QUARTERLY/NEWSLETTER EXTRACTIONS

Deceased Physicians:

The National Genealogy Society now has surnames "A" thru "R" available for searching. Send $15 per name and include first & last name of physician, time period and location if you know it. The file is incomplete from 1878-1905, but fairly comprehensive from 1906-1969. Information in the database usually includes, DOB, DOD and places, medical school attended, place of practice, hospital affiliation and an obit. Mail your check to: National Genealogical Society, attn: Deceased Physicians File, 4527 17th St. North, Arlington, VA 22207-2399.

Alfords Meeting in Kentucky:

The Alford American Family Association will hold its 1998 annual meeting and national Alford family reunion, the 11th such meeting, in Paducah, KY, October 9-11. The organization, which has over 1000 member families meet on the same weekend in a different state each year. Various local tours and other activities are being arranged. For further information, contact: AAFA, POB 1586, Florissant MO 63031.

Library of Congress:

The Library of Congress is looking for your published Genealogy. The collections include more than 40,000 family histories as well as 100,000 U.S. local histories. To donate send to: Exchange and Gift Division, Gifts Coordinator, Library of Congress, Washington, DC 20540-4200.

GENEALOGY SEMINARS/CONFERENCES

Immigrant Dreams: The Settlement of America

The Federation of Genealogical Societies and the Ohio Genealogical Society is hosting a conference on August 19 through 22, 1998, at the Albert S. Sabin Convention Center in Cincinnati, Ohio. For further information, write to FGS/OGS Conference, P.O. Box 830220, Richardson, TX 75083-0220.

I.S.G.S. Fall Conference

"Around the World in 80 Seconds" will be held at the William Tell Holiday Inn, LaGrange-Countryside on October 23 and 24, 1998. Topics will be "Exploring Ancestral Places", "European Holdings at the Newberry Library", "Cook County Archives in the Daley Building", "Genealogy on the Internet", "Family History on CD-ROMS" and "Beginning Genealogy".

Wisconsin Sesquicentennial Family History Conference

The conference is sponsored by the Wisconsin State Genealogical Society on October 23 and 24, 1998, in Madison, Wisconsin. The conference will feature sixteen speakers presenting forty lectures.

U.S. GenWeb (www.usgenweb.com):

This site serves as the entrance to the massive GenWeb project, wherein volunteers across the U.S. maintain linked websites about their states and counties. This page contains information about the project and links to state-level GenWeb sites.

Genealogy Is My Hobby (home.earthlink.net/~middleton):

A great site to visit when you're doing genealogy late at night and in danger of falling asleep. Lots of bright colors, lots of enthusiasm and lots of webmaster Pam Middleton-Lee's favorite links.

Helm's Genealogy Toolbox (genealogy.tbox.com/genealogy.html):

An attractive site with links to several tools of use to genealogists, including various guides and indexes, area-specific information and data on associations of interest to genealogists.

Lacey Family Homepage (www2.cy-net.net/~lacey):

This site provides family lineages, historical files, graphics and many other items of interest to Lacys and Laceys. The Genealogy Gateway and the Bookmarks will be of interest to a broader range of visitors.

GENDEX (www.gendex.com/gendex):

In spite of its rather plain appearance, Gene Stark's Index of Names for all GenWeb sites is loved by many genealogists. Data on over two million individuals, collected from hundreds of webpages, can be viewed on this single site.

Rootsweb (www.rootsweb.com):

The website of the genealogical data cooperative offers several different services to the genealogical community, including webpage hosting, search indexes and registries. This site tries to offer links to actual information, not just links to links.

Geographic Name Server (www.mit.edu:8001/geo):

Great site for genealogists. You can find the county name for any city in the US. All you do is input the city and state and it will give you the county where that city is located.

Index to Passenger Lists (www.rootsweb.com/~ote/indexshp.htm):

This site contains an index to many early American ships' lists including definitions of early ships, Palatine Ships to Pennsylvania, Dutch and Huguenot Ships to New Netherland (New York), ships to Nova Scotia, Misc. Ships, Irish ships to Boston, ships to the Carolinas, ships to New England and Connecticut, Huguenot ships to Virginia, ships to Virginia 1625-1626 and 1635, and an index of all ships arranged by year of sailing.

U.S. Surname Distribution (www.hamrick.com/names/):

Are you curious where other people with your same last name live in the U.S.? Just enter any surname into a form and you'll see a map of the U.S. showing the distribution of people with this surname within the 50 states. This database contains the 50,000 most common surnames in the U.S.

Funeral Homes (www.funeralnet.com):

Includes a directory of U.S. funeral homes. Other information relative to funeral homes is also available.

Genealogy Bookstores (www.prairienet.org/~mjolson/bookmjo/html):

For links to a lot of genealogy bookstores try this site.

(27 Jan 1881) In this city, January 26, Emma Barbara Erzinger, daughter of M. Erzinger, aged 16 years.

(03 Feb 1881) In this city, Jan. 21, Joseph Zaucker, aged 70 years.

(03 Feb 1881) In Kankakee Jan. 30, of consumption, Nallie, son of Mrs. Martin Forbes, aged 4 years, 6 months.

