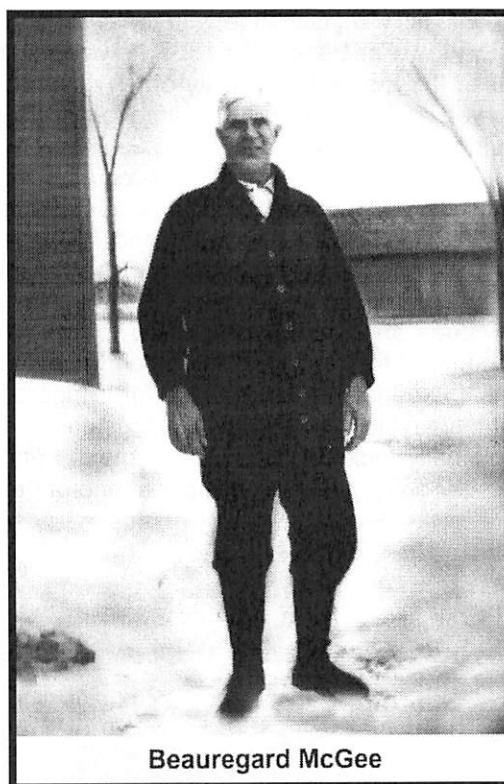

Several months ago, when the thoughts for this article were first being formulated, the title was going to be, "The Mystery of the Origin of the McGees of Peru, NY". That title seemed appropriate because the McGee family history search had been going on for years, decades in fact.

Several unsuccessful attempts had been made, both in the U.S. and Canada, to identify Israel's and his brother, Narza's, parents and any other possible siblings that may have existed. Genealogists, both amateur and professional, as well as interested family members, spent many hours searching, all in vain.

Some sources claim "Alexander McGee" was the father of Israel. However, research has shown this to be not true. An Alexander McGee did exist in the town of Essex, in Essex County, around the same period as Israel's birth, but he was, in fact, not the father of Israel. Names, birth dates and death dates of Alexander's family, while somewhat similar, are not the same as Israel's family. There is no denial that there may very well have been some type of familial relationship between Alexander and Israel, they were definitely not father and son. All McGee family researchers had hit that same proverbial "brick wall" that many genealogists run into from time to time. This particular "wall", however, appeared to be very solid with no apparent holes or cracks, and was Canadian in origin. The death certificates for both Israel and his wife, Chestine, state that they were born and married in Canada. However, no city or town in Canada is mentioned on those certificates.

Jane McGee
b. April 10, 1860 d. June 6, 1932
First born of Israel McGee and Chestine Mousseau

Beauregard McGee

The McGee search usually began with Israel (1824-1908). He was my maternal great grandfather. Probably the reason that the search usually began with him was the well-known fact that Israel's wife, Chestine Modeste Mousseau (04 Aug. 1826-11 Nov. 1891), was a Native American, very possibly Mohawk. Chestine Modeste Mousseau is certainly not an original Native American name. It was commonplace, however, for priests of that time period to give Christian names to Native Americans at the time of baptism or conversion to Catholicism. Many times, those Christian names were the same as those who stood for them at the baptism ceremony. Chestine's Native American background created a lot of interest, pride and curiosity among McGee researchers. Unfortunately, very little written family history exists for early Native Americans which only serves to heighten the curiosity factor. The main reason it was suspected that Chestine was Mohawk was the fairly close proximity of the Mohawk Reservation at Hogansburg, NY, now known as Akwesasne. It straddles the Canadian border and is close to the area in Canada where Israel spent his early years. It is also only about 30 miles from Peru.

Another reason for the search to begin with Israel is that he first appears in the 1850 US Census living in Essex,

NY with his wife, Chestine, and their first-born child, Jane, who was born in Essex County, NY, possibly in the town of Essex. By 1857 however, Israel and Chestine, had moved to Peru, NY, where they raised the rest of their family of ten children. They remained in Peru for the rest of their lives. Israel worked as a farmer and part-time logger. It was quite common for Peru farmers to engage in logging during the winter months to supplement their incomes. Winter was a slow time for farmers plus the logs could be transported more easily on the snow by large horse-pulled sleds. The logs were usually sold to either A. Mason & Sons or to the Lapham's Mills Sawmill.

In addition to farming and logging, many of the McGee males, particularly sons of, were accomplished and sought-after, meat cutters.

Beauregard's son, Raymond, opened the first meat market in Peru. He eventually added groceries and the market thrived for many years. Raymond's nephew, Paul, drove a regular route throughout the township selling and delivering fresh meat right to your door. He drove a panel truck which used large blocks of ice for refrigeration. Fresh meat delivered right to your door and custom cut to your liking was quite a successful novelty back in the 1930s, '40s and even into the 1950s. Paul eventually took over his uncle's market and ran it for several more years. Whenever it was time to butcher on any of the local farms, one of the McGees was usually on hand.

Owner of Peru's first Meat Market, Ray McGee, with his 14-year-old nephew, Paul. Paul learned the meat cutting business from Ray.

Israel's brother, Narza, moved to Peru at about the same time as Israel. Narza also married a Native American woman, Eliza Mousseau, believed to be the sister of Chestine. Both McGee brothers raised large families. Most of their children remained in Peru, married and had large families of their own. It was not long before the McGee surname became a very common one in Peru. Even today, McGee descendants with Peru addresses can be found though they are not as numerous as they once were a couple of generations ago. Geographic distributions have spread them far and wide throughout the US and even abroad. Many of the McGees, in particular Israel and Narza and their wives, are buried in the St. Augustine's Cemetery in Peru.

After numerous dead-end leads by several searchers over the years, it was becoming apparent that the Peru McGee origin would perhaps forever remain a mystery. However, during a phone conversation with a cousin, Barry Lazlo, from Manchester, CT, the difficulty we were having with the McGee family history was mentioned. Barry lives only 40 minutes away from the French-Canadian Genealogical Society of Connecticut's Library in Tolland, CT. He volunteered to drive over to Tolland to see what he could find. Barry was quite familiar with the library as he had researched his own family history in that facility and was very impressed with the number of extensive resources located there. They have, for example, the complete Drouin Collection along with PRDH, Jetté, Tanguy, Loiselle

Paul McGee's Meat Trucks - Note the telephone number among many other references. The Drouin Collection alone contains millions of records. Very few genealogy libraries in the US have the complete Drouin Collection. The Tolland Library is truly a genealogist's paradise for anyone doing French-Canadian research. Barry is an excellent researcher and, lo and behold, a couple of days after our phone conversation, he emailed Isreal's and Narza's complete McGee family line going all the way back to the 1600s in France.

