WHAT'S NEW WITH GIRS:

GIRS (the Genealogical Information Retrieval System on our computer at CCGS) has now added the shelf list of the Lake Oswego LDS stake family history center under libraries. They have a lot of English records on indefinite loan.

As the information on GIRS increases, and as the collection of CD ROM disks increase, so do the patrons using the one computer available. Often there's a line to use the machine. Donations toward a second machine are most welcome! Drop them when you visit the library next time or mail them.

Two new CDs just arrived: Canadian Genealogy Index 1600x-1900s and U.S. Census Massachusetts 1870.

UNPUZZELING THE SOUNDINDEX CODE

by Jane Germann<sup>1</sup>

Soundex is a finding aid which indexes names that sound similar in a grouping using the first letter of the surname and three numbers representing sounds of constants in the name.

These codes are very useful when trying to locate a name. Most researchers think of the codes in terms of census records, but they can be used to find naturalization records and passenger lists as well. The International Soundex Reunion Registry uses this system as well. Many states have indexed records as well. Washington state is one example: the death certificates are indexed by soundex.

The system has some drawbacks. For example, Philpott and Fillpot sound alike but would have separate codes because the first letter in the surname differs. The 1880 soundex limited their indexing to families with children 10 and under. In Illinois, part of the "O" listing was missed in filming (a separate printed index is available). Perhaps the biggest drawback is that simply more data is not soundexed.

Many genealogical software programs contain a soundexing section and all you need to do is to type in the name. Or you can visit the NARA Soundex Machine at <http://www.nara.gov/genealogy/soundex/soundex.html>. CCGS (and probably many societies and libraries) has Bradley W. Steuart's The Soundex Reference Guide, which lists the soundex, codes to over 125,000 surnames. Even with that many names, one student in our beginning classes found a name that was not listed: PFOST. Pfoust (P230) and Pfouts (P320) were listed.

The first letter of the code is simple: it's just the first letter of the name. The following three numbers will be a 0 or 1 through 6. Zeros are used to complete the three-digit code when needed. Vowels (a, e, i, o, u) and pseudo-vowels h, w, y (or w, h, y) are excluded. The constants are then divided into groups that sound similar. 1 represents b (the first vowel in our alphabet) and the letters that sound similar: p, f, and v. 2 represents c (the next vowel which does not sound like 1 and do sound like c): s, k, g, j, q, x, z. 3 represents d and the t which sounds similar. So far this is easy to remember: 1 is b plus similar, 2 is c plus similar, and 3 is d plus similar. 4 represents the next in the alphabet which has not yet been assigned: the letter l. No other letters sound like an l. 5 represent the next vowel, which is m, and n, which is similar. 6 is the last number and represents the r which is the only vowel not yet assigned. If you are caught someplace without access to a soundex coding reference, you may remember just enough to get you in the ballpark to play the game. The first three vowels after the initial surname letter are used in the code, with a few exceptional rules.

Code Key Letters and Equivalents

STEP 1: Write the surname you are coding. At first you will want to leave enough space between letters to add the code as a superscript (small number above the letter – remember the 2 in E=mc<sup>2</sup>), later you will not need to do this.

EXAMPLE: Switzler: S w i t z l e r

STEP 2. Just under the “spaced” name, write the first letter of the name:

EXAMPLE: S w i t z l e r

STEP 3. Cross out all vowels, remembering that the w is a pseudo vowel:

STEP 4. This leaves the constants t,z,l and r. Only the first three are coded: the t is 3, the z is 2 and the l is 4 as shown by the superscripts:

STEP 5. Bring the numbers down to complete the code:

S324

The code for Switzler is S324.

LONG NAMES: example above, only the first three constants are coded, disregard other from the code. The r, which is coded with the number 6, is not coded in the name Switzler. The three-digit code is S324, not S3246.

SHORT NAMES: use zero to complete the three-digit code:

EXAMPLE A: Coe = C ~~o~~ ~~e~~ = C 000:
The C is the first letter is coded and vowels are stricken out, thus the code is completed with three zeros.

B620. B is the first letter, the next two are vowels, the r is a 6, the s is a 2 and the zero is needed to complete the three-digit code.

PREFIXED NAMES: Prefixes like Van, Von, De, Di, La or Le should be coded both with and without the prefix. (Mc and Mac are not considered prefixes.

e ~~u~~ v<sup>1</sup> e n = V541. The first letter V is used, vowels deleted, the n is 5, the l is 4, the v is 1.

