Working Workshop

Saturday, November 21, 1998

9:30 am until about 4 pm

Clark PUD Community Room, 1200 Ft. Vancouver Way (across from the library)

Bring your paper cutting scissors! We will be clipping vitals from the newspapers to paste into books for the library. If you have a laptop, bring it to help with indexing the vital statistics books or help with the 1910 census data extraction for CCGS and WSCS. Bring a sack lunch or a donation for hot dogs and pie. Call Jerri St. John 887-3766 to reserve lunch and tell her how you want to help.

Above: Head chairwoman Mary Katschke tallies purchases at the "pre-sale" which allowed donors and workers a first choice of items at an additional 10% of marked price. The same information stands were made and donated by Pat Bauer's husband Don. Below: Rainwear was the uniform of the day. Anita Roberts and Pat Bauer put up a tarp. Marian Thompson prepares for customers in the genealogy pavilion while Anita Roberts and Jennifer Petersen finish unloading books.

Recommendation to NOT increase FY98 Dues Justified by Success of "Balance the Budget" Yard Sale despite Wet, Windy, Cold Weather in a Swampy Field

By Mary Katschke

Marian Thompson, Mary Katschke, Linda Emery, Jennifer Petersen, Kathy Cardoza, & Pat Bauer pose during a sort and pricing session in the Katschke's RV garage.

Back in February when the Finance and Budget Committee were preparing this year's CCGS Budget, our projected expenses exceeded our projected income for the year by $490.00. They recommended that we have a yard sale to make up the difference. Counting the sale of excess CCGS equipment and the sale of donated items from 43 CCGS families, it looks like the Pre-sale and the real sale earned the society about $1,150 after expenses. Besides the wonderful quantity and quality of donations, a small core of 32 members and friends of CCGS worked very hard to benefit the society as a whole. The table at the end of this article details those you need to thank if you are glad there was not a recommendation to increase dues. If I have left anyone's name off, it was inadvertent and I'd like to know about my mistake. These volunteers worked very hard physically lifting and carrying heavy boxes and working in the wet, windy, cold to set-up, sell and clean-up after the sale. Each person involved in this project deserves our praise and gratitude for service way above and beyond the call of duty. Without them, we would not have succeeded. I so appreciate those wonderful people with vans, station-wagons and pickups who gave up their Friday afternoon to load their vehicles in Battle Ground and were willing to have the merchandise at the sale site at 7:15 a.m. Saturday and then helped unload and set-up in the wet, windy and cold weather. Some of these people like The WARRENS, Jack CROWLEY, the St. JOHNS, and Shirley BACHMAN worked on transport both early in the morning and late in the afternoon. I hadn't expected to see Jack BABOWICZ in the morning or Mary KIER, Nancy ELLIFRIT or Barbara WASMUNDT in the afternoon but their help arrived just in the nick of time. And the Valiant Volunteers who withstood hours of the miserable weather standing on the soggy ground with rain blowing in on them to help sell our merchandise or real heroines in my book! Another heroine deserving of mention is our President, Jane GERMANN, who delivered hot take-out containers of macaroni and cheese for the noon shift. Phyllis and Paul DALE donated to CCGS the cost of the disposing of some items that Goodwill would not take. Thank you.

Jennifer PETERSEN, one of the three co-chairs of this committee, coordinated with Phyllis Hyder, the owner of "Take A Peek" in the Historic Padden House at 5206 NE 78th Street to provide the society with a free, outstanding wide-open location on a busy arterial street with lots of parking for our sale. Jennifer also loaned the society three large shelters and 4 tables which she put up two days before the sale. Through the influence of Jennifer, Phyllis Hyder loaned CCGS her brand new shelter to help keep our merchandise dry. Jerri St. John and Wayne and Kathy Cardoza also loaned shelters. Those cute magnetized reminder postcards about the sale that got passed out at the general meeting was another brainstorm of Jennifer..