Perhaps the biggest surprise was the fact that the McGee's were French in origin. All previous researchers, including yours truly, had assumed that "McGee" was probably either a Scottish or Irish name, and had concentrated their investigations on those two countries. It was a natural error based primarily on the spelling of "McGee" which can be found as surnames in both Scotland and Ireland. The insertion of an "h" is commonly found as a spelling variation in those countries, appearing as "McGhee" but causing no difference in pronunciation. The McGees of Scotland were not large enough in number to warrant a clan of their own, so they became a sub-group of the larger "MacKay" clan. They proudly wore the MacKay tartan, and still do to this day. Some present-day McGee's, believing their origin was Scottish, purchased MacKay tartan kilts and attended Scottish Game Festivals in Quechee, VT, and in Ontario, Canada. Now, it appears that those Scottish kilts will need to be traded in for French berets.

Spelling variations in surnames have been the genealogist's nemesis since the beginnings of family research and that is still true today. It appears that the McGee name fell victim as well. There are many reasons and places for spelling variations to occur in family names through the years.

First, it must be remembered that very few early family members could read or write. People dealing with these family names, such as clergy, census takers, tax collectors, immigration officers, etc., even though most of them could write, many spelled phonetically. If the family member did not know how to spell or write their own name, the person recording that name did the best they could and frequently spelled the name phonetically.

The nationality of the recorder also played a large role in the spelling of a name. Many of the early Catholic priests in our own country, for example, were French. So, if you were Catholic and went through a church ceremony such as baptism, confirmation, or marriage; or if you were simply born or died, your name in the Catholic church records very likely had a French spelling. Also, the early French priests insisted that a saint's name become a part of your name if you did not have one to begin with. Therefore, one will find Mary, Edward, Francis, Joseph, Jean-Baptiste, Catherine, Marie, etc. turning up again and again as part of the family names that appear in Catholic Church records. That is just how things were done back then. Catholic priests were excellent record keepers. Genealogists of today would be hard-pressed to find needed information if it were not for the records those priests kept.

That is not to say that other churches or government agencies did not keep very accurate records. What is quickly evident to the genealogy researcher however, is the fact that Catholic priests were perhaps the most meticulous and thorough record keepers of all. For that fact, family history researchers are very grateful.

Now, back to the McGee's. As nearly as can be determined, the original spelling was "Maguet", from the early 1600s in France. Pierre Maguet, in the later 1600s, came from France and took up residence in Montreal. He married on January 7, 1686, in Pointe-aux-Trembles, Montreal. The Maguet name remained the same for another three generations. Then, in the very late 1790s or early 1800s, Israel's father, Alphonse, appears with his last name spelled "Maillet".

Alphonse was married with the Maillet surname, to Marie Adélaïde Dagenais, June 15, 1819, in Chambly, Quebec. Joseph Israel Maillet (McGee) was born May 15, 1824, in Marieville, Rouville, Quebec. The Maillet (McGee) family probably crossed the Canadian border to reside in New York State somewhere around the late 1830s or early 1840s. As was stated earlier, the 1850 US Census for Essex, NY, is the first census that lists the family's name.

As indicated, the name transition from "Maguet" to "Maillet" to "McGee" was not a sudden nor a dramatic change. It occurred over many, many years and involved the family living in three different countries. Even after the McGee family had taken up residence in the US, Maillet continued to be used as their surname for quite some time. Maillet was used mainly by French priests in the early days of local church parishes. Maillet as the surname can be found in the church baptism and marriage records of The Assumption of Mary Church in Redford, St. John de Baptiste in Keeseville as well as St. Augustine's in Peru.

A researcher investigating the early McGee family in Peru would be well advised to brush up on their high school French and Latin classes because many of those early local church records are in French or Latin or, in some cases, a combination of both. When Israel McGee's son, Beauregard, my grandfather, married Anna Jordan (Jourdannais), in 1886, in the Assumption of Mary Church in Redford. The marriage records were written in a combination of French and Latin. Father Phillip Allen, pastor at St. Mary's at the time of my research, had to translate. He was able to do so because he had been at St. Mary's for a long period of time and had learned how to read the combined language.

Speaking of Beauregard McGee, Nancy Baggs discovered an old newspaper article in the "Ticonderoga Sentinel and Ticonderogian". Nancy is also related to the Peru McGees. She, too, has spent countless hours researching the McGee family history. The article states:

"A serious stabbing affray, says the Telegram, took place about three miles from Keeseville on the road to Peru late Saturday night, the victim of which was Beauregard McGee, a young man residing at Schuyler Falls. McGee was returning after attending the circus at Keeseville in company with two ladies. Overtaking another wagon on the road a dispute arose between McGee and its occupants, two men who were intoxicated. As an unfortunate result, one of them, whose name we have been unable to learn, drew a large pocket knife and stabbed McGee in six places, the knife penetrated a heavy overcoat to reach the person. The wounds are not dangerous, and were dressed by Dr. Cole, of Peru."

Appreciation for help in the search for the Peru McGee's origin must also go to Gloria Pratt, a notable and highly-respected genealogist in Clinton County. Gloria, Nancy Baggs and myself, all hit that proverbial "brick wall" that most family researchers encounter sooner or later. Thankfully, cousin, Barry Lazlo, was able to crash through the "wall" and allow us to solve the mystery of the origin of the McGees of Peru, NY.

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH ~ PLATTSBURGH

By Dick Lynch

Now that this book is done, for now any way, it is interesting to sit back and reflect on the whole process of doing this book. There were many things that did not add up, clearly some mistakes and so many "what the heck" moments it is no wonder it took 2yrs to do. Here are some of the hurdles we go through in doing these record books.

The copy of these records was done several years ago with an obvious older model copy machine. Copies were either too dark out of focus and even doubled to give the effect of double vision. Not to mention the hand writing, which is always a struggle.

First the records that we had were marked as being from 1830 up to 1910. This was not the case as after starting my reading I found the 30 was actually a 36 and in the body, was the correct date confirming this. However, I was immediately confused because the records were marked "Salina" and the people lived on Pompey Hill. No known region around here. After further study I found the name Syracuse. I went on line and searched Salina, Pompey Hill and confirmed these were records from Syracuse NY and another St-John the Baptists church. So now did these people follow their former priest to Plattsburgh to get married and have their children baptized? Father Drummond is listed as being in Plattsburgh by spring 1836, the date of these records. Hurds, St-Johns and St-Peter's history books all agree with this timeline. Sister Taylors "History of NY Catholicism" states there is no proof that father Drummond incorporated St-John's in 1836 but she did not dispute he was here. Now I am confused and what are these records and what happened when.

It wasn't until fall of 1837 that records began being marked Plattsburgh, Keeseville, Saranac, Peru etc. The pages appeared out of order as they did not make sense.