NAMES THAT BEGIN WITH A

VOWEL: Vowels are not deleted when they are the first letter in the name. They are used as the letter in the code.

The A is used to begin the code, b is 2, the letter l is 4, and a zero added to complete the code.

NAMES WITH DOUBLE LETTERS:

Double letters in names are treated as one letter. The second letter in Lloyd is not coded. In Chappell, both the double p and double l are treated as one.

EXAMPLE A: Lloyd = L l ~~o~~ y d<sup>3</sup> =
L300. L is the first letter, the second letter is deleted because it is double, and the o and y are deleted because they are vowels, the d is coded 3 and two zeros are added to complete the code.

EXAMPLE B: Chappell = C h ~~a~~ p<sup>1</sup> p e l<sup>4</sup> l = C140. The primary letter C starts the code. The h, a, and e are vowels and deleted; so are the second p and l. Spellings like Chapel, Chappell, and Chappelle will have the same C140 code.

NAMES WITH LETTERS SIDE BY SIDE THAT HAVE THE SAME NUMBER ON THE SOUND EX CODING GUIDE:

Remember the surname Pfof? P and F both are coded with a 1, so the f is crossed out. Letter combinations such as ck, cks, or, sc as in sch (the h is a pseudo vowel), are coded as one letter.

P230. The f is in the same group at P and is not used, o is a vowel, s is a 2, and t is a 3. One zero needs to be added. Scott = S e ~~o~~ t<sup>3</sup> t = S300. Schafer = S e h ~~a~~ f<sup>1</sup> e r<sup>6</sup> = S160. In these cases, because S and c or S, c and h are coded the same.

EXAMPLE B: Dickeson = D i c<sup>2</sup> k s e n<sup>5</sup> = D250. D is the first letter. Vowels i and o are deleted. Because c, k, and s are all coded 2, only the first of this series receives a code. A zero completes the code.

EXAMPLE C: Lukaschowsky = L u k<sup>2</sup> a s<sup>2</sup> e h o w s<sup>2</sup> k y = L 222. The coding is for k,s,s. Note that even though two "s"s are "double" they are separated in the name by letters that are not coded, so the second s is coded right after the first s. Vowels u, a, o (and y) are deleted. the sch are in the same group and only the s is coded; c an h are deleted. The next s is coded and the k would be deleted because it is in the same group as the s; however, we already have three numbers in the code and it is not used.

SPECIAL CASES: Phonetically spelled oriental and Indian names were sometimes code as if one continuous name, or may have used a single name. Shinka-Wa-Sa may be S520 for Shinka or S000 for Sa. Susan Thunder Cloud could be coded under Thunder Cloud (T536) or just Cloud (C430). One name names are coded as a surname would be: Sacajawea or Sacagawea (the j and g are in the same number code) would be S220. Nuns were often recorded using Sister (S236).

Sometime the researcher needs to investigate various possibilities of coding names. Stewart, Stuart, Steuart, Stuert, Steward, Steuard, and Stuard all sound alike and are all coded S363. However, Velasquez and Belassquez both sound alike and one is coded V422 and the other B422 because of the initial letter. Schope and Chope sound alike and one is S100, the other C100.

Next issue how: to find the 1880 soundex card and what does it tell you.

GUY SODEN: Spanish American Soldier

(This letter was apparently written by Sarah S. Soden before her marriage in 1902 to Frederick Mathys, as she signed it with her maiden name. I have put some corrections in parenthesis to make it easier to read. PMB)

"Guy Belden Soden, son of Thomas Soden and Kate Belden Soden, was born July 25, 1875 at the Village of Dunkirk in the township of Dunkirk (Dane County, Wisconsin). (He) Was named Guy after Guy Giant (Gaunt), the owner of the Warwick Castle at Warwickshire, England, his Grandfather (Benjamin) Soden was raised near the castle.

He (young Guy) and his parents lived at Dunkirk 'till April 1877 when they migrated to Kansas, crossed the Missouri River the 4th day of May, 1877, landed in Kansas in June, 1877, the year of the flood . . . the largest flood ever known in Kansas.

(They) settled at Eagle Township, Sedgwick, Kansas and remained there until July 23rd, 1887 when we left Kansas and came to the west. (We) Lived near Portland in Oregon a short time and then we went to Washington and settled near Ridgefield and Guy's parents have been there ever since. Guy made one trip to Astoria, Oregon and several times went to Silverton hopping. Guy enlisted at Vancouver Barracks on June 26th, 1896 and when the war broke out Guy, with his regiment, the 14th W.S. Infantry regulars, left Vancouver on May 7th, 1898. Guy was made Corporal May 23rd, 1898 at Presidio; left Presidio May 24th, 1898 for Manila. He left Honolulu June 4th, 1898; left Guam Island June 23, 1898 and landed at Manila July 1st, 1898.

