PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

My first communication with you is one of hope rather than accomplishments, and I also wanted to convey to you some of the goals established by the Executive Board at its planning session in June.

We have retained all of the traditional functions of the past few years such as our bus trip to the Burton Library (December 2), the basic workshop and our annual spring seminar.

New innovations which came from our brainstorming session are: 1) a society newsletter 2) advanced workshop; 3) create an atmosphere which will allow members to dialogue better with each other so that we all can share from the experiences of each other.

My personal goal is for more member involvement. Part of the purposes of the Society is to promote the collection, preservation and publishing of genealogical, biographical and local historical materials. These are responsibilities of each of us. Cemetery readings in Chesaning will take place October 14 and many early church records still need to be done. Will you volunteer to assist in these and other society functions? Remember, it belongs to you.

In closing, I'm impressed by the dedication of board and committee members to their tasks, and also the information of 26 new members since June, which means its a healthy, vibrant society.

We hope you will actively join us.

Arthur Guimond, President

Leland R. Watrous

The meeting of 13 Mar 1978 found Georgetta Walker speaking on "Patriotic Societies, using as "Exhibit A" Ruth Zorn. She explained the many patriotic societies base their membership on service of ancestors to colony, state or region. The literally dozens of organizations represent not only military service, but also service to particular areas in many capacities such as clergy. On 8 May 1978, Carl F. Herzberg of the Reitz Funeral Home discussed records as kept by undertakers and emphasized that they must file a certificate of death with the clerk in the county in which the persons resided and that these records are available on the first of the month following the death. A Burial Transit Permit must be filled out when the deceased is moved from state to state; this must be returned to local registrar. Mr Herzberg suggested that information for the death certificate could be filled out ahead of time and left in a safe place or with relatives.

Karen Bonasczak of Bay City spoke at the meeting of 12 June regarding searching for family members lost by adoption and in favor of opening records for this purpose. Among the groups active in this field are the Adoptees Liberty Movement Assn and the Adoption Identity Movement with the goal of passing legislation to free up the sealed adoption records.