Shortly before what I thought would be the end of my editing I went online and found that the Diocese of Syracuse had an archives and archivist. So, I sent him a letter asking if he had any information on a Father George Drummond that came to Plattsburgh sometime in mid-1830. To my surprise in a couple of days I received a response and a document. They did have a father Drummond but did not know his first name but a footnote on the obituary noted "died while at the Seminary at Quebec to collect money for the church in Plattsburgh". Bingo. His time in Syracuse 1836-1837. It was therefore proof that all the history books were wrong father George Drummond did not arrive until late 1837. Now those records made more sense and now I can put an actual date of Oct. 1837 for the first documented record by Father George Drummond in Plattsburgh. All records before that are indeed from Syracuse, NY. Unusual for a priest to remove the records from a parish and take them with him. Though I sent copies to that church I never heard back from them if they had a copy already.

Now I had to go back and re set all my information in book 1 to indicate the facts. This sent me back to check all my work as I was still puzzled by the lack of sense book 5 made. In doing so I realized that page 29 of the baptisms was matched with the wrong bottom half page of the page. The person copying the records got mixed up and skipped the bottom half of the page and added the bottom half of the following page. So, for about 20 pages I had to move all bottom halves of each page ahead one page and change all the page numbers. Again, on page 79 I found the bottom half of a page matched with the wrong top half. It turned out the top half of page was missed and thus I would have to move all pages and change all pages from that page on until it came to a break. It was a miracle I noticed these errors. I could tell something was wrong, but it was hard to pinpoint because in the copying process the center record would be partially missing on many pages, so you could not match them up. But now with new bottoms a couple of dozen new names were matched up and again I would have to make all the changes to indicate the correct page and missing parts of the record.

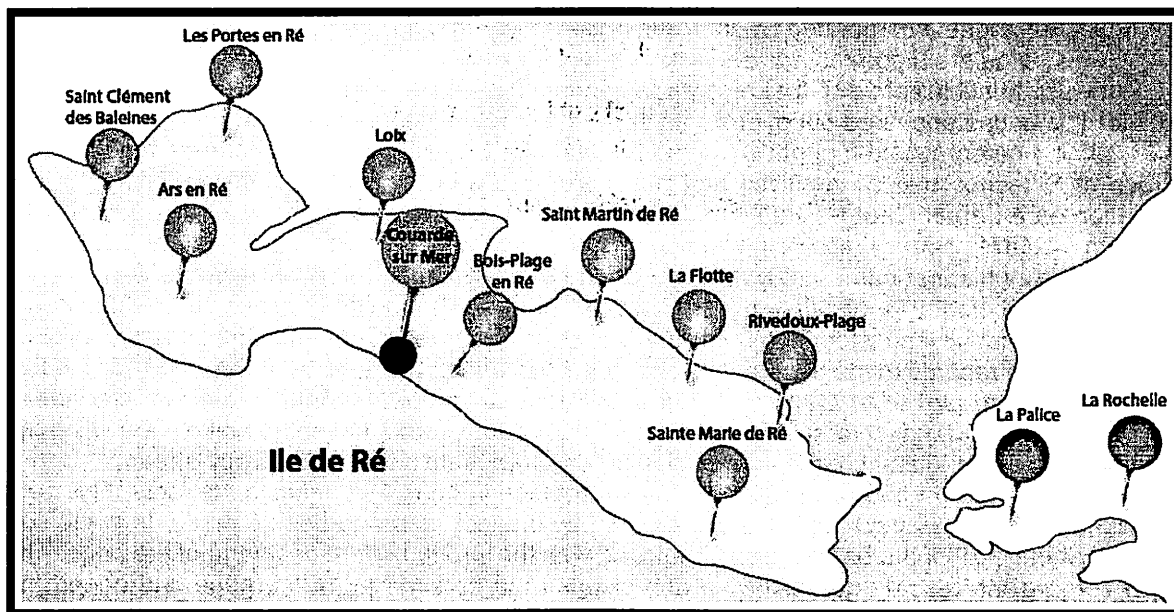

I was unable at this time to gain access to the original books to make the corrections to these missing records, so an addendum will follow should we get that access. With all these difficulties we are fortunate to have what we have ended up with. Though I am sure I will find more errors and must make changes some time down the line, I believe what we have ended up with is a very interesting book and by doing this we have righted the records. Now we can say for sure George Drummond did not incorporate St-John's church in 1836, he was still in Syracuse for another year. Now these records make more sense and I will have the originals at the library as well as the cemetery records both lot cards and burial listings for Mt. Carmel Cemetery. Not everyone is buried in a lot they own so these cards are very important. They list everyone known buried and the position in the lot as well as the owner. The burial records also give family names and place they were living at when they died. So, if someone died in Wisconsin and was sent back to Plattsburgh it will say so in the records. As we know death certificates are in the place of death not necessarily the place they lived so these could be very helpful to someone researching their family. The burial records were also from a large book and had to be reunited with the other half of the page. In the case of the burial book this was a two-page entry so to read the record correctly I put the pages back together, so you can follow the record across one page to the next.

The lot card book too was copied in halves and the middle lot was cut in half, so I had to splice the two pages back together, so all the information was on one page. These books will be 8 ½ by 14 and were probably bigger but this will have to do as larger books will take up too much space on the book shelves. They will be a great addition to our cemetery records section of the library.

OUTLINE DESCENDANT REPORT FOR MICHEL STRACK and MARGARETHE OBERMEYER

Between 1618 and 1648 the Thirty Years War caused major changes in Europe. Germany and Alsace the most affected by the war which was primarily a contest between Catholic rulers and Protestant rulers. Alsace was among the battlegrounds and by the end of the war, Germany was more decimated than ever. For two centuries, until 1871, many principalities, such as Bavaria, Westphalia, and others, became independent states and remained that way for two centuries.

Perhaps one third of the people of Germany lost their lives during the war. Many Alsatians lost their lives, and many others fled. As a result, by 1648 Alsace was largely unpopulated. During the next couple of decades, new people moved in from southern Germany and from Switzerland. Many of the new settlers of Alsace were Catholic.

The treaty that ended the war granted control of Alsace to France. However, France did not exercise very strong control, and most of Alsace acted as independent city-states. Alsace did not become fully a part of France until the era of the French Revolution in the 1790's. In 1793, the French government divided Alsace into two departments or provinces, Bas-Rhin (Lower Rhine) in the north, and Haut-Rhin (Upper Rhine) in the south. Soufflenheim is in Bas-Rhin.