(03 Feb 1881) In Kankakee, Jan. 30, of inflammation of the lungs, only child of Mr. & Mrs. C. P. Dole, aged four weeks.

(03 Feb 1881) In Manteno, Jan. 30, of inflammation of the bowels, Carl Moelman, aged 26 years. Deceased was president of the sophomore class in Evanston university.

(10 Feb 1881) In Kankakee, Jan. 29, of congestion of the lungs, Austin Abijah, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dole, aged four weeks.

(10 Feb 1881) Near Chebanse, Jan. 29, William Porter, aged 68 years.

(10 Feb 1881) In Kankakee, Feb. 5, of consumption, Mrs. Mary A. Winer, aged 60 years.

(10 Feb 1881) In Momence, Jan. 2, Mrs. Catharine Vankirk, aged 53 years.

(10 Feb 1881) In Manteno, Jan. 10, of typhoid pneumonia, Mary L. Tssert, aged 8 months.

(10 Feb 1881) The late Augustus M. Wylie died of pneumonia, near Carlisle, Prairie county, Arkansas, Jan 29, 1881, aged 73 years. Mr. Wylie was by birth a Virginian. Early in life he removed to Indiana, then the frontier of civilization. His home at one time was where the city of Lafayette now stands, and he was the first sheriff of Tippecanoe county, of which Lafayette is the county seat. After a few year's residence at St. Joe, Missouri, he removed, in 1846, to the present site of Kankakee, living for a time in the old court house square. About this time he purchased quite a tract of land by treaty with the Indians, visiting Council Bluffs for that purpose. This purchase included the present site of the city. Mr. Wylie was the father of fifteen children, ten by his first wife, three of whom survive, and five by his present widow, three also of whom are living. For some years past his home has been in Arkansas where he owned a tract of land. Last week his widow accomplished the sad duty of bringing his remains back to Kankakee, as he had expressed the desire of being buried amid the scenes where he had loved so long and to send the last long sleep near those who had gone before. The funeral services were held in the Baptist church, of which society he was a member, on the 2d inst. Mr Wylie as a man had the esteem and confidence of all who knew him and was a person of the utmost integrity and the finest sense of personal honor. His bereaved relatives have our warmest sympathies.

(17 Feb 1881) In Chebanse, Feb. 6, Alexander Gibbeau, aged 66 years.

(17 Feb 1881) In Sumner, Feb. 3, of congestion of the lungs, Wilbur, infant son of D.D. Moorman, aged nine months.

(17 Feb 1881) In Momence, Feb. 6, Mary Ellen, wife of Carson Porter, aged 24 years.

(17 Feb 1881) In Kankakee, of congestion of the lungs, infant son of F. Zipf, aged 3 days.

(17 Feb 1881) In Limestone, Jan. 8, of pneumonia, John Dutellier, aged 10 months, 29 days.

(17 Feb 1881) In Pilot, Dec. 31, of pneumonia, Julia Darby, aged 9 years.

A BUILDING BOOM

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, February 3, 1881.

There is every prospect that the season of 1881 will be a marked one in the building line among the farmers. Barns and dwellings will spring up all over the county. During past month many farmers have kept their teams employed hauling building stone from this city, as many as eighteen teams leaving town at one time for one locality.

Joseph Baker will build a barn, 40 x 40, on his son Ernest's place in Aroma Township.

Milton Butts, of Momence, has his plans all ready for an 80 x 80 barn, 24 foot posts.

Theodore Voight will build a substantial barn to match his new house on his place, a mile east of this city.

Fred Johnson, living between Kankakee and Waldron, will rebuild his barn.

Leon Mailloux is preparing to erect a good shelter for his stock.

Herman Kramer, of this city, has plans drawn for a residence.

NORTON - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, January 20, 1881.

Dr. Bateman has moved to Buckingham.

D. A. Montague, our town collector, has received his book and is ready to receive taxes. It takes more money to settle with him this year than it did last. Is it an evidence of prosperity?

Charley Hall, whom we mentioned last week has having broken his leg, is suffering with inflammation of the lungs. His limb is doing well.

Died Jan. 11, or dropsy, William, son of Theo. Schunler, aged 18 years.

We have just learned of the death of the little daughter of Geo. Williams, aged about 2 years. Funeral services at the residence of the father.

A Barton has added to his stock of hardware and dry goods a fine line of groceries.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, January 27, 1881.

Buckingham is fortunate just now in having in her midst a doctor who claims he can cure any and all diseases. He gives no nauseous drugs, it is simply a matter of faith, friction and spitting and the disease vanishes. He is from Iowa.

At a spelling school in district No. 1, town 29, last Friday evening, Mr. Wm. H. Grimwood proved himself the champion. Miss Katie Hughes is the teacher.

Charley Ball is improving fast.

Henry Swartwout and J. L. Brown have gone to Chicago with a car load of hogs.

Cabery is growing fast and takes the lead of all the towns on the Southwestern railroad. Winter has not seemingly made any difference in its rapid growth. New buildings are going up all the time. In the three or four months a fine and commodious hotel, a hardware store, furniture store, two ice houses and other buildings have been erected. Her citizens are of the go-ahead sort and now want to paddle their own canoe as an incorporated village.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, February 17, 1881.

Mr. W. L. Conrow is very low with consumption. No hopes of his recovery.