(His) First engagement with the Spanish (was) August 5, 1898. And captured Manila August 13, 1898. He was wounded in the battle of August 5 and again Feb 5th, 1899 in a battle with the Insurgents. (He) died of his wounds Feb 6th, 1899 at Manila and was buried at Manila Feb 6, 1899. (His remains) were taken up and brought back to Vancouver and buried Feb 8th, 1900 in the Soldier's cemetery at Vancouver Barracks, Clarke County, Washington.

Written by Guy's sister, Sarah Subrina Soden, Who was born May 23rd, 1883 at Eagle township, Sedgwick County, Kansas."

The preceding item was among some things that Sarah Subrina SODEN Mathys had written about her family during her younger years. It gives some information about her brother Guy Belden Soden and is in Sarah's handwriting. It gives several facts about the Soden family which are quite interesting and will aid us in tracing the family roots in years to come.

The letter describes how the Soden family consisting of Thomas Soden, his wife Kate Rose Belden Soden and their eight children came to Clark County and settled in the Ridgefield area in 1887. There are many incorrectly spelled words which I have left somewhat as they were. In some cases, I have added words, such as: (He) and have corrected some of the things to make it more readable.

CLARK COUNTY SPANISH-AMERICAN SOLDIERS

PART 2 by Jane Germann

The last issue of the Trail Breakers presented the first part of this series. Following are extracts from the Vancouver Independent concerning the Spanish American War:

One of the first news articles in the Vancouver Independent was printed on page 3 in the May 5, 1898 issue:

OFF TO THE WAR

Company H, National Guard, Left Vancouver Last Saturday

Vancouver has contributed her quota to the call of the president. Company H, 60 men strong, boarded the Undine last Saturday at one o'clock, bade goodbye to their friends and sailed for the war. The boys were busy all Saturday forenoon preparing for their departure, and at 12:30 the assembly was sounded, and the brave boys in blue fell in for the march to the boat. After the friends had been given an opportunity to pass down the line, and bidding a fond farewell, the 14th Infantry band formed in front of the Auditorium, and followed by Co H. went up 3rd street to Main and down Main to the wharf, where amid hurrahs, goodbyes and strains of "The Girl I Left Behind Me," by the band, they boarded the boat and pulled out for Portland. About 200 Vancouverites followed them to Portland, where they took the train for the Sound. They are now comfortably in camp at Camp John R. Rogers, near Tacoma.

Thirty-five men from Seattle have been added to the company, bringing the quota to 100 men.

In a private letter received from one of the boys, it is learned that they are getting along all O.K. and expect to go to the seat of the war in the near future.

Over the time of the war, many articles appeared in the newspaper. The Barracks was an integral part of Vancouver and sometimes their news was report as local news and sometimes in a special column. The following are some of the many of the articles printed.

OFF FOR THE SOUTH

Fourteenth Regiment Leaves for the Presidio

For the fourth time in as many months this garrison has witnessed the departure of a portion of the Fourteenth Infantry. Saturday afternoon the last of the regiment left on the steamer Undine for Portland, enroute to San Francisco. The battalion was commanded by Major C.F. Robe, and consisted of the Fourteenth infantry band, companies C, D, E and F. Company C was in charge of First Lieutenant William S. Biddle and Second Lieutenant L.R. Krauthoff; D was commanded by captain William W. McCammon; E by Second Lieutenant P.L. Miles, and F by Captain J. Murphy; First Lieutenant J. Mitchell and Second Lieutenant William A. Burnside. Each company numbers about 55 men. First Lieutenant C.H. Martin and Second Lieutenant O.E. Hunt, respectively quartermaster and adjutant, comprise the personal staff of Major Robe. No medical attendant could be spared to accompany the troops. The battalion formed on the parade ground at 12:30 p. m. and marched to the wharf, through town, by way of Tenth street to Main, and down Main to the wharf. A special committee appointed by Mayor Brewater requested Major Robe to march the troops through the city, as special preparations had been made to demonstrate the regard in which the men were held. At the landing they were met by a large number of friends, and were given an opportunity to say the last hasty farewell, and amid cheers by hundred they left at 1:30 p.m.

