President's Letter

BY: JANIS BOHLKEN
SGS President

Hello everyone. The administrative year 2007/2008 starts in July 2007 for the first time. Therefore, the Board positions start July 1, 2007 and go until June 30, 2008. Retiring Board Members are Betty Jewison, Bonnie Geldof and Dawn Culbert and I would like to thank them for making time to participate as Board Members. There are eight Board members for the 2007/2008 administrative year: President: Janis Bohlken; Past President: Rocky Sample; Directors: Susan Leitch, Bonnie Downing, Barbara de Vlieger, Charles Alton, Lindy Kasperski and Joyce Anderson. If you are talking with them, wish them well during their Board term. It is always appreciated to have feedback on this endeavour.

The first spring Seminar in combination with the Annual General Meeting was held the weekend of April 27, 2007. Over 100 people turned out for the Techno Expo. I know that I learned a lot from the speakers and I believe most of the other attendees did too. It was especially rewarding to see how excited everyone was with the topics and how fast everyone got to their rooms to get the best seats. Thank you to the speakers and vendors for a fun and interesting weekend. My congratulations to the SGS staff and Chris Krismer, Seminar Co-ordinator, and her team of volunteers for the great job in organizing the event.

We are still looking for volunteers for a number of tasks. There are three coordinator positions: Saskatchewan Resident Index (SRI), Burial Index and Obituary Index. There are tasks for indexing, data input, scanning, proofreading as well as working in the Library and Research Room. If you are able to spare some time, please think about volunteering for one of these tasks. It is only with the help of our volunteers that these tasks can be completed.

Last April at the Annual General Meeting, the announcement was made that SGS was starting to look for a new home. The Moving Fund has risen from just over $400.00 to over $3000.00, in just under a year. Our goal is to raise $25,000.00 to be able to move all our resources. We are presently looking for space that will meet the requirements for our library as well as accessibility for all our members, the public and future members. Our goal is to be moved for SGS's 40th Anniversary in 2009. The donation form is available on SGS's website as well as from the Library and Research Room.

Congratulations to the Central Butte, Grasslands and Grenfell Branches on their 25th Anniversaries this year. Enjoy your celebrations.

Have an enjoyable summer and good luck in your family history and volunteering endeavours.

Editor's Notes

BY: LINDA DUNSMORE-PORTER
Executive Director

As this issue comes to you in June, we thought it would be interesting to have a "wedding spread." We would like to thank all those who provided wedding pictures and stories of their ancestors.

We have also included a number of Wedding Announcements from around the province. The Leader (an early Regina newspaper) gleaned the local newspapers and reprinted social events. The wedding write-ups were taken from the SGS collection and have been reprinted here verbatim, including any spelling or grammar mistakes.

SGS has gathered and indexed all the births, deaths, and marriages from the early Regina newspapers and published six volumes covering the period 1883 to 1916 (1917 and 1918 are being extracted now). Copies of the excerpts which were indexed are held at SGS and can be accessed in the Library and Research Room. Some of the copies are very poor; however, they can be viewed on microfilm at the Saskatchewan Archives Board.

I hope you enjoy.

Kenneth G. Aitken Remembered

BY: LAURA M. HANOWSKI

It was with great sadness we learned of the passing of Kenneth G. Aitken, age 59, on 21 April 2007 at Penticton, British Columbia. Ken had suffered from ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease) for the past year.

Ken was known by genealogists throughout Canada, the United States and the United Kingdom through the articles he contributed to journals, workshops and seminars he conducted, classes he presented at the Regina Public Library and through the Internet for the National Institute for Genealogical Studies. Others would have known him as a fellow member of the Association of Professional Genealogists (APG) and the Genealogical Speakers Guild. Ken served as a charter president of the Hambrook Family History Society and as the editor of their journal for fifteen years.

In Saskatchewan Ken had served as president of the Battlefords Branch of the Saskatchewan Genealogical Society, and as a director and second vice-president of the Saskatchewan Genealogical Society (SGS.) He was a popular speaker at many SGS seminars. Ken also played an active role in the College of Certified Saskatchewan Genealogists (CCSG).

From 1984 to March 2007 Ken was the librarian in the Prairie History Room at the Regina Public Library. Under Ken's leadership the local history and fur company era collections grew substantially.

Since late 2005 Ken has shared his knowledge and expertise through his genealogy blog at <http://www.genealogy-education.com>. His family will keep the blog so anyone who has not visited the pages can still do so. More insight into the challenges Ken faced can be found on his son Neil's blog which is listed on Ken's page as "The Hermit Poet."

Our sincere sympathy goes out to Ken's wife Christine Mei-Chiang, his son Neil, his daughter Emele (Adam) Dykes and grandson Thomas.

WEDDING IN PRINCE ALBERT

Marriage of Miss Kidd and Mr. Wilkinson

From our own correspondent.

PRINCE ALBERT. A Visit to Archives New Zealand in Wellington

BY: BRIAN S. BRODIE

Certified Saskatchewan Researcher, MCCSG

In January and February 2007, I spent four weeks in New Zealand and saw something of that beautiful country. This included some time in New Zealand's capital, Wellington, at the southern tip of the North Island. As a genealogist, I also wanted to look at the National Archives. The Archives New Zealand building is located at 10 Mulgrave Street. This is just a short walk from the New Zealand Parliament, known for its distinctive shape as "The Beehive."

The entrance lobby was inviting. Obtaining a Reader's Ticket to access the collections was a formality, requiring a researcher to sign an undertaking to observe the "Reading Room Regulations." Lockers are provided for bags and briefcases and "pencils only" is the rule.

Archives New Zealand has 83 kilometres of material, half a million maps and plans, 1.8 million photos and 20,000 films.

