LETTERS...

From the President. . . .

Each year at this time our Seminar Committee is busy with details of the upcoming seminar to be held in March. There are many weeks of preparation and detailed arrangements covering all aspects of a genealogical get-together. All of this is done with YOU in mind. These seminars are for the benefit of genealogists in their endeavor to further their knowledge in their quest of research know-how.

This year we have an exceptional seminar speaker, Mr. James Walker. He comes to us from Washington D.C. with many years as Director of Local History and Genealogy for the National Archives. Mr. Walker is an experienced lecturer, consultant, and author. He has received many honors including several in the field of genealogy.

For our members and guests this year, the seminar committee has arranged with Mr. Walker to add a Friday Evening lecture to the Saturday Seminar. Friday evening will cover researching in Virginia. Anyone who has ancestors hidden in the early records of this Commonwealth, will appreciate all the qualified information they can receive. Mr. Walker is one of the most knowledgeable in this area and his lecture will benefit each Virginia Researcher.

Saturday, Mr. Walker's session will be "Records relating to Citizenship" including a discussion of immigration records (passenger lists, naturalization, alien registrations, draft records, etc). The afternoon session will be "Records relating to Citizens" which will include a discussion of Military, pension, bounty land, land, court, censuses, and some little used sources.

With this wealth of information coming our way, I am sure you will want to mark your calendars for this event. Friday evening, March 30th and Saturday all-day March 31st are the two big dates. Mary Geoghegan, committee chairman, will soon have the registration forms available for each of you to register to attend this beneficial genealogical week-end. There will be more information in our monthly NEWSLETTERS.

I hope each of you had a wonderful Holiday Season and that you received several genealogical items from Santa. If you should have some unspent holiday dollars, how about a book for our genealogical library? It is a most gracious receiver of gifts and what's more, it shares all the gifts it receives.

I wish for each of you a wonderful 1984 with many happy "findings".

Evelyn Maloney
President

DOWN THROUGH THE YEARS WITH CAPE HORN GRANGE #70

(1884 - 1965 )

Submitted by Jim Attwell

English fur traders in traveling the Columbia River met with rough water where a rocky wall jets out into the river reminding them of rounding the Horn. So they gave the name Cape Horn to the spot and the settlement that grew up in the vicinity bears the name. In that community Cape Horn Grange was born in April of 1884 in the log cabin of C. O. Hanlon. Twenty seven charter members were organized as Cape Horn Grange #194 under Oregon State Grange by deputy Yeomans. The twenty-seven were:

1. James Nevin, Master
  2. Miss Katherine Nevin, Lady Assistant Steward
  3. James Walker, Overseer
  4. Mrs. James Walker, Flora
  5. R. H. Loomis, Lecturer
  6. Mrs. R. H. Loomis
  7. Wm. Haffey, Jr., Steward
  8. Wm. Haffey, Sr., Gate Keeper
  9. P. O. Breslin, Asst. Steward
  10. Mrs. P. O. Breslin, Ceres
  11. L. Wright, Cahaplain
  12. C. O. Hanlon, Treasurer
  13. Miss Mary Hanlon, (daughter), Pomona
  14. Dr. Candiano, Sec.
- and: Peter and Mrs. Klinick; George Lsnkraff; A. Rupkie; J. A. Hobchinson; P. McCarty; James and Bernard Haffey; Christian and Mrs. Christian Buslach; Wm. Floyd; Peter McCue; and fourteen year old Miss Maggie Hanlon.

These first members were enterprising, inspiring people when one looks back on their work. James Nevin the first Master was a tireless Grange builder. He was elected first State Lecturer when Washinton State Grange was organized and he served for six years. He then became a deputy. His daughter Eliza joined the grange in 1890 and was elected State L.A.S. in 1895. These two traveled together over the state organizing granges and boosting grange work for many years. Eliza lived to receive her Golden Sheaf and 60 year jewel and was present at the 70th anniversary celebration of Cape Horn Grange.

Irish James Walker, the first Overseer, and Pennsylvania Dutch, Mrs. Walker were parents of our late member Elmer Walker. R. H. Loomis first Lecturer, was related to our late Golden Sheaf member, Emery Stevenson.

The two Haffeyes are relatives of the late Jack Haffey whom we all knew as Democratic Chairman. One was in the state legislature.

Mr. & Mrs. P. O. Breslin were the parents of our late member George Breslin a past County Commissioner. Mrs. Breslin was a tall, dignified, stately woman among the best dressed of her day, a very fitting choice for Ceres it would seem. They had a store at Cape Horn.

L. Wright, first Chaplain, owned what was later the Elliot place near Emery Stevenson's. His daughter married a Barrett and the place became known as the Barrett place.

