P R O C L A M A T I O N

- WHEREAS, the Clark County Genealogical Society is celebrating a silver anniversary, 25 years since its inception in 1972, by a handful of interested citizens of Clark County. The motto for this time is "1972-1997, Celebrating 25 Years of Community and Family Connections."
- WHEREAS, the society is preserving Clark County records of various types in printed form. Moreover, the Clark County Genealogical Society has a fine library on Main Street with a very good collection of books and materials, and equipment, including an up-to-date computer and programs.
- WHEREAS, the community at large is involved in nurturing genealogy with the Ft. Vancouver Regional Library, and LDS History Centers, Clark College courses, the Interlibrary Loan System, and Internet.
- WHEREAS, the range and purposes of genealogy are manifold, and they encourage learning in a variety of subjects: languages, national heritages, genetics, family lineages, geography, history, immigrations, religions, and technologies.
- WHEREAS, data, resources, and advice and assistance on research are available to the public, as well as to members.
- WHEREAS, genealogy can be pursued at many levels, and on an individual basis, as well as by a group, or with group support.
- WHEREAS, genealogy covers the globe, from local, state, national, and international angles.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Royce E. Pollard, Mayor of the City of Vancouver, do hereby proclaim October, 1997, as

"1972-1997, Celebrating 25 Years of Community and Family Connections" and encourage all citizens to join in this observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Vancouver to be affixed this 18th day of October, 1997.

ROYCE E. POLLARD, MAYOR

Clark County Genealogical Society Celebrates a Silver Anniversary

In the photo, Vancouver's mayor, Royce Pollard, presents to President Jane Germann a copy of the proclamation he read at the anniversary as anniversary; co-chairman Jennifer Warren looks on. A large arch of green and silver balloons floated above the podium. Over 200 people attended the celebration, which was held at the Water Resources Center on Saturday, October 18th.

Following a year of planning, Co-chairman Virginia Holter (who missed being a founding member by one meeting) opened the event. Guests were welcomed and included four living founding members and family members representing other founders. Past presidents were also recognized. Virginia Holter sang a French song, French of the Mississippi Valley and Beverly Erven sang Northwest Pioneer. Irene Page won the Clark County throw, which had been donated by the Clark County Realtors for the drawing.

"Shake Anybody's Family Tree and at Least One Nut Will Fall Out," was the title of the humorous presentation by columnist Donna Potter Phillips. It brought many smiles, laughter, and applause from the crowd. Donna had spoken the previous Thursday at an open forum presented by the Columbian.

A beautifully decorated cake was the center of the food table. The rest of the room was surrounded with genealogical interest tables: Ask the columnist corner, beginning genealogy, charts, climbing brick walls, computer interest, freebies/bargains, GIRS, historian, library, membership, publications, organizing genealogical information, surname board, and quilts. Quilts hung on the walls added a wonderful feeling of history to the program and brightly colored the room. Member Dorothy Person made the quilts for various family occasions and had a story to go with each one.

FOUNDING MEMBERS:

Attending the meeting on November 3, 1972

Clark County Genealogical Library Moves Back to the Basement

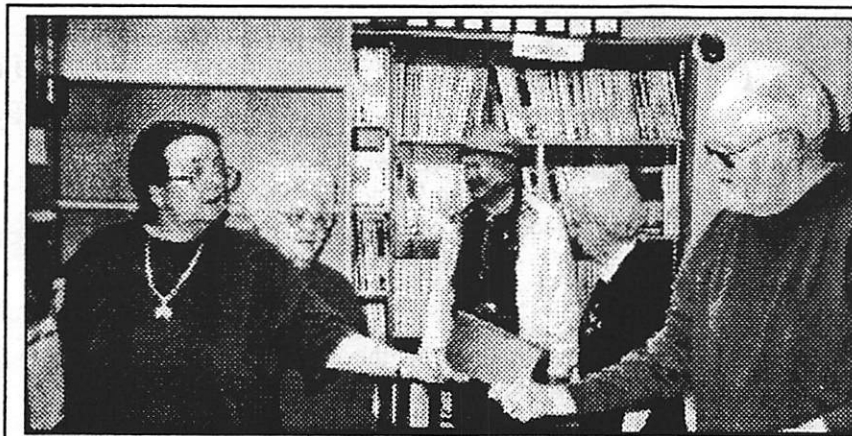

Librarian Mary Geoghegan was very pleased to have the library open to patrons three days into the move back to the basement. The great turn out of volunteer helpers and much pre-planning helped make this possible. North is at the right in this view. The general collection begins by the copy machine and periodicals are located on the east (bottom) and half of the north (right side) walls. This plan shows where a second computer will eventually be placed. The microform center was open a few days later. Mary's experience as librarian for the move upstairs paid off for the move back down.