Pat BAUER, another of the three co-chairs, created a special page within our home page to advertise our sale and created the flyers. It was Pat's idea to have a "by ticket only" presale. Interestingly, almost $450.00 of the total sales came from the presale event. Pat was a member of the 1995 Parking Lot Sale team. Her tried and true techniques for pricing helped on the 29th when her daughter, Linda Emery, joined the rest of the team doing the pricing (Chuck & Marian Thompson, Jennifer Petersen, Kathy Cardoza) and on Yard Sale Day with her table signs (made by her husband, Don) and her Sack sale signs. Both these talented women pressed their husbands into service and have been so supportive throughout all phases of this fund-raising project.

Roy KATSCHKE's willingness to let the committee store the merchandise in his garage and workshop for almost a month and his outstanding ability to load and unload vehicles coupled with his help all day long on 3 October is sincerely appreciated.

Each donation is appreciated but special recognition is due to Tom and Winnie OLSON who brought over 3 van loads of donations and to Shirley BACHMAN, Nancy ELLIFRIT, Jane GERMANN, Kathy CARDOZA, Maureena CRAVENS, Jennifer WARREN, Pat BAUER, Anita ROBERTS, who each brought an entire vehicle full of donations. However the Hon Filing Cabinet donated by Margaret DENNY was probably the most sought after item followed by the color TV and VCR donated by Beverlymae ISAACSON. For those of you supporting the Yard Sale as Shoppers, you saw lots of other neat items. Thank you collectively for your wonderful generosity in terms of material goods and in terms of donated time and effort under terrible conditions.

Getting to know our Life Members

Maureena M. (NOLL) CRAVENS

Maureena is one of those multi-talented people you'd always want on your team and a wonderful team-player as well. She works well with other people, with words and with numbers. She is artistic, musical, organized and very intelligent. She is a behind the scenes worker who epitomizes the finest qualities you'd want in your best friend and several of us who've been privileged to get to know her or to work with her consider her to be a good friend.

She was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin on 21 August 1942 and lived in Mequon, Wisconsin until she was twelve. When her parents decided to relocate to Oregon where Maureena's elder sister and husband were living, her elder brother in New York also decided to relocate to Oregon.

She earned her Bachelor and Master's Degrees in Music at the University of Oregon in the early 1960's and was a music educator at Portland Community College, Beaverton Public School District and in the Stayton Elementary and Unified High School Districts. She met her husband, Bob, while working a summer job at a 7-11 Market in Beaverton, Oregon. After ten years of teaching, she took a leave of absence to accompany him back East for additional training. When they returned Maureena decided to become a full-time homemaker. In her spare time, she co-authored and published twelve musical plays geared toward the junior high level with her elder sister, also a music educator. She has donated many hours of volunteer labor to the Vancouver School District host program and in the classrooms. She and her husband were also very active in swimming and soccer organizations while their son, Kjell, and daughter, Danielle, were growing up. Currently they are both heavily involved in remodeling and interior decorating and play cards frequently with other couples. Maureena also enjoys sewing, crafts, gardening, cooking, camping and travel, and reading on any subject and is an active member of Friends of the Library.

Maureena got interested in genealogy in 1986 after her father-in-law passed away. They found papers concerning the genealogical research that her husband's grandmother had pursued. Maureena decided to continue her quest to prove that the family was a descendant of a Revolutionary War Soldier.

She indicated that although she has learned a great deal about the family lines, she has not yet accomplished her original goal. She has learned that to be effective in genealogy, one must be patient, attentive to details and ALWAYS record your source. Her husband is due to retire next year and she is hoping to have more time to continue her research. She is currently using PAF on her new computer system but plans to switch, although she doesn't know yet to which one? The surnames she is currently concentrating on are: VIGUS, WHITE, HURT, CRAVEN, CRAVENS and BACKHAUS. If you have any of those surnames, please give her a call or send her an email. Her email is crave555@aol.com.