A general introduction to what is available in the archives is given as a video presentation in the "Living Room" at the side of the entrance lobby.

Archives New Zealand produces a set of reference guides which clearly set out what records are available and how to access them. These are:

1. Citizenship:
Naturalization, Aliens.
2. Personal Identity:
Births, Deaths and Marriages, Notices of Intention to Marry, Coroner's Inquests, Divorce, Probate and Estate records.
3. War:
19th Century Personnel files, First World War, Second World War, Post Second World War, Air Force and Navy records.
4. Migration:
Shipping Records 1840-1880, Immigration 1880-1970, Group/ Nationality Immigration/ Emigration.

5. Education:

Department of Education, Education Boards, Teachers, Universities.

I brought back a set of these guides and have donated them to the Saskatchewan Genealogical Society Library and Research Room.

Although some of the information I wanted was actually available on line, since I was in the Archives, I tried a practical exercise in finding some immigrant passengers to New Zealand from England. I did know the name of the ship on which they had travelled, The Crusader, but very little else except that it was probably in the 1880s. I was directed to a card index, where immigrant ships were listed by name. Each card had a list of arrival dates in New Zealand of that ship and a number relating to a box file. I note that the journey from England took over three months. Each box file contained a photocopied passenger list in alphabetical order. At the third attempt, I found the names I was looking for. It had taken 35 minutes. I was impressed, as it was quite a contrast to some of the problems frequently experienced with Canadian Immigrant Passenger Lists, even when the name of the ship is known.

My visit was the day after New Zealand's National Holiday, Waitangi Day (February 6) which celebrates the signing of the Treaty between the British Government and the Maori Chiefs in 1840. In the Constitution Room at the Archives were some of the original documents relating to the Treaty of Waitangi, together with a number of other documents which are stepping-stones in New Zealand's growth from Colony to Nation. These include the 1893 Women's Suffrage Petition.

Another room of interest held exhibits explaining New Zealand's national symbols, such as its flag, the silver fern, New Zealand's National Anthem, coinage and the All Blacks Rugby Team.

Archives New Zealand has three regional offices: Auckland, Christchurch and Dunedin. Lists of holdings in Archives New Zealand can be searched electronically through ARCHWAY, which is accessed through the web site www.archway.archives.nz.

Inquiries can be sent through online request forms available at the web site www.archives.govt.nz.

Mr. Milliken performing the ceremony the bride was given away by her brother, D.J. Young of Calgary. Unforeseen obstacles prevented the attendance of J. J. Young, M.L.A., of Calgary, another brother. The bride, a very popular young lady, has grown up in Regina and carries to her new Grenfell home the hearty good wishes of the Regina people. Her husband is a progressive medical practitioner at Grenfell. (Regina Leader 08 Jan 1903)

Genealogy Can be Fun: "Mixing-up" the Old and the New

BY: GEORGE MITTEN

My wife, Rae, and I are presently working on a particular branch of her maternal family which originated in the United States and crossed the border at the time of the 1905 wheat boom around Weyburn, SK. Rae is fortunate in having two elderly ladies very interested and knowledgeable about the family, along with a younger cousin who does much of the legwork for the older enthusiasts. These intergenerational projects are rewarding genealogically as well as personally as the three are now closer due to the shared interest.

One recent occurrence was the discovery of an old black and white photo of an elderly gentleman and his wife beside an automobile that looked to be World War I vintage. On the back of the picture in faded pencil was written "Uncle Marshus." The elder ladies noted that Uncle Marshus was some connection of their grandfather, Andrew Jackson Olds, that Marshus lived "in the States near the border" and they thought he likely had "passed away." Rae and I thought he had passed on too, after looking over the vintage of the car in the picture. Rae had a hunch that Marshus and wife may have lived in the same area Andrew Jackson Olds had, which was Fergus Falls, Minnesota. A telephone call to the Otter Tail County Office drew a blank at first. However, an older voice came on the phone and she noted that no more Olds were in the district, but she thought some connection of theirs lived in Friberg Township at the east end of the County. She gave me the name of the Friberg Township Secretary. A call to him elicited a list of elderly relatives—he was even tied into the Olds in some shirt tail way. To shorten up this long tale, suffice it to say that we now have weekly contact with two very sprightly relatives from the area, both ladies, one of whom still works at a supermarket. One is 96+ and the other 88! The burial ground of the family has been found with many dates and unusual factoids. For instance, one relative was tragically killed when a safe he was moving fell on him. Our Weyburn relations are pleased to have one more piece of the family-origins puzzle in place. On the lighter side, the last great mystery solved was that Uncle Marshus always signed "M. A. Olds." What did M. A. stand for? Turns out he was christened "Marcus Aurelius Olds." No one needed to ask why he didn't use this moniker.

This story reveals very clearly what not to do when involved in genealogy as the errors here are in the double digits. Rae and I do think, however, that it demonstrates the delights that can result from a good hunch and a bit of luck or serendipity. The fun element is so often left out in discussing the family story and that is an important part of the process. Rae finds that these stories from the past help to sustain her through the exigencies of the present. Accordingly, she is looking into digital audio recording, voice recognition and voice-to-text computer programs and technology so that oral histories can be digitalized into computer voice and text files that can be immediately accessible to others through e-mail. She attended a related workshop at the University of Saskatchewan and was delighted to see her voice simultaneously transferred into text on the computer screen, which could then be e-mailed as a voice file or a text message to anyone, anywhere. She has the system on order and would be interested in hearing from others with experience in using it in genealogy. It is truly another example of fun with the old and the new!

Weddings in Prince United Church

BY PEGGY DURANT

Permission has been granted by the author to reprint this article which was published in the Saskatchewan History and Folklore Society Inc. Folklore, Spring 2007.