C. O. Hanlon, first treasurer was father of Mary, first Pomona, and Maggie who became our first Golden Sheaf member. Mary became Mrs. James Haffey, and died in 1894 leaving three children who were lovingly brought up by Maggie and her father.

Dr. Candiano, first Secretary was reputedly an Italian of noble birth who doctored these early settlers. He built a factory on the flats and manufactured starch and syrup from potatoes. Possibly this became a moonshining enterprise. He later brought in a colony of Italian trades people. He moved away later and eventually practiced his profession in Portland, Oregon, where he served as Italian consulate for years. There was a rumor of a romance between him and Lillie Guenther an early influential granger, but it evidently came to nothing.

Christian Buslach's niece has been an active member of Mt. Pleasant Grange for years. Peter McCue was born in Ireland and lived in Pennsylvania before he came west with the Daugherty's. The Hanlon's, too, were from Pennsylvania and friends of the McCue's. So eventually both McCue's and Daugherty's joined Hanlon at Cape Horn. A McCue's girl married a Daugherty and their daughter Margaret Daugherty Shields.

The grange waved and waned in those days as now. At one period seven loyal members, among them Maggie Hanlon, paid the state Grange dues to keep Cape Horn Grange in good standing.

At Skamania in 1911, Sylvan Grange #474 was organized by Deputy Wing with 58 charter members. They were:

1. Ella and Earl Marble
2. W. F. and Mrs. Darr
3. Morris Reynolds
4. George Grenia
5. J. J. Crine and I. S. Smith, bachelors who worked to build the grange hall.
6. William and Sarah Butler, hard worker for the grange.
7. Lucy Butler, their daughter.
8. Ester Butler, foster daughter.
9. E. H. Cousins, F. A. Millis, Clara Millis, Mary Grenia, C. A. Grenia, Joe Grenia, Gust Carlson, Wm. and Cora Sams, and their older children, Lee, Fred, Leona, Minnie, Grace, Fred Kline, Ettch Kline, David Kline, Ether Kline, Harry Kline.
10. Martin Erwin
11. George Doetsch, uncle of Melvin..past Master.
12. Tom and Emily Price
13. Mason and Maytie Fifer
14. C. O. and Amanda Williams
15. Carrie Williams (now Mrs. Joe Grenia).
16. P. S. and Mrs. Munn
17. H. J. and Mrs. Farrington
18. A. L. and Pearl Walker
19. R. E. and Jennie Yettick, Mrs. Yettick recalls entertaining Bro. Kegley in her home.
20. F. M. Buchanan
21. Judd Potter
22. C. C. and Mrs. Cree
23. R. H. Koch
24. Henry and Anna Seaberg
25. John and Mrs. Franz
26. Bettie Lindstrom

These people built the hall at Skamania in 1912 on land donated with donated labor. And in it they gave many dances and dinners to raise funds and provide community social life. For many years the school Halloween programs and Christmas programs were held in the Grange Hall with all the community gathered.

This Sylvan Grange, too, waxed and waned until both Cape Horn, which in the meantime had been numbered #70 by the Washington State Grange, and Sylvan were alive only by the determination of a handful of fathfuls, Bro. Marble and Sister Covert and one or two others of Sylvan Grange who came out on many a meeting night when no quorum turned up.

DEED RECORD X
SKAMANIA COUNTY, WASHINGTON

Sylvan Grange #474 to Cape Horn Grange #70. E. L. Marble, Secretary and L. G. Smith, Master in consideration of One and no/100 dollars, ($1.00) paid to them by Cape Horn Grange #70 have bargained and sold all property of Sylvan Grange to the Cape Horn Grange..#70, their heirs and assigns. dated 9/11/31

Finally, in 1932 the two granges united, Sylvan surrendered it's charter to take the name and number of Cape Horn Grange #70 and inherit it's valiant history. Rebirth came slowly. The first big class of candidates in April 1935. Much is due Sister Evie Covert who served as Secretary from 1936-46 until she went to Alabama. She contributed in a very large measure to the growth and prosperity of the grange in those years.

About 1936 another large class of candidates was taken in and degree teams from Fern Prairie Grange in Clark County exemplified the degrees, the first real degree teams and work done in the hall. This inspired the members to form degree teams of our own and Mae Scrugall and Will Scrugall of Fern Prairie gave generous and valuable assistance to Arch and Dorothy Sams who helped organize teams for all degrees which were soon active.

Shortly a fifth degree team was organized and has continued a yearly preformance with the exception of two years. It was not given in 1982 because it could be taken in Clark County and at State Grange that met in Vancouver that year.