It is appreciated by all that this may be the last seen of the Fourteenth infantry, which has been here nearly 14 years, and has made itself very popular in both Vancouver and Portland, and it was with much regret that it took its departure. The city was decorated with flags and bunting, and business houses closed their doors between 12 m. and 1 p.m.

Captain F. Taylor, of company E, will join his company as soon as he is relieved from duty as mustering officer in Washington.

Companies A and G, now at Dyea, Alaska, under command of Brigadier-General T.M. Anderson, have been ordered to join the regiment at the Presidio. They are expected to arrive there in about 10 days. Vancouver Independent, May 12, 1898, p3.

J.N. Walden, an enlisted man in company E, Thirty-fifth infantry, United States volunteers, committed suicide by taking poison, at the Hotel Columbia, in this city last Sunday. He hired a room at this hotel Saturday, in the afternoon. The proprietor suspected something wrong and about 4 o'clock broke in the door. The body was found lying in a natural position in the bed. An ounce vial marked "hydro cyanic acid," was empty on the table; also a vial of chloroform, contents untouched. He left several letters, one of which was addressed to Mrs. Laura Walden, Stone Fort, Ill. Walden enlisted at Seattle, Aug. 3. He was a lawyer by profession and has practiced in Chicago. His body was buried Tuesday in the government cemetery. Vancouver Independent, 21 Sept. 1899, p. 3.

E.E. Lyons, formerly of Cedar creek [Amboy], has enlisted with the Oregon volunteers and was at Presidio, Cal., when last heard from, expecting to go to the Philippines. Vancouver Independent, June 2, 1898, p1.

During the first part of the war, several letters from boys in the service were sent home and published in the paper. Below is one:

From One of the Boys

Fort Mason, Black Point, Old Fountain Warehouse; San Francisco, Cal. May 27, 1898. – Don't let any exaggerated reports disturb your confidence in the huskiness of Co. G. In the matter of foot-wear some of us may be nearer to nature's heart than we have been since our barefoot days, but our digestions are still doing business at the old stand. Afternoon of the day before yesterday some of the fair ladies of San Francisco decided that U.S. rations were not enough for the Vancouver boys and presented this company with a wagon load of good things, which were a welcome variation to bacon and beans, and duly enjoyed.

But about 7 p.m. the boys began to cave in, and by 8 o'clock 57 of us were laid out cold. It was undoubtedly due to lead poisoning from the can in the devilled ham and though we could not doubt the honesty of the ladies' intentions, for a while it looked like a plot to wipe company G off the roster. And when this got around and the boy's imaginations began to get in its work, you should have seen them fade.

About 25 per cent of them actually got sick from Spanish dope on the brain, and the balance had the genuine thing, beginning with chills and ending with that tired feeling. Tom Geoghegan [sic] and I missed it, but if it happens again I would rather be bit myself than put in another night as nurse in the sea-sick ward. Have not slept or had my clothes off for 48 hours, and am going to sleep all day when I get a chance.

Acting hospital steward Tom Geoghegan had his hands full, for the first time since he took the ferry at Vancouver. It was his first professional job with us, and we just naturally clouded up and rained on him.

Only 21 men out of 80 reported for breakfast this morning, but no one is seriously ill. An accident like that is likely to attend the eating of canned meat at any time in this balmy climate, but it won't happen to us again, as the doctor has condemned all we have on hand.

The prospect of our being ordered to the front is not very bright, but you can bet that we will be on the move before the third battalion at the barracks, or that second call company gets on the road. What is the use of being a politician if you can't influence the war department?

SERGT. O.J. CLANCY.

Vancouver Independent, June 2, 1898 p. 3

AFTER RECRUITS. — Capt. M.F. Ellrich, accompanied by Sergts. Reid, Collins, Drake and Dorr, arrived in Vancouver last Saturday evening and on Sunday morning opened a recruiting office in the office formerly occupied by Justice Clancy. They wanted 26 recruits for Co. G. and by Tuesday morning has secured 17, which were sent to San Francisco Tuesday afternoon under charge of A. Comerford, formerly of Troop E, 4th Cavalry. . . . The officers and men of the regiment fully expect to be included in the troops to be sent to the Philippines, reports to the contrary notwithstanding. Following are the recruits for Co. G.: Austin Comerford, Ralph J. Wilson, Roy B. Parcel, Christopher O'Donnell, Geo. A. Strohm, Oscar Ray, Harry Benham, Geo. M. Mills, James W. Woolf, Geo. B. Waite, Arthur C. Mills, Nicholas Clancy, Alba H. Walker, Arthur T. Cochran, Glen M. Ranck, Harry J. Fleming and Marvin Kays, Willis J. A number of letters were received by Vancouver folk last Tuesday evening from route to Manila, written in Honolulu. The envelopes used by the boys at Honolulu bear an American flag in colors, with a cut of the battle-ship Maine and the inscription, "Remember the Maine." Vancouver Independent, June 30, 1898, p3.

