LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Seminar '86 in Windsor is now a memory, and a very good one. They proudly displayed their Coat of Arms, and had a huge birthday cake in honor of their 25th anniversary. There were many awards and presentations, and I was especially pleased to be present to see Brenda Merriman and Brian Gilchrist receive well-deserved awards for their efforts on behalf of the Ontario Genealogical Society. I would like to thank the committee, and particularly Barbara McLachlan, for the arrangements--is she really tireless? From Friday evening to Sunday afternoon, there was genealogy (and genealogists) everywhere. On Monday evening, I attended the monthly meeting of the Toronto Branch, and met more people I've corresponded with, or read about. As always, the best part is putting a face to a name. On Tuesday, Brian and I drove to Columbus to attend the National Genealogical Society Conference in the States. When I left on Friday, I'd had an entire week of genealogical feasting. The next day, we celebrated daughter Jane's graduation from Winona Area Technical Institute with a degree in Occupational Proficiency in Aviation Mechanics.

On August 7, the committee to plan the bi-centennial celebration of the Old Northwest Territory will meet in Indianapolis. Make plans now to attend this event in South Bend, Indiana, June 4-6, 1987.

If you live in Wisconsin, or are a member of a genealogical group in the state, you may want to attend a meeting in Eau Claire on August 23rd. The speaker will be Sharlott Blevins of the Federation of Genealogical Societies, and we will discuss forming a federation of Wisconsin societies. This could be a clearing house, a communication tool, an organization of groups and individuals--a vital organization to serve all local groups. The meeting will be held at the Holday Inn from 10-3.

Thanks to everyone who took the time to send me the solicitations they received from American Genealogies, aka Elizabeth Ross. I will send them on to the National Genealogical Society and they will forward them to the U.S. Postal Service. At least two people said my warning (in the last issue) saved them from throwing away their money.

There still are some duplicate books left in my library, so if you forgot to send for the list earlier, or thought they'd all be gone, you can still do so.

There was room in this issue to experiment with something I've long wanted to try--a surname index to the queries and the names that do not appear in alphabetical lists. Let me know if you want this feature continued. There are not many answers to queries, because those belong to the client who paid for the research. If you want me to publish your answer, let me know, otherwise it is only sent to you.

Thank you for your patience with the reprint edition of The King's Daughters. Besides being gone, a family member has been ill, and I fell quite far behind with my work. I'd like to hire a student to help, but haven't found one.

GOOD HUNTING!

QUERIES

PLEASE READ. Following are some of the abbreviations used in queries. No periods are used. There are no specific rules for queries, but some advice: mention a time era and place, if you can. DO NOT USE ABBREVIATIONS WHEN SUBMITTING QUERIES and please write surnames in all capital letters. If you are sending a number of queries for future issues, please submit each on a separate sheet.  means their marriage and ascending line will be found in Dictionnaire Généalogique des Familles Canadiennes (Tanguay, 7 volumes) and/or Dictionnaire National des Canadiens Français (Drouin, 2 volumes). Acadian lines may be found in Acadian Descendants (Jehn, 5 volumes) and/or Histoire et Généalogique des Acadiens (Arsenault, 6 volumes). Query deadline for the November issue is September 15.

Ship Passengers to Quebec 1805

Lists of passengers arriving at Canadian ports either have not survived, or were never created, prior to 1865, with some exceptions. The list published in LOST IN CANADA? (Vol. 12, p. 85--1815 arrivals) was created from newspaper announcements of passenger arrivals at the Port of Quebec, in The Quebec Mercury. Not all passengers were named--often only those in Cabin Class were mentioned. Tom Turner of Seattle, Washington, extracted these announcements from microfilm copies of the newspaper, 1805, Volume 1.

The name of the passenger is followed by the date of arrival in Quebec, the name of the vessel, the Ship Master, the date of sailing or number of days at sea, the port of embarkation, and any remarks.

PARISH ST-MALACHIE-d'ORMSTOWN
EXTRACTS FROM PARISH REGISTERS PERTAINING TO FAMILIES RESIDENT IN THE UNITED STATES
1846-1859

This is a continuation of the series of records that has included the early missionary records deposited at St-Patrice-de-Hinchinbrook (Sherrington, Napierville County, Quebec). The introduction to the Hinchinbrook microfilm in the LDS series (card catalog) states that the Hinchinbrook records are missing for 1833-45 and at St-Malachie-d'Ormstown for 1846-57. This is not entirely true. An additional volume of these missionary records by Father James Moore, labled "E", has been located at the Valleyfield Courthouse (Palais de Justice) by Albert Smith, and the records for 1838-45 are at St-Jean-Chrysostome. These will be published later.