MON NOM EST JEAN-PIERRE, JE SUIS NÉ À SOUFFLENHEIM EN 1826 - It's hard to imagine that many soldiers who enlisted in Clinton County spoke with foreign accents – French, Irish, Belgian, English and German. During the last summer of the war, Peter Strack, or Jean-Pierre as he was named when he was born on August 9, 1826, mustered in as a private in Battery D of the 1st NY Light Artillery. His father, also Jean-Pierre Strack, brought his family from Soufflenheim in Alsace-Lorraine, on the border of what is now Germany and France. The Stracks came to Redford to work in the Redford glass factory in the 1830s. Peter considered he was born in France and gave that information to the recruiting officer, along with the information that he was 38 years old, a mechanic, had blue eyes and fair hair and complexion, and was 5' 5½" tall. Although he enlisted in Plattsburgh on August 30, 1864, his enlistment was credited to the Town of Westport in Essex County, also part of the 16th Congressional District. Peter joined the regiment when Battery D was with the Army of the Potomac, just after the skirmish at Weldon Railroad and saw his first action at Poplar Grove Church. Between December 6-11, 1864, Batteries B, D and H were at the Hick's Ford Raid in Virginia and later were engaged at Hatcher's Run, VA, on February 5-7. By March 29, 1865, they had joined the Appomattox Campaign and were instrumental in the engagements leading up to the Surrender of General Lee to General Grant. See a pictorial article on the Civil War News Facebook page on the re-enactment of the events at Appomattox Court House.

Peter mustered out on May 30, 1865 near Alexandria, VA, and returned home to his wife, Elizabeth Lebert, who was born in Lacolle, Canada East. We imagine that she put the $700 bounty he got from the County for enlisting to good use while he was gone. After the war, they had 4 more children to add to the 7 they already had. Peter died in 1899 and his wife in 1901. They are buried in the Assumption Mary Cemetery in Redford.

RECEIVED AN $800 TOWN BOUNTY FOR ENLISTMENT - Jacob Strack had been married for four years and had a couple of kids by the time he enlisted in the 91st Infantry on September 2, 1864. He was married to 17-year-old Celina Brien on May 7, 1860 in Redford, by the famous Father Sallaz, after whom Sallaz Academy was named.

For enlistment, Jacob received a town bounty of $800, and with 145 other men from the Plattsburgh area who enlisted in August, September and October, went to join the 91st when they were in Baltimore assigned to the 2nd Brigade. The regiment had just returned from Louisiana where they had heavy losses and many men had reached the end of their 3-year term of enlistment, so along with men who re-enlisted, these new recruits were necessary to maintain the life of the regiment. Soon, they were ordered to the operations before Petersburg. The revitalized regiment participated in the closing operations of the Siege of Petersburg from March 1 to April 2, 1865, when the city fell. They immediately were sent on the Appomattox Campaign with General Grant and were with him when General Lee surrendered on April 9th. It was a hard-fought campaign and the 91st had 230 casualties in the last two weeks of the war – 37 killed, 26 mortally wounded, 152 wounded and 17 who went missing. They returned to Washington and were mustered out on June 10, 1865.

From the Malone Farmer of March 28, 1928 – "Jacob Strack, for many years a resident of Chasm Falls, died at the home of his daughter on March 21st, Mrs. Henry Paradis, in Oxford, MA, last Wednesday morning. Mr. Strack was born in Redford, NY, January 3, 1839, and was consequently in his 90th year. His parents came from Germany to America about 1823, bringing with them the older children of the family, and several children were born after their coming to this country. Many of their descendants are still living in the Adirondack region where the family early settled. Mr. Strack married Celina, daughter of Denis and Josephine Brien.

While the Civil War was raging, he enlisted in the Union army, in Co. C, 91st New York Infantry. At the close of the war he came to Chasm Falls and lived until the death of his wife, about 20 years ago. Since then he has lived most of the time with his children, all of whom now live in the Eastern States.

At his death, he left 2 sons and 4 daughters. One son, Oliver Strack, lived and had a family at Saranac Lake, where he died only a few months ago. The two remaining sons are Louis, who is farming and dairying on a large scale near Ware, MA; and Edmund who resides at Oxford, MA. His four daughters are Mrs. J. E. Perry, living in Rhode Island; Mrs. Jacques, of Oxford; Mrs. Souliere, of St. Albans, VT; and Mrs. Henry Paradis, of Oxford, with whom he was living at the time of his death. Mr. Strack also leaves 50 grandchildren and several great grandchildren and a few great great grandchildren. His remains were brought to Chasm Falls, and funeral services were held at St. Helen's R. C. Church in Malone on Friday. Interment in the church cemetery. His children were all present, except two daughters who are in poor health."

DNA TEST AND DNA CIRCLES ON Ancestry.com

By Velida Bouyea-Ford

With the ease of a home kit I have added my DNA to my family tree, with adding additional family members' DNA, I have added verification through DNA to many of my great grandparents and beyond their generations.

A DNA Circle on Ancestry.com is a group of individuals who all have the same ancestor in their family tree and where each member shares DNA with at least one other individual in the circle. These circles are created directly from DNA and your family tree in a five-step process.

1. By comparing (my) DNA (and that of 8 family members covering three generations from both sides of my family) to that of every DNA test done with Ancestry.com.
2. Ancestry.com will look for ancestors who appear to be the same person by name, birthdate, birthplace, parents, and spouse going back nine generations.
3. They will determine how likely it is that (my) matches share DNA from this same ancestor
4. They will look for other pairs of individuals who have the same shared ancestor in their trees and who share DNA with one or more of existing circle members, each circle has at least three members, (my three siblings and I do not make a circle, we will count as one family group, my daughter and two nieces, are also counted in this same family group, giving us seven DNA's to match up with others, it only takes one of us to match, I also have a sister of each of my parents, who has done a DNA test, making a total of eight DNA's in our family group) to match with other Ancestry DNA matches, (my aunts are 5th Cousins (2x removed) giving us nine DNA's to some of our family group to match with others).
5. Ancestry will determine a connection level from strong to good, weak, or emerging based on the number of people that match in the circle and the strength of their connections.

With 46 DNA circles (at this time) I have circles for the following relationships 5 of my 8 great-grandparents, 7 of my 15 known 2x great-grandparents, 9 of my known 28 3x great-grandparents, 18 of my known 56 4x great-grandparents, 8 of my known 108 5x great-grandparents, 2 of my known 216 6x great-grandparents. Some of my great grandparents are counted twice, like Pierre Robert who married Marie Joseph Patenaude. Their son, Pierre, who married Marie Josephe Robidoux, is my 5th great-grandfather. Also, their son, Francois, who married Marie Catherine Robidoux, is my 4th great-grandfather. Marie Josephe and Marie Catherine are the daughters of Joseph Robidoux and Marie Marguerite Dupuis.

This happens very often in my tree. Of my 15 known 2nd great-grandparents their deaths and burials were all in the Clinton County, NY, area. Two were born in Clinton County and one in Vermont, the rest are from Quebec, all 28 of my known 3rd great-grandparents are from Quebec.

With my DNA circles and my DNA matches I have been able to verify with DNA the parents of Helene Boucher born 09 Feb.1826 in Montreal, who married Joseph Sorel about 1844, at St. Peter's Church in Plattsburgh, NY. Helene's parents are Jean-Baptiste Boucher and Marie-Marguerite Jamais dit Comtois. Using the GenealogyQuebec website, I could find this family in Quebec. I followed her father and some of her siblings to the Clinton County area with the books published by NNYACGS.