In 1938, four years later, a Golden Sheaf was presented to Maggie Hanlon. In 1944 a 60 year jewel was presented to her. Earl Marble received his Golden Sheaf in 1948 and 60 year jewel in 1958. Emery Stevenson his Golden Sheaf in 1955.

Cape Horn's silver star members were:

FALLEN LEAF LAKE/DEAD LAKE CEMETERY

From The Camas-Washougal Post Record Tuesday, October 18, 1983 - - The article stated a Catholic Cemetery called Fallen Leaf Lake Cemetery, also known as Dead Lake Cemetery, in Camas, WA, has become overgrown with trees and brush and many graves have been removed and placed in other cemeteries, where they will be cared for. There are eight remaining graves and Father Ron Belisle of St. Thomas is trying to locate the next of kin of Joe Necretto (1868-1921), John Isaac Banfield, Avis Banfield, Joseph Rubens, Martin Marren (d. May 10, 1899), Maria Marren, Maggie Marren and Elizabeth Hood. He needs permission to move these graves to new homes, so the old cemetery can be closed. These eight people probably died before 1924 as the cemetery no longer took in burials after that time. It is on 1.7 acres donated to the Catholic church by the DeLeat family and has been run by the first Catholic church in Camas, origin 1870, and now in the hands of St. Thomas Catholic church.

You can help if you are related to any of these people. Please call or write Father Belisle at (206) 824-2126, St Thomas Catholic Church, 324 N.E. Oak, Camas, WA 98607.

LIBRARY UPDATE

USE THE LIBRARY!!! Although you may not always find definite information on your family in the Clark County Genealogical Society Library, there are other advantages to making frequent visits to the library. It is very possible to make acquaintance with other members who, by chance, may be researching the same surnames as you are. It is not at all uncommon in the library to overhear a conversation between two people whereupon they have discovered they have the same ancestors. With comparison of their records, they are able to be of great assistance to one another by exchanging information and sources. From my own personal experience I have, by accident, been the recipient of valuable information received by my contact with other members of our Society. A friend acquired through my activities in the Society was able to direct me to a member of my family whom I did not previously know. My friend called the relative with whom she was well acquainted, told the relative of my existence and that I was researching the family. This paved the way for my contact with the relative who was a complete stranger to me. I was joyous at the information I received--newspaper clippings, photographs, an old letter written by an elderly aunt, and the acquisition of a family history book. Take the time to visit often and settle down to browsing through the periodicals and books. You may not only receive helpful suggestions from other members who are occupied in the same manner but may make some lasting friendships! Turn in your pedigree charts to the Ancestor Chart chairman. When your chart is published in the Trail Breakers, who knows, you may find a relative who is also a member of Clark County Genealogical Society. I know, I did!

DORIS WASTRADOWSKI, Librarian

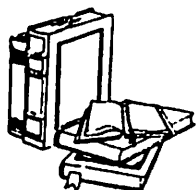

PERIODICALS!!! Don't give up on periodicals! For the areas of your ancestor researching go over the Table of Contents for Family Association NEWSLETTERS containing your surnames and carefully read the Book Reviews for published sources that could contain 'clues' for collateral relatives: neighbors, fellow church members, fellow immigrants, witnesses to legal documents, guardians and administrators. These possibilities are endless, especially for a 'new' found surname. Back issues of periodicals on the 'check-out' shelf could be very helpful.

"Many years of exhaustive research by thousands and thousands of folks working on their genealogical tasks have produced so many relatives on the MAYFLOWER that it is a wonder that famous vessel did not flounder in the Mid-Atlantic from being overloaded." (from a Car-Del Scribe)

WPA Indexes: One of the more ambitious programs of the late 1930's was an attempt by the Works Project Administration to index Vital Records. Indexes were compiled for three basic record groups, births, marriages and deaths. In addition in some states such records as marriage applications, voter's registers and the 1880 Federal Census were compiled. The time frame covered was generally from 1882 to 1920. As with many such compilations some are quite free of errors and others were less carefully done. An area not to be overlooked!

DID YOU KNOW? Genealogy - begins as an interest becomes a hobby
continues as an avocation takes over as an obsession and in the last stages is an incurable disease?

SHIRLEY RASK
Periodical Chairman

RESEARCHING SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS

The following article is by George I. Gird, from the Midwest Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. 18 No. 1.

One set of records that may not have occurred to searchers to be of any genealogical value is the Social Security files. The Social Security Account Number (SSAN) is divided into three sets of figures. The three digits in the first group show the state where the number was issued ("Issued" not necessarily where the applicant was living at the time of application). The second group of numbers contains two digits, used to define people within that state. The third group, containing four digits, is a listing in numerical sequence, to determine the total number of applicants. An applicant listed where he was living when he applied; his date and place of birth; his father's name and his mother's maiden name. A call to the local Social Security office confirms that it is possible to obtain copies of the applications; they will outline the procedure for you. Address of the Social Security Administration: Box 57, Baltimore, MD 21203.