Dr. B. F. Farley and family returned to their residence in Buckingham last Thursday. They have been in Chicago since the early days of December.

This week it is Charley Hall who rejoices. It's a girl.

Not so much of a joke after all. A number of the citizens of Buckingham are suffering from a malignant disease of the face and head which the doctors pronounce barber's itch. No more barbers are needed; the boys are doing their own scraping.

We chronicle this week two more weddings, the parties all of this town. On Wednesday, February 9th, at the home of the bride, by the Rev. Joe. Bell, Mr. Armitage was united in marriage to Miss Jennie Montieth. On the same day Mr. Ed. L. Reed to Miss Etta Aldridge. We understand the last named couple were married in Kankakee.

LOCAL NEWS - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, January 27, 1881.

John McDonald is putting up a new blacksmith shop, 54 x 18, 14-foot posts, on the lot adjoining his old shop near the river bridge. Times must be prosperous with our excellent friend.

Charley Wolf, the barber, has been laid up for a few days with a badly burned hand. To add to his troubles, his children are down with the scarlet rash, and his wife is just convalescing from the same disease. Charley says "When a man has got bad luck he's got it all over".

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, February 17, 1881.

Mrs. Allhouse, a German woman 73 years of age, living in Chebanse, was struck and run down by a freight car at that place last week. She fell between the rails and the forward truck passed over her, bruising her severely. Dave Lavery, the station agent, rescued her before the hind truck reached her.

Miss Laura Colton, aged about 19, a niece of Mrs. Wm. Whitney, died at the residence of that lady in this city last week. She had been teaching school for some months in the country. Her remains were sent to her home in Bath, N.Y.

The official census of Kankakee county as finally issued by the U.S. census bureau, is 25,050, of which number 12,018 are females and 13,032 are males. There are 6,253 foreign born persons in the county. The colored population numbers only 77.

Seventeen hundred and thirty-seven letters were deposited in the Kankakee post office last Monday, of which 584 were valentines.

WALDRON - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, January 20, 1881.

Matrimony is catching, contagious - yes, infectious. It has taken two out of one family in less than a week, with one yet to hear from; and fears are entertained that it may go through the whole town. Wm. Morey and Eva Meyers took on the hymenial yoke on the 7th inst. Good luck to you. Will; may your lines always be cast in pleasant places, and your lives be long and happy.

The ice men have completed their labors and the harvest is over in our town and the men have returned to their homes or other fields of labor. There is now stored on the premises abut 60,000 tons of ice.

The C.I. St. L. & C railroad are negotiating for Mt. Langum for the purpose of getting gravel to ballast their road, to which they will run a switch. The pay $100 per acre.

Death with its unerring aim has called another from our midst. Ella Gleason, wife of Luther Gleason, died on the 9th inst. She leaves a husband and four small children, one a babe a week old. We sympathise with the bereaved husband and little ones.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, January 20, 1881.

Mary Nichols, aged 22, daughter of Samuel Nichols, of Momence, attempted suicide last week Friday night by shooting herself in the forehead with a revolver. Quite late in the night her father heard the report of the weapon, but thought it was a noise caused by the frost. In a moment, however, he heard his daughter calling, and upon going upstairs met her coming out of her room. She informed him that she had shot herself, and added, "What did I do it for?" Dr. Keyser was summoned and found that the ball had struck the forehead and glanced upward without penetrating the skull, owing to a light charge of powder. The girl is reported to have been deranged for a year or more.

ESSEX - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, January 20, 1881.

L. Baxter's writing school meets every Tuesday and Thursday evening.

R.H. Charter has gone East on a visit. He expects to return about the first of March.

Mrs. Pfingston is on the sick list.

Herman Shaffer is building a barn, regardless of the cold winter.

Dr. Gray of Joliet gave several phrenological lectures at the Centre school house. One night he lectured on the subject of matrimony. He examined the bumps of several and paired them off.

A few weeks ago we stated Jno. Warren had purchased the old Porter farm, and that the next necessity would be a cook. Any now that want is also supplied. They have our best wishes in life.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, February 10, 1881.

Some of the farmers who have a surplus of prairie hay, are hauling it to Braidwood, where they receive from $6 to $6.50 per ton. Timothy hay is selling at from $8 to $10 per ton.

Quite a number of the little folks of this town are having the scarlet fever.

J. E. Pfingsten has gone to Kansas City. He thinks of exchanging his farm here for one near that place.

The schoolma'am of district No. 5 gave us a spelling school on last Tuesday evening. The house was literally crowded. It was a difficult matter for all to get even standing room. Levi McLane hitched up a sleigh and gathered up a big load. When near the school house the sleigh capsized and the occupants were rolled into the ditch. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt.

The average daily attendance at the Essex Centre school last month was a fraction over 32.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, February 17, 1881.

Wm. Odell & Co. are still building more cribs in both Essex and Reddick.

R. H. Charter returned from the East today. He says that the hills have grown considerably in the past 23 years. He says that they have an average of 4 ft. of snow in York State.

J. Hulburt has moved on the old Porter farm where he will hold forth this year.

Albert Kerl, formerly of Essex, entered into connubial life on the 1st inst. He is now living in Wyoming Territory. He has our best wishes.