Helene Boucher is the 5th great-granddaughter of Marin Boucher and Marie Julienne Baril. Marin Boucher and his second wife Perrine Mallet, their son Pierre who married Marie Stdenis/St Denis is my 8th great-grandfather, their daughter Marie Madeleine, who married Louis Houde, are my 9th great-grandparents.

My family tree on Ancestry.com is public, under the user name velida1959. If you are from Clinton County, we could be cousins.

THE JELLA FAMILY AS OF JULY 18, 2017

When our father Fredrick Dale Jella died, his brother Leonard L Jella gave this information to our family. Uncle Len worked for years to determine their grandfather's roots. I will interject any information that might be additionally helpful in researching Alfred Kirby Jella within the text and at the end of Len's information. More information in the subject files at our library.

PREFACE

What was begun in 1983, and is still actively being pursued, has reached a point where the material gathered must be put into some comprehensive form so that we can keep focused on the central issue involved. And, that is "Who were the parents of Alfred Kirby Jella?" my paternal grandfather.

To pick up and follow the trail of this man required hundreds of hours of research through census tapes, county and state files, genealogical records in New York state and in the mammoth Genealogical Library of the Latter Day Saints in Salt Lake City, Utah. The research entailed four personal visits to Plattsburg and Albany, New York, as well as five trips to Salt Lake City. Over a period of seven years, we have been able to piece together this account of his life, mostly based on recorded facts, but also on some speculation, and some downright guess-work; but we are still working on gathering those elusive facts necessary to flesh out the story.

ALFRED KIRBY JELLA

The saga of the man we know as Alfred Kirby Jella, but also known variously as Fred Jelly, Fred Jelay, and possibly as Alfred Joyal, is a convoluted one, twisted by the eccentric but then characteristic behavior of his antecedents and the secretiveness and prevarication of the man himself. Alfred Kirby Jella is my paternal grandfather. My name is Leonard L. Jella, the son of Leonard McKinley Jella, eldest son of Alfred Jella. My wife, Elma, and I conducted the research necessary to learn the following:

Alfred Jella's antecedents were French Canadian, their religion Catholic. They migrated from that area in Quebec North of Plattsburg, New York, known as Three Rivers, somewhere around 1844. Peter and Cloddy Jelly, together with their children, Peter, Fulmur, Joseph, Henry, and Catherine settled in the West Chazy area just North of Plattsburg, New York. According to the earliest census records examined by us, they were known as the Jelly family, and were engaged in laborer-type activities. The sons were married and through the succeeding years accumulated sizable families. Two of the boys, Peter and Fulmur were in the Civil War, assigned to the 118th Regiment, Company B, and both died of illnesses while in the service. The wives and children of these men were understandably in desperate straits. Julia, Peter's wife, resorted to releasing some of the older children for adoption by some of the West Chazy families. For example, Mary and Livona, both 20 years old, were placed with Newell Wheeler, a local merchant, in 1867; George, age 15, was placed with the same man in 1865; and Delia was adopted by Victor A. Wood in 1872. Catherine married Isaac Gonyo, another French Canadian who lived in West Chazy and came from a rather large and prosperous farming family. Later, several of the daughters of both Peter and Fulmur married into the Gonyo family.

We found that the Jelly name is, in fact, a "dit" name and the true family name, as recorded in the records of the ST. JOSEPH DU-CORBEAU CATHOLIC CHURCH in Coopersville, New York, was JOYAL. "Dit" names were in common use during those years due to several factors: the influence of the War of 1812; the disfavor of the Catholic Church in some locales; and the lack of Catholic religious leaders in upper New York state. To further cloud this already confusing name picture, the "Official Journal of the Northern New York American-Canadian Genealogical Society, Spring 1985, appears to claim that the name "Jelly" to be an anglicized version of the name CARSIS "dit" JOYAL.

At the onset of our search into Alfred's ancestry, we of course were unaware of the complications brought about by the use of "dit" names. And did not take into account that census takers were inevitably English-speaking, whereas most of the Jelly family spoke only French and in many cases could neither read nor write. Hence, all sorts of errors were made in recording given as well as family names. In any event, we started by trying to trace the Jelly name. In so doing, we found many Jelly families and various spellings thereof; and these families, in general were of Irish extractions, Protestant, and had migrated from Ireland or England into Newfoundland and Quebec. We also found the Jelly name to be a very common one in Ireland and England and traceable back to the 14th century.

It wasn't until we started digging into church records that we found our Jellys to be not only Catholic, but French Canadian. Why these people selected the name Jelly as their "dit" we do not know. There were many Jelly families in the Shelburne, Canada area; in fact, there is or was, a community named "Jellyville" nearby.

Once that we had established Joyal was the name we should be tracing, we were able to find Canadian records that showed a number of other names associated with Joyal, or "dit" names thereof. These included names such as Jolicoeur, Jaques, Jacques, Gagnon, Carsis, etc., and these very names were much in evidence in Clinton County, New York.

At this writing we will not attempt to deal any further with that confusing aspect of the family history, but can only hope that future research will unravel it and enable us to travel farther back into the family history.

For our "Saga" we have elected to assume that Alfred Jelly was the off-spring of one of the aforementioned children of the elder Jelly family, or perhaps the son of an unwed daughter. We do know the names, birth dates, and in some cases the baptismal dates of most of those children. They are recorded in the records of the ST. JOSEPH DU-CORBEAU CATHOLIC CHURCH, but identified as JOYAL. There can be no mistake here; given the names, birth dates, etc. are identical to those recorded in Census Records for the Jelly family.

Up to this point our trace, although tedious at times, was proceeding satisfactorily; but now the single infuriating missing link appeared. There was no Fred or Alfred Jelly shown in any of the Jelly family records; nor did church records reveal any such birth. We did know from my grandfather that he claimed to have been born in July 1872. With this knowledge, we went to Albany, New York, and in the State Library through a system known as "Soundex" were able to find an Alfred Jelly in the 1880 census for Plattsburg, New York. He was shown to be an inmate of the Northern New York Home of the Friendless. This Home had been established in 1874 by a group of benevolent citizens of Clinton County. Our Alfred was shown to be 8 years old and attending school at this facility.