Extractions were made by Virginia Easley DeMarce from microfilms of the parish registers made by the Genealogical Society of Utah, reel 1,031,575. The records of St-Romain-de-Hemmingford, Huntington County, Quebec, also contain many records pertaining to families of Sherrington, Ormstown, and the general region.

Brief biographical sketches, of persons who lived in Canada at some time, were extracted from Biographical History of LaCrosse, Monroe and Juneau Counties, Wisconsin. (Chicago: The Lewis Publishing Company, 1892.) This does not include persons who merely landed at the Port of Quebec and went immediately to the United States. Additional biographies may be found in the History of LaCrosse County, Wisconsin (Chicago: Western Historical Company, 1881), History of Monroe County, Wisconsin, Randolph A. Richards, editor (Chicago: C.F. Cooper & Co., 1912), and Biographical History of LaCrosse, Trempealeau and Buffalo Counties, Wisconsin (Chicago: The Lewis Publishing Company, 1892). Neither of the tri-county histories shown above appear in A Bibliography of American County Histories, P. William Filby, compiler (Baltimore: Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1985).

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

As soon as this issue is mailed I plan to catch up with correspondence and then print The King's Daughters, something that is long overdue. Thank you for your patience. With the exception of publishing the August issue, and tending to family matters, I've spent the majority of my time finishing Steve's book (see the flyer on page 223). I have a mixed feeling of accomplishment and relief about this.

A group of genealogists interested in co-ordinating and publicizing all of the genealogy groups in Wisconsin met on August 23. A follow-up meeting is planned for November 1 at the Teepee Supper Club in Tomah, Wisconsin and everyone is welcome.

In the May and August "Letter" I mentioned a new genealogy scam from American Genealogies/Elizabeth Ross. A new one arrived recently. It is very similar in every way, down to the type of postcard solicitation and the price. The return postcard for each is a 1st Class pre-paid permit from Scranton, PA. The new one is signed by Mary Whitney. Genealogists have been warned about these scams for a long time, but the average recipient has no idea this is not a genealogy of their specific family. A letter to the editor of your local newspaper may save someone from disappointment. A sad side effect of these scams is that genealogists who have spent years and money in researching their family find that their family book offer is viewed with suspicion.

On November 8, 1986 I will speak at the Brown County Library Annual Family Tree Workshop in Green Bay, Wisconsin. The library recently acquired many French-Canadian reference books from the late Marie St. Louis. I will explain how to use this material, as well as how to best use the multi-volume demographic series published by the University of Montreal. In the afternoon John Mertens will talk about "Researching Your Civil War Ancestor", Ken Kieper will talk about "Computers and Genealogy", Mary Jane Herber will have a class for beginners, and I will have a question and answer session.

Wiley Pope is publishing a series of area guides to research in Minnesota counties as well as Minnesota Cemeteries In Print. The reverse of the title page states, "PHOTOCOPY WARNING. While photocopying in small amounts does not normally violate copyright restrictions, please remember that the production of future books depends on the sale of current volumes. Every sale increases the possibility of more information being made available in the future. If too few copies of this book are sold, we cannot afford to produce other volumes". Often a well-meaning genealogist is so overjoyed to find something to help them in their research that they take it from the library shelf directly to the copy machine, without a thought about the possible consequences to themselves. I point this out especially in connection with Tom Laforest's series of volumes of Our French-Canadian Ancestors. Each photocopied story increases the possibility that the series will have to be discontinued. Keep this in mind when you debate whether to purchase the book or to go to the library and copy the story/stories about your ancestors.

There were no negative comments regarding the surname index to queries and articles. A lot of people wrote to say they like it and want it continued. If you feel differently, let me know, otherwise it will be continued.

Congratulations to our son-in-law. He and his mother were reunited for the first time in 15 years, and she met her grandchild and daughter-in-law. What a very special time for them!

May your families be united for the Holidays and have a very happy time with them all. We wish you peace and love.

GOOD HUNTING!

QUERIES

PLEASE READ. Following are some of the abbreviations used in queries. No periods are used. There are no specific rules for queries, but some advice: mention a time era and place, if you can. DO NOT USE ABBREVIATIONS WHEN SUBMITTING QUERIES and please write surnames in all capital letters. If you are sending a number of queries for future issues, please submit each on a separate sheet.  means their marriage and ascending line will be found in Dictionnaire Généalogique des Familles Canadiennes (Tanguay, 7 volumes) and/or Dictionnaire National des Canadiens Français (Drouin, 2 volumes). Acadian lines may be found in Acadian Descendants (Jehn, 5 volumes) and/or Histoire et Généalogique des Acadiens (Arsenault, 6 volumes). Query deadline for the February issue is December 15.