MANTENO - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, January 20, 1881.

Miss Nelle Peters left last week for Lowell, Mass., to remain a year or more.

Coal hauling from the mines at Braidwood is the principal occupation of those who need the article.

A series of meetings are being held in the M.E. church. The week of prayer was observed by union meetings, part of the time in each church.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Shingle met with a sad loss Jan. 6, in the death of their little daughter, aged 4 days.

The family of Mr. J. Morse is happy in the addition of a little daughter.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, January 27, 1881:

Old Mr. Dickenson was buried last Sunday. He had been ill some time.

John Ellsworth, who has been sick for so long at R. Gilkerson's and was given up by the doctor, is a little better. His father and mother are with him now.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, February 03, 1881:

Mr. and Mrs. Dole, of Kankakee, buried their baby boy here yesterday.

L. H. Stiles & Bro. are about to open a drug store in town. We wish them the best of success.

ROCKVILLE - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, January 20, 1881.

George Goodwin is the happy father of another girl. George says he "don't see but what he would just as soon be the father of a "girl or a boy".

Benj. Goodwin is right into biz. He shipped a car load of hogs last week and is shipping another today. He is also buying a car load of beef cattle.

Thomas Caney's little daughter, Maggie, aged 10 years, died last Saturday and will be buried today at Wilmington from the Roman Catholic church.

Thomas Magruder is visiting his boys at Valparaiso and other points in Indiana.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, January 27, 1881.

Geo. Grimes will go again to Dakota next week to transact same business in regard to his land out there. It's a boy at Jerome Grimes'. Jerome seems to be lucky for boys.

Mrs. Goodwin's cancer seems to baffle the skill of the physicians who have treated it thus far. She is now going to try a doctor at Aurora. Surely Mrs. G. has the sympathy of those who know her.

Charley Durham and family have just returned from a two weeks' visit at Terre Haute, Ind. Charley says he had a fine time among his old friends.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, February 10, 1881.

Dr. Magruder's wife is on the sick list.

Mrs. Petro, wife of Jesse Petro, died last Friday night. Her death at that time was unexpected, as she was able to be about the house most of the time. The funeral services were conducted on Sunday by John Dale. Sermon from Phil. 1-21, "To die is gain".

Rev. G. B. Miller paid the last tribute of respect to the two lately deceased daughters of Thos. Kaney, at the M.E. church on last Sunday morning.

Will Foster's family numbers three now; they have added a boy. A boy has also taken up his abode in the family of Geo. Magruder and a girl at Deb. Robinson's.

EAST OTTO - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, January 27, 1881.

John Franklin shipped two car loads of cattle to Chicago and realized $4.80 for them. The people of this vicinity were startled by the sudden death of Mr. Shieke. He was sick only three days, and it is not known just what ailed him. We understand that his family will move to Ottawa.

Ed McCabe is very sick and it is thought that he will never recover.

in guarding confederate prisoners captured at Fort Donelson. It was commanded by Colonel W. H. W. Cushman, of Ottawa.

March 3, 1862, the regiment left Chicago for Savannah, Tennessee, via St. Louis and April 7, left for Shiloh, where, on its arrival, it was assigned to the First Brigade, Fourth Division, with which it was connected until the close of the war. Brigadier General J. G. Lauman commanded the brigade, and Brigadier General S. A. Hurlburt commanded the division.

The Fifty-third was engaged in the siege of Corinth, and for meritorious conduct on the skirmish line was furnished with new Springfield rifles. It marched to Grand Junction, LaGrange, Holly Springs and Memphis, arriving at the latter city July 21, 1862.

September 13 it arrived at Bolivar, Tennessee, moved toward LaGrange, but met a large force of confederates which compelled its return. Acting Adjutant C. R. May, was taken prisoner October 5, at Hatchie, while engaged with four times their number. Charles M. Vaughn, late captain of Company E, was wounded in the knee with a ball, and died soon after being taken to Bolivar. His body was brought to Kankakee and now lies in Mound Grove cemetery.

The regiment had sixteen killed in this engagement. October 28 it moved south with General Grant's army to Coldwater, Holly Springs, Waterford, Abbeyville and Oxford, Mississippi, arriving at Yocono Creek, December 13. On the 22d, it started for Memphis, which it reached March 11, and was with General Sherman on his expedition against Haines Bluff May 25. Swinging into line with the main army around Vicksburg under General E. O. C. Ord it was at the surrender, July 5.

This regiment accompanied General Sherman's army against Confederate General Joe Johnston at Jackson, Mississippi, and while closing the lines about that place took part in that gallant but disastrous charge, of which sixty-six out of two hundred and fifty men and officers survived. Few more disastrous encounters took place during the war.

Returning to Vicksburg, it camped at Milldale and February 1, 1864, having re-enlisted, was mustered in as a veteran organization and accompanied General Sherman on the Meridan campaign, returning again to Vicksburg, which they left March 13 for a thirty days' veteran furlough.

Companies E and I were consolidated as company E and a new organization was called Company I. Immediately after their furlough the regiment joined General Sherman's army at Kingston, Georgia, and June 8, was ordered to Altoona Pass, aiding in the construction of the earth-works on the east side of the Pass until the 12th of July. On the 13th they participated in the advance upon and the siege of Atlanta, where they had one hundred and one men killed and wounded, and accompanied Sherman on his famous march to the sea under the command of General Giles A. Smith. They arrived in front of the fortifications of Savannah December 10th.