Above: Librarian Mary Geoghegan and Doris Wastradowski, assistant librarian greet visitors at the open house. Right: Part of a moving crew pause for a photo: Standing: Sharon Kindred, Mary Katschke, Maureena Cravens, Arlene Paul, John Dodge, Don & Pat Bauer. Kneeling: Mary Geoghegan, Erma Estis, Jane Germann, Lee Paul & Roy Katschke.

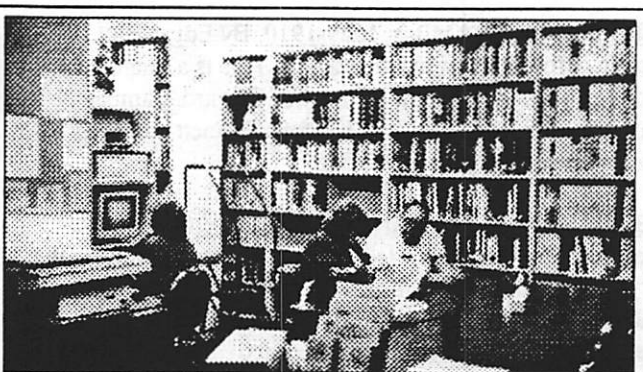

Last time the library was located downstairs, only a part of the large open area was available for books and the move upstairs was welcomed. Over the years that space became filled (and over-filled). The museum approved CCGS's utilization of the north basement area. The area represents about 50% more space than we had upstairs. A great floor plan was developed by Mary Geoghegan and Roy Katschke. Roy built most of the shelving and the computer station. The SP & S Railroad Museum is in the southern section, across from our library. It took 234 volunteer hours to move.

NEW BOOKS AT CCGS by Joanne Bortniak

These new acquisitions have been reviewed by Joanne Bortniak. Those marked with an R or Ref will be kept in the reference section of the CCGS library. The library is located in the historical society building at 1411 Main Street, Vancouver. Other books will be available for members to check out after a short time on the "new books" shelf.

EARLY RECORDS OF FISHING CREEK PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, CHESTER COUNTY, SC. 1799-1859 Compiled by Brent H. Holcomb and Elmer O. Parker. Fishing Creek Presbyterian Church was organized about 1770. Rev. John Simpson (1704-1808) was ordained and installed as pastor in 1774; he served the church until 1790 when he removed to Pendleton District, SC. Rev. Simpson visited every family and member of his church during his pastorate and the visitation list is a record of those visits. The records of sessions (1799-1859) lists baptisms, marriages, deaths, and removals. Both the visitation list and the records of sessions are facsimiles of the originals. The cemetery rosters arranged by rows and gives, when known, the name of the deceased, birth, and death dates, spouse, or parents, age at death, military service, and position in the church. 1980 reprint, 191 pages, illus, map, index, paper, #H541 $16.50. HIGHLAND PAPERS VOLUME IV Edited by J. R. N. MacPhail, K.C. "Like the earlier volumes of the series, this volume contains a collection of papers of the Campbells of Strachur, transcribed and annotated by the Duke of Argyll, have by His Graces's kindness been made available to the Society. The National Library of Scotland and the Lyon Office respectively contribute...material regarding the Campbells of Auchinbreck and the name of McLea. A document from the papers of...Dr. Maitland Thomson supplies...information about the last phase of resistance to William of Orange in Scotland. A letter from the Barcaldine Mss., written by Mungo Campbell, who was with Colin Campbell of Glenure when he was shot, is a notable addition to the memorials of the Appin murder (©1762). The Vatican Transcripts illustrate the control of Rome in medieval times over the remotest northern parishes. Among the miscellaneous documents printed at the end of the volume...are the Letters of Legitimation granted by the sixth earl of Argyll to Alexander Gald Mac Gregor in 1579, in which the Earl...exercises the privilege of legitimating a bastard; and the charter granted by Isabella Duchess of Albany to Sir Colin Campbell of Glenorchy in 1440, of certain land in the Lennox. In this charter the grantee is given the right of holding courts, but with the reservations that any person capitally convicted must be sent to be hanged at the superior's gallows!" 1934 reprint, 290 pages. HISTORY OF SCRANTON, PA By David Craft, William S. Wilcox, Alfred Hand, and J. Wooldridge. A valuable resource for anyone interested in the Wyoming Valley area of northeastern Pennsylvania, this book begins with a description of Scranton's natural advantages: location in the great northern anthracite coal field of PA; proximity to the cities of New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh; elevation and geography; geology and mineral resources apart from coal; flora and fauna and a scenic and healthful setting. Next the book describes the Indian history of the region in which figured the Iroquois, Delawares, Shawanese, Minsis and Pontiacs. There follows a discussion of the pre-revolutionary controversy over whether the Wyoming Valley should be part of Connecticut or Pennsylvania (apparently rooted in conflicting charters granted by England). From there the book proceeds through descriptions of the region's early settlements and surveys; growth development and histories; mining interests; manufacturing industries; banks, building associations and insurance; transportation; the press; education; church history; public institutions, societies and associations; medical history; and finally, bench and bar. The presentation is augmented by engravings of about a dozen prominent figures, as well as an every name index which also includes topics. One author, David Craft, was known for having previously written "History of Bradford County, PA." 1891 Reprint 583 pages. Paper, #C602 $27.00. Heritage Books, Inc. 974.8 Cra

