Nebraska Newspapers:

If you need information from Nebraska newspapers, you may borrow them via microfilm from the Nebraska State Genealogical Society, 15th and R Sts., Lincoln, NE 68509. Write for ordering information and costs please. Family Tree, Vol. VIII, No. 3, June/July 1998.

Eastern European Microfilm Records:

Genealogists often think that microfilming of records in East Germany did not occur until after the reunification of German. This is not true. Filming started in East Germany in 1949, three years before filming started in West Germany.

During WWII, the National Socialists stored many governmental and genealogical valuable records in abandoned mines and castle ruins which were considered unlikely military targets. Some concerned Mormons tracked down the records in salt mines at Strassfurt and in castles at Rothenburg and Rathsfeld. The records were kept out of the hands of former Nazi and Russian officials and were transported to Berlin for return to their proper place of origin or were placed in various Berlin repositories. Many of these records were filmed before the end of the work in 1952.

While Poland was still under Communist rule in 1967, the Director General of the Polish State Archives asked the Mormon film crews to film Polish civil registration records. There were 10,675 rolls of such film made between 1967 and 1975. The Roman Catholic Church also asked to have many of their records filmed.

Ask at your local LDS Family History Center about these microfilmed records. Family Tree, Vol. VIII, No. 3, June/July 1998.

German Emigrants:

There may be information you need for your German ancestors in an index which includes deserters from the armies of Prussia, Wurtemberg and Saxony, 1871-1918; or persons who were sought as missing heirs and may have left long before; and persons who were absent from their hometowns who were searched for by the authorities.

This index covers the entire former German Empire, i.e., Prussia, Alsace-Lorraine, Bavaria, Saxony, Wurtemberg, Baden, Oldenburg, Hesse and the other minor German states.

To find out whether the German place or origin of your emigrant ancestor is on file, send his/her full name, birth date, occupation, denomination, year of emigration and the same data for all known family members. If you have an idea of the said state, please indicate that on your request. Send your inquiry to: Germanic Emigrants Register, P.O. Box 1720, D-2840 (W) Diepholz, Germany. Whittier Area Genealogical Society.

1880 KANKAKEE COUNTY DEATHS

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette (publication date in parentheses).

(24 Feb 1881) In Limestone, Feb. 20, Sabra Ann Byrns, daughter of George Byrns, aged 13 years, 6 months and 14 days.

(24 Feb 1881) In Sumner, Jan. 30, of pneumonia, Alice Josephine Jewett, aged 18 years, 7 months, 20 days.

(24 Feb 1881) In Kankakee, Jan. 6. of acute rheumatism, Mrs. Mary Gernetz, aged 54 years.

(24 Feb 1881) In Kankakee, Feb. 6, of inflammation of the lungs, S. B. Johnson, aged 71 years.

(24 Feb 1881) John Kane, aged 63 years, for the past twenty-seven years an employee of the Illinois Central railroad, and for over twenty years a resident of Kankakee, was almost instantly killed last Saturday evening while shoveling snow or cinders on the sidetrack just north of C. W. Johnson's warehouse. The old man is said to have been somewhat deaf which together with the muffler about his head prevented him from hearing the approach of Conductor A. S. McDowell's train, which was slowly backing in upon the track. No one witnessed the accident to the old man, but John Dilly who was at work on top of a telegraph pole heard the victim shriek a couple of times, but supposing the sound came from some boy at play paid no attention until the cries were repeated several times. Looking in the direction whence they came, he saw Kane under the wheels of the train. He then motioned to the brakeman on the forward end of the caboose to set the brake and then notified the conductor who stopped the train. The old man was found with both arms grasping a brake beam, dead. The upper part of his head was done, but there were no other injuries upon his person. A deep trail in the snow indicated that he had been dragged quite a distance. A jury, consisting of the following persons, was impaneled by Coroner Wunderlich: H. Licht, foreman; Wm. Ming, A. R. Vanmeter, Frank McKee, A. Forman, Chas. Schneider. A verdict of accidental death was returned together with a censure against the railroad company for not having a man stationed at the rear of the backing train.