The first shell from the enemy's guns that exploded in the ranks of Company I, killed five and wounded six men.

January 4, 1865, the forty-first Illinois Infantry of two hundred and twenty-two men and officers, was consolidated with the fifty-third, Major Robert H. McFadder commanding. It was in the grand review of May 24, 1865, and was mustered out of service at Chicago, Illinois, by Lieutenant Robert Mann Wood; July 28, received its final pay and discharge.

Lieutenants Mark M. Bassett and John D. Hatfield, who were taken prisoners of war July 12, 1863, at Jackson, Mississippi, made their escape from Libby Prison on the night of February 9, 1864, through the famous Hatfield tunnel reaching the Union lines near Washington, but Bassett, less fortunate, was recaptured the fourth night out, but subsequently effected his escape from the prison at Columbia, South Carolina.

This regiment marched two thousand, eight hundred and fifty-five miles, was transported by boat and rail four thousand, one hundred and sixty-eight miles, and had a total roster of over one thousand, eight hundred men and officers.

The greater portion of Company E was from this county. The commissioned officers of this company at the time of its organization were as follows: Captain, Charles M. Vaughn; first lieutenant, Alonzo Bull; second lieutenant, Mark C. Wheeler.

The enlistment from this county was as follows: Allbright, Joseph, Yellowhead; Bellisle, Joseph, Kankakee; Borneau, Paul, Kankakee; Borneau, Abram, Kankakee; Borneau, David, Kankakee; Babin, John B., Kankakee; Beaupre, Joseph, Kankakee; Bergeron, Octave, St. Anne; Clark, Edward P., Kankakee; Crawford, Frank J., Kankakee; DeBlois, Ambrose B., Kankakee; Dare, Mark, Kankakee; Demont, Peter, Kankakee; Gork, Martin, Kankakee; Griswold, James, Kankakee; Jones, Thomas H., Kankakee; Kelley, Delos, Kankakee; Massman, Theodore, Kankakee; Messer, William, Kankakee; Mombleau, Israel, St. Anne; Merrillat, Eugene, Kankakee; Patnode, Israel, Kankakee; Platt, Samuel, St. Anne; Regnier, Louis, Kankakee; Regnier, Stephen, Kankakee; Rose, Amos, Kankakee; Seeger, Joseph, Kankakee; Smith, Julius, Kankakee; Stingly, John, Kankakee; Smith, James, Kankakee; Thitds, Granville M., Kankakee; Tousignor, Hilaire, Kankakee; Trombly, Benjamin, Kankakee; Trombly, Joseph, Kankakee; White, Joseph, Kankakee; Wheeler, Mark C., Kankakee; Zace, Charles, Kankakee.

Those from this county re-enlisting as veterans were: Borneau, David, Kankakee; Borneau, Paul, Kankakee; Gork, Martin, Momence; Messer, William, Kankakee; Mombleau, Israel, St. Anne; Patnode, Israel, Kankakee; Regnier, Louis, Kankakee; Regnier, Joseph, Kankakee; Reynolds, Reuben E., Kankakee; Rose, Amos, Kankakee; Troutman, William F., Kankakee; Trombly, Benjamin, Kankakee; Trombly, Joseph, Kankakee; Zace, Charles, Kankakee.

SEVENTY-SECOND ILLINOIS INFANTRY.

The Seventy-second Illinois Infantry was organized in Chicago as the first regiment of the "Chicago Board of Trade", with Frederick A. Staring commanding, and was mustered into service, August 23, 1862, with nine hundred and sixty-seven strong.

On the day of muster it started for Cairo, and saw first service at Paducah, Columbus, Kentucky, and Moscow, Tennessee.

In December, 1862, it accompanied Grant's army as far as the Yaconapatafa river, Mississippi. When upon the unexpected surrender of Holly Springs, Mississippi, to General Van Doren, and the destruction of Grant's supplies, the army was forced to return, the seventy-second was sent to guard a wagon train to Memphis, Tennessee.

March 1 the regiment took part in the expedition to Yazoo Pass, subsequently landing at Milliken's Bend, Louisiana, from there it marched with Grant's army to Vicksburg.

Arrived at Champion Hills May 16, just in time to turn the enemy's left, and by so doing saving the day to the federal forces. On the 19th of May, 1863, it is said to have opened the attack on the rebel stronghold.

From that time until July 4th, when Pemberton surrendered to Gen. Grant, the seventy-second did its duty with the bravest in the siege, and at the capitulation was among the first to enter the city.

July 12, the seventy-second embarked for Natchez, Mississippi, and after landing the following day, took possession of the city, capturing a number of prisoners, artillery and supplies, including five thousand head of Texas cattle.

October 18, 1863, upon returning to Vicksburg, it remained on provost guard duty until October 30, 1864, when it was ordered to report to Maj. Gen. Howard, commanding the army of the Tennessee, and arrived at Nashville, November 13.

The seventy-second was in a severe skirmish at Spring Hill, on the road between Columbia and Franklin, Tennessee, and on the following day, November 16, arrived at Franklin and hastily threw up light earth-works.