HISTORY OF TAZWELL COUNTY AND SOUTHWEST VIRGINIA Part 1 By William C. Pendleton. This is a two volume set for anyone interested in the Tazewell County area or in the general history of the settlement of the wild Appalachian territory which was still regarded as the frontier after as many as a million American colonists had settled the coastal lowlands. Tazewell County, Virginia is located in the mountainous region shared by Virginia, West Virginia and Kentucky. The author divides this history into six periods; The Aboriginal Period, Discovery and Colonization, the Pioneer Period, The Ante-Bellum, The War and Reconstruction, and the Post-Bellum. These two volumes include about eighty illustrations, chiefly photographs of people or places. In addition to several appendices, there is an every name plus subject index. (1748-1920). 1920 reprint, 700 p., 2 vol., illus., map, append., index, paper # P151 $44.00. 975.4 Pen

THE ORIGIN OF CERTAIN PLACE NAMES IN THE UNITED STATES

By Henry Gannett. A Heritage Classic reprint of 1910..This book proved very popular among the editors at Heritage Press, Inc.! This book confirmed what the locals among us already knew, namely that our town is in Prince George's County and was named for Governor Oden Bowie. Our residents of Annapolis learned that their city was named for Queen Anne, the wife of King James I of England. So I looked up Vancouver and found that Vancouver, town and military fort in Clarke County, Washington, named for Capt. George Vancouver, royal navy, who explored that part of the country in 1791. Then I check Clark County, and fond Clarke; county in Washington, and river in Montana, named for Capt. William Clarke, of the Lewis and Clarke expedition. Henry Gannett was a geographer for the United States Geological Survey. He was motivated to publish this alphabetical compilation of the origins of approximately 10,000 place names because it embodies so much local and general history. Even if you do not need this book for specific research, it is fun for browsing and would make a great gift for trivia buffs. 280 pages., paper, #G055 $22.00. 929 Gan

SWIFT AWARDS CCGS GRANT

December 3, 1997, SWIFT awarded CCGS a grant of $4,265 towards purchase of the Canon Microprinter 90. This machine will help researchers by allowing them to make photocopies of the films they are viewing instead of hand copying the information. This model will print from both microfilm and microfiche. CCGS has 368 rolls of microfilm and 70 microfiche titles and plans to add to this collection. SWIFT granted nearly all the amount requested. Thank you SWIFT!

SWIFT – Southwest Washington Independent Forward Thrust – awarded $385,000 in grants to 72 groups, including a one-time $100,000 grant to establish a community-based oral health care clinic to Southwest Washington Health District. Six groups received grants over $10,000. We were among the 65 "regular" grants given. One hundred seventy-one organizations applied for funds. Of the $285,000 awarded "regular grantees," Social & Health received $136,800, Civic & Education received $108,300, and Cultural received $39,000.

Each group gave a brief description of the project funded. It was extremely heart-filling to see what our community is doing to help others and to see that SWIFT is helping these groups make a difference in our community.

The December Newsletter has additional information about this project supported in part by a grant from Southwest Washington Independent Forward Thrust (SWIFT).

Beginning Genealogy

In our continuing series on genealogy for beginners, we are realizing that some of us old-timers are learning a few things. We hope that this series is aiding all genealogists in their research for their ancestors.

Obituaries and Death Notices

Sometimes ignored, the obituaries and death notices in local newspapers are a good source for genealogical information. Often researchers get so wrapped up in the official records that they do not consider the newspaper articles that are usually stored on microfilm in local libraries.

Microfilms of newspapers are not easy to deal with but on the other hand, they are not difficult. Pages of newspapers are photographed and this becomes the record. Knowing the date that a death occurred is important for this research. Usually the obituary or other news about deaths appeared in the newspapers after the fact. It is often that obituaries appear in newspapers up to one month after the death.

We will note the various information that can be gleaned from the obituaries below and make reference to that information contained in them. Not all obits are alike. Some are more helpful than others.