A wedding at Prince United Church, June 1952. In front, Shirley (Durant) and Irwin Nixon. Behind them is the author and Groom's man, Stewart Hodgins, with Margaret and Jim Durant in Back

Young couples who married in Saskatchewan rural churches, for example those who married in Prince United Church in the 1940s and 1950s wanted their families and friends to share the joy of perhaps the most important event of their lives. Usually the bride came from the close knit rural community where the bride's parents lived and the bride was known to everyone. Sometimes, both the bride and groom came from the community. It was a social event for the community.

Brides of the 1940s and 1950s wore a variety of wedding attire from long white gowns with wedding veils to street length dresses or suits. Those who wanted more practical attire which could be worn after the wedding chose the latter. Others who wanted a more elaborate attire chose a long white dress with a veil.

Wedding receptions varied from private family wedding dinners to community celebration with the latter, women of the community helped by catering with sandwiches and dainties for the receptions.

The first wedding held in Prince United Church was a solemnized between Muriel Chapman of Prince, and Dan Fenig. Their wedding was held in the early 1940s and took place after the 11 o'clock Sunday service in the spring of the year. As a teenager, I found it exciting seeing Muriel in her long white satin wedding dress.

I believe that Muriel Chapman of Prince district and Dan Fenig's wedding dinner was celebrated in Muriel's parents home. Herb and Minette Chapman, Muriel's parents lived on a farm close to prince. Likely family members and close friends attended the dinner.

Another after the 11 o'clock Sunday service wedding was Elsie Nylander and peter Knoll on July 7, 1946.

Elsie Knoll of North Battleford told me in a telephone conversation that she and Peter planned on spending their honeymoon at the Calgary Stampede, but their plans were changed. Peter was offered a job as a Pool elevator agent immediately after their wedding.

Elsie's mother, Sarah (Nylander) Bolin, prepared a wedding dinner at the Bolin's family farm for invited guests. Besides Elsie's mother, her step-father Jack Bolin, Peter Knoll's parents, Elsie and Peter's brothers and sisters, other relatives and close friends came to the dinner.

Elsie's mother had two weeks to make a wedding cake and prepare the rest of the food. Elsie told me that her mother, Mrs. Bolin cooked a ham a day ahead of time and because she didn't have a fridge but keep the ham in the cool basement until it was needed the following day.

In July 1949, Elsie's sister Edna married Jim Smith in Prince United Church. Sarah Bolin likely with the help from the community prepared a reception which was held in the Prince Community Hall. The reception was open to the entire community.

Finally two years after their own wedding, Elsie and Peter Knoll celebrated their honeymoon along with Edna and Jim Smith in July 1949, at the Calgary Stampede. After all it's never too late to celebrate a wedding!

On June 14, 1954, my sister, Shirley Jean Durant, married Irwin Nixon in Prince United Church. I was my sister's bridesmaid. As the bride, my sister wore a light blue street length dress of nylon net over satin with a matching shoulder length veil. I wore a streetlength dress of yellow nylon net over taffeta with a veil. Steward Hodgins was the groom's best man. The wedding was solemnized by Reverend W. Cross.

My sister Shirley carried a bouquet of red roses. I carried a smaller bouquet of carnations with one yellow iris in the centre. These flowers came from a North Battleford florist.

Snap shots with a brownie cameras were taken outside the church. The bridal party then drove to North Battleford to Spencer's Studio where professional photos were taken.

As traditional throughout rural Saskatchewan, a wedding reception was held in Prince Community Hall with people from the community, neighbouring school districts and relatives invited. It was catered to by the women of the community and the Ladies Aid who prepared a variety of open faced sandwiches, brownies and squares of various kind. The wedding cake was served after the bride and groom cut the cake with a special knife tied with a white ribbon.

It is interesting to note that two silver tea services were provided for the occasion with Mrs. (Henry) Jessie LaBarre and Mrs. (E A) Mabel King pouring tea. Mrs. (Charles) Maggie Gansouge was in charge of the tea table. A lace tablecloth overlaid with a hand crocheted table cloth by Mrs. Kate Fitzgerald adorned the wedding bridal table.

Suitable white streamers and paper wedding bells were used to decorate the bridal table and hall. A day or two earlier Mrs. Jessie LaBarre, a family friend, and I also decorated the hall with branches of wolf willow and purple lilacs.

The day after the wedding my sister gave her beautiful bouquet of red roses to a friend, Mrs. Sarah Stoughton, who lived in North Battleford and who was shut in.

Another wedding of which I was a apart was Maxine King and Vie Weishaar. They were married in Prince United Church in September 1954. Maxine wore a full length white wedding gown likely of nylon and taffeta decorated with sequins and seed pearls. Maxine asked me to sing "I Love You Truly" while Maxine and Vie signed the wedding register.

Wedding pictures were taken in North Battleford followed by a wedding reception in Prince Community Hall. Women of the community and the Ladies Aid catered and served at the reception providing a variety of finger food, wedding cake, and tea and coffee. The women of Prince Community provided their best china for the occasion enabling guests to drink tea from bone china cups.

Wedding guests came mostly from within the province.

Today weddings are held in urban centres. Many rural churches such as the United Church in Prince have closed. The bride and groom live and work in cities. Guests at an urban wedding travel long distances to attend an, elaborate wedding often held in a strange large urban church. The wedding reception is held in a church hall or a hotel banquet hall and is a full course meal complete with toasts to the bride. This is in marked contrast to rural church weddings of the 1940s and 1950s.

An bpósfaidh tú mé? (Will you marry me?)