About 4:00 p. m. Confederate General Hood attacked, and the battle raged until midnight with terrific fury. This regiment lost nine officers out of sixteen engaged, and one hundred and fifty-two men were killed and wounded.

Remaining in Nashville after the battle until February 9, 1865, the regiment was ordered to New Orleans, across the Gulf to Dauphine Island, Fish river, and participated in the siege of the old Spanish Fort, Alabama, which surrendered, April 8, 1865.

August 6, 1865, they were mustered out of service at Vicksburg, Mississippi.

Those enlisting from Kankakee county are as follows: Ashcraft, Homer, Otto; Blessing, Gottlieb, Kankakee; Kurrasch, John, Kankakee; Meyer, Ferdinand, Kankakee; Miller, Henry, Kankakee; Schriglan, Charles R., Kankakee; Sutcliff, William, Kankakee; Smith, Joseph R., Kankakee.

SEVENTY-SIXTH ILLINOIS INFANTRY.

The Seventy-sixth Illinois Infantry was organized in August, 1862, at Kankakee, Illinois, and was mustered into the United States service, August 22, 1862, at Kankakee, Illinois, rendezvousing at the Fair Grounds north of the city. The following officers were elected: Alonzo W. Mack, of Kankakee, Colonel commanding; Samuel T. Busey, of Champaign, Lieutenant Colonel; William A. Dubois, of Springfield, Major; John F. Huntoon, Adjutant; George J. Hodges, of Champaign, Quarter Master; Franklin Blades, of Watseka, Surgeon; William A. Babcock, Assistant Surgeon; E. Ridgeway of Morris, Illinois, Second Assistant Surgeon.

Companies A and E and most of Company K from Iroquois county, Companies B and G were from Champaign county, Company C was from Grundy county, and Companies D, F, H, and I were from Kankakee county.

This regiment left Kankakee on coal cars, arriving at Columbus, Kentucky, August, 29, 1862. Here it was armed with Enfield rifle muskets, and engaged in drilling, and fatigue and picket duty, until ordered to Bolivar, Tennessee, October 4. Encamping at Bolivar until November 3, it marched on the 28th to La-Grange, and joined General Grant's campaign along the Mississippi Central railroad, confronting General Price's forces, passing through Waterford, Abbyville, and Oxford, and halting near Springdale, Mississippi. On the 22d of December, word was received that the Rebel forces under General Van Doren had captured Holly Springs, destroying a large quantity of commissary stores and general supplies, cutting off all communication with the north. This so deranged General Grant's plans, and imperiled the army to such an extent, that he thought best to return to his base of supplies at Memphis. On the march back the seventy-sixth went into camp near the Tallahatchie, where it remained several weeks.

Here the regiment was placed upon reduced rations for the first time, and the camp was given the name of "Mush Point" because of the absence of its most excellent, but much abused army bread, or hardtack. Accordingly, the boys seized a grist mill in the neighborhood and ground and consumed corn like "natives of the soil." Naturally, much foraging was resorted to, but it was always by regular detail, and accompanied by a strong guard of cavalry, infantry and artillery. It seemed that the woods were full of confederates, ever ready to form a more intimate acquaintance with the invaders of their wilds. This part of the country had not previously paid tribute to either army, and it proved to be one of the most productive portions of the south. Here it was that our Colonel A. W. Mack left the regiment, going by way of Memphis to the legislative halls of Illinois, to take his seat as state senator. His presence there was necessitated by the fact that there was in the legislature a large and determined element bent upon discontinuing the war, and recalling the troops from the field.

Lieutenant Colonel Samuel T. Busey was commissioned as colonel, serving as such until the close of the war.

The regiment moved from "Mush Point" to Memphis, arriving there March 13, 1863. May 13 it embarked on the Steamer Fort Wayne, landing at Young's Point, Louisiana, from where it re-embarked and landed at Chickasaw Bayou, on the Yazoo river.

Was engaged in closing up the lines in the rear of Vicksburg, until after the charge, when it was placed on the left of the besieging lines and bravely held its place during this memorable siege until the surrender of Pemberton to General Grant, July 4, 1863.

Next day, accompanying General Sherman's army, it went to Jackson, Mississippi, engaging the enemy at Big Black river and Champion Hills, and was in the unfortunate and bloody battle at Jackson, Mississippi, from the 12th to 16th. Returning to Vicksburg and then to Natchez, in November it was again in Vicksburg, spending some time at Camp Cowan, Camp Hebron, and Big Black river bridge, and in April, 1864, encamping on the hills surrounding Vicksburg. From these points it made excursions into the surrounding country, engaging the enemy at Yazoo City, Benton, Vaughn Station and Deasonville, and driving the enemy from Yazoo City and returning to Vicksburg May 17.