Samarines Elizabeth Rees Died Friday, Aged 95; Funeral Services Sunday

Samarines Elizabeth Carlton, only child of Thomas and Nancy Reed Carlton was born in Johnson County, Illinois December 11, 1853 and died June 10, 1949 at the age of 95 years, 5 months and 29 days.

She was united in marriage on April 7, 1878 to Jesse Morgan who preceded her in death. To this union was born 4 children, 2 dying in infancy and Mrs. Mayme Bain dying October 21, 1919. Surviving is Mrs. Nellie Brown of New Columbia and a stepdaughter, Mrs. Minnie Roby of Metropolis, whom she raised. She also leaves to mourn her passing five grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Later in life she was united in marriage to Samuel Rees who also preceded her in death.

Early in life she united with the Berea Church of Christ under the preaching of Bro. Pace.

Since 1919 she had made her home with her daughter's family, that of Elmer Brown of New Columbia. For the past six years she had been bed-fast due to a broken hip. Until her last illness she remained cheerful and bright, always meeting quilts and enjoying visitors and flowers.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Berea church conducted by Rev. Herman Carlton and Rev. Weaver, pastor of Metropolis Church of Christ.

Casket bearers were Hillas and Marvin Morgan, Beaton Farley, Johnny Carlton, John Morgan and Hard and Earnest Harper. Music by the Farley Trio.

A Name — She was an only child — Father was Thomas Carlton and mother was Nancy Reed.

B Location of birth — Date of birth — Date of death.

C Date of first marriage — Husband's name.

D Number of children born — Number still living — One child was married to a Mr. Bain and died at date noted — Another child married to a Mr. Brown and location of residence — Stepdaughter from a second marriage (not her own child) married to a Mr. Roby and location of residence — Number of descendants other than daughters.

E Second marriage (no date given) noted — Second husband died earlier.

F Religious experiences and denominational faith.

G Important dates here! — 1919 was same year that one daughter died (could she have lived with her previously?) — Living with one of her children could indicate that she was widowed — Illness noted — Disposition — Hobbies (descendants may wish to search for one of these quilts) — Other enjoyments.

H Note that she lived near and attended same church as in her youth — Two pastors indicate that one may have been a family friend.

I Casket bearers were usually either friends, relatives, or church members — This musical group had some meaning to the deceased or family members.

Analytical Study of an Obituary

Obituaries as at left contain tremendous amounts of useful information to aid in reconstructing a person's life. Genealogy is not only the search to find names and dates but the study of information available that will reveal what ancestors were like in their everyday lives and their relationships to others.

Not all obituaries are as simple as this one. Some are brief while some are elaborate and contain flowery prose. Note that almost all obituaries eulogize the deceased. Few, if any, will reveal negative characteristics—these facts may never be revealed.

A word of caution! Not all information contained in obituaries is correct. These are usually written by family members, friends, pastors or other persons. There are some facts that may become distorted and it is not unusual to find that dates and names are not accurate.

Like all genealogical material gathered. Information found in obituaries must remain tentative until proven by other corroborating records.

Please Note

The lady whose obituary we feature here gathered obituaries during her lifetime and it is with copies of these that we began to compile our own obituary file to be published at a later date.

except that about three weeks ago a party of prospectors went out into the mountains; that about a week ago they came in and obtained fresh supplies of provisions and went back again. * * *

The above is the simple truth, except that the diggings are known to be on Canyon creek, a tributary of Lewis river. The gold shown us was of the finest quality and worth not less than $19 per ounce. "OLD TEXAS" of Cariboo fame, JOSEPH PADDLEFORD and JACOB THOMPSON, all miners of twenty years experience, compose the party. * * *

Messrs. LEVI FARNSWORTH, SILAS D. MAXON, LOUIS MEYER and CHARLES LEE, comprise a party which left this city on Tuesday for the purpose of examining the practicability of the route by "Foblster's Pass," through the Lewis river and Kalima mountains for the passage of a railroad. * * * [3/1]

GOLD MINES IN CLARKE COUNTY.

A resident of Vancouver, who was in this city yesterday says the Oregonian of Friday morning informs us that there is considerable talk at that place about the supposed discovery of new gold mines, about thirty-five miles back of Vancouver. But little is actually known about the discovery,

A.J. REMINGTON, of Mill Plain, was accidentally shot in the neck by GEORGE DAVID, on Wednesday evening last, under the following circumstances: A party consisting of REMINGTON, DAVID and some others started on a deer hunt, separating with a view of completing the circuit of a wood. Fatigued by the walk REMINGTON seated himself on a log to rest. Approaching from the rear DAVID's attention was attracted by REMINGTON's red shirt and bare head. Being dusk, he mistook the object before him for a deer and fired, the ball striking REMINGTON in the back of the neck, slightly to the left of the center, tearing the cords of neck and flesh of the cheek in a frightful manner. DR. I.L. TOBEY was immediately called and the wound dressed. Though a dangerous wound, hopes are entertained that no farther serious consequences will ensue than a partial disfigurement of the face. [3/1]

The case of the Territory of Washington against THOS J. FLETCHER and his sons ELI, ARTHUR and JOHN, and MASON GIBBONS for a charge of assault with intent to murder LOUIS VAN VLEET and the COFFEY's on the 31st of May last, came before JUSTICE SMITH on Monday the 12th instant, conducted by JOHN F. CAPLES for the presentation and JUDGE A. SMITH of Portland, and J.D. POTTER for defense. The case was under investigation during Monday and Tuesday, decision rendered Wednesday morning discharging THOS J. FLETCHER and his son ELI FLETCHER and holding the others to appear in the Justice's court on the 24th of July at 9 o'clock a.m. to answer to the simple charge of assault and battery. The evidence clearly justified the Fletcher boys in defending their father on the occasion of the shooting affray. [3/1]

The Oregon Herald states that Mr. S.M. WHITE of Walla Walla returns the largest income of any person in the Territory, his income being $5,794. The Herald is mistaken, MARSHALL BLINN of Seabeck, returns nearly $40,000. JOHN CRELLIN and THOMAS CRELLIN, of Oysterville, $10,000 each; CYRUS WALKER of Tekalet, $11,000 and several others whose names we do not now remember, return over $10,000. [3/1]

At an election held by the incorporators of the Columbia Railroad Company, the following gentlemen were elected to constitute a Board of Trustees for the year ending 31st of May, 1870: JOSEPH BRANT, GEORGE W. DURGIN, M.R. HATHAWAY, LOUIS MEYER and A.A. SHAE BEN. The officers are: President, A.A. SHAE BEN; Secretary, JULIUS SUISTE; Treasurer, GEORGE W. DURGIN. [3/1]

MAJOR ENOCH GEORGE ADAMS, the editor, is confined to his bed by reason of a severe attack of rheumatism and fever. He is under the kind care of the Sisters of Charity, who are bestowing every needful attention upon him. [3/1]

SUDDEN DEATH

We regret to announce the death on Thursday about 7 o'clock p.m. at Olympia of J.R. WATSON, Esq, editor of the Territorial Republican. Deceased had been suffering the past fortnight from an attack of erysipelas, but the disease did not assume a dangerous form until last Tuesday, since which he rapidly declined. * * * [2/1]

MARRIED

In Lackamas Precinct, Clarke County, W.T., July 11, 1869, at the residence of GEORGE W. PROEBSTEL by GEORGE W. PROEBSTEL, J.P., Mr. JACOB WAGONBLAST to Miss MARGARET PROEBSTEL, all of Clarke county. [2/4]

DIED

In this city July 13th, 1869, of Remittent fever, Miss JOSEPHINE KNIGHTON, aged 26 years, 6 months. The deceased was born in Platte County, Missouri, December 31st, 1842, and removed to Oregon with her father, the late CAPT KNIGHTON in 1845. The family resided at St. Helens, Oregon, until 1863, when they removed to this city.

The deceased was a quiet, gentle and loveable disposition, ever ready to do a kindly act and, though never in the enjoyment of robust health, her hands were always busy and very rarely for herself. She found her happiness in promoting the welfare of those around her.

Her last illness, though of short duration, was severe, yet no word of complaint was spoken. She suffered in silence, until the morning of Tuesday last, when, just as the sun rose, her gentle spirit passed away from earth to enter upon the enjoyment of an eternal day. [2/4]

Strangers visiting Vancouver would find it conducive both to convenience and comfort to put up at the Vancouver House, CAPTAIN WILLIAM BAKER, proprietor. Try it. [3\1]

July 24, 1869

Mr. JOSEPH PADDLEFORD was in this city on Tuesday. TEXAS and THOMPSON are still at the diggings. MR. PADDLEFORD says they have constructed a sluice, but have not cleaned up yet. The distance of the mines from Vancouver is thirty-five miles. He says the horse-flies are awful. All the way they can keep the mules and horses from being slaughtered us by building a fire of brush; and keeping the poor animals in the smoke. The streams abound with fish, and the woods with birds, but there are no signs of other games. It is not possible to obtain any food for horse or mule unless you carry it. It was impossible to learn much about the character of the new diggings. * * * In the evening MR. PADDLEFORD returned and with him MESSRS. TUKE and EDWARD O'KEANE. there were two pack animals; the rest were ridden by the prospectors. [2/1]

