GRANDMA AND THE FAMILY TREE

There's been a change in Grandma, we've noticed her of late,
She's always reading history or jotting down some date.
She's tracking back the family, we'll all have pedigrees.
Oh, Grandma's got a hobby, she's climbing Family Trees.

Poor Grandpa does the cooking and now, or so he states,
That worst of all, he has to wash the cups and dinner plates.
Grandma can't be bothered, she's busy as a bee
Compiling genealogy - for the Family Tree.

She has no time to baby-sit, the curtains are a fright,
No buttons left on Grandad's shirt, the flower bed's a sight.
She's given up her club work, the serials on TV
The only thing she does nowadays is climb the Family Tree.

She goes down to the courthouse and studies ancient lore,
We know more about our forebears than we ever knew before.
The books are old and dusty, they make poor Grandma sneeze,
A minor irritation when you're climbing the Family Tree.

The mail is all for Grandma, it comes from near and far,
Last week she got the proof she needs to join the DAR.
A worthwhile avocation, to that we all agree,
A monumental project, to climb the Family Tree.

Now some folks come from Scotland and some from Galway Bay,
Some were French as pastry, some German all the way.
Some went on west to stake their claim, some stayed near by the sea,
Grandma hopes to find them all as she climbs the Family Tree.

She wanders through the graveyard in search of date or name,
The rich, the poor, the in-between, all sleeping there the same.
She pauses now and then to rest, fanned by a gentle breeze
That blows above the fathers of all our Family Trees.

There were pioneers and patriots mixed in our kith and kin
Who blazed the paths of wilderness and fought through thick and thin.
But none more staunch than Grandma, whose eyes light up with glee
Each time she finds a missing branch for the Family Tree.

Their skills were wide and varied, from carpenter to cook
And one (alas) the record shows was hopelessly a crook.
Blacksmith, weaver, farmer, judge, some tutored for a fee,
Long lost in time, now all recorded on the Family Tree.

To some it's just a hobby, to Grandma it's much more,
She knows the joys and heartaches of those who went before.
They loved, they lost, they laughed, they wept, and now for you and me,
They live again in spirit, around the Family Tree.

At last she's nearly finished and we are each exposed.
Life will be the same again, this we all supposed..
Grandma will cook and sew, serve cookies with our tea.
We'll all be fat, just as before that wretched Family Tree.

Sad to relate, the Preacher called and visited for a spell,
We talked about the Gospel, and other things as well,
The heathen folk, the poor and then - t'was fate, it had to be,
Some how the conversation turned to Grandma and the Family Tree.

We tried to change the subject, we talked of everything
But then in Grandma's voice we heard that old familiar ring.
She told him all about the past and soon was plain to see
The preacher, too, was nearly snared by Grandma and the Family Tree.

He never knew his Grandpa, his mother's name was ...Clark?
He and Grandma talked and talked, outside it grew quite dark.
We'd hoped our fears were groundless, but just like some disease,
Grandma's become an addict - she's hooked on Family Trees.

Our souls were filled with sorrow, our hearts sank with dismay,
Our ears could scarce believe the words we heard our Grandma say,
"It sure is a lucky thing that you have come to me,
I know exactly how it's done, I'll climb your Family Tree."

The project for a west side hotel has not been abandoned. A few weeks ago an understanding was reached between a few capitalists and a few of the young business men which was in substance that if the young men would raise 45 per cent of the sum required to erect a hotel among those who would take $5.00 worth of stock and under, the few capitalists interested would put up the balance of the cash. It is understood the young men had nearly secured their subscription and the outlook for obtaining the balance was bright

Afternoon at the Archives

OUTSIDE, SPRING SUNSHINE AND cherry blossoms beckon, but Room 400 of the National Archives in Washington, D.C., is shrouded in semi-darkness. Row upon row of ancestor-seekers hunch into microfilm readers. A large blonde woman turns to me out of the blue and says, "When you go looking for ancestors, don't expect royalty." She'd recently been told by a red-faced pastor in a small Wisconsin church that her grandmother's parents were unwed. "A railroad man," she confides, "in town for the night." Booker Brooks, an African-American retired teacher, stumbled across an unknown ancestor—a Sephardic Jew, executed in Jamaica in 1799 for opposing slavery. Evelyn Lane discovered ties to Roger Conant, founder of Salem, Massachusetts—and to two female ancestors found guilty of witchcraft. The down elevator is crowded with gumshoes. "Get anything good?" one asks another. "A few little ones," moans the man in the Reeboks—the one I saw earlier down on two bad knees, gently beating his head against a filing cabinet. "But it'll come. And when it does, wham! It's better than gangbusters."

How About the Noad Matter Family?

In the latest publication of the Whittier (CA) Genealogical Society there is an example of those folks from Ohio and their "genealogical" books. A Whittier society member received a piece of junk mail unopened, after crossing out his name and writing "No Advertising Matter" in its place. Somewhere, a computer noted the change. He later received a personalized piece of junk mail from our Ohio friends who print "genealogical" books for different names. It began, "Dear Noad" (an abbreviated form of "no advertising" we guess). The company asked if the family would like to buy a history of the Matter family. The letter said the book contained a history of the Matters as well as an "international directory of virtually every Matter household with address." It ended with this clincher: "You, Noad Matter, are listed in this section of the book."