OUR BOYS IN CALIFORNIA

From Glenn Ranck.

EDITOR INDEPENDENT: -- We "rookies" for Vancouver's Company G, arrived in camp Thursday morning. The old boys were very glad to see us. They did not know who were coming or when we would arrive, and the first intimation they had of our presence was when Charles Weaton, Fred Tempes, and a few of the other, spied us from the windows of the old Fontana warehouse. We could hear them shout to the others in the barrack-room: "There's Dutch Waite; there's Cochran", and so on. Then came a rush to the windows and a loud chorus of "hollos".

This was followed by a stampede down the stairs and a regular round of hand-shaking. Corporal Henrichsen was first in the race down stairs but he was closely followed by Arthur Fletcher, Nick Goeghegan, Spurgeon, Lawrence, and others.

"The rookies" who reached camp Thursday, were: J. Benham, Nicholas Clancy, Arthur Cochran, Comerford, Fleming, M.L. Kays, George and Mort Mills, O'Donnell, Powell, Glenn Ranck, Ray, Strohm, Goerge Waite, Walker, Wilson and James Wolf. On Friday these were followed by four more, J.E. Goddard, J.W. Kays, Rigger and Trisler. These were also joyously welcomed.

The boys are all well and happy now, though Private Brown is still quite weak from his recent severe illness. Under the able management of Captain Ellrich, lieutenant Weigle and 1st Sergeant Reid, the company has attained a commendable state of discipline. During the absence of the captain, on recruiting service, the company is in charge of 2d Lieut. Weigle who maintains the spirit and discipline of the company. . . . Vancouver Independent, June 30, 1898, p3.

Glenn M. Ranck in another column:

. . . We are all getting along quite well on Angel Island. The Washington boys should certainly be thankful that they are not stationed at Camp Merritt, where six deaths have occurred among the Kansas regiment alone. . . . There is but one dangerous foe with which the 2nd Battalion has to contend, and that foe is pie. There is a pie shop on the island . . . the best record [of demolished pie in one day] has been made by Frank Huston, who downed a baker's dozen between sunrise and sunset. Following is the official list of Frank's victims: one apple pie, two mince pies, 3 blackberry pies, three lemon pies, and four pumpkin pies. There is a better record than our artificer makes at target practice . . . Among these brave heroes, who so gallantly devour their share of government rations, may be mentioned Corporal Harry Moore and privates George Foster, Louis Brant, George Spurgeon and Roy Parcel. . . Private Brown is still in the post hospital here. . . Other patients from our company are privates Bush and Scribner, who ailments are very slight. . . Sergeant Bundy did not participate in the swimming contest last Sunday. Instead of that he went to Oakland and called on a charming young Jewess. . . [Six new corporals listed: Burke, Talkenbery, Comerford, Limbaker, Ranck, Ray.] Vancouver Independent, July 28, 1898, p3.

MILITARY MATTERS.

. . . Second Lieutenant J.H.G. Lazelle, Eighteenth Infantry, who is reported to have died enroute to Manila, was the eldest son of Colonel H.G. Lazelle, retired who was major of the Fourteenth infantry some years ago, and while stationed here made a large number of friends in the town and post, who will regret his untimely death. Lieutenant Lazelle was a graduate of the military academy, and was appointed second lieutenant of the Eighteenth Infantry. Vancouver Independent, July 28, 1898, p3.

FROM A VANCOUVER BOY AT SANTIAGO

The following letter has been received from George Damphoffer by Mrs. A. Bateman, his mother, from Santiago De Cuba where Damphoffer is serving in Co. B, 16th U.S. Infantry. He was born in Vancouver and lived here until he enlisted in the 16th over two years ago.

Santiago De Cuba, July 7.

I guess you think I am dead, and it is a wonder I am not, for you can bet the old 16th Infantry go to smell powder all right for three days.

The battle started on July 1st just three miles from the city, and we fought all day the first and captured a big hill, which is called Fort Cinanon, and have hold possession for seven days, and God knows how much longer we will hold it, but we have the --- Spaniards just where we want them. They have a white flag hoisted up for us not to fire on them, and our general has given them three days to surrender, and if they don't we will blow them to h---.