HENRY McDONALD had a ratification meeting at DURGAN's meat shop on Tuesday night. He laid out all in a row ten stalwart rats, the fathers and mothers of families. There was only one left to tell his tail. [2/1]

We are under no obligations to Mr. B.M. WASHBURN for his assistance in re-arranging our office. Mr. W. is an excellent printer. [2/2]

MRS. SWAUGER and MRS. KINDER, who lived in the vicinity of St. Helens, took in their heads the other day to leave their husbands' comfortable bed and board and decamped with a couple of *penniless but good-looking vagabonds for parts unknown. The first named is a subscriber to this paper, but has failed to furnish us with her new post office address. [2/2]

The Western Star is the title of a paper published at Steilacoom, W.T., by J.L. ALLISON. Its publication was to have begun on the 17th inst, but we have not as yet received a copy. * * * [2/2]

CONVALESCENT

Mr. A.J. REMINGTON, who was accidentally shot ten days ago, on the Mill Plain, is now at the St. Joseph Hospital having been removed there from his home on Sunday last. On Tuesday he had a severe bleeding spell but since then has improved considerable. He is tenderly cared for by a dedicated wife, and the benevolent Sisters spare no pains to make his suffering as light as possible. MR. REMINGTON has the sympathy of the whole community, and that he may be speedily restored to his robust health is the general prayer. [3/1]

Mr. HARRY WOOD struck water at a depth of 52 feet in digging a well at his residence on Seventh street. He expected to have to sink from 75 to 100 feet. * * *

Mr. JOHN McMULLAN has commenced the erection of a fine two story dwelling house on his lot in front of the St. Joseph Hospital near the line of the Military Reserve. In the present dearth of business and scarcity of money such enterprise is worthy of the warmest commendation and encouragement. [3/1]

CAPT. JOHN CRAIG, Acting Quartermaster and Military Storekeeper at this post, who went East some time since on leave of absence for the benefit of his health, we learn was to have left Philadelphia on the 10th on his way back. He will be warmly welcomed. [3/1]

ARRESTED

J.T. LOVELACE was arrested last week on a charge of complicity in the COFFEYS-FLETCHER shooting affray. He waived the examination and was admitted to bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the next term of the District court, Bondsman LEWIS VAN VLEET.

RECEIVED

We have received a very neat pamphlet entitled Statistics of the State of Oregon, compiled and published by order of the State Agricultural Society, by A.J. DaFOR. * * * [3/1]

The Editor was very hospitable entertained by Mr. SAM SMITH, the new proprietor of the Western Hotel, in Portland, on Thursday. Mr. S. aims to make his hotel second to none in that city and we think he'll succeed. [3/1]

The annual examination in MRS. NICHOLSON's school will take place on Friday next, July 30th, at 9 a.m. The patrons and friends of the school are invited to be present. [3/1]

FRANK HALLADAY, Esq., returned on Monday last from Camp Harney and other up country posts where he has been distributing Uncle Sam's greenbacks to the "boys in blue." [3/1]

July 31, 1869

The FLETCHERs have had their trial for assault and battery, and have been discharged. Thus a farce, enacted to suit Copperhead malevolence, has come to an end. Their action was prompted by the noble instincts of humanity, and instead of being harassed by the law they each and all deserve gold medals for their filial affection displayed at the risk of life. WILLIAM FLETCHER, with a bullet hole through his hat from the pistol he knocked up in the bauds of an assassin, to save his father's life at the peril of his own, is worthy the commendation of the County, Territory and even the Country itself. [1/3]

MRS. TURNER, wife of the proprietor of the hotel and Sulphur Springs, a few miles from Boise City, Idaho Territory, has placed three of her sons at Holy Angels' college, under the tuition of REV. FATHER MANS. One of the sons, thirteen years old, weighs 180 pounds. [1/3]

APPOINTMENT

The President has appointed THEODORE H. ECKERSON to a cadetship at West Point. He is the son of MAJOR T.J. ECKERSON, Assistant Quartermaster U.S. Army, who served many years on this coast, and who expects to return in a few months. [2/2]

Miss MATTIE FIELD is making quite a sensation in the upper country giving Shakespearian readings. She is a lady of great enterprise, we are happy to learn of her success. She possesses a versatility of talent. [2/2]

REV. P.S. KNIGHT's oration, after the graduating exercises of the Portland Academy, was replete with fine thoughts and appropriate illustrations. He's a classical thinker. [2/2]

HINTS FOR YOUR RESEARCH TRIP TO SALT LAKE

I can still remember how excited I was when I went on my first trip to the Family History Library at Salt Lake. CCGS had a meeting in December to help us prepare for the January trip. We were urged to prepare so we could spend our valuable time in research rather than looking up call numbers.