Traditions

- In Germany, when a little girl is born, trees are planted in her honour. When she set her wedding date, the trees are harvested and sold. The money is used for her dowry.
- According to Victorian tradition the bride would wear white at a formal wedding. Queen Victoria wore white at her wedding, and started the trend. At an informal wedding the bride could chose any other appropriate colour.
- The bridal veil was introduced into Europe by Crusaders returning from the East.
- In Cree tradition if a young man was interested in a young woman he would follow her for days without speaking to her. If her parents approved they presented a horse to the young man's father. The young couple would sit together in the new tipi her family had built. The young woman would give the young man a pair of moccasins. If he accepted the gift the couple was considered married.
- In medieval times the bride carried a bouquet of flowers to disguise unpleasant odors.

Helena Wiebe & Cornelius Ens 22 June 1916

My Mom's oldest sister, Helena (we called her Aunt Lena) Wiebe, married in a double ceremony with her younger sister on 22 June 1916 in the Church of the New Jerusalem, Rosthern, Saskatchewan.

Born on 3 September 1891 in Gretna, Manitoba, Helena died in Edmonton, Alberta on 15 March 1985; she was 93. A memorial service was held on 18 March 1985.

Aunt Lena had a tragic life. She and Cornelius Ens (1887-1920) had two children, William (Billy) and Cornelia Helena, however, by 1924 the two children and Cornelius had died.

Anton Reiter and Christina Fischer
16 February 1923

Anton was born in the German Catholic Village of Kandel in the steppes of the Ukraine on 16 July 1900. Anton was the son of George Reiter and Katherine Reiter. In 1906 Anton immigrated to North Dakota and then on to St. Joseph Colony near what is now Tramping Lake, SK. His father was one of a group of three who scouted out the area and filed homestead claims for the rest of the families who came to Canada after they discovered the good land in North Dakota was already spoken for.

Christina's parents were Anton Fischer and Christina Zahn. Christina was also born in Russia on 1 January 1901.

Anton and Christina were married at St. Michael's Roman Catholic Church in the community of Tamping Lake on 16 February 1923. They had seven children. Anton and Christina moved to Osoyoos, BC where Anton worked as a garage mechanic until his death in Oliver, BC at the age of 50 on 22 May 1950. Christina outlived Anton by 43 years. She passed away on 21 October 1993 in Surrey, BC at the age of 92. She never remarried.

Christina's mother, Christina, remarried to Anton's father George in 1937.

Ludwig Draeger
and Florence Friedenberg
25 February 1913

Ludwig (Louis) Draeger and Florence Friedenberg were married on 25 February 1913 in the Baptist Church in the Bergheim District east of Saskatoon.

Ludwig Draeger, born 7 May 1889, in Kreis Rowno, Russia, emigrated with his parents, Adolph and Emilie (Donat) Draeger and siblings to the Neche, North Dakota area in 1895. Adolph, along with his family, was granted United States Citizenship on 28 February 1906. On 6 November 1907 Adolph and family took up a homestead on the SE Sect. 12, Twp. 37, Rge 4, west of the 3rd Meridian, near Saskatoon.

While living in Neche, North Dakota area the Draeger children were able to visit and socialize with their Donat Grandparents and Donat Aunts and Uncles, all who lived in the vicinity. They also attended the Lutheran Church in Gretna, Manitoba.

At the time of his marriage Ludwig (Louis) Draeger would have been 23 years of age, had a minimal amount of education and was of the Lutheran faith. Florentine (Florence) Friedenberg spoke German, was well educated, and was a very religious Baptist woman. Florence was concerned with fashionable dressing and wore a bustle. One of her conditions prior to marriage was that any children would be brought up in the Baptist faith. Florence was born in 1894 and would have been 18 at the time of her marriage. It is not known if Florence was born in Volhynia, Russia. They both lived within the same area of the Bergheim District near Saskatoon. Florence died on 7 March (?), leaving her husband with young children to raise.

Scottish Wedding Traditions

Scotland had two types of marriages: regular and irregular. A regular marriage was celebrated by a minister, following the reading of the banns three Sundays in a row. An irregular marriage was recognized if: the couple came to a mutual agreement to marry at that moment; there was a promise between the couple to marry sometime in the future followed by sexual intercourse; or by living together demonstrating an agreement to marry.

Jacob Frohlich and Philippina Hungle 20 January 1926

Jack and Phyllis FROLICK were married 20 January 1926 in Holdfast, SK.

Jacob (Jack) FROHLICH (1899-1981) was born in Mannheim, Russia. When he was one year old, he sailed with his parents and older sister on the SS Lake Ontario to Halifax, NS en route to Towner, ND. In 1906, the family moved to Holdfast, SK where Jack's father homesteaded. Sadly, his father died when Jack was 12 years old.

Philippina (Phyllis) HUNGLE (1907-1980) was born in Holdfast, SK. Her parents emigrated from Odessa, Russia, and homesteaded in the Holdfast area in 1905.

A few years after Jack's and Phyllis's marriage, they moved to Regina, SK with their children, Dorothy and Arthur. Jack was the proprietor of several family-owned grocery stores and cafés in the 1930s to 1950s with Phyllis working alongside him. When television made its appearance in the mid- 1950s, Jack started Frolick's T.V. Rentals, Sales and Services. He retired in 1969.

Adam Georg Hebig and Anna Merz
25 November 1902

ADAM GEORG HEBIG was born 14 September 1868 in Retzstadt, Germany, and died 24 June 1925 in St Elizabeth Hospital, Humboldt, SK. He married ANNA MERZ 25 November 1902 in Lismore, MN, daughter of KASPAR MERZ and FRANZISKA DEISSLER. She was born 2 March 1886 in Rühlingstetten, Germany, and died 4 July 1929 in Willmont, SK.

Adam came over from Germany on the SS Lahn, arriving 7 March 1890 and landing at the New York port of Ellis Island. Anna and her family came over from Germany 19 September 1893 on board the SS EMS, also landing at Ellis Island.