The deceased leaves a wife and several children, most of whom are grown. He had accumulated a little property which will ensure his family against want. A daughter is teaching school in the county.

(03 Mar 1881) In Otto, Jan. 14, of rheumatism, Anthony Shieke, aged 52 years.

(03 Mar 1881) William Allers, of the town of Rockville, met an instant death last Saturday night while going home from this city with a load of lumber. On the high grade near Charles Shreffler's his sled slowed around and tipped over. Mr. Allers fell under the load which crushed in his chest. His only words were, "Oh, Will, I'm a dead man!" spoken to his son who was driving a loaded sled in front of him. Mr. Allers was 69 years of age and leaves a family of three daughters and two sons, grown.

(10 Mar 1881) Lucy A. Moore, wife of Stephen R. Moore, our well-known attorney, died at her home in this city last week Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Four weeks ago she went to Cincinnati to attend the funeral of her mother. She was then convalescing from a dangerous illness, but the exertion of the journey, together with the contraction of a cold, brought on a relapse, and she steadily failed from that time. On Friday night of last week Mrs. Moore suffered intensely and it then became apparent to herself and her husband that her death was but a question of a few days. She viewed the coming event with perfect resignation, saying that the children had now reached an age when the mother-care could be relinquished with little probability of making any noticeable changes in their future. A moment before her death she remarked to her husband who was holding her, as he had done for the past four nights, that he was getting faint, his hand trembled, and insisted upon his going into the kitchen and getting a stimulant. He has been out but a minute or two when the attendant hastily summoned him to his wife's bedside, but the change had taken place and the spirit had winged its unseen flight to the other shore.

The funeral occurred at the family residence on Friday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Phillips conducting the service according to the rites of the Episcopal church, assisted by Dr. Axtell, of the First M.E. church.

Lucy A. Cady, daughter of Henry Cady, one of the early settlers of Cincinnati, was born in that city, August 24, 1838. She was married to Stephen R. Moore, February 25, 1858. On the first of the succeeding month the young couple moved to Kankakee where they have since resided. Mrs. Moore was a woman of gentle disposition and charitable instincts. Ever thoughtful of the welfare of her own family she had the time, the opportunity and the inclination to remember the needy of her neighborhood. Her husband and four children (the youngest of whom is 14 years of age) will not alone mourn her death.

(17 Mar 1881) In Momence, March 8, of dropsy of the heart, Sarah, wife of Wm. G. Nichols, aged 35 years.

(17 Mar 1881) In Kankakee, at the hospital, March 2, of heart disease, Alexander Niblo, aged 65 years.

(17 Mar 1881) In Kankakee, at the hospital, of erysipelas, March 8, John Fried, aged 67 years.

(17 Mar 1881) At the residence of his son, the Rev. Chas. R. Hodge, March 12, 1881, Russell Ray Hodge, born Feb. 29, 1816.

(24 Mar 1881) In Pilot, Feb. 26, of consumption, John Heimbürger, aged 26 years.

(24 Mar 1881) in Kankakee, Dec. 20, of old age, Mrs. Mary Lyons, aged 50 years.

(24 Mar 1881) At the hospital, March 18, of paralysis, James O'Donnell, of Chicago, aged 40 years.

(24 Mar 1881) In Kankakee, March 21, Mrs. Florence H. Dickenson, aged 45 years.

PILOT - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 17, 1881.

Mr. J. C. Dunkelberger and family leave today for Sac county, Iowa. Their stock and goods left Saturday afternoon.

John Slater has moved onto the old Levi Munger farm which he bought last fall. Hod Hubbard will work the Slater farm now owned by Julius Tuttle.

Dr. Caldwell was in Chicago last Saturday with Mrs. James Brazier and her little baby that was so severely burned about the face some time ago. It was necessary for a delicate operation to be performed about the eye. We have not learned the result yet but will report the benefit derived.