Lorie Okel gave us a good piece of advice: check the Family Histories first. This way, you can see what others have done and use what their research has yielded when you begin to document your own families. I was really surprised to find a book that was directly linked to my Squire line!

Lorie also gave some really practical advice. Be sure to wear layers of clothing. In January it will be cold outside and usually very warm inside. One year we had a particularly cool winter here in Clark County and I packed a lot of sweaters. The area in which I was doing research was very warm and I had to try to find some short sleeved blouses. Another year, the basement floor was very cool in the microfilm readers' section but roasting on the fourth floor when I was looking at US census films.

Others advised taking along some mints (and ointment for the nose), as the air system is very drying. Remember to get up and drink water – it is easy to get dehydrated.

A research log is a good tool to use in organizing your search. It's a chart with title across the top that might include call number; type of source, title of source, surnames you are searching, date, and research results. Sharon Wodtke uses a highlighter to indicate those she has reviewed. This emphasizes those sources still needing to be searched.

When I went to the Archives in Seattle, I made a search sheet specifically for census records. If you have a lot of census films to review, you may want to make one too. My titles across the top included film #, census year, state, surnames, and search results. The Federal censuses at Salt Lake are very conveniently located by time and locale, so don't waste time filling out the numbers "at home" – but be sure to fill them in when you are there so you have an accurate record of your source. (Hurray for the librarian who thought up this time-saving organized system!)

Be sure to take paper for notes. I will include some colored sheets for help when viewing microfilm – sometime a color will heighten the ability to make out difficult reading. A magnifying glass is helpful to have as well.

The same courtesy applies here that you should be practicing at any library. Don't write in the books – in pen or pencil. I have seen books with red ink underlining an entry. I can only hope that the researcher marked up here own copy and donated the book to the library later. What a shame for later researchers.

Kind words are always welcome. Whether staff is volunteer or paid, be polite. You may be repaid with some help you didn't anticipate. "Thank you" and "you're welcome" should be second hand for any researcher.

Most of us don't mind a rare restrained "I found him!" We get all excited and it can be refreshing to our own research. But I've been annoyed when the broadcast was loud and long. Keep your voice soft and conversations very short in research areas. If you are planning a strategy with a fellow researcher, go to an area with conversation is allowed.

Sometimes there are limits on equipment use. For example, there are frequently long lines at the copy machines. It is fair that the maximum number of copies to be made is eight or ten (check). The line moves quickly when the rule is obeyed. In general, early morning is a good time to copy from books. And go up prepared to copy quickly. I use lined index cards to mark pages, facing the lines to the page I want to copy (and using two for facing pages). The glue from sticky tabs can eventually damage books, so don't use them, except on your personal copies.

Don't forget the title page when making copies – you will be able to cite your source accurately.

We used to need to bring rolls of dimes and quarters, but now you will want to bring singles and five dollar bills for the coin machines.

Be sure to check what to do with items you have reviewed. Books may need to be placed at the end of book shelves and microfilms replaced in drawers. Libraries vary – follow the rules where you are.

Hate to say it, but neatly dressed people just plain get more help. And a question of WHERE ARE the records rather than DO YOU HAVE will probably get more results. In public libraries use "local history" rather than "genealogy" when approaching librarians who sometime turn pale at the g-word. Check the open hours before visiting.

Do you have other suggestions that have been helpful to you? Let us know so we can pass them on. Enjoy your time researching!

QUESTIONNAIRE RESULTS:

Thanks for returning the questionnaire, which appeared in the last issue of the TrailBreakers. Over two hundred members responded (just under half). Still not too late, if you want to dig it out and mail it in. The results will be helpful in targeting the interest of the members. Here are some of the results:

Of the fifty states, only Hawaii was not checked as a research target! Florida and Arizona had one check mark, and little Rhode Island had seven. Surprisingly, Washington state did come in with the highest numbers (70), but it was ver closely followed by Illinois (66), Missouri (65), and Pennsylvania (61). New York and Oregon both tallied 55 and Indiana (47) and Iowa (48) were next in line.

Germany came in as the second most frequents researched country with 108 tallies. England drew 127 tallies, Ireland 85, Scotland 60 [and Canada also 60], thus giving the British Isles and a whooping majority. Even Australia drew one tally. And we have a member researching Azores, one Mexico, and one Greece. The Scandinavian countries tallied up with Denmark 16, Finland 7, Norway 23, and Sweden 21 for a total of 66. France drew 26 marks.

Interest groups showed the "Help, I'm Stuck" as the most needed. British Isles, Mid-western states, and New England came in with strong numbers. With room in the new library, watch for something to happen in response to this arena.