According to Uncle Ferdinand Hebig, Aug 2000, the Hebigs, Merzs, Ilgs and Weisensels all came together to Rosthern, SK from Nobles County, MN. Rosthern was the end of the railroad line in 1903. They all settled on homesteads in the Willmont area, which I suspect they named after the town of Willmont in Minnesota where they lived before coming to Canada. There are still Hebig relatives living in the town and that area of Minnesota.

Ed Ridley and Leila Howard
26 August 1933

Leila (Howard) and Ed Ridley, married 26 August 1933 in Prince Albert, SK. Best man was Jack Carnegie, and bridesmaid was Greta Halliday, later to become Mrs. Jacob Rempel.

Ed Ridley graduated from the Ontario Agricultural College, University of Guelph, ON in 1927. His first job took him to Prince Albert, SK where I believe he was a milk/dairy inspector. He met Leila through sports (ie. tennis), church and choir, etc. They were both active in sports. Later they would go camping at Waskesiu in Prince Albert National Park. Then Leila's parents, A.C. and Aggie Howard, had a "shacktent" and we all had many happy hours there.

In about 1939, my parents bought a cottage at Waskesiu from the PA Lumber Yard, and we are now into the fifth generation going to Waskesiu...1. Howards, 2. Ridleys, Sr., 3. Dorell and Arthur Ridley, 4. Carolyn and Craig Shay Taylor, 5. Russell, Carolyn's son, now 18.

C. Gordon Turner and Rose Hanrieder
30 March 1933

C. Gordon Turner married Rose Hanrieder 30 March 1933 in Regina, SK. It was a quiet wedding held at the manse. Therefore, this is not an actual wedding picture, but a picture taken later in the year. Because it was during the Depression, they told no one of their marriage, so that Rose could continue to work for a short time. During the Depression married women were not allowed to work outside the home, as this could take jobs away from the men.

They raised two children, and retired to their cottage at Swanson's Beach, moving from there in 1974 to Indian Head, SK. Gordon died 1 November 1999 and Rose on 14 March 2004. Both are buried in Indian Head, SK.

From the Office ...

BY LINDA DUNSMORE-PORTER

Executive Director

SGS continues to work on its cemetery, burial and obituary projects. We continue to look for volunteers who can help with the scanning and data entry.

The Saskatchewan Vital Statistics Death Index is online up to 1917. The remainder will be added as it is completed. They are aware of the incorrect field name and it will be corrected (Date of Birth rather than Date of Death). However, the date entered is the date of death. You may need to try various spelling for some names, remember the individual entering the original record may not have known how to spell the name, or was given the incorrect spelling by the informant at the time of the person's death. Also, the records for Saskatchewan are not complete until approximately 1920.

We continue to look for photos to feature in, and on, the cover of future issues of the Bulletin. If you would like to share your family photo, please scan and e-mail the photo to use, along with a description/story. For alternative way to send your article and photo please call Linda or Lisa.

Saskatchewan Genealogical Society
Heritage Award Recipient
Dave Pickering, Moose Jaw

Janis Bohlken, SGS President, Marge Cleave, SGS Moose Jaw Branch President, Dave Pickering

David G. Pickering was born in Moose Jaw, SK in 1933. In 1946 his family moved to Victoria, B.C. where he completed his high school education. Following high school Dave became a member of the R.C.M.P. and was stationed in Manitoba. After twelve moves in three years, he resigned from the force and was employed as a constable with the Canadian Pacific Railway Police. In 1960 Dave and his wife, Wilma Fox, moved to Moose Jaw where he was employed at Aldersgate College as business manager, Dean of Men and an instructor. Following Aldersgate College he was employed by the Moose Jaw Union Hospital and the Regina Health District. Dave retired in December 1999. Dave and Wilma will have been married 50 years and have three children and seven grandchildren.

In 1981, Dave and Wilma became interested in family history following the death of Wilma's mother. Dave's mother had passed away the year before. Going through the personal effects of Wilma's mother they found many letters, historical documents, pictures and an account book, which was started by her grandfather in May 1871 and continued on by her father until 1946. This "bug" started Dave on the search for more information on their family history. This has led him on a journey that has involved research of all ancestral lines on both the Pickering and Fox families. Today, he has over 25,000 names in his database and it continues to grow. Dave also has published the Pickering history entitled "The Many Moves of Edward Jonathan Pickering and Mary Agnes Beamish...including the Pickering ancestors and descendants." He is working on three other books: "Beamish Family History," "Fox trails...from Germany to Western Canada" and "Burke and Toffey Family History." In tracing the Fox family history, Dave has proven that Wilma's great-great-grandfather, who came from Germany in 1772, was a United Empire Loyalist.

Throughout this research, Dave has been a member of:

- Harrow Early Immigrant Research Society (HEIRS), Harrow, Ontario. One purpose of HEIRS is to document and preserve family history. Dave has shared and deposited copies of many documents with HEIRS;
- Member of a research group studying the Beamish Family;
- Member of a research group studying the Fox Family.

Dave has been a long time member of SGS, having served on the Board of Directors from 2001-2003. He was also a member of the Saskatchewan Heritage Resources Directory committee. As member of the College of Certified Saskatchewan Genealogists (CCSG), he served on the Board of Directors. He has been a member of the Moose Jaw Branch for many years during which he has served as treasurer and vice-chairman. Dave has always been willing to provide information and encouragement to members and visitors alike. As well, he has assisted individuals as far away as England and Australia with their family research. He completed the requirements for Certified Saskatchewan Record Searcher and Certified Saskatchewan Instructor.