Albert A. Ayres and John B. Blain will go to Onarga this week as delegates to the convention of Good Templars from Orent lodge.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 24, 1881.

A. P. Farley, the traveling photographer who was with us for several weeks, has gone to Braceville.

Will Wright and lady, of Waldron, are visiting in this vicinity.

Allie James and Charley Bowlby returned from Valparaiso, Indiana, last week, where they have been attending school.

C. W. Sumner, clerk of Milk's Grove township, received a broken leg from the fall of a horse on Thursday last. Mr. Sumner is one of our eldest residents and formerly resided near Lisbon, Kendall county.

J. S. Martin, formerly a grain dealer in Chebanse, now representing some life insurance company, was in town several days last week.

Abe Updyke left for O'Brien county, Iowa, last week. He loaded his goods at Campus, on the Wabash road, by getting a car thirty dollars cheaper than from Herscher.

NORTON - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 10, 1881.

Mr. B. L. Cornwell is making arrangements to build a fine dwelling house on his place, two miles north of Buckingham.

Horace Hedges, of this town, has sold out and departed for Iowa, where he has a farm. Mr. T. P. Eldred has also sold his farm and intends locating in Kansas. I understand he intends locating near Topeka.

Mrs. Bell, wife of the Rev. J. Bell, has been quite ill some weeks, and although she is slowly improving, is yet under the physician's care.

Quite a number of the citizens of Norton, who are informed that their names appeared on the petition of P. Wagner, for a license to keep a dram show, emphatically deny signing or giving him any authority to use their names.

Mr. W. L. Conrow, of Buckingham, formerly editor of the Monitor died February 22d, 1881, of consumption, aged 42 years. The deceased was born in New Jersey, February 18, 1839. In 1859 he came West and for the last three years has been a resident of this town.

Mr. Geo. C. Van Doren, editor of the Norton News, met with a serious accident last Wednesday. He was returning home from his office riding with a neighbor, leading his own horse behind the sleigh, when the team became frightened and started to run. George Jumped, or was pulled out of the sleigh. The led horse in passing over struck him in the face fracturing the upper jaw. The wound is severe, and he is only able to take nourishment in a liquid state. The attending physician reports that he is doing well, and will in time be all right with, with the exception of a slight disfigurement of the face.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 24, 1881:

Rev. J. Bell, of Eldredgeville, is conducting a series of meetings in Kempton. There is a good interest.

Mrs. A. H. Fuller, who has been seriously ill for the last two or three weeks, is convalescent.

Farley, the photographer, has gone to Gardner. He made many friends while in Cabery and Buckingham who are sorry to see him go.

Harry Worth, hardware merchant of Buckingham, is very ill.

Van Doren, of the News, is so far recovered that he is able to be in his office and attend to business. He is very fortunate in getting around so quickly.

A donation was given on Tuesday evening, March 8, at the house of Thomas Crawford in Buckingham, for the benefit of the Rev. Joe Bell. Notwithstanding the exceedingly bad roads and unpropitious aspect of the weather nearly 100 persons were present. It was a pleasant and enjoyable affair and of very material benefit to the pastor.

After the arrest and incarceration of Kaufman, the Reddick rumseller, his wife continued the business in violation of the law, defying the law and order class of citizens. On complaint being made, Esq. Montieth issued a number of summonses which were duly served. On the day of trial she failed to put in an appearance, but there was in attendance a "cloud" of witnesses who testified, somewhat reluctantly, to all that was necessary to obtain a judgment for the people, and she was fined $300 and costs. S. M. Moore, of Kankakee, conducted the case for the prosecution. I understand the defendant loaded her truck upon a wagon and departed for unknown parts before the day of trial. There is one less nuisance in town and the people are satisfied. Tally another for the Anti-Licence club.

"OUR FOLKS" & OTHER FOLKS - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 17, 1881.

Harvey Kinkaid, of Rockville, has completed his arrangements for moving to Beulah, Crawford County, Kansas.