Armed with this information, we returned to Plattsburg and began digging for the records of the "Home of the Friendless". Of course, the home was no longer in existence and to our dismay, the records were reported to be in dead storage and not available to us. However, we did find a sympathetic lady, Sara Rowden, Assistant Director of the Northern New York Crisis Center, who volunteered to go to these files and try to get some information from them for us. Sometime later we did receive a letter from her and it contained some of the information we needed but not that all important bit about Alfred's parents. The records did show that Alfred Jelly had been brought to the "Home" on January 22, 1876, by a Mrs. Albright, of Plattsburg at the direction of a Mr. Edward Erno, the Overseer of the Clinton County Home (Poor Farm). Mrs. Albright stated that she had picked Alfred up at the County Home and was now "tired of him". Records show that Alfred was thought to be about 3 ½ years old at the time. [We believe that Alfred's mother died in childbirth with her second child. Alfred's father remarried, and his new wife was pregnant and did not want Alfred to inherit anything from his father. We have meticulously gone through several very old hand-written records of the County Home and could not find Alfred Jelly listed anywhere as ever being an inmate of that facility.]

Alfred lived at the Home of the Friendless from the time of his arrival in 1876 until September 1, 1883. [Alfred told his family that his father did visit him at the Home.] At that time, records from the home show him as becoming unmanageable and with a violent temper. He was then eleven years old and still attending school. An unknown person, probably from the county or the Home made the decision to send Alfred on one of the Orphan trains that were then being sent to the West to place orphan children with families in various western areas. Mrs. Charles Brace, Superintendent of the Children's Aid Society was shown to be in charge of the group that included Alfred. Little is known about the exact procedures followed to place the children and we are presently engaged in trying to gather information on how this was done. [Information in the Plattsburgh paper confirms that Alfred was sent to New York's Children's Aid Society with Otis Canfield.]

The Home of the Friendless records show that Alfred was placed with the Teagarten family in Goff, Kansas, in 1883. Goff is in the northeast corner of Kansas, in Nemaha County; the County seat is Sabetha. This was, and is, a farming community with a current population of under 200 people. [Uncle Len met descendants of the Goff family and told us that they were very good people.]

We cannot find any pertinent information regarding Alfred's experiences on this farm. It appears, however, that his life there was not a happy one because he ran away from this family, probably around 1889, at the approximate age of 17. Records show that he joined the U.S. Army on September 11, 1889. Of course, he was too young to legally join the Army, so he lied about his age to do so. Army records show that he advanced his age by 7 years. He was assigned to the 6th U.S. Cavalry, Troops H & I, Company M, and served in the Indian Campaign in the Dakotas. He was mustered out December 10, 1892. In a letter written by Alfred in 1890 to the Home of the Friendless, he stated that he had been in the Army for three years (??) and was then stationed at Fort Lewis (??)

Colorado. This information was contained in the records of the Home of the Friendless resurrected by Sara Rowden for us. This report by Alfred does not square with the U.S. Army record of his service. It appears that Alfred may have been corresponding with someone in the Home both before and subsequent to this report because a later entry in the Home records states that Alfred had married and was "trying to be a good man".

[We believe that at this time Alfred may have returned to Goff and worked with the Teagarten family for a short time. Uncle Len visited with the descendants of this family.]

In our search through census records, Kansas 1895, we found Alfred with his wife Laura Jane, on a farm near Whitechurch, KS, which is almost due north of Lawrence, KS, in Jefferson County. In this census report, the name was listed as Alfred Jélay. In the Federal Census of 1900, the name of Fred Jella appeared and he was living in Lawrence, Kansas. We do not know when or why the name was changed to Jella. Further, we do not know when the middle name of Kirby was added, nor do we know from whom it was taken. We do know that history of Clinton County includes the Kirby family of Beekmantown. Did he borrow it or was it a given name?

On the property adjacent to that of Fred Jelay near Whitechurch, we found the Meadows family, formerly of Carthage, MO, and the parents of Laura Jane, now Alfred's wife. In the same general area, we have learned there was a Jacques family with whom Alfred was very close and with whom he lived and worked at the time. We believe this Jacques family may have come from Clinton County, NY. One of the Jacques family sons had the name of Len or Leonard and it was this name that was given to my father when he was born October 3, 1896. In addition to my father, Alfred and Laura Jane had seven sons: Alfred, Arthur, Herbert, Ralph, Elbert and Delbert (twins), a foster son Clarence, Laura's brother, and one daughter, Opal.

In later years, Alfred demonstrated great skill in cabinetmaking and as a builder of boats and models of ships. He had an inquisitive and innovative mind. Included is a photo of the Half Moon replica that he made.

Unfortunately, he suffered from a severely damaged back and had to wear a brace much of the time in his later life, and was forced into a more or less sedentary lifestyle. He lived in various Kansas and Missouri communities including Lawrence, Kansas City, Emporia, Dodge City, etc. At times, because of his poor health, he lived with his family in Old Soldiers' Homes.

Laura Jane was bedridden for a long time prior to her death in 1944. Alfred subsequently remarried and died in 1949 in the St James Soldiers Home in St. James, MO.

CONCLUSIONS AND SUMMARY

One may easily conclude that we have not achieved our initial goal but on the other hand, we know a great deal more than we did before starting on this project.

In summary, we know:

1. The man was born in Clinton County, New York probably in 1872.
2. He was classified as an orphan and placed in an institution for orphans from 1876-1883.
3. He was one of many orphans taken to the west on the so-called orphan train for subsequent "adoption, bondage, or guardianship".
4. Where he was placed and with whom and that he ran away from that family.
5. He joined the U.S. Army and records show he served honorably from 1889 to 1892.
6. Perhaps most important of all we are virtually certain his parents were French Canadian and
7. of the Catholic faith although he never, to our knowledge, demonstrated any affiliation with that faith.
8. We are not finished by any means; there are some remaining leads we intend to investigate and have confidence we will one day unlatch the door leading to our goal and beyond.

ON MAY 27, 2017

I found an article in the Sept 7, 1883, Plattsburgh Sentinel paper on page 8: "Tagged for the West" the New York Star says A curious consignment reached Matron Webb at police headquarters on Saturday night, in perfect order, stained only with the dust of travel. The merchandise consisted of two well-dressed boys, each having a tag in the button-hole of his vest, which showed that they came from Plattsburgh, NY. to the Children's Aid Society No. 19 East Fourth Street. Their names are Fred Jelly and Otis Canfield, aged 13 years. They were sent by Mrs. Frances Hall of the Home of the Friendless at Plattsburgh, and are en route for the West, where they expect to see life. They were dispatched on their journey yesterday."

Maybe Otis Canfield was 13 but our Fred was probably 11. This is when he began to fudge on his age. Per other news articles I found Alfred was taken to the Home for the Friendless in 1877 at age 3 ½, on Mr. Erno's order.

According to census of 1885 AF Jelley was listed as 14 years and living in Capioma, KS, living with an Arthur family. He would live close to these people in years to come in Lawrence.

Then he ran away to join the army in 1889 – 1892 lying about his age by 7 years, serving in Troop H 6th US Cavalry in the Indian Wars. He was only 5'4" according to the military records.