Since the first three digits are of special genealogical interest, they are listed here:

PETITION OR APPLICATION FOR PROBATE

by Mary S. Wilkins

Most of us are aware of the value of the probate package but in the last few years another document has been brought to my attention, the "petition or application for probate". This is probably the most valuable document, after the will, to be found at the county courthouse because the probate laws in most states required that this document include the names, ages, addresses and relationship to the deceased of all heirs whether mentioned in the will or not.

The Researchers Guide to American Genealogy by Val D. Greenwood, pages 227 and 245, puts it this way: "The will is ordinarily brought before the Court of proper jurisdiction to be probated by the filing of a written application or petition for probate. In more recent years, in the states which require them, these applications have proven to be invaluable genealogical documents as they must include names of all next-of-kin of the testator, relationship or degree of relationship to him (with ages of minors) and post office addresses".

If an individual dies intestate, the requirements are much the same: "No court can acquire jurisdiction unless there is proof of death. Probate proceedings are usually set in motion by a petition. . . . the amount of property. . . . and, in more recent years, the names and relationships of those persons who may be entitled to share in that property. . . ."

What a genealogical gold mine these applications for probate can be!

USEFUL GENEALOGICAL DEFINITIONS

CERTIFIED COPY - an exact copy of a Bible, tombstone, baptismal or other record that has been attested by a notary public, as being a correct copy.

HOLOGRAPHIC WILL - a will made in the handwriting of the testator.

NUNCUPATIVE WILL - an unwritten will, have been declared or dictated by the testator in his last sickness, before a sufficient number of witnesses, and afterwards reduced to writing.

YOUR NAME

Your Name, you got it from your father, it was all he had to give. So it's yours to use and cherish for as long as you live. If you lose the watch he gave you, it can always be replaced, but a black mark on your name Son, can never be erased. It was clean the day you took it and a worthy name to bear, when he got from his father there was no dishonor there. So make sure you guard it wisely, after all is said and done, you'll be glad the name is Spotless when you give it to your Son.

A letter written by (May) Mary Sturgess to her sister, Mabel Sturgess, about 95 years ago.

Sunday, July 22, 1888
Kelso

Dear Mabel:

I recieved your letter this morning. I thought you was not going to answer it; it seemed a long time since I wrote you. It has rained here agood deal but for more than a week it has been very hot last Tuesday I thought I would melt most every afternoon and evening there is a nice breeze but that day it did not blow a bit and Clarence went to Vac that day to and I was so lonesome I guess it seemed warmer to; he was gone to nights and I and Sadie stayed a lone all the time I would have give a bitt to had you for company I got so lonesome I cryed and Sadie did not know what to make of it; he is going to Portland again in about a week I expect I will go crazy. I wish I had some of your garden truck it is hard to get here everybody have lovely gardens but dont sell any of it next year we will have one of our own if we all live to need garden's every thing grown fine here makes me anxious to have a garden I expect I will be planting it this winter I want you to save me some flower seeds any kind.

Well I said I would tell you about the town this time I dont know what to tell there are two stores the Post Office is in one the other one is quite large with a Hall over it yet there was a concert and Magic Lantern Show last night we did not go Clarence was to tired and Sadie was not well she was sick all night but is better to day. there are two Butcher shops a bakery and Candy and tobacco store together they do not bake their own bread but get it from Portland on the train I wish you children could see the trains you would like to watch them sometimes seven or eight in one day once I counted 38 cars in one train I like to watch them at first but have got tired of them now saw so many the track is about 3 blocks from the house the station is quite a little ways below the town. I dont know how houses there are here there are 3 or 4 hundred people I suppose Parker has told you all about the Church it is on the hill back of our house the school house is just one block from us. they are talking of building a seminary here they have a good school here 75 scholars they had school this year from last September till a bout the middle of June I am going to ask dave to let you or Asa one come down and go to school next year it commences in September again Mr. Pratt that use to be down to La Center teaches he lives here. I wish you children were here we would climb on top of the big rock has Parker told you about it; it is just a block from us to, just by the school house it nearly covers a block and 50 ft. high. one side is nearly straight up and one side slopes so any one could climb up, there is a Hotel and another being built. how are you getting a long with your music you must practice lots to keep a head of Laura M__ dont let her beat and and play for Dave he likes to hear you so well you remember what he said that time to Muligan

Write soon love to all from yours with love May
