RECORDS OF HENRY W. BISHOP, JUSTICE OF THE PEACE
RICHMOND and LENOX, MASSACHUSETTS, 1825-1865

Abstracted by Marcia Jesiek Eisenberg*

"Records of Henry W. Bishop one of the Justices of the Peace within & for the County of Berkshire & Commonwealth of Massachusetts. A.D. 1825."

This 9 3/4 x 8 inch, leather-bound book was discovered by librarian Ruth Degenhardt in the process of making a survey of the contents of the vault of the Local History Department of the Berkshire Athenaeum, Pittsfield's public library.

The 170 handwritten pages record actions before Henry W. Bishop, a Justice of the Peace, "at my dwelling house in Richmond" beginning the fifteenth day of April 1825. From 4 August 1827, actions are dated at Lenox, at "my dwelling house in Lenox," or "at my office in Lenox," and continue to 10 August 1865.

Actions ranged from matters as trivial as the registration of a promissory note or a suit against a youth for swearing in public to the portentous preliminary hearing into a case of alleged poisoning.

Most records cover two or more pages of Justice Bishop's careful script. They are too long to be transcribed completely in this quarterly. To give a flavor of the language and the style, one of the briefer entries is transcribed here in its entirety. The remainder of the records will be abstracted.

This record was written on page 7:
