CERTIFICATION OF FAMILY BIBLE RECORD

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES ss

This is to certify that I have compared this photostatic copy of Bible record with the original record in the Bible, and that the same is a true and correct copy of the original;

That I have personally examined the original Bible from which this copy was made; and that said Bible was printed in the year 1866, and that the ageing of the paper and the fading of the ink indicates the entry was made at the time of the birth of Charles Green Davidson on December 5th, 1874, and that there are no alterations or erasures in the original record.

Witness my hand and official seal this 10th day of April, 1941, in the City of Long Beach, County of Los Angeles, State of California

Geo. C. Colbert
Notary Public in and for the County

A Swedish Immigrant Family Leaves Many Vancouver Descendants

by Lucille Biggerstaff Moss

In the small village of Okna, Sweden, on the farm of Graneberg, lived Johan Mangus Gustafson, who was a farmer and a Circuit Judge, his wife Inga Maria Andersdotter and their eight children. All the children came to the United States between 1875 and 1893. Out of the eight, five resided in Vancouver and four are buried here. With the exception of my grandmother, all changed their name to Roden as it sounded more American.

August and Al Roden

The eldest child, August Roden, was born in 1851. He remained in New York. His only child, George, had no children.

The second child, Al Roden, was born in 1857 and never married. He mined in Tonapah, Nevada and later had a hay ranch in McEwen, Oregon. He retired in 1927 and lived on the corner of 9th and Jefferson in Vancouver until his death in 1941. He is buried in Park Hill Cemetery.

Jenny Johansdotter Gustafson

Harry, Jenny and Anna Gustafson - 1904

The third child, Jenny Gustafson, grandmother of author, was born in 1859. She was the last of the eight children to emigrate to the United States. She and my grandfather, Carl Gustafson, were married in Okna, Sweden in 1892 and came to America in 1893. Carl worked for his brother-in-law, Gustaf Nelson, in Bridal Veil and Cascade Locks, Oregon and in Vancouver. He also mined in Tonapah and Silver City, Nevada. They had two children, Harry and Anna. Jenny died in 1914 at the old St. Joseph's Hospital and is buried in Old City Cemetery in Vancouver. Carl lived until 1956 and is buried at Kenton, Oregon.

Jenny and Carl's son, Harry, was born at Bridal Veil, Oregon in 1894. He grew up in Nevada and in Vancouver. During World War I he served in France as a farrier, and was with the Occupation Forces in Siberia. After his discharge he returned to Vancouver and drove truck for many years for Swift & Company. He married Grace Craine, a native of Vancouver, in 1929 and they had two children, Robert and June. Harry worked in the shipyards during World War II. In later years they lived in Portland where Harry worked at Fiber Form and Grace worked at St. Vincent's Hospital. After retirement they moved to the Oregon beaches. Harry died in 1977 and is buried in Willamette National Cemetery. Grace is still alive and lives in Portland.

Harry and Grace's son, Robert, was born in Portland in 1930. He graduated from Central Catholic High School in 1949 and served in the Army with the Medics in Korea from 1951 until 1953. After the war he returned to school, graduating from Portland State and then the University of Oregon Medical School. He interned at St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland. In 1959 he married

In 1930 Anna married George Reed of Vancouver, who was a lineman for the S.P. & S. Railroad. The house they lived in at 3305 "G" Street is still standing. ## RICHARD GRAFTON: MORE STUMBLIN' LUCK

In early March, while browsing through the April issue of Colonial Home, I turned to an article titled "The Stanley-Whitman House of Farmington, Connecticut," and determined that these Whitmans were kin folks of the Whitman family that I was related to by marriage.

I wrote to Ms. Jean M. Martin, Director/Curator of The Stanley-Whitman House, a National Historic Landmark, explaining my genealogical interest in that particular Whitman family and asked for more information, inclosing a SASE for her reply.

On March 28, I received a reply from Ms. Martin. She had enclosed a one page copy of descendants of the Rev. Samuel Whitman, the one-time owner of the house, and a copy of a page form "History of the Descendants of John Whitman of Weymouth, Mass." by Charles H. Farnum, published in 1889.

Of interest to me in this information was a brief bio of Perrin Beza Whitman, giving date and place of birth and date of marriage to Priscilla Mace Parker, my great aunt. The bio also included the date and place of Priscilla's birth in Greenbriar, VA (now WV).

This information was particularly welcome since I had never been able to determine just where great grandfather Samuel Parker had lived in Virginia (West Virginia).

An intriguing piece of information was the name of Mace used with my great grandmother, Elizabeth Mace Parker; my family records have always listed her as "Elizabeth M. Sutton." I never knew what the initial "M" stood for. Could Mace have been her maiden name? Had g-grandmother Elizabeth been married once before? One answered question always seems to pose another.

I have also been enabled to fill in bits and pieces of my Whitman kin, add another branch to that family, put full names to Perrin's and Priscilla's children and their spouses (not just initials).

I suppose the point I'm trying to make is not to be afraid to write an inquiry. Most people are only too happy to help you out - just don't forget that SASE.

COUSINS FOUND AMONG CCGS MEMBERSHIP

Pat Bauer is one of our members who found a cousin among CCGS membership! By exchanging information with Lois Godier, Pat was able to fill in one line of her family tree. Here's her story:

I always put anything else aside when the Trail Breakers arrives at my house and when Volume 17 No. 3 (Spring 1991) arrived I went through my usual ritual of reading it from cover to cover. When I reached Lois Godier's ancestor chart I announced to my husband that I had found a distant cousin, then immediately called Lois.

I am related to her through Richard Belden/Belding. My ancestor was Samuel belden and her (Lois's) grandparent (several times removed) was William . . . both sons of Richard Belding. Shortly after I called Lois, another distant cousin (Barbara Jones, CCGS member living in Salem, OR) called her. Barbara descends from Richard's third son, John Belding. Richard came to the U.S. in 1630 with three sons and the three of us, one descending from each son, have found each other here in the Clark County Genealogical Society. I think it's pretty unusual.

We have pooled our information and I put it into my computer in my "Family Roots" program. There are 96 pages of standard charts when I print the chart from my grandparent (Samuel) back as far as I have it in the computer. Then, there is a two page chart from one of the publications in our library which takes us back another 100 generations to Adam and Eve!

I am also related to Lois through the Foote family and probably through the Fitch family.

Pat Bauer extracts genealogical material from old Vancouver Newspapers for publication in the Trail Breakers. She will be moving to 15917 N.E. Union Road #c-6, Ridgefield, WA 98642.

Volunteer Spotlight

The organizer and first President of Clark County Genealogical Society, Margaretta Maude Zimmerman, is a descendant of Clark County pioneers. She was born at Salmon Creek on August 31, 1911 to Martha Estella Tenny and Arthur Holabert Brown.

Her great grandparents, Joseph Hill Goddard and Hester Ann Hendricks, came west by covered wagon in 1852 and settled in Clark County on a donation land claim at Salmon Creek. He was a member of the Territorial Legislature and walked to sessions at Olympia. Hester Goddard started Salmon Creek School.

After graduating from Vancouver High School in 1928, Margaretta attended Northwestern School of Commerce in Portland, Oregon. Later she secured a civil service job working for Columbia National Forest Service from 1933 until 1941. She was married to Arbra Wayne Zimmerman at St. James Parish House on September 20, 1933 by Rev. Fr. John B. Egan. The son of Clark County pioneers, Edward Gabriel Zimmerman and Martha Higdon, Arbra was born at Glenwood on March 17, 1904. Living on the farm their entire married life, they ran a chicken hatchery and sold eggs. Together they raised a family of six children.

The busy life on the farm with a growing family was reason enough for her decision to relinquish her job and remain at home. In 1966 Margaretta was selected as Clark County Mother of the Year, the same honor received several years earlier by her mother, Martha Tenny, who had eleven children.

The Zimmerman children were all born in Vancouver. The eldest, Mary Frances, was born on March 22, 1938 and is in charge of the chemistry laboratory at Providence hospital in Portland where she has worked for thirty-one years. Mary is single and lives at Glenwood with her mother. The next child, Carol Jeanne, was born on her mother's birthday August 31, 1941, and married Ross M. McFadyen. She is director of a nursing program in Sheridan, Wyoming. The first son, Edward Arthur, was born June 2, 1943 and is married to Mary Elizabeth Aylmer. He teaches in the math department of Tacoma Community College. Donald Leland was born August 3, 1945 and is married to Faye Ida Adolphson. He is employed as a machinist at Spokane Diesel. Raymond Mark was born February 16, 1950 and is married to Arlene Elaine Brown. William Frederick, the youngest of the clan, was born on August 28, 1953 and is married to Margaret Lee Tribe. Bill is the farmer in the family. There are twelve grandchildren, six boys and six girls, and one great grandchild.

A member of Daughters of the Pioneers of Washington since 1959, Margaretta has served in many capacities, including State Historian and President. She is a member of numerous organizations including Ft. Vancouver Historical Society, D.A.R. and the Mayflower Society. She has long had an interest in local history and has been an active participant in its preservation. Her contributions made in the P.T.A. and Lay Advisory Council of the Battle Ground School District won her the Golden Acorn Award in 1968. In 1987 she received a pin and a certificate of recognition from Clark County Auditor, Liz Luce, for having participated as a Washington State voter for 55 years.

Margaretta still lives on the sixty acre farm at Glenwood that she came to as a bride. During their first twenty-five years of marriage the Zimmermans lived in the house that Arbra was born in. The Zimmerman farm is a Centennial Farm, and has been in the family for five generations. Arbra's grandparents, Gabriel Zimmerman and Janette Vincent, were the first of the family to come to Clark County in 1872. They donated land for the first school at Glenwood. Arbra, passed away on October 22, 1980 and is buried in the Goddard Cemetery at Salmon Creek.

Through her enthusiasm and devotion to the job as C.C.G.S. membership chairman this year, Margaretta has increased the society's membership roll to an all time high. We are truly appreciative of this outstanding volunteer.

Territorial Items.

JUDGE WYCHE'S COURT. - JUDGE WYCHE returned last week, in the absence of JUDGE HEWITT, (who is reported to have gone to Washington,) and immediately issued an order to SHERIFF KELLETT for the arrest of R. H. HEWITT, late supreme and district clerk. MR. HEWITT immediately repaired to TURPIN's skating pond (?), and in the meantime an order came from JUDGE HEWITT for the records and documents of the courts to be turned over to FRANK HENRY. MR. HEWITT again returning, was brought before JUDGE WYCHE for contempt of court, fined $200 and costs (about $50 or more, we presume,) and ordered to turn over the office. This all having done, the great court imbroglio of Washington Territory comes to a very quiet finale. [2/2]

Several persons lately left the City for the Willow creek mines. Among the number, were Messrs. F. P. ALLEN and JNO. KELLY. We hope they will find enough gold to make us all rich on their return, though we feel quite certain they won't. HANK LEHMAN left on Monday for the Sweetwater diggings - not caring a cent about those 2,000 Indians who are out there fishing around for scalps. * * *

THE MAILS. - A telegram was received a few days ago, by MESSRS. GRAINGER & DAVIS, mail contractors of the route to Monticello, from POSTAL AGENT BROOKS, to the effect that the mail steamer for Portland will hereafter leave Monticello three hours earlier * * *

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I would urge each one to adopt a 1920 Washington soundex microfilm roll. We will have all of the 1920 Census for the state of Washington; but we need the soundex to use as an index. The list and adoption form is included in the June 1992 NEWSLETTER.

I have enjoyed serving you as president this last year. A special thank you to all who have so faithfully continued to do the many tasks that help to make our society what it is today. I know you will continue your support with Fred Smith as our new leader. Congratulations to the new officers -- have a great term.

Dorothy Person, Retiring President

NICHOLS FARMER

I'm trying to find my half sister, August Lee OLDHAM. She was born in Antlers, Pushmataha Co., OK on 14 Aug 1914. Her parents were Ongy Jefferson OLDHAM & Anne Olla RUSSELL. Ongy was the s/o James Riley OLDHAM & Sarah or Sallie ROBERSON. Anne was the d/o Will RUSSELL & Maggie NICHOLS and step-d/o Joe FARMER.

Heard that August mar. & div. & had several children. Also, that August lived in CA, possibly in the Los Angeles area. Our father last saw her when she was 2 or 3 years old. No one else in the family has ever seen her.

If anyone has any information about her or her children, we would all appreciate hearing from them. She does not know that she has 7 brothers and sisters of whom 5 are still living. I pray that she is still living and would like to meet her & her family.

DON'T DELAY THOSE PHOTOS!

Carol Huesser would like to remind researchers to get out this summer and take those photos and and other recordings of tombstones. Between lawn mowers, acid rain, and inferior modern stones, you could be out of luck if you delay. She could barely make out the tombstone of her aunt buried in 1987 in the San Bernardino, CA. Don't delay taking those pictures just because they are recent!

PARK HILL LOST:

Gerry Gilman adds these two names to tombstones at Park Hill Cemetery in Vancouver, WA:

BOWER, FRED 1867-1957 FATHER
 FALLU, JOSEPH D. 1858-1948