PARISH SACRE COEUR DE JESUS, STANSTEAD, QUEBEC
TO FAMILIES RESIDENT IN THE UNITED STATES
1826-1834 and 1848-1860

The following extracts from the parish registers of Sacre-Coeur de Jesus, Stanstead, Quebec include only those records that mention a place of residence in the United States. They pertain to mission work performed in the U.S. by the Stanstead priests, primarily in Orleans County, Vermont. A few pertain to New Hampshire and Massachusetts. Bound in the front of Volume I is part of an earlier register, starting 9 July 1826, signed J. Holmes ptre miss., M. Power ptre., H. Robson, ptre. The first page has no heading and begins with Baptism #35, so these pages must represent only a fragment of a larger original register. Acts in these pages were signed by J. Holmes, M. Power, H. Paisley and H. Robson, all Catholic missionary priests. The last two acts had initials only: "J. McC". Entries are in a mixture of French and English languages. Extractions were made (and translated) by Virginia Easley DeMarce from microfilms of the parish registers made by the Genealogical Society of Utah, reel 1,031,643.

REFERENCE SHELF

Lareau Genealogy: Descendants of a Carpenter, Paul J. Lareau. (Baltimore: Gateway Press, Inc., 1986). 2 volumes, hard cover, 6" x 9", 1261 pp., including an every-name index. Special offer, until October 31, 1986, $50 to US and $60 (US funds) to Canada. Order from the author at 1891 Ashland Avenue, St. Paul, MN 55104. This genealogy is superior to many of the run-of-the-mill compilations. It is more than a dictionary of known descendants of Jacques DeLaRaue, as individual biographies are included. The numbering system is easy to follow, linking parents to children and vice versa. A bibliography of sources is included and the author resisted temptations to romanticize the lives of early immigrants. Any descendant will be pleased to have this work which includes many photographs. Libraries and genealogical societies should definitely add this to their collection.

After working for two years to finish the Campbell genealogy, I can appreciate the amount and quality of work that went into this project. A job well done, Paul!

Our French-Canadian Ancestors, Volume IV, Thomas J. Laforest. (Palm Harbor, FL: LISI Press, 1986). 6" x 9", soft cover, 284 pp., including every-name index. $14, with a special offer (while available) of $45 for the set of four volumes, postpaid. Genealogists who do not read French welcome each volume in this on-going series of biographies of French-Canadian ancestors. The first three were authored by Gérard Lebel, C.Ss.R. Volume four is written by Jacques Saintonge. The sources cited will assist genealogists in furthering their research, whether it involves the subjects written about, or other Québec immigrants.

Chapters in this volume are: The Life of the People; The Life in Québec; Jacques AUBUCHON dit LE LOYAL; Jean BARIL; Pierre BIRON; Marie-Catherine de SAINT-AUGUSTIN; Marin BOUCHER; Pierre CHAMPOU dit JOLICOEUR; Jean COSSET; Mathurin DUBE; François DUCLOS; François GARNIER dit PELLERIN; Mathurin GOVIN; Jean HEROU dit BOURGAINVILLE; Florent LECLERC; Claude LEFEBVRE dit BOULANGER; François LE MAISTRE dit LA MORILLE et LE PICARD; Judith RIGAUD; Jacques LE MARCHAND; Françoise CAPEL; Jacques MASSE dit BEAUMIER; Robert PEPIN; Nicolas PERROT; The RACLOS Sisters; Louis PINARD; Jean TERRIEN du PONCEAU; Evolution of French-Canadian Family Names; A Selected Bibliography.

The chapter of family name variations begins a series to be continued in future volumes. Names in this volume begin with A and B, and are cross-indexed. To date, 10 volumes have been published in French, and we eagerly await each English translation. The books are priced low enough for genealogists to purchase them for their own libraries. Please don't go to the library and photocopy the story on your own ancestor.

Connecticut Colonists: Windsor 1635-1703, Jay Mack Holbrook. (Oxford, MA: Holbrook Research Institute, 1986). 6" x 9", hard cover, 297 pp. $35 plus $2 shipping. The book lists each person in Windsor, CT by event, date of the event, name of parent or spouse, and the source of information. Sources include published materials and manuscript collections, such as ratable lists and church tax rolls. If you've tracked your people back to this area, you now have another tool created by Jay. Send SASE for a list of compilations of Massachusetts Vital Records and other publications.

From The Field of Augustin and Zoe Beauchamp, n.a., n.p. 8 1/2" x 11", spiral bound, 1" thick, no price stated. Augustin Beauchamp married Zoe Beauchamp 2 May 1850 at St-Jerome, Quebec. Their eight children were born there and all but one migrated to Olga, North Dakota. Biographies and photographs of these people and their descendants are included. One daughter, Melina, married Marcel Brunet and remained in the Montreal area. Contact with this branch was lost, and the family would like to hear from them. Write Leo Beauchamp, Olga Route Box 110, Langdon, ND 58249. Leo also sent a copy of the parish register of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart Church of Olga 1882-1908.