When she initially joined CCGS in April 1992, she joined up for fifteen months and has renewed faithfully since then. She has served as a volunteer librarian for a number of years and continues to work there at least once a month despite being elected as Assistant Secretary-Treasurer for CCGS in Fiscal Year 1997. Even before her year officially began she had stepped in to take the minutes a couple of times, cheerfully inconvenienced herself to learn what was involved with Treasurer on a very tight schedule, helped get documents essential to our SWIFT Grant request to our auditor, and acted as Treasurer by herself for the first full month of this fiscal year. She and her husband offered their services to review the Society's IRS 990 Form before submission and were essential to the completion of that project. Additionally she helped with the Silver Anniversary Celebration and was a valuable contributor to both the Membership Committee and to the Finance and Budget Committee. Maureena is also a member of the bylaws committee. She cited "the people I have met - they are friendly, helpful, and have stimulating ideas" as what is the best thing about CCGS for her. She became a life member in order to demonstrate her desire to be a long-term contributing member of CCGS and we are very fortunate to have her as a member.

Jennifer C. (BYERS) PETERSEN

Jennifer, our newly elected Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, joined our society less than 18 months ago while taking one of our Clark College genealogy classes. She mentioned being very favorably impressed by some of her teachers (Jane GERMANN, Doris WASTRODOWSKI, Dorothy PERSON and Jerri ST. JOHN). "These ladies don't fool around. They know what they are doing and don't belabor a person with personal stories unless asked." In an historic note, Jennifer's was the last life membership accepted before the current life membership rates were approved by the general membership.

Her pleasant personality, strong work ethic, exceptional business skills and cooperative teamwork were very favorably noted by all members of the CCGS Finance and Budget Committee during their recent meeting. As the owner of two growing businesses, she has very limited free time available to her. So when Jennifer decided to make a commitment to one group other than her church, where she is a third grade Sunday School Teacher, CCGS was indeed blessed by her early commitment to service with us. She already has plans to volunteer as a librarian and has agreed to backup the Membership Director next year. She is also a member of the Fort Vancouver Historical Society, the Old Buncombe County Genealogy Society, and the American Premium Tea Institute.

Jennifer was born in March 6, 1948 in Murphy, Cherokee County, NC. Her father had a sawmill and her mother raised chickens and sold eggs to provide for Jennifer and her two younger sisters. The family moved to the Umpqua Valley in Oregon in 1959 in connection with her father's recovery from a logging accident where he had been working on a seasonal basis. Jennifer graduated from Elkton High School and focused on business and accounting classes in community college. She started out working as a legal secretary and in accounting. Jennifer expressed some regret at not having a formal degree, seeming to have gone to school forever but it ever evident that it has been beneficial to her. She has been employed in San Francisco, Winston-Salem and Seattle. Jennifer has also enjoyed some wonderful trips abroad as sales bonuses. Based on her skills, she decided that she could set up and run a direct mail business better than her previous employers and soon had Boeing and Microsoft among her clients as proof of that effort. She met her current husband, Jerry, in Seattle and they moved to the Salmon Creek area seven years ago. Jennifer owns and runs two very interesting businesses that she expects to be enhanced by one's age. She established the "Carnelian Rose Tea Company" about three years ago as a mail order catalog business but she also sells a bulk line of tea and tea accessories at the Cheshire Cat. Recently she has expanded to giving teas at the Padden House. Jennifer was just certified as an Etiquette Consultant by the Protocol School in McLean, VA where our diplomats receive their training. This was in preparation for her newest business as an Etiquette and Protocol Consultant for "Leadership Skills for Today." The first phase of this is teaching table manners and proper introductions to youth in a series of classes.

Jennifer was very fortunate when she started tracing her roots to stumble upon Col. John ASHE from Greensboro, NC who had compiled a vast database in connection with publishing his book titled, "Ash-Ashe-Stillwell." Jennifer called him and his first words were: "Lady, you have hit the jackpot. You have over 4000 cousins living in Clay County alone!" As a result, she has imbued her son, Ethan HARRIS, with an interest in genealogy. He began his research trying to locate lines of royalty reasoning that royal families would keep excellent records. Through his father's line, he is a Mayflower descendant and may have found a line that traces back to King Tut. She primarily uses Family Tree Maker Software in her research but also has Family Origins. Jennifer has learned through her study of genealogy so far that her ancestors were good, sturdy farmer and military types. Pocahontas and a Cherokee grandmother named Little Panther, are her family's only known claims to ancestor fame. On the down side, she has also learned that her family is short-lived (most female relatives die in their mid-to-late 60's). Her best genealogy tip is: GO TO THE SOURCE! whether it's a cemetery, record office, or family Bible. She is currently researching the following surnames: BYERS, BRYSON, ASHE, MCCLURE, COLEMAN, KILPATRICK, PLOTT, STILLWELL, LEDFORD, and BANDY.