Tom McCulloh and Fred O. Swannell went to Iowa last week. The last heard of them they were snowed in.

Supervisor C. J. Durham, of Rockville, will in a week or two close up his affairs here and remove to his farm within three miles of Winfield, Cowley county, Kansas. In his trip to that region a couple years ago he was charmed with the country and new purposes becoming a resident there. Charley Durham is one of the kind of men we hate to lose. A well-read, honorable and thoroughly sociable man he will be an acquisition to any community. The manner in which he stood by the temperance people of his town during his service as a county supervisor will always be remembered by them with gratitude.

Recovering: The family of R. H. Enos has been severely afflicted with sickness. On the 5th, Bertha Lampke, a young woman 20 years old, who has been a member of his family for some years, died with scarlet fever. His two daughters, Fannie and Birdie, were both attacked, Birdie very violently. Both, however, are now improving, with a prospect of a speedy restoration to their accustomed.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 24, 1881.

Mr. Orwig, of the town poor farm, gave a pleasant little supper at Erzinger's last Thursday night to the town board and other invited guests. The affair was in pursuance of a custom established by Mr. Orwig's predecessor, the last John T. Smith.

Walter Hatch, who has been appointed manager of the telephone exchange in this place, informs us that arrangements were completed last Tuesday for the establishment of the enterprise here. Work will be commenced as soon as the material can arrive. The office has not been definitely located, but it is probable that a room on the north side of Court street, between East and Schuyler avenues, will be obtained.

Messrs. Pleasant and D. L. Durham have secured a ten year lease of the lot adjoining the postoffice on the north, and have let the contract to Green Bros. for the erecting of a one-story brick building, 50 x 60, to contain two store-rooms, one of which will be occupied by the old and popular "postoffice book store," and the other will be rented. The contract price of the building is $1485, and will be ready for occupancy by the middle of May.

Wenzel Konopik has let the contract for a two-story brick building, on East avenue on the site of the building occupied by him, 25 x 60, iron front, to Paullison Bros., for something like $4,000. The old building, which was one of the earliest erected in Kankakee, has been torn down.

Mr. Elias Powell informs us that while he has purchased the lot next to Halsey's store on Court street, he has not yet concluded to build, as was announced last week.

WALDRON - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, February 24, 1881.

Mr. Whithoff, one of our German citizens living in the Legg settlement, met with a severe accident last Thursday by being caught in the trestle work of the railroad as he was passing under the bridge with a load of baled hay. For awhile his life was despaired of, but I understand he is improving, with fair hopes of recovery.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 3, 1881.

Levi Miller, who has been living in Chicago for the last three years, has removed back to Waldron, where he expects to reside, having taken rooms in Mrs. Rickey's building.

John Thompson has formed a partnership with Mr. Strabelo in the blacksmith business and they intend enlarging their building as soon as the weather will permit.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 10, 1881.

Mrs. Nancy Case, widow of Evelyn Case, who died from disease contracted in the army, has been the recipient of $1300 from the government as back pension.

The paper mill resumed operations this morning, having been closed for a week on account of high water.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 24, 1881.

A number of the neighbors congregated at the residence of H. W. Burton, Esq. on the evening of the 14th inst. Previous to the departure of his daughter Frances to Orleans, Nebraska, where she goes to assist her brother George, who is engaged in the banking business, as bookkeeper. The company had a good social time. With many congratulations for the young lady in her far western home thus one by one do the loved ones take their departure from the parental roof to seek their fortunes and the vicissitudes of life.

Mrs. Nancy Case has purchased the residence of Russel Wadley, paying $525. Mrs. Wadley contemplates erecting another house this spring.

School in district 5 (Mt. Langum), Arthur J. Byrnes, teacher, closed on the 15th inst. Edwin H. Riggs has been employed for the spring term.

NEW BUILDINGS - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 17, 1881.