The next census indicates Alfred and Laura Meadows were married in 1892. Laura's parents died in 1900 and Fred and Laura took her brother Clarence in with their family. From top left Clarence Meadows, Alfred Kirby, Leonard McKinley, and middle row, Fred Jella, Laura, Arthur Wiley at the end. Front row Opal Jane and Herbert LeRoy. To be born later are Ralph Howard and the twins Delbert Jean and Elbert Dean.

According to the census years that followed, they lived in a variety of Kansas towns where he worked as a laborer, carpenter, or painter.

We know that he was artistic and creative and built at least two boats – one water going and the other a replica of the Half Moon below as built and rigged by J.K. Jella 820 E 8th St, Lawrence, KS.

We were told that he invented the syrup server with the lid that slides back and forth over the spout but did not patent it.

This looks to be about 1926 which means Dale is 5, Elbert (Hunk) 11, and Len 10.

In 1930 Alfred (62) and Laura lived at the Ft Dodge Soldiers Home where he identified as a painter on the census. By this time his back was in terrible shape from the Cavalry years. The youngest of their boys, the twins Delbert and Elbert were with them.

Delbert was in all kinds of trouble and Len asked if Elbert could live with them in Lawrence and he would share his clothes and his job with him.

They graduated from high school together in 1933 in Lawrence, KS. Len was actively involved in high school both as a leader and athlete.

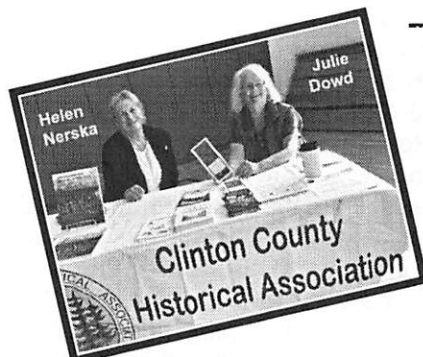

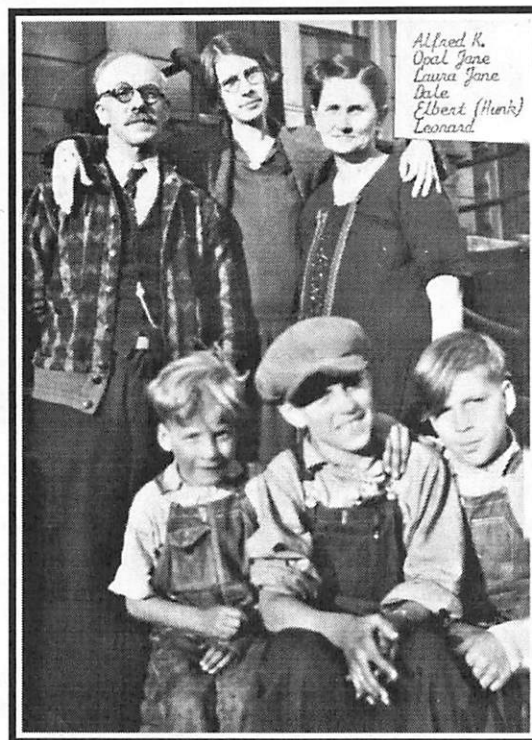

Len saw a future in airplanes. After he learned to fly he taught Elbert and Dale how to fly. He made a deal with them that if they would pay for the plane and the gas, he would give them lessons.

Fred's son Elbert served as a glider pilot, flying into Germany as a member of the 435th Provisional Glider Pilot Infantry Company. For his achievement he was awarded the Silver Star.

Leonard L Jella served during WWII in the Army Air Corps and later in the US Air Force earning the rank of Colonel, Bronze Star and Distinguished Flying Cross. After retiring from the Air Force he flew his private plane while he was doing his genealogical research crisscrossing the country coast to coast. Both of his sons served in the military with the youngest graduating from the Air Force Academy.

Fredrick Dale finished high school and started classes at Kansas University but left after a short time to train pilots during the war. He became a commercial pilot for Monarch Air Lines which became Frontier Air Lines where he served as Chief Pilot and retired after 34 ½ years. His sons also served in the military and one was a pilot for Delta Air Lines.

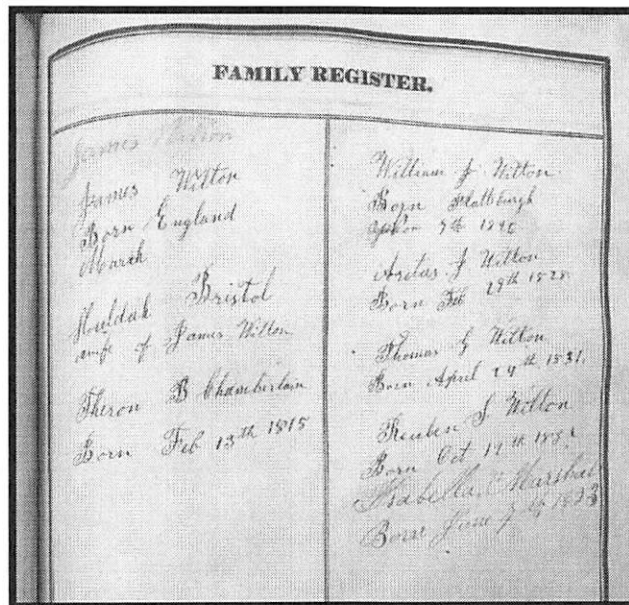

Laura died in 1941 and Fred K. Jella died in 1949. He was living in the Missouri Soldiers Home in St. James, MO. His marker identifies his date of birth as 1865 and is a military stone.

Entered into rest Friday, March 13, 1908, at his home in Morrisonville, George L. Adcock, youngest son of Lowton and Charity Adcock.

He was born in West Plattsburgh April 25, 1853. At the age of three he removed with his parents to the present home on Mason street a little way out of Morrisonville. He received his education at the old academy in Plattsburgh.

With the exception of ten years spent in the west, his entire life was spent in and about Morrisonville, where he was respected and loved by all who knew him for his upright Christian character and kindness of heart.

March 25, 1896, he was united in marriage to Anna T. Colburn of the same town. This dearly beloved wife seemed to constitute the one tie which bound him to this life.

His heart was entirely given to his Saviour and he awaited with perfect trust for the pearly gates to open.

Aside from the wife who sincerely mourns his loss he leaves a father of and one brother.

A FRIEND.