Gems of Genealogy, bi-monthly publication of the Bay Area Genealogical Society of Green Bay, WI. This is a "Reader's Digest" of genealogy and has many helpful hints and addresses. There is a continuing list of surnames being researched by members. Membership is $4 per year to the Society at 832 South Quincy Street, Green Bay, WI 54301. If you have ancestors from this very early Wisconsin settlement, whether they are early French-Canadians, or the later Belgian (and other European) immigrants, you should be a member of B.A.G.S.

✓ Supplement to Mariages de St. Joseph de Burlington, Vermont. This typed supplement is available at cost of photocopy and postage. It contains the names of the parents in approximately 90 marriages of the repertoire, or other additional information, and 20 marriage banns for marriages that do not appear in the repertoire, although most of them did take place in other parishes. This new information came to light in an announcement book kept by the priest for the years from December 1857 through 1863. He evidently recorded parents' names to read out when he read the banns in church, but then did not record them in the church register. The announcement book was found in 1985. The supplement also contains corrections of interpretation and printing in the repertoire, and a few comments where it appears that the marriage was not correctly recorded in the church register. $1.10 plus .56 postage from Veronique Gassette, 21 Heath Street, South Burlington, VT 05401.

A Pioneer Family of Dane County, Wisconsin, John and Mary (Lunny) Campbell and Their Descendants: Including the Jones, Thomas, Patton, Collins, Thompson and Other Related Families, Stephen C. Gilmour. (Dexter, MI: Thomson-Shore Press, 1986).

Many of you know that I decided to help complete Steve Gilmour's Campbell genealogy. At the time of his death, two years ago, he had completed much of his family history book. His research was very thorough, and the biographies are well documented. Later generations supplied family information sheets. His brother, Peter Gilmour, assisted with the finishing touches and prepared the introduction. Assistance with proofreading, writing style and checking for accuracy was given by James L. Hansen, Marshall Cook, and Michael Engh, S.J. Other family members and friends contributed help in many different ways.

John Campbell and Mary Lunny and their adult children came from Scotland and settled in Dane County, Wisconsin before 1838. One of their grandchildren was said to be the first non-native American born there. A son operated a stagecoach stop and tavern along the old Military Road. The beginning chapters are about early pioneer history of Wisconsin and Dane County.

Edward Campbell moved his family to Columbia County, Wisconsin. After the deaths of Edward and his wife, the children returned to Richmond, Virginia where they were raised by their Walton grandparents. One of these children served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War, and frequently wrote to his cousins in Wisconsin. Descendants are in Virginia and California.

Catherine Campbell married Terrance Jones and their son settled in Colorado. Catherine subsequently married Thomas Thomas. Many of their descendants live in Wisconsin, as well as points west, and include the families of Fischer, Cenfield, Safranek, Pugh, Johns, Royal, Wilcox, Treweek, Lewis, Rule, Strong, Kahlenberg, Jackson and Davidson.

John Campbell married Lucinda Griggs. Their daughter Mary Ann married James Vail Thompson and settled in Columbia County, Wisconsin. Families included are Thompson, Ploekelman, Schmidt, Hamilton, Laughlin, Willard, Porter, Dahlke, Rand and Sederberg.

Eleanor Campbell married Andrew Patton. Their families are in Wisconsin, Iowa, Oregon and Illinois. Included are the names of Proud, Richards, May, McGuirl, Close, Miller, Wyllie, Gesme, Mennes, Beeson, Straw, Beale, Lumina, Brantmeyer, Kenison, Waldron, Gellatly, Wheeler, Williams, Fortune, Hanely, Kleinheinz, Hayter, Allbaugh, McIntire, Lemon, Hawkins, Larson and Fisher.

Hugh Campbell married Celinda Harris and later moved to Dunn County, Wisconsin. Some of their children went to Montana and Washington. Names included are Werner, Randen, Shoults, Keevy, Dodge, Yates and Koron.

Margaret Campbell married William Collins. One of their children homesteaded in Nebraska. Family names are Miller, Millis, Falck, Hallock, Cressy, Gilmour, Crounse, Neufeld, Hays, Todd and Emmel.

6" x 9", 425 pages, soft cover, $20, tax and postage included. Delivery expected in late November, 1986. Checks are payable to the Campbell Book Account. Order from the publisher: Joy Reisinger CGRS, 1020 Central Avenue, Sparta, WI 54656.