W. H. Hamilton tells us that he will probably put up buildings this spring for the following parties:

For Elias Powell, opposite the Presbyterian church, a brick business block, 50 x 60, two stories high, containing three store rooms. Probable cost $4,000.

For H. O. Sternberg, south of the feed store, a one-story frame dwelling, 20 x 32. Probable cost, $1,000.

For Moses Brosseau, at Manteno, a one-story brick business block, 70 x 80, containing four store rooms. Probable cost $4,000.

A number of other persons have signified their intention to put up dwellings in Kankakee this season, but have not reached a definite conclusion.

SALINA - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 10, 1881.

The ice has gorged between Hanford's landing and Altorf and caused the water to break over the banks of the latter place, and the greater place of the river is now running through the Nichols brothers' pastures, finding an exit into its former channel near the railroad piers. It has done considerable damage to the Messrs. Nichols and others, and the boys "talk back" some, but the water runs along just the same.

Many of our neighbors in Limestone urged on no doubt by the enterprise of her sister town of Salina in that respect, are about to erect some large and substantial barns. We understand that Samuel Vining, H. Brand, C. Kukuk and Mr. Goodknecht have got the material on the ground for that purpose and will commence operations as soon as spring opens.

The new railroad forms the main topic of conversation among our people at this time. The survey passes through the geographical center of the town, and most of our friends on the line feel quite jubilant, while others say nay; they "shust vanted it to run a leedles on der oder side." I understand that this is a good line as regards grade, and if built will be of incalculable benefit to that part of the town, in draining the land.

I attended a sale at John Verkler's last week. Everything brought fair prices. Joe Clodi, our popular auctioneer, addressed the congregation in a very impressive manner.

The whooping cough is among the little ones in the Chester neighborhood and has broken up the school in that district. Miss Mary Reiley closed her school in district No. 2 last week. If she teaches that school another term we advise her to add a Bowie-knife to her present armament.

George and Eddie Henry, sons of A. B. Henry, started for the West last week. They are both good boys and will make their mark wherever they are.

ESSEX - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 3, 1881.

Lewis Baxter moved his house to Essex last week. He will change his profession of teaching to that of measuring off calicoes, ribbons, etc., in C. E. Albert's store.

Dan Kriebel has gone to Springfield, where he will stay a short time.

Chas. Shultz has just returned from a two weeks' visit in York State.

Geo. Schosser is on the sick list. The schoolma'am of district No. 9 (Carrie Swift) is also on the sick list with sore throat. Daniel McLane takes her place in the school room during her absence.

The Odd Fellows of Essex talk of renting D. J. White's hall and starting a lodge.

Byron Underwood has sold the coal under his farm, on section 16, at $20 per acre (providing there is coal there that can be got out). As soon as the weather moderates a little the parties will proceed to test it and if coal is found a shaft will be put down at once. Essex is bound to be a town yet.

Wm. Keeper has sold his farm to Mrs. Richards at $20 per acre. Mr. K. thinks of going to Kansas.

Mr. Osler goes to Livingston county this spring to take charge of the Bugbee Farm.

Henry Lish takes charge of the Swift farm this season.

On the 22d inst. Chas. Lacy and Miss M. A. Sinnott put on the matrimonial harness and together intend to plot life's dreary way. They have our best wishes.

J. Warren's team ran away the other day and smashed the sled. One of the horses was seriously injured.

Mrs. M. J. Shelly has gone to Kankakee to live.

J. E. Pfingsten has exchanged farms with a part 20 miles south of Kansas City. He gets 280 acres and $2000 for his 240 acres. He will start for his new home in about a month.

School in district No. 4 closes tomorrow, Belle Shimmin, teacher. No. 2 also closes next Wednesday, Ella Scroggins, teacher.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 10, 1881

We are all snow-bound this week and news is scarce. Some of the snow drifts are about 7 or 8 feet high. No trains have passed through Essex since Thursday morning.