We lost lots of our men in the first day's fight. I remember how grandpa used to talk about the war, and how the bullets used to sing over his head, and I did not believe it, but I do now, for then this charge when we captured the big hill men dropped all around me and the bullets would sing past my head like hail stones, but I guess God will spare me to see dear mother again. I know you are worrying about me, but you must not for if I must dies on the battlefield I ca. I was brave for it is better to be a dead hero than a living coward.

We will commence to make a charge on the town if they don't surrender in a few days, and I think they will for we have got the town surrounded and can starve them out. Santiago is a pretty place. We can look right into it from where we are camped on the big hill and if they con't come to time we will blow them off the earth. Sampson can throw shells into the town, and we have big guns planted on this hill. It is a sad sight to see the women and children running out on the hill for fear the town will be destroyed.

Don't worry if you don't hear from me often for we are allowed to write only two letters a month. Save all the paper about the war for I want to see them when I come home to the old United States.
* * * *

Your loving son,
GEORGE DAMPHOFFER.

. . . If young ladies don't stop coming over to the island and persuading corporals Fletcher, Henrichsen, Hasson and other to neglect their military duties, there is no telling what may happen. How do these fellow square themselves with their Vancouver girls?

. . . Charles Weston, Sam Lawrence, George Spurgeon and Mudcat waded into the grub . . . Vancouver Independent, Aug. 4, 1898, p3.

The Antioch/Central Library of the Johnson County Library System offers a special array of materials to the beginning and advanced genealogist alike. The collection, which offers researchers approximately 6,000 titles, is jointly owned by the Johnson County Genealogical Society and the County Library. The focus of research materials at this library covers the migratory pathways of immigrants starting out at the Atlantic coast to Kansas. Primary emphasis centers on the states of Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Virginia. The collection is added to on a regular basis by the Library and the Genealogical Society and is designated as reference material, which for us means (non-circulating), so ask for a researchers list and see if you can hire your research done at this library unless you can travel there yourself.

Johnson County Library provides an excellent selection of the standard titles for genealogical research along with federal and state census indexes, family histories, heraldry books and census microfilm for Johnson County, Kansas for the years 1855-1925. The Genealogy Department of Porter County Public is the third largest of its kind in Indiana with over 100,000 items used annually. Researchers will find an abundance of microfilmed records, books, and journals which are published by historical and genealogical societies. County and family histories are here along with indexes to federal censuses; pension records; estate records; ships passenger lists; and vital records. Of notable interest are the cemetery records and inscriptions. The library also offers genealogists most of the Automated Archives CD-ROM products along with the American Genealogical Lending Library products. In-house assistance is provided to those visiting the library whether a beginner or a seasoned researcher. Additionally, the library cooperates with the Northwest Indiana Genealogical Society who hold their meetings at the library. The society also donates to the collection.

In addition to the numerous sources at this location, the library has plans to merge its Indiana collection (local history) into the genealogy materials. Also public service is strong in the arena of genealogical seminars and public service speakers. frequent programs are presented to children and adults, both off and on the premises. The Genealogy Department sponsors beginner's workshops, school trips and talks to local civic groups.

PENNSYLVANIA CD KICKS OFF NEW HERITAGE QUEST LINE

AGLL is excited to announce the latest enterprise "Heritage Quest CD series." Heritage Quests CDs are a symbol for accuracy, promising valuable and reliable genealogical information. Their attention to detail and pride in their workmanship ensure that these CDs have a low error rate and meet high quality standards. (As can be testified by CCGS's last year's Salt Lake City October research group, who had the privilege of marvelous guide tour, by Bradley Steuart.)

The new line is driven by the Windows r-based WordCruncher TM search engine, the same software used to publish the Dead Sea Scrolls. This powerful search engine allows users to make searches in milliseconds while requiring 2.4 MB of hard drive.