REMEMBER, FOLKS, THIS COMPANY IS UNDER A CEASE AND DESIST ORDER FROM THE USPS. IF YOU WOULD LIKE A COPY OF AN ARTICLE WHICH DETAILS THE LEGALITIES, JUST SEND A sase TO THE ODOM LIBRARY AND ASK FOR A REPRINT.

SPANISH FLU BROUGHT BACK BY SOLDIERS

Families still remember the 60,000 Canadians who died in World War I. Have you ever wondered why such a high proportion of other family members died that year too?

The return of the soldiers brought the highly contagious disease, Spanish flu, to Canada in the spring and summer of 1918. The flu started in Quebec and spread to every part of the country as fast as trains could carry infected people

The epidemic killed more people, more quickly than any war or discease in history: 15 million to 25 million worldwide, including 30-60,000 Canadians. From Highlands Genealogy Newsletter.

The deceased was born in Poland June 10, 1850. He was married and is survived by his wife and seven children: Stanley, Frank, Mrs Joe Pietrzak, Mrs Stanley Morenz, Bernice and Prexetki Gutka, also two grandchildren, all of whom live in this city. He had been a resident of Saginaw for the past 27 years and was affiliated with the Holy Rosary church being a member of the St Adelbert society. The funeral announcements will be made later.

10 August 1907

BENNETT - Death came somewhat suddenly to Nellie Bennett, at the Woman's hospital, Saturday morning between 9 and 10 o'clock and was caused by gall overflow. The young woman, who was in her nineteenth year, was only taken ill Friday, and up to that time had been in fine health and spirits as far as could be judged. Nellie was born in Lexington, Sanilac county, and was the daughter of Mr and Mrs George Bennett of that place, the father being dead and the mother married since to Felix Marquette, 330 South Tilden street, where deceased made her home. Besides her mother, there survive three brothers, Guy, Leroy and Wallace Bennett, all resident in Lexington. The remains were taken to Reitz' undertaking rooms to be prepared for burial, it being arranged to hold the funeral in Lexington, for which point the relatives will leave with the body Monday morning via Pere Marquette.

OBITUARY

KIRBY - Mrs Catherine, widow of the late W K Kirby, died at her home on Mackinaw street at 11 o'clock Friday night of paralysis, aged 70 years.

Catherine Rabbyt was born in Monroe, Mich in 1837, was married to Mr Kirby in 1857, has lived in Saginaw continuously since that time. She began keeping boarders not far from where the Kirby house now stands, purchased from Thomas Uester and then built the Kirby house. After Mr Kirby's death she continued to manage the hotel until about 17 years ago when she bought the farm on Mackinaw street which has since been her home. She also opened the Taylor house and ran it for about two years. Mrs Kirby was known through the city and surrounding country as a generous, openhearted woman, and during the time she was connected with the operation of the hotel herself stood the expense of the care, illness and burial of eleven persons who died in the hotel. This was but one of the many demands made upon her bounty and there are hundreds in this vicinity who have good occasion to remember her benefactions.

She leaves one brother, two sisters, James Rabbyt and Mrs Pittinger of Detroit, and Mrs M McGowan of Monroe. The funeral will take place Monday morning from SS Peters and Paul's church, hour to be decided upon later.

The End of a Useful Life

Robert McKENZIE, formerly a resident of this city, died at Seattle Washington yesterday. Mr McKENZIE was a resident of Saginaw for about 35 years, removing to Seattle about five years ago. He left a large circle of friends in this city who will learn of his death with deep regret. He was a member of the Prebyterian church for many years and a consistant Christian, whose virtues are well known to many residents of this city who knew and esteemed him highly. He was a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Knights of Honor. He leaves a wife and nine children, seven daughters and two sons, all of whom reside at Seattle, except one daughter, Mrs George N GOODRICH of this city. All the daughters except one are married. He was a kind husband, a loving father and a true friend, one of whom it may be said the world is better for his having lived in it. He was about 64 years old. He will be buried in Seattle tomorrow.

POSSIBLE FISH STORY

Saginaw Mother Finds Her Long Lost Son Said to Have been Stolen

A dispatch from Grand Rapids says Avery POLIN, 20 years of age, arrived there from Saginaw last week in search of his mother, from whom he had been kidnaped when 8 years old, and that he found her. The dispatch adds that during all these years Mrs POLIN has been searching for her lost son.

People here who claim to be well acquainted with the family, say this is the fish story of the year. Mrs POLIN has lived in Saginaw right along and so has her son, who has worked lately as a miner. He had been around town almost daily, it is said, and was seen last Saturday. Neither one of them could have been lost very badly according to a statement of those who know them well.

DIED IN GREAT AGONY

A Veteran Soldier of the Civil War Dies Rather Mysteriously

After having been ill but a few hours, Prisma KLOCK died at midnight Saturday in great agony, the symptoms of his illness bearing somewhat of a resemblance to those accompanying poisoning. Coroner GRUBE, who was called, does not take much stock in the poison story, but in order to ascertain accurately the cause of death, he decided to hold an inquest fixing the hour for 10 o'clock this morning at hose house No 8. James, Lester, John TAYLOR, Charles ROBINSON, T E WELLMAN, William WIRTZ and Charles RICHARDSON were impaneled as the jury. Deceased was 61 years of age, and was a veteran of the civil war, having served in Co 1, Tenth Michigan infantry. He leaves a son, residing in Bay City, and two brothers, John and Charles of Tuscola.