Some of the other societies our members belong to are: WSGS, Forum of Oregon (Portland), Fort Vancouver Hist. Soc. (Vancouver), NGS, FGS, Vermilion Co, IL, Knox Co, OH, NEGHS, Nebraska G.S., Bukovina Society of America, Czechoslovakian Gen. Society (International), Marion & Crawford Cos. (OH), Linn Co (IA), American Hist. Soc. Germans from Russia, Irish Gen. Soc., Ohio State, Iowa state, Jewish Genealogical Soc. of OR, Cowlitz Co. Hist Soc. (WA?), OK Hist & Gen Societies, Flint (MI), Gen. Soc., Tri State (IN, KY IL), Fulton Co (KY),

In response to question 16: we have made the library more inviting and we really wish we could help with longer hours and more available personal time.

Hobbies were fun to read: trail riding (horses), ham operator, quilting, cake decorating, gold, gardening, hiking, photography, needlework, etc.

Still time to mail in your questionnaire if you haven't done so.

The new Clark County Veterans War Memorial has enough funding to move ahead. Cut off dates for names is mid-January 1998. If you know of any Clark county person who died during the Spanish-American, WWI, WWII, Korean conflict, Vietnam conflict, or Desert storm who is not on the current monument, please submit their name promptly. If you know of a name already existing, we may need verification or a short biography. Short biographies of any Clark county resident who served during the Civil war (even from another state and buried here) are also being sought, although their names will not be on the monument. For more information, call Jane @ 892-18019.

SURNAME FILE by Delillah Knight

CCGS members have been requested to submit surname cards and ancestor charts. The surname cards are added to the surname index available to researchers visiting the CCGS library. Delillah Knight selected enough entries to fill four pages of the Trail Breakers for publication. Roy Katschke takes submitted ancestor charts and formats them for the Ancestor Charts section of our quarterly. Members are encouraged to update their shared information, which has helped both our members and other researchers. The surname underlined indicated the submitter whose address will be found at the end of the section.

BUNN	Looking for information on Howard and Addie BUNN. According to a sister's obituary, Addie was living in Battleground, WA in 1966. Add was b. Oct 1889 in Oregon. Did she die in Clark Co.? Any help appreciated. Roberta Ele Yates, 36634 SE Tracy Rd., Estacada, OR 97023-9537
BROWN SHANNON	Anna and Ellenore SHANNON came to work with Sister of Providence as pioneer nurses (not as nuns). They are buried in St. James cemetery. Ellenore d 1902, the same year that Mother Joseph d. Anna lived until 1927. Their brother Daniel and his wife from Portland are also buried nearby. The sisters, who were born in the 1850s, had no descendants, but I would like to document their work. They apparently had "cases" in the LaCenter area, apparently at a medical center. They also worked at St. Vincent's in Portland. My grandmother (SHANNON, BROWN) came out to Portland from Ontario, Canada c. 1900. Can you help? Mary B. Curtin, (503) 254-7886, 6826 NE Multnomah, Portland, OR 97213.
GARRETT- McDANIEL MINSHALL- RICKETTS	Flora and Milinda of E.J. RICKETTS family were my grandmother and great aunt. Tressa GARRETT-MINSHALL-McDANIEL is my aunt. My father was Earl E. GARRETT (d. c1980), son of James T. Garrett.. They grew up at Manor. Can you help? Evelyn Garrett MacDonald Oscarson, PO Box 586, Port Orford OR 97465-0586

HENRY	Do you have any information regarding "Dr. HENRY?" Dr. Anson G. HENRY was personal friend and physician to Abraham Lincoln family in Springfield. In 1852 Dr. HENRY traveled 152 days across the Oregon Trail via wagon to Lafayette, OR. In 1861 Lincoln named him Surveyor General of Washington Territory and he moved to Olympia. In 1863 he was sent to Wash D.C. for funds and stayed in the White House. Returning from a second Wash D.C. trip, he was lost at sea when the Brother Johnathan sank July 30, 1865. His cousins, Francis HENRY (b. 1827 Gardena, IL) became Probate Judge at Olympia and Rufus T. HENRY (b. 1830, Galena, IL) came west. John R. Towers, 39 Cambridge Dr., Oak Brook, IL 60523
SPENCER	Are you related to the "Four Spencer Brothers" of Bedfordshire that Donald Lines Jacobus published in The American Genealogist ? Gateway Press of Baltimore has published the first complete sequel to this treatise as a 500 volume "The Spencers of the Great Migration" of the five Spencer siblings who came to New England with the Winthrop Fleet, 1630-1631. For more information and an order form, write to: Dr. Jack T. Spencer, 1303 Azalea Lane, DeKalb, IL 60115-2329.