At the conclusion of the interview, she was asked if there was anything else she'd like to add. She said: "Yes, I'd like to put a tea and coffee service at the Genealogy and/or Historical Society ... especially the new building. Don't know where to start. It's always nice to have relaxing beverage nearby when your head is buzzing with grandmas, grandpas and cousins." What a wonderful idea! Let's all wish her good luck in this endeavor.

Arlen Bruce CLARK

Arlen is currently the President of the William Cannon Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution (S.A.R.) as well as the State Secretary of the Oregon State S.A.R.

and the first life member accepted under our current dues schedule. CCGS is honored to add him to this special list. He holds the distinction of being the only male individual life member among 24 others.

He was born 24 May 1943 in Roseburg, Douglas County, Oregon. The family moved to Clark County about 1944. He served with the U.S. Army for three years in Ft. Hood, Texas and in Vietnam after basic training in Ft. Ord and Chemical School in Ft. McClellan. Arlen earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Chemical Engineering from the University of Washington in 1970 and in 1972 accepted an engineering job in Juneau, Alaska, where he met his wife, Lucy, and worked for the next seventeen years prior to returning to Clark County in August 1989. He is currently a Registered Professional Engineer (Civil) in the Construction Management Section of the Clark County Public Works Department. An article he authored on Wastewater Treatment Plants was published in the "Public Works" magazine in 1985.

Arlen received his initial introduction to genealogy in the sixth grade as a class project but became seriously interested in pursuing this growing hobby in response to his efforts to "date" a long case clock belonging to his uncle with an ancestor's name (Nathan MATLACK) engraved upon it. Arlen eventually learned the clock was made between 1760 and 1785. It is noteworthy that the same month he returned to Clark County, he initially joined CCGS and has renewed every year albeit, a little late a couple of times. Therefore, the following answer as to why he became a life member, made a lot of sense: "I kept putting my renewal forms aside to pay later and was almost always late paying them as I forgot about the form." He also considers this membership as an investment in the past.

In addition to genealogy, Arlen is heavily involved the Boy Scout program and enjoys gardening when he has time. He is also a member of the American Legion and Vietnam Veterans of America. For genealogy, he primarily uses the PAF program but also uses Family Tree Maker. Arlen has noted that the library is getting a larger selection of books and materials for our use and tried to use them whenever possible. CCGS is located close to Arlen's workplace so he enjoys sometimes taking a late lunch to do a little research. He is now involved in some joint genealogical research with his mother-in-law, Ione LAMBERT, and sister-in-law, Loraine GIBSON, who are also CCGS members. Neither of his two sons or any of his sisters and brothers are hooked on the hobby yet. His surnames are, among others, CLARK, WILLIAMS, DITTO, TEMPLETON, MULLINS, McCULLOUGH, GIFT, and BOOTH so be sure to drop him a line or send him an email at retros0000@aol.com if you share a common surname.

Arlen's Best Genealogy method/tip? "Research is like a flea on a dog. you just have to keep scratching away over a large area until you take care of it." The Society is looking forward to a long, mutually beneficial association with this newest life member, especially after he retires in 2008.

Membership Chairman Mary Katschke met with these life members for these interviews.

Carol (ARNOLD) CLARK and Dennis R. "DOC" CLARK

This couple, who share many interests together, joined CCGS in Fiscal Year 1994 and have renewed as a joint membership every year since. Their jobs preclude attendance at daytime meeting so their life member cards and certificate were presented to them on Saturday, 30 May 1998 at the CCGS Library where they volunteer as librarians once a month. They've been married 17 years and each have two children from previous marriages.