DEATH OF AN AGED LADY

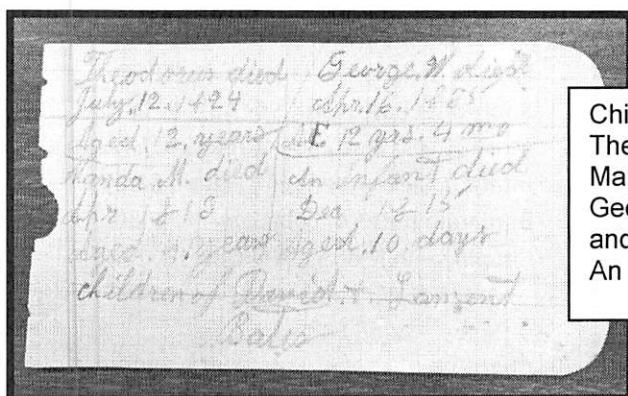

Last Sunday, August 3rd, Mrs. Lament Bates died in Morrisonville, at the residence of her son-in-law, L. Adcock, at the advanced age of 97 years, 4 months and 3 days.

It may truly be said of her that she was a pioneer in the early history of Essex, Clinton and Franklin Counties. As early as 1802, she removed from Rupert, VT, to Chesterfield, Essex County, where her brother, Asaph Leavitt, had settled. In 1804, she married Mr. David Bates and in 1805, she started with her husband for Moira in Franklin County, traveling through Clinton County on horseback, on a trail indicated by marked trees, and carrying with them their few articles of household effects. They were the 5th family that settled in the Town of Moira, and lived there the principal part of their lives.

In 1828, Mrs. Bates visited her brother in Chesterfield, going alone, on horseback. Her residence in Morrisonville was of recent date.

On Tuesday of this week, the remains of the deceased were taken to Moira for interment, where her husband was buried many years ago.

Len Martinsen

OBITUARY OF LEN MARTINSEN - LONG TIME BOARD MEMBER

Leonard A. Martinsen, 96, of Rouses Point, NY, formerly of Douglas and Worcester, MA, passed away on Tuesday, July 25, 2017 at Meadowbrook Healthcare Facility in Plattsburgh. Leonard, the eldest son of Joshua and Lena (Yon) Martinsen, was born in Worcester, MA He graduated at North High School and the University of Massachusetts Stockbridge School of Agriculture. Len started his working career at the age of 16 in the Schuster Mills in Douglas, MA. He joined the United States Navy in 1943 and proudly served in the South Pacific. He returned home to marry the love of his life, Eleanor Mosher of Worcester, MA. After his marriage, he worked as an ice-cream maker for Orchard Hill Dairy. He never lost his love of ice-cream. Len moved on to work for Moore-Kirk

Laboratories in Worcester, before moving to Rouses Point after accepting a position with American Home Products - Ayerst, retiring in 1986.

While in Rouses Point, Len served on the Zoning Board and Board of Appeals for many years. He was also very active with his wife, Ellie, in the Genealogical and Historical Societies in Champlain and the village of Rouses Point, as well as the Northern New York American Canadian Genealogical Society of which they were both board members. Ellie and Len were appointed to the Village Historical Advisory Board by then Mayor Portugal in January of 1988. Len was a member of the American Legion Post #912, The Knights of Columbus Council 2366 (Honorary life-member for 51 years), a communicant of St. Patrick's Church, and many years ago a Boy Scout leader in Worcester. He was an avid reader and cross-word puzzle addict. In his own quiet way, he enjoyed people - just sitting back and watching with a little grin now and then. As many people have said, "he was a perfect gentleman." Len was predeceased by his wife, Eleanor; his children, Michael and Linda; as well as his brothers, Eveard and Donald. He is survived by his sister, Mae Bisaccia of Farmington, CT; his sister-in-law, Claire Mosher of Worcester, MA.; and several nieces, nephews, and cousins. Len's family wishes to extend a sincere thank you to all who helped them through this difficult time. From the time of Linda Martinsen's death in March 2016 to that of Len's, strangers became friends. These friends and neighbors volunteered when they needed help most, and were pointed in the right direction - the Rescue Squad, the staff and residents of 260 Lake Street, the Samuel F. Vila Home, Meadowbrook Healthcare Facility, and UVM-CVPH who cared for both Linda and Len. It is no wonder Len's family so enjoyed the town and its townsfolk. Burial in St. Patrick's Cemetery.

FALL CONFERENCE

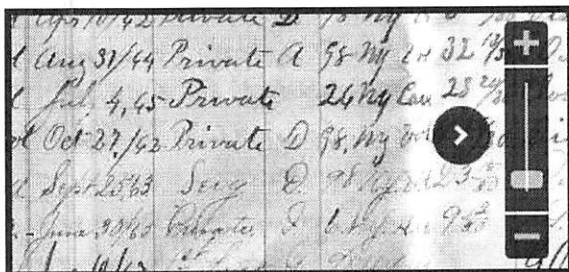

HELPFUL HINTS ~ ANCESTRY CIVIL WAR SOLDIERS

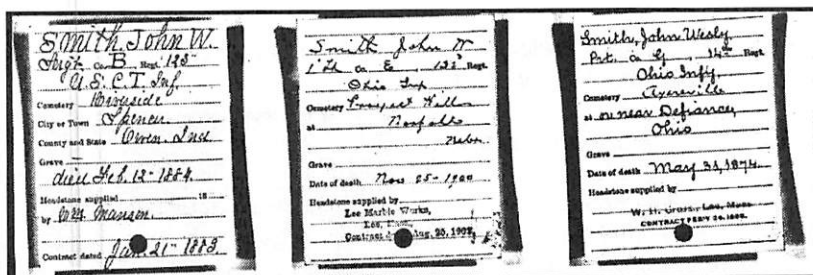

When searching for other regiments' muster rolls, save yourself some time by typing the number of the regiment in the box. That way you don't have to scroll down through the list in the dropdown menu – saves time. Also remember that many men have more than one Muster Roll Abstract for the same person, so use the arrows on sides of the page.

At the bottom of the Muster Roll page, as with many other pages in Ancestry, there's a box that gives you page numbers. You can estimate the page you need to get closer, then use the arrows at the left and right of the page to get closer.

This is taken from a page from the Grand Army of the Republic Records. They are 2-page records. Make sure you use the right arrow to find the rest of the record. You often find the veteran's death date on the second page. Other records have 2 pages such as the death records for enlisted men, and sometimes the draft records.

This is from the page that enumerates headstones made for Civil War soldiers. Remember to add an "s" or delete an "s" in your searches. The search engine is very sensitive.

10	Wm. Dugan	Private	7	24	Inf 30	X	1863	15	Aug	1865	2	1	1	10

This is a segment from a page of the 1890 Veteran Schedules. They were required to see what happened to Civil War soldiers. The soldiers are numbered at the top of the page and tell the regiment, date of enlistment and how many years, months and days the soldier served. By scrolling down, you will find the medical condition of the soldier. If he's deceased, the widow's name will be seen.

If you were at the library this summer, you might have seen a little excitement. Ben Stiller and his crew were at the Civic Center to make a movie about the prison break from 2 years before. These are some of the costumes outside our library door. In 2015, the Civic Center was the law enforcement command center complete with helicopters on the soccer field.