The coal excitement at Essex is increasing. All of the land on section 16 and part of section 17 is bonded at from $20 to $25 per acre for the coal, and in some cases the surface and bottom is bonded at $40 per acre. This, of course, is in a sandy district and the surface is valued at from $20 to $25 per acre.

School in district No. 3 closed yesterday.

Alphonso Scroggins will move into the vicinity of Saunemin in Livingston County.

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 24, 1881.

G. Gronso had a sale recently. He will move his family to Chicago in a few days. He intends to work in the I.C. car shops this Summer.

Cornelius Keepers has returned from Kansas where he has been prospecting the past few week. He will make another trip in the same direction with Wm. Keepers in a few days.

Mrs. W. W. White, who has been in Indiana for the past seventeen weeks at the bedside of her sick mother, and recently at her funeral, came home last Thursday.

Walter Lawless has exchanged his 40-acre farm for a larger one in Livingston county with J. C. Lutz of Gardner.

J. E. Pfingsten starts for Linn county, Kansas, next week.

School in district No. 7 closed on the 11th inst. There were about 75 persons present, the scholars included (45); S. McLane teacher.

Geo. Biglow loaded his car last Thursday and was all ready to start for Nebraska when the report came that the Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad was blockaded with snow and would not be opened for several days. So Mr. B. had to unload again.

Kimball's drugstore will soon be completed. D. Rankin has just put up fifty-four tons of ice for his use this summer. School in district No. 9 closed today; C. Swift, teacher.

MOMENCE - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 3, 1881.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kirby slipped and fell one day last week and broke her arm near the wrist. This is pretty rough on a woman as old as she.

Belle Cross, who once resided in Momence, died last Sabbath morning at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lee, in Lake Village, Inc.

Hon. Reuben Richardson and his son Clarence, of Grant Park, are taking a trip to Florida for their health.

ROCKVILLE - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, February 24, 1881.

There is a case of genuine diphtheria reported at Mike Millers.

Obe Lancaster is now the owner of the fastest trotter that travels the highway between Rockville and Kankakee.

No school is Dist. 10 to-day; cause, a wedding. We don't mean to say that "Fred" is to be married to-day, but then he had a "bid" and of course he had to go.

John Steudtman has moved onto a farm near Peotone.

Charley Durham will go to his farm in Kansas. We are sorry to lose you, Charley, but you may be sure you leave with our best wishes.

MANTENO - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, March 24, 1881.

At present we find Messrs. Foster, Stockdale and Richardson at work n a house and barn one mile south of town for Mr. Palmer of Peotone; size of house 20 x 28, 16 feet high; barn, 18 x 30, 14 feet high. The same parties have the contract and have commenced a house for Mr. Dongereau, five miles southwest of town, size in ground, 24 x 30, 14 feet high; also a barn, 44 x 50, 18 feet high for Patrick McMann, of Peotone, and a number of small jobs, including a number of houses and barns to move, which part is handled by the last named member of the fraternity.

Bert Dole has bought himself a team and wagon and will haul and gather cream for E. Wright this season.

George Diamond, of the firm of Mrs. Brosseau & Son, informs me that they will probably build, in company with J. B. Moisant, a brick and stone store, 80 x 70, making four 20 x 70 store rooms. They will occupy two of them, and I understand one of Mr. Moisant's room is spoken for by the Stiles Bros., who now occupy the old Deslauries store as a drug store.

I understand Lockie, Euziere & Co. intend to give their large elevator and other buildings a complete overhauling and repairing this summer.

EAST OTTO - 1881

Taken from the Kankakee Gazette, February 24, 1881.

Daniel Havens is very slowly recovering from his long illness, while Mr. Havens is confined to the house with rheumatism.

Mrs. Geo. Huckins has been quite sick for the past week, but is reported to be improving.

We understand that Geo. Huckins has sold his farm for $40 per acre.

Miss Mary Stebbings, who is attending school at Onarga, visited her parents last Saturday and Sunday.