July 1 the regiment was with General Slocum on his expedition to Jackson, Mississippi, skirmishing nearly all the way, and on the return met the enemy with a much larger force between Jackson and Clinton, where on the afternoon of the 6th and the forenoon of the next day, they lost one hundred and two men. Returning to Vicksburg on the 9th, foot-sore and tired out. The regiment next went by boat to Morganza's Bend, where it made a number of expeditions in the vicinity, and on September 3d embarked on the "Nebraska" landing on the island at high water at the mouth of the White river, Arkansas. October 18th it was ordered to Memphis in great haste to protect the city against Forest's forces and camped in Fort Pickering. November 7 they embarked for Duvall's Bluff, Arkansas, via White river, and built neat log-cabins with a view of spending the winter at this pleasant place. Deer and wild turkey abounded, and the men were filled with regret, when, on the 28th, they embarked for Memphis, and the 1st of January, 1865, took boats for Kennerville, going into camp fifteen or twenty feet below the levee. Here the men remained in the mud and mire until February 12th, when some of them embarked on an ocean steamer for Fort Barancas, Florida, the remainder going on the steamer George Peabody, which was almost totally disabled in a violent storm on the Gulf, being saved only by the coolness of the officers, and the heroic conduct of the men. In this emergency all ambulances, wagons and nearly two hundred horses and mules were thrown overboard, and the rescued soldiers were returned to New Orleans, and nearly a week later, joined the balance of the regiment at Fort Barancas.

March 11th the regiment marched to Pensacola, over the same road that General Jackson marched over in 1818, and on the 20th marched with General Steel's army to Fort Blakely, Alabama, going first to Polard, where the railroad and large quantities of supplies were destroyed. It arrived in front of Fort Blakely on the 31st of March, after being twelve days in the swamps and quicksands of Florida. After this the regiment was put on quarter rations for nearly a week. The seventy-sixth formed a part of Spicoley's brigade, Street's division of the Thirteenth Army Corps, and in line of investment held the right center, immediately to the left of the Stockton road leading into Blakely. This position, with the seventy-sixth in advance of both brigades and divisions, was held during the eight days of memorable siege, and up to the time of the assault and capture of the Confederate stronghold, April 9, 1865. This battle was the last of any importance of the war of the rebellion.

General C. C. Andrews, in direct command of the division, in his history of the Campaign of Mobile, gives the following truthful and glowing description of the charge of the seventy-sixth.

"The Seventy-sixth Illinois charged directly on the redoubt in their front; the one north of the Stockton road, and preserved its alignment well until it got to the second line of abatis. One man of that regiment was killed at the first line of abatis and rifle pits, then at the second line the battle became furious and bloody.

"The Confederates maintained a bold front from behind their breast works and when the seventy-sixth was within fifty yards of the redoubt it suffered severely from the confederate musketry and artillery. While a part of the regiment maintained a spirited fire, the rest crossed the abatis. Lieutenant William F. Kenaga, then in command of Company K, was shot through the right leg at the second abatis, and nearer the works was hit in the ankle joint of the left foot. Then unable to walk, he kept upright on his knees and rallied and cheered the men.

"The color sergeant (Hussey) was killed within twenty feet of the works. Then the colors were taken by the noble and brave Charles Goldwood, who as he was planting them on the parapet, received the contents of three muskets so close that the discharge burned his clothes, and he fell dead with the colors in his arms.

"The Seventy-sixth and the confederates fought across the works and those in the rear were coming up as fast as they could pass the obstructions.

"Colonel Busey ran along close to the parapet and with his revolver disabled the gunner of a howitzer about to be fired and which afterward proved to have a double charge of grape and canister; then turning to the right he exchanged shots with two at short range.

"Afterwards he ordered Lieutenant Colonel Jones, Captains Hughes and Ingersoll, and Lieutenant Warner, with from twenty-five to fifty men, to charge the right flank of the redoubt, while he with another squad, charged the front. They charged with bayonets and drove the confederates from the works.

"Fifty yards in the rear of the redoubt the ground began to slope considerably. It had been cleared of underbrush and the latter had been piled along the crest. Behind that cover

KVGS MEETINGS & NEWS

The 1870 census has been printed and is at the bindery. Orders will be filled as soon as the books are available. There are several new publications available including the following indexes:

Index to the History of Rockville Township
Index to Momence.....the making of a River Town
Index to Days Gone By
Index to The Village: A Story of Bourbonnais

Thanks to Thelma Lunsford for indexing the first two and Peg Paschke for the second two. We also have available Ancestor Book Volume 4.