The first of this series is The Pennsylvania 1870 Census Index Project (it now included the entire state). This CD has combined data from two separate CD products (formerly PA East and PA West) and added a long-awaited Pennsylvania Central Portion – making a grade total of

1,072,800 entries. Order Item # ACD-0008
$39.95 + S&H

The second in the AGLL series is the U.S. Marriage Record Index, 1691-1850. Donna Potter-Phillips reviewed this product that brings technology and genealogy together for faster and cheaper information flow in The Columbian, 4 September 1997. Packed with information, the U.S. Marriage Records Index provides details on a total of 584,637 marriages that were performed before 1850. The index provides detailed information for each entry including groom, bride, marriage date, county, and state. Eighteen different states and the District of Columbia are included in this index. The states represented are: Alabama, Arkansas, California, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oregon, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia. Order Item # ACD-0009 $39.96 + S&H.

experienced seaman. For several years previous to 1850 he commanded a vessel on the Lakes, and in that year, in company with the writer, came to the Pacific coast, and to Oregon. * * * The Hook and Ladder company, to which he belonged, were constant in attention to their old comrade, and from many others he received manifestations of regard.

March 12, 1870

The following persons started out the other day for the gold mines to find out what had become of the party there engaged in mining. three men, M. (TEXAS) SHOERER, CURTIS CAMPBELL and ALBERT PROEBSTEL, had remained there all winter. The party that went to visit them consisted of JOHN PROEBSTEL, GEORGE PROEBSTEL and BENJ. C. CARR, an old Australian miner. They have returned, and bring the report that the winter has been severe and the prospects for water in the mines is excellent. JOHN PROEBSTEL exhibited sixty-two dollars' worth of gold he obtained from the miners. It was coarse, consisting of nuggets of a bit's value to that of two and a half-dollars. We should judge it worth seventeen dollars an ounce. They obtained this in various crevices among the rocks. MR. PROEBSTEL seemed very excited and says the gold mines of Clarke county are an established fact. The visitors will soon return again to the mines. [2/1]

Mr. JOHN KINNEY has received his son and finds the report respecting the ill usage the boy suffered greatly exaggerated. McALLISTER is a rough man, and has many enemies, who attempt to make him appear worse than he really is. It now appears that the only complaint the boy makes is that McALLISTER sent him into a corral of wild cattle, and one of the animals kicked him, and injured him quite seriously for a time. MR. KINNEY will soon remove with his family to Simcoe. [2/2]

The Temperance Meeting on Wednesday, the 9th inst. was held agreeably to appointment. C.H. ALLEN was elected Chairman. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. JUDGE ALANSON SMITH of Portland then made a speech, principally directed to the young and to ladies in who composed the greater part of the audience. It abounded with statistical facts, and was replete with sound reasoning. After a vote of thanks to the orator, the meeting adjourned at the call of the president, JUDGE PETRAIN. [2/2]

A SORROWFUL STORY

A man named ALMON PAYNE has been brought up before J.F. SMITH, Esq., charged with adultery with a young woman left at St. Joseph's Hospital for medical treatment by a man named BOB BRAINERD. PAYNE waived an examination and gave $1,000 bond for his appearance at the District Court. We visited the woman and got her story from her own mouth. She appears very modest and is quite fine looking. She has two young children - one a mere babe. Her story is this:

A brother of PAYNE's wife married her sister. Her sister died, and he brought her to his sister's when she was a young girl, and left her. She had fits, and he agreed with PAYNE that any expense PAYNE might be to he would settle. She expected to be married to this man, but he was drowned in the Touchet. PAYNE told her he had consulted a physician at Portland, who said the only thing would help her was to have children. She said PAYNE's wife abused her with her tongue when he was absent, but never struck her but once, but three daughters nearly beat her to death. She said the whole family stood in fear of him, and that she stood in great terror of him; and that he compelled her to swear her first child on a man by the name of HOGAN, but that PAYNE was the father of them both. * * *

They never allowed her to visit her mother in Oregon, or go anywhere where she was out of their sight. Her mother had moved to California. She has a sister in Grande Ronde Valley. * * *

The young woman's name is MARGARET DILL. she makes affidavit that she was seduced by PHILIP RITZ(?), late U.S. Marshal, when 13 years old, at the time she was living in his family; that he procured an abortion, and made a private arrangement with a man to take her down to PAYNE's. * * * [2/2]

LAND TITLES AGAIN

The U.S. District Court, which will commence its next term on the first Monday of November next, will have its hands full of complaints demurrers answers and the like, all pertaining to disputed land titles. Most of them are in relation to lands in and around Vancouver.

As usual, the "short family" are the Plaintiffs, Miss HANNAH E. SHORT, has extended a polite, but rather pressing, invitation to Messrs. GAY HAYDEN and WHIPPLE, to "come into court," and talk about their title deeds.

Not to put too fine a point upon it, HANNAH E. SHORT, has instituted legal proceedings against HAYDEN and WHIPPLE to recover possession of certain lands purchased by them of A.J. LAWRENCE, late guardian of the said Hannah.