M. A. Streeter, of Otterbien, Ind., is visiting at his fathers.

Alvin Miller has just got his goods to Chebanse, where he will make his present home.

the confederates formed again and gave another volley, wounding, among others, Colonel Busey and Captain Hughes.

"Then the seventy-sixth charged them again and they laid down their arms and ran into the woods toward the landing.

"Colonel Busey sent detachments in pursuit of them and upwards of four hundred prisoners fell into the hands of the seventy-sixth. It had five men killed inside the works. The whole number killed was sixteen, of whom, besides those already mentioned, were Sergeant Perkins, and Corporals Hopkins and Tremain.

"There were eighty wounded, some mortally, so that its entire casualty was in the neighborhood of one hundred. Among the wounded were Lieutenants Martin and Warner.

"The Seventy-sixth entered the redoubt over the seventh salient and over the breastworks extending south. Its national colors were planted on the breastworks. It is claimed by his comrades that Eldrick Brouillette of Company D was the first over the works. He was killed fifty yards inside the works by a confederate captain and he in turn was killed by Brouillette's comrade.

"The regiment used the bayonet in the charge and displayed throughout the highest degree of valor. No regiment on the field suffered so heavily that day, none exhibited more intrepid bravery, and higher praise than that cannot be awarded troops. The colors of this regiment were the first on the rebel works, and of all the regiments engaged in the charge none lost so heavily. It lost in killed and wounded one hundred and eighteen men, out of the two hundred and sixty that advanced to the assault at the sound of the signal gun. Seventeen graves mark the spot where that brave boy, Charles Goldwood, fell with the folds of the flag wrapped around him." Some years later the government established a National cemetery east of Mobile, in which place the Union dead were reinterred.

In 1891 the survivors of the regiment caused to be erected in this cemetery a beautiful granite monument, surmounted by a bronze eagle, with the name and company of each of the brave men engraved thereon.

Peace be to the ashes of the comrades who fell here and happiness to those who survive.

Monuments of granite will crumble and fade away, but the story of the devotion to the country of the patriotic Union men who died on this and other battlefields, that the republic might live, will continue. Their names and fame will live forever and go on and on.

"Until the sun turns cold,

And the stars grow old,

And the leaves of the Judgment Book unfold."

After the battle of Blakely the regiment took boat and steamed across the bay to Mobile and captured the city without resistance. Later they embarked on the Steamer "Herman Livingston" for Galveston, Texas, at which place it remained until July 22, 1865, when it was mustered out, returning, by rail, to Chicago, for final pay and discharge.

The commissioned officers at the organization of the companies were as follows:

COMPANY D.

Captain, Francis Seguin; First Lieutenant, Charles O. Savoie; Second Lieutenant, Noel Brosseau.

KVGS MEETINGS & NEWS

The June Meeting was a cemetery walk of Richardson Cemetery in Yellowhead Township. There was no meeting in July and the August Meeting was a picnic at Marcia Stang's house. Due to no regular meeting for three months, September's business meeting was so long that no program was presented.

The October Meeting was planned as a cemetery walk of Union Corners Cemetery but it had to be canceled due to rain. Instead we had a regular meeting with an audio tape entitled "Frontier Genealogy". This program was presented by James Hanson and the following are some of the highlights:

1. Broaden your search geographically, then chronologically and then biographically in search of your elusive frontier ancestors. Counties may not have been organized so you will need to look for territorial, province, national or federal level records.
2. Establishing a county was a three part procedure as follows:
 - a. The county has been named but is still attached to the parent county.
 - b. The county has been organized and land record offices have been established. The County Board and governmental controls have started.
 - c. The county is fully organized with full judicial powers.
3. You need to research in more than just genealogical type records. You should start by finding out exactly what records are available.
4. Land records are a key resource of information.
5. Military records are another key source for military information including muster rolls and compensation records such as bounty lands.
6. Religious records are also a key source, especially missionary records which will probably be filed at the home congregation of the missionary.
7. So many original records have been moved from original locations to archival storage areas.
8. Lastly, don't expect the record to be in a logical place!