Dave has been involved by:

- Providing many workshops throughout the province and at SGS Annual Seminars;
- Assisting with the preservation of school registries by assisting with data entry of Alexandra School records in the Prairie South School Division database;
- Working with the City of Moose Jaw Parks and Recreation Department to do data entry of Rosedale Cemetery records;
- Assisting with the 1999 and 2004 annual SGS seminars;

- Assisting with the preservation of historical records while at Aldersgate College;
- Encouraging many individuals to begin researching their own family history.

Now that Dave is retired, he plans on sorting through the many documents in his possession, and completing the books that he is working on.

Book Reviews

Ukrainian Genealogy: A Beginner's Guide by John D. Pihach. Toronto, Ontario: CIUS Press, 2007. 272 pp. $54.95 (cloth), $34.95 (paper). SPECIAL OFFER: MORE FOR LESS (valid only through Web site – go to bottom of page) Orders can be placed online at: <http://www.utoronto.ca/cius/publications/books/ukrainiangenealogy.htm> or by: e-mail: cius@ualberta.ca; telephone: (780) 492-2973 between 8:30 am and 4:30 pm (MST); fax: (780) 492-4967; Mail: CIUS Press, 450 Athabasca Hall, University of Alberta, Edmonton, AB, Canada T6G 2E8.

John D. Pihach's Ukrainian Genealogy is a guide to tracing one's Ukrainian ancestry in Europe. Consideration is also given to North American records that are specifically Ukrainian or relate to the immigrant experience. Because the overwhelming majority of people of Ukrainian origin in Canada and the United States have roots in western Ukraine or southeastern Poland, the guide concentrates on the resources of those regions. This handbook is intended primarily for those whose ethnic roots are Ukrainian, although some of the material in it may be useful to other groups with roots in Ukraine.

Chapters 1 and 2 discuss general topics that are preliminary to research. Personal names are examined in chapter 3. Chapters 4 and 5 outline the early religious experiences of Ukrainians in North America and the church records that are available. Chapter 6 addresses the crucial question of determining the name of the European ancestral community. Chapter 7 explains how to locate places on a map, describes the various administrative divisions that existed in the past, and looks at the many types of maps that pinpoint the location of the ancestral village and even the actual home. The resources for learning the history of a specific region are covered in chapter 8. Chapters 9 and 10 are devoted to church-based birth, marriage, and death records, the principal overseas genealogical resource. Chapters 11 and 12 survey other overseas materials. Several appendixes describe Ukrainian transliteration schemes and present a key to the scripts of the languages that were used in record keeping; provide a starting point for research by other ethnic groups with roots in Ukraine; and list useful Web sites.

This book will be very useful to those beginning their research as well as to those who are at a more advanced stage of researching their family history.

1. Basic Facts About Quarter Session Records by Richard Ratcliffe. (FFHS, 2007). 16pp. (A5) Book – Ref: FED-2113. Price £2.50 plus postage.

Quarter Session records are among the most voluminous records held by County Record and Archive Offices. Dating from 12th Century through to 1972, the records contain a huge amount of information of interest to family and local historians.

2. Introducing Family History by Stuart A. Raymond. (FFHS, 2006). 146pp. (A5) Book – Ref: FED-2117. Price £8.95 plus postage.

Family History has become much easier to research in recent years. Some of the most important sources are now available at the click of a mouse on the Internet. However a basic understanding of these sources is still needed if you are to trace your family tree. This book meets that need. The author provides the guidance needed to begin your investigations and explains what sources are available, where to find them and how to use them. He tells you how to trace your pedigree and encourages you to understand your ancestors' lives and the background of the society they lived in.

3. Finding out about your Family History in Yorkshire by Kathy Chater and Simon Fowler. (FFHS, 2006). 32pp. (A5) Book – Ref: FED-2110. Price £2.99 plus postage.

We all have ancestors. As millions of people are discovering, finding out about them can be very satisfying. But it can be difficult to know where to start. This book is brief and to the point when starting your family history. Although it does not tell you how to do your research it gives good leads as to what records are available and makes the point that anything found on the Internet must be checked against the original sources. The book is well illustrated with photographs and documents and contains many useful addresses and web sites to assist you in your researches.

4. The Second World War 1939-45 by Phil Tomaselli. (FFHS 2006). 48 pp. (A5) Book – Ref: FED-2112. Price £4.95 plus postage.

The Second World War was long, complex and brutal. People living between 1939 and 1945 played a part in these great events. Researching ancestors who took part in the Second World War can be challenging because individual service records are not yet available. However, there is much else that is available. The book looks at the major sources for tracing men and women who served in the armed forces and merchant marine.

5. Nelson's Navy 1793-1815 by Keith Gregson. (FFHS 2006). 32 pp. (A5) Book – Ref: FED-2111. Price £3.95 plus postage.

Britain's 'Wooden Wall' kept the country free from invasion from the French for 20 years from 1793. Each ship was manned by hundreds of seamen: the Royal Navy was the biggest employer of the period. We think of the big set piece battles, such as the Nile, St. Vincent and above all Trafalgar, but for the most part ships were engaged in blockading the French coast or in actions against individual enemy vessels. Did you have an ancestor in Nelson's Navy? If you did, then this book will point you in the right direction.

Joseph Edward Hinde
and Susanna Rempel
1 January 1934

Joseph Edward (Bob) Hinde and Susanna Rempel were married at Thistledale School in the Municipality of Great Bend, northwest of Saskatoon, on a very cold 1 January 1934. The ceremony was of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) with the groom's father, an elder of the Quaker Meeting, officiating. The marriage certificate, hand-written in elegant calligraphy by the groom's brother-in-law, was signed by all present.