* * * The suit now commenced has been threatened for a long time. * * *

While upon this subject we will call attention to another little matter connected with the Short estate. AMOS M. and ESTHER SHORT claimed 640 acres of land, the East half of which has been assigned to ESTHER SHORT and the West half to the heirs of AMOS M. SHORT, and all of the said land is now out of the hands of the original claimants. * * * But the Donation law (under which they claim) requires the land granted and patented to be equally divided between husband and wife. Therefore heirs of MRS. SHORT would be looking after some of the land assigned to, and sold to others by the heirs of AMOS M. SHORT. * * *

*****

M.S. DREW, late collector, indignantly denies the statement of the Transcript, that he has deserted GARFIELDE and favors the nomination of another candidate. MIKE in his card has evidently studied the "Oregon style." [2/2]

*****

BODY FOUND. - The body of E.L. JENKINS, Second Mate of the bark Niobe who accident-ally was drowned a few days since at Kalama, was found two miles below Rainer, floating across a log in the Columbia river and was brought to Kalama for interment. JUSTICE BEALL held a coroner's inquest, and the Jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts. The body was badly mutilated and disfigured. The funeral took place on Thursday at the M.E. Church in Kalama. [2/3]

*****

Following are the particulars of a brutal murder committed near this place on the 16th inst. Two Chinamen hired two white men named BROWN and CHARLEY to bring them here in a canoe for $10, which was paid there. When they had arrived off Smith's Cove, five miles from here, they went ashore saying that they were cold and made a fire, the Chinamen staying with the canoe. The white men called them to come and warm. When they arrived at the place the white men demanded their money. One of them, MING, gave them $45. The other, AH WUNG, attempted to resist, when the white men seized both and commenced stabbing them. One of the Chinamen cut his antagonist severely in the hand when he let go of him. The white man ran at the Chinaman and grabbed him by the cue, which was pulled out when he made good his escape in the woods. He then returned and found AH WUNG dead, with three stabs in the breast and several other cuts in different parts of the body. The body was brought here, and the Coroner has charge of the remains. Nothing has been heard of the murderers. [2/4]

*****

MRS. CARRA F. YOUNG lectured on woman suffrage at the Olympic Hall, on Wednesday evening, to a very small audience, and left on the steamer for Seattle and other places on the Sound that night, to fill engagements to lecture on the same subject.

*****

We learn that a little son of MR. NIX of Puyallup, was killed on Friday morning, the 6th inst., by the accidental discharge of a gun. The only particulars we have are that he was shot through the head, killing him instantly. [2/4]

SURNAME FILE by Delillah Knight

CCGS members have been requested to submit surname cards and ancestor charts. The surname cards are added to the surname index available to researchers visiting the CCGS library. Delillah Knight selected enough entries to fill four pages of the Trail Breakers for publication. Roy Katschke takes submitted ancestor charts and formats them for the Ancestor Charts section of our quarterly. Members are encouraged to update their shared information, which has helped both our members and other researchers. The surname underlined indicated the submitter whose address will be found at the end of the section.

HAVE YOU VOLUNTEERED FOR A CCGS COMMITTEE OR PROJECT????

During the 25th anniversary Mary Katschke began a more comprehensive CCGS history. She is trying to include volunteers who helped CCGS become the society it is today. Did you help with Gee Creek or a Seminar? Have you served as a librarian or class teacher? How did you help? While some reports made it to files or newsletter articles, not all did. Don't assume we have your contribution. Can you drop Mary a line to tell her what you did and an approximate date? Help make this history complete. Mary can be reached at <katschke@worldaccessnet.com>, her file at the CCGS library, as CCGS Membership chairman, P.O. Box 923, Brush Prairie, WA 98606, or 687-7818. Thanks for your support.

SWISS IMMIGRATION TO WISCONSIN PROJECT

Several societies have passed along this information: Any one with a "Swiss connection" is invited to submit information on an early Swiss Immigrant. This is a long term project and a deadline has not been established. Begun in 1980, the goal is to produce brief biographical and genealogical studies of all persons of Swiss birth who came to reside in Wisconsin prior to 1900. The focus is on major courses of their emigration and their journey to America, the migration route they followed and their settlement process. Identifying individuals by name, age, occupation, the location of the immigrants' communes and cantons or origin is the purpose of the research. It will also chronicle the settlements and identify the descendants of this group. A consolidation of all that is currently known about each immigrant and will be accomplished. Contributions, no matter how small, are welcomed.