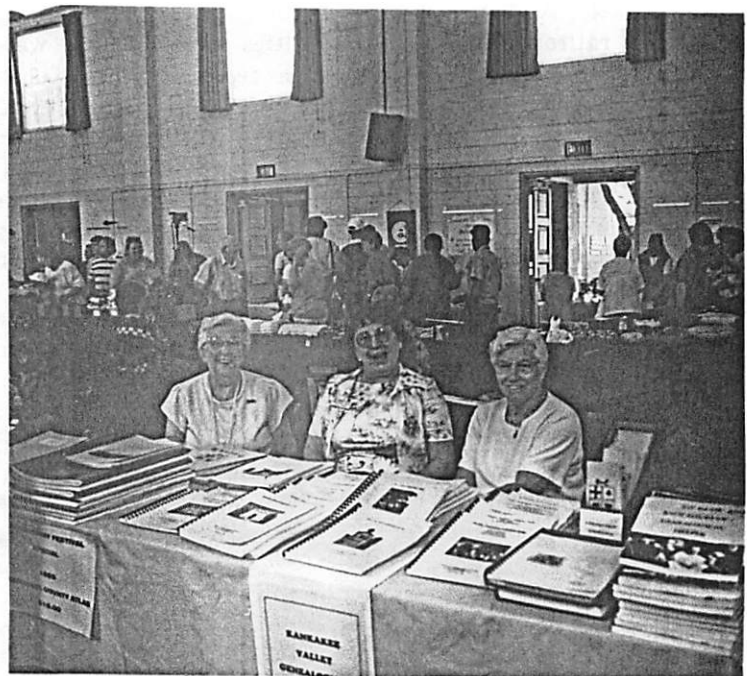

The 1855 and 1865 State Censuses for Kankakee County have arrived and census transcription sheets are available at the Bourbonnais Library for anyone wishing to help with the transcription of these two microfilms. When complete, they will be published together in one book. We'd also appreciate volunteers to start working on the Master Cemetery Listing. Anyone interested should contact Marcia Stang.

As mentioned in the last quarterly, Mardy Lamski completed the first book for Memorial Gardens Cemetery (1932-1949). At the present time member Peg Paschke is indexing this publication and we hope to have it available by fall. There are many patients from the State Hospital buried in this cemetery.

The June meeting was a walk of the St. Paul's Lutheran Cemetery in Yellowhead Township. Thanks to all those members who attended as we had just the right number to record and shaving cream markers. Also thanks to Nelda Ravens and Thelma Lunsford for all their help in rechecking and shaving cream the records for Sherburnville Cemetery on one very hot Saturday in June. We even stopped by the marker to Chief Yellowhead and took pictures. For those concerned with our use of shaving cream, rest assured we totally wash the markers off after reading to prevent any deterioration of the stones.

The society had a table at the Strawberry Festival in June and sold $369.50 in publications. Thanks to Nelda Ravens, Thelma Lunsford and Mary Falter for their help in selling our publications. We'll also have a table at the fall festival in October.

The LaSalle Co. Genealogy Guild will present an AGLL/Heritage Quest Road Show Seminar featuring Leland K. Meitzler as speaker. See flyer on the following page if interested in attending.

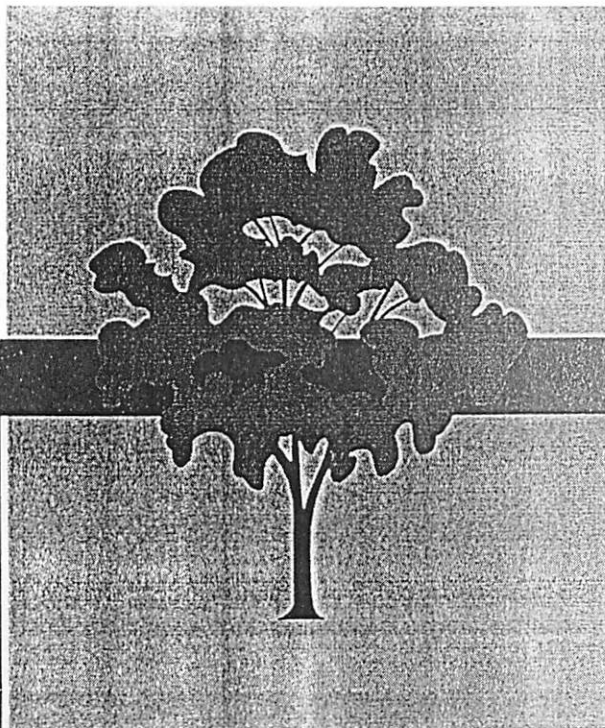

LaSalle County Genealogy Guild Presents

AGLL/Heritage Quest Road Show Seminar

Speaker: Leland K. Meitzler

Sat, October 17, 1998
8:30 AM to 4:30 PM

Location: Ottawa Woman's Club
State St. & McKinley Road, Ottawa, IL

Topics Covered:

- ♦ Locating Your Ancestor's Family When All You Know is the State!
- ♦ Finding Births; Marriages and Deaths prior to 1910
- ♦ Using the Computer as a Genealogical Tool
- ♦ Doing Genealogy on-site or "On the Road Again"

Cost for Seminar:

$25 per person, $10 each additional family member.

Includes Coffee and Donuts/Cookies provided for Morning/Afternoon Breaks.

Includes 1 year subscription to the bimonthly Heritage Quest Magazine (6 issues - $28 value) and 3 queries in the Magazine.

INTERESTING FACTS

Frances Scott Key wrote only the words - and not the music - to "The Star Spangled Banner". The tune is an old English song "To Anacreon in Heaven".

Only one man has ever been both a U.S. President and Chief Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court - William Howard Taft.

Alexander Graham Bell was only 29 years old when he invented the telephone.

The term "red tape" originated in England where official government documents were always tied with red string.

The dollar sign originated from taking the abbreviation of the United States - the U. and the S. - and placing one on top of the other. Later, the bottom of the "U" was dropped to form the present design of the dollar sign.

At the time of the Declaration of Independence, the population of New York City was only 21,000.

Can you name the last 5 states to be admitted to the Union? They are Hawaii, Alaska, Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

Of the first 12 U.S. Presidents, 9 were from the South.

Amazingly, Louis Braille invented the system enabling the blind to read when he was only 15 years old.