1934 was the depths of the Depression, the Dirty Thirties, the Dustbowl. People were land-rich and cash-poor. The bride made her own wedding dress from open-blue wool. The materials for the dress along with the rest of her wedding garments cost less than ten dollars. The bride's dress was later made over as a best dress for her first daughter.

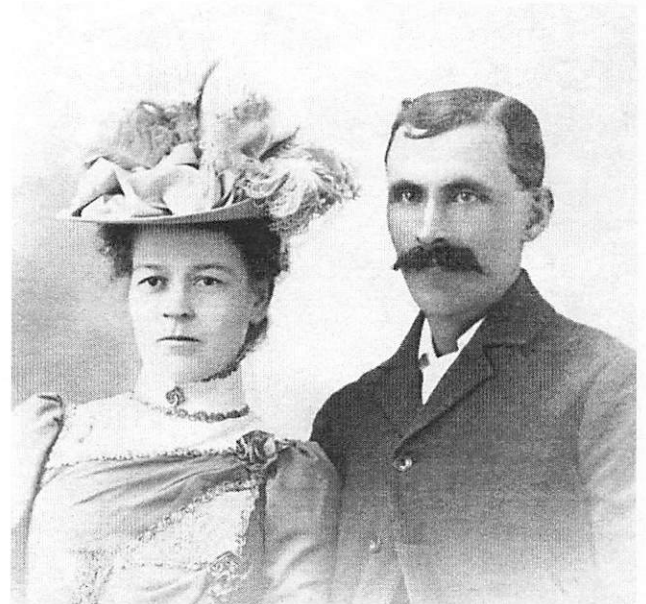

The newly-married couple left the schoolhouse after the reception in an open horse-drawn sleigh in the bitter cold, to honeymoon in the little house Bob had built for Susie at Valley Springs Ranch, his home and that of his parents and brother and sister. Later they had a few days holiday in Saskatoon, where this picture was taken.

William Hugh Cleland and Salome Letucha Draper
19 September 1900

My paternal grandparents were William Hugh Cleland (1858 to 1923) and Salome Letucha Draper (1875 to 1946). They were married 19 September 1900 in the Anglican Church in Riviere Desert, Quebec (Maniwaki). William was one of ten children born to parents of Irish descent who settled north of Ottawa. Seloma was the youngest of sixteen children born to parents of English and Irish descent who settled in the Gatineau Valley of Quebec. After marriage they lived on the original Cleland farm in Cameron Canton, Wright County, Quebec until 1919. To this union were born seven living children. William bought three quarters of land three miles south of Bengough, SK and moved his family there in 1919. He passed away in 1923 leaving Salome with a farm and seven children.

Herbert Sidney Blow and Amelia Sophia Martens
10 January 1919

My maternal grandparents were Herbert Sidney Blow aka Bert (1884 to 1961) and Amelia Sophia Martens aka Molly (1894-1956). They were married on 10 January 1919 in Alameda, SK. They had two children and lived most of their married life in Alameda and eventually retired to live in Estevan, SK. Bert Blow was born in Lewisham, Kent, England. He came to Canada in 1900 with one brother. He was a member of a large family consisting of five brothers and four sisters. Molly Martens was born in Cumberland, Cass County, Iowa to parents of German extraction. She was from a large family of twelve children. In 1919 Molly moved with her family to Canada where there was land and opportunity for the children of this large family.

Frederick Miller and Mary Ellen Hanson
7 December 1916

On 1906 the blended family of my maternal great-grandmother and step-great grandfather arrived in Canada at Pier 21 from Derbyshire, England. They were headed for the community of Pheasant Forks, Saskatchewan, Canada where they had been encourage to come and make a new life. My grandmother, Mary Ellen Hanson, a young girl of 13, would have found the countryside remarkably different to what she was used to.

A few months later that same year my maternal grandfather, Frederick Miller and his brother Archibald arrived in the same community from Derbyshire, England. The parents of these two families had known each other in Derbyshire as at one time they lived within a mile of each other. Whether or not the children knew each other before is something we will never know. Fred worked for various farmers in the area, saved his money and soon homesteaded near the border of western Saskatchewan. In winters he would return to Pheasant Forks and get employment in the area. With time to socialize, the romance between Fred and Mary Ellen soon flourished. They were married at Zion Methodist Church at Pheasant Forks on 07 December 1916 and honeymooned in Winnipeg. They raised a family of nine children at Loverna, Saskatchewan, with one dying as an infant. Most descendants of Fred and Mary Ellen now live in Alberta with only a few remaining in Saskatchewan.

George Stacey and Hannah Brown
10 January 1901

My paternal grandparents were married at Zion Methodist Church in the Primitive Methodist community of Pheasant Forks, NWT, Canada on 10 January 1901. Hannah Brown, fifth child of Luther Case and Elizabeth Ann [Watson] Brown was born in Dungannon, Huron County, Canada in 1881 and came west with her siblings and parents the same year, with the Primitive Methodist Colonization Company to Pheasant Forks. Luther homesteaded and received his patent for his land there. George Stacey arrived in Canada in 1888 from England to Pheasant Forks under the auspices of the Barnardo Boys Home. After a comfortable life in the middle class his world was suddenly torn apart. His mother died in 1882 and his father died six year later. His step-mother was financially unable to look after all the children, so he and his younger brother were put in care. His younger brother later came to Canada with another Home Children's scheme and settled in the same area as George. George worked for a number of farmers in the area and saved enough money to allow him to homestead and receive his patent for land in the community. He and Hannah raised a family of eight children, 2 boys, a set of twin girls, a set of twin boy and girl and a set of twin boys! They farmed and were active members in the community for many years. They retired to Regina in later years and were able to celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary with their entire family in attendance. George and Hannah's extended family are spread all over Canada and a few in the United States.