Dennis was born in 1947 in Vancouver, Washington and is the eldest of six children, who were also born and raised in Vancouver. Tragically, his younger brother, Allen, was killed in a car accident a year after Dennis and Carol married. After graduating from High School, he went to college for a year and served a four year electrician apprenticeship to become the Industrial Electrician he is today. He prefers to go by his nickname of "DOC..." which has an interesting story behind it. At one time, he had a business account in the name of D. R. Clark. He began to receive a complimentary subscription to Reader's Digest, followed by copies of the New England Journal of Medicine, J.A.M.A. and the British Lancet. They were all addressed to Dr. D. R. Clark or Dr. Dennis R. Clark so his fellow electricians started sending for the "DOC" to fix things.

Carol was born in 1945 in Cleveland, Ohio and lived there until 1964, completing High School and 1 year of college. Two of her sisters still live in Ohio. She is a Circuit Designer for Electric Lightwave, Inc., a telecommunications company.

Carol's mother developed terminal cancer in 1988. During trips back to Ohio to pick out things that she would like to inherit, she found that many articles had family stories behind them and that a lot of those stories would be lost when she died in spite of the fact that others in the family had done some genealogical work. Carol used some of her inheritance money to purchase a computer. Since Carol didn't know which programs she was interested in using, she found that Computer Mart in Vancouver rents software. One day a week there is a special where you can rent two for the price of one. On a whim, Carol picked Family Tree Maker as her second choice. Once she discovered that this was a wonderful way to document and accumulate information on the family, she was off and running. . . . hooked on genealogy! Recognizing this as something she plans to be doing for the rest of her life, she decided to become a CCGS Life Member. She also enjoys sewing, knitting, crocheting and piano.

Carol learned to hate her middle name (Bly) because of childhood teasing so now uses her maiden name as her middle name. As a result of learning more about the BLY history has made it a little easier, but she still finds it handy to use her maiden name initial as her middle initial.

So far they have gone on two genealogical vacations. One was to Ohio and New York. The other one was to Chicago on the way to see an aunt in Michigan. They had great success mixing seeing the sights with doing research. Salt Lake City, Utah is sure to be one of their upcoming genealogical vacations. Hopefully they can do this several times before they retire in 10 to 15 years.

The best things about CCGS for Carol is going to the library, attending functions, and talking to other members which allows her to share her interest with others. For DOC, the best thing about CCGS is the time spent with Carol on their joint interest.

DOC got started on his genealogy about the same time as Carol. He has two great aunts who have accumulated information and other living family members he is in the process of contacting while the information is still readily available. He has found out so far that his grandfather on the Clark side came over from England as a young man, through Canada, and that he married his childhood sweetheart. He also has learned of a great grandfather on his mother's side who fought in the Modock Indian Wars and that his son received a commendation for protecting a stagecoach from attack by robbers. Despite what he has learned already, DOC has found information on his ancestors hard to find. He became a life member so it won't be as difficult for his descendants.

Carol used Family Origins to record her research. Her best genealogy tip is to keep trying. "You never know where some pertinent information might pop up." You can contact her by email at cclark@pacifier.com with a joint interest in the ARNOLD, BLOSSER, HUDSON, BROWN, JOHNSON, or EDDY surnames.

DOC uses Family Tree Maker as his genealogy program and is currently researching CLARK, ALLEN, McNAMER, and ACOCK. He would like to see the CCGS Library open at least one evening per week. Perhaps that capability will be possible in the new Museum being planned. Right, however, CCGS members are only allowed access when a Fort Vancouver Historical Society Staff Member is present.

Carol answered the question, "Do you anticipate writing a family history someday?" as follows: "I don't see either of us writing a book, but I have had members of my mother's side of the family write down memories and recollections and I would like to get as much of the family history as possible in written form as well as in the computer program so that any family member that follows can have the basic information at their fingertips when the interest strikes them."

As volunteer CCGS Librarians, Carol and DOC bring friendliness and a strong desire to help others that reflects very positively on the entire organization.

Vol. I , No. 1 of the Trail Breakers

The first issue, called the CLARK CO G S NEWLETTER, was published September 1974. Issues were to be printed in September, January and April. No meetings or newsletter were expected during the summer. Meetings, usually the third or last Wednesday of the month, were publicized under NEWS FROM CLUBS in the Columbian and generally from 9 AM until Noon. Dues were $3.00 per years and included the Newsletter. Margaretta Zimmerman was organizer and Chairman of the club.