Saskatchewan Marriage Licences (1907 – 1922)

Saskatchewan Genealogical Society Library and Research Room

The Saskatchewan Genealogical Society (SGS) Library and Research Room recently acquired several original copies of Saskatchewan marriage licences from Becky Maddigan of Brampton, Ontario. She writes that her father purchased them at an auction in Niagara Falls, Ontario.

These licences are in two groups. The first group of licences, issued between 1907 and 1914, were issued mainly in the Fillmore, Fielding, Maymont, Radisson, and Saskatoon areas of Saskatchewan with the exception of one that was issued in Grenfell, one in Hafford, one in North Battleford, and one in Stoughton. The second group, issued between 1918 and 1922, were issued mainly in the Limerick, Mossbank, and Assiniboia areas of Saskatchewan with the exception of one issued in Moose Jaw and one issued in Woodrow.

CREE WEDDING AT CARLYLE

From Our Own Correspondent.

CARLYLE. April 8.—An event of more than ordinary interest took place at the manse, Carlyle, on Saturday afternoon last, on which occasion O. Moscum a dusky brave of the White Bear Reserve took unto his won camp-fire Ada Lovechild, a comely belle of the same tribe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. H. Jacobs, who had to revise the wording of the ceremony in places to convey the full significance. Indian agent Cory was the "Big Chief" of the ceremony, while Mrs. Armstrong, teacher of the White Bear school, gave the necessary instructions. The wedding ring was unique in having the names of the contracting parties engraved in Cree characters. The bridal costume was a pink flowered wrapparett encircled by a belt of Indian design.

The performing of the ceremony according to the recognized form of the Christian church is unusual among the Indians of the White Bear Reserve, the primitive custom of the tribe usually being followed, which includes the giving to the bride's parents by the groom, a pony or ponies—according to the esteem in which the bride is held. Computer Column

BY: CHRISTINA KRISMER

Another Seminar has come and gone. From all reports those attending felt they came away with information they could use. This was the first of what will now be an annual event – the Seminar and AGM combined. We can look forward to next year's event in Prince Albert.

One of our vendors at the Seminar – Legacy Family Tree also gave presentations. Geoff Rasmussen was “entertaining, enthusiastic and informative.”

Our keynote speaker on Friday, Clint Krismer, covered the computer from a variety of angles. His presentation was informative providing information for the comfortable computer user as well as the uncomfortable user. His advice caused one person to realize what a loss he would have if he didn't get home quickly and get those baby pictures backed up or at least copied onto another medium. Each and every one of us can relate to that!!

Our presenters on the other aspects such as software, photo retouching, scanning and computer toys provided information all could use.

The seminar was well attended. Everyone went home more informed.

The computer and genealogy are a good mix. Much can be found on the Internet. Entering data onto the computer and letting your software program sort and organize your information cuts hours of work. Genealogy continues to be fun and exciting.

Some updates for all – Ancestral Quest 12.0 is now available from Incline Software. Read about the features on the AQ Website.

For those of you who love toys – you may be interested in looking into the use of an iPod to go along with your genealogy. Leister Productions has released its long awaited Reunion 9 family tree software for the Mac. With Reunion 9 for the Mac, an iPod and Pod cards you can take your family tree with you where ever you go.

With your iPod you can take videos with you or listen to genealogy conferences. A visit to <http://www.lulu.com/browse/search.php?fkey words=FGS> will give you access to numerous talks given at the 2006 Federation of Genealogical Societies' Boston conference. You can also check out Genealogy Guys podcasts, or download one of Dick Eastman's. Another mp3 option is the new Family Roots Radio. All of these can be put on your iPod and listened to as you travel, while you wait for a bus, take a walk or even as you do the dishes.

The May/June 2007 edition of Digital Genealogist (volume 1, Number 4) has an article on a topic covered at the seminar. The article is “I saved it ...but where?”, by Barbara Schenck. In her article Barbara comments that saving material you find is easy. Finding where it is is often tricky. She mentions two software programs that you may find helpful and they are free – Google Notebook and Evernote. Both can help you keep track of what you've clipped or saved or written yourself. Each does it in a different way. It depends on what you want to do with your material. Google Notebook is a Web-based program and is not stored on your computer, but on a server elsewhere. It is accessible anywhere you can get on the Internet. Before accessing it may be something you want to check out. Do you want your information on another server?

Cemetery Program

SGS Cemetery Coordinator

The SGS Seminar is always a good place to touch base with cemetery volunteers and this year in Regina in April was no exception. Norm and I had several nice chats with people interested in recording a cemetery or getting a copy of the cemetery register for ones that we are still missing. We heard about a couple of small ones that we apparently don't have included in our list of known cemeteries and we got an update on the marvellous work being done in Saskatoon, Moose Jaw, Regina and Biggar by the Branch members. We'll soon have some great additions to our record collection and to SRI as well. Thanks to all volunteers who help so much with work. We don't have to tell you genealogists how valuable cemetery records are!

We've been having some website issues with the cemetery index lately and I want to apologize to anyone who has tried to use the site and found they couldn't get to the index. We are working on some things that are needed in order to make things work more smoothly and it should be better in the near future.

It's not too late to offer to record a cemetery this summer! We have recording forms at the library and can be sent to you if needed. The forms are not cast in stone (excuse the pun) though; we can accept the recording information without it being on the "official" recording form. It's great if records come to us in electronic format as well, particularly in a spreadsheet like Excel. We can then also forward it to the SRI group and have it added to that database as well without having to re-enter the data.

So we're looking forward to hearing from you about the recording you did over the summer – thank you in advance!

The following RM maps are needed: 18, 64, 94, 125, 126, 131, 154, 168, 186, 220, 248, 252, 280, 281, 303, 308, 346, 377, 410, 426, 438, and 461.