The Newsletter was to be distributed at the next meeting following publication. Genealogical or family books would be reviewed in return for a copy donated to the library. Areas to be covered included materials of Genealogical and Historical nature of Clark Co. WA. and early Clarke Co., Oregon Territory. Family genealogies would be printed. Queries were free to members. Bible records and pedigree charts were asked for publishing in the newsletter. Queries were sent to Mrs. Carol Burger and correspondence to Margatetta Zimmerman or Mildred Finley. Courier was the type used.

The eight pages of this issue contained 2 pages of the 1850 census; a listing of cemeteries with reader/chairman; Fishers cemetery records (1 ½ pages); a short excerpt from Lockley's History of the Columbia River (1/2 page) about the establishment of Clark county; and the first 21 land claims in Book A or the court house.

The name Trail Breakers was adopted by Vol. 1, No. 2 issue.

CLARK COUNTY SPANISH-AMERICAN SOLDIERS

PART 4 by Jane Germann

Part 4 continues with extracts from the Vancouver Independent concerning the Spanish American War. Earlier parts of this series included letters written from Angel Island as the troops gathered to travel to the Philippines. Sandy Smith, Editor of The Marin Kin Tracer, in Vol 21, No1, 1998 pages 10-11, gives the history of "Angel Island, A True Jewel In San Francisco Bay." GOT IT IN THE NECK

Q. M. Sergt. Oliver J. Clancy
Pinked by a Mauser

John D. Clancy, on Monday, received a letter from his brother Oliver J. Clancy, the quartermaster-sergeant of company G, First Washington, volunteers, whose name was among those reported wounded at the battle of Santa Ann six weeks ago. The letter is dated Manila, Feb. 8, from which the following extract is taken:

"No doubt, if the newspaper are as enterprising, now as when I was at home, you have heard that I was slightly wounded. I am not very badly hit. A Mauser bullet hit me in the neck, on the right side of the windpipe and passed through my neck without hitting anything dangerous. I expect to be back for duty in about two week. I am out of hospital and am up to quarters now on a pass. There were only four men in G company hit and none killed. Our regiment is now the banner regiment of Manila. We fought our way, from Paco to Santa Ann, a distance of four miles, and then captured the latter place, which we have since occupied. You may be sure G company was not in the rear. We had to ford and swim two creeks while charging."

He spoke of the personal bravery of certain members of the company and stated that his brother, Nicholas Clancy, was acting in the capacity of quatermaster-sergeant while Sergeant Clancy was disabled. . . .

Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, 1899

EDITOR INDEPENDENT. - Company G has been in the field constantly for the past three weeks. Ever since the fifth of Feb. 5th we have been on the march pursuing or fighting the Insurgents daily. Our company has been under fire a dozen times and in three hot skirmishes. Several of the boys and some very narrow escapes, but every man in our company is still alive and in good health. Clancy, Kays and Duncan, who were wounded on the 5th are recovering rapidly and will soon be well again. . . . While we were peacefully eating dinner behind the graveyard wall, with stray shots flying over us, one bullet swept between Fred Tempes and Sam Lawrence and struck the rifle of Jack Cairns, the company cook, and Jack dropped the rifle as if it were a red hot brick. The boys laughed a little over the occurrence and went on eating their dinner. Altogether the little incident created about as much excitement as when a bug creeps upon a table-cloth at a Salmon Creek picnic.

. . . Random firing has continued all day, and stray shots are flying over our trenches as I write. Charles Hall, Joe Goddard, Arthus Cochran and Casey O'Donnell are peppering away at some Insurgent sharpshooters.

Yesterday we received the sad intelligence of the death of Dr. Thompson, our regimental chaplain. Dr. Thompson was one of the pioneer preachers of Washington, and his death will be regretted by his many friends in Clarke county and other parts of our beloved state.

. . . . "The Assyrian came down like a wolf on the fold." If the admirers of Lord Byron could have seen Jim Woolf during the charge on Santa Ana Knoll, Feb. 5th, they would be able to appreciate the strength and beauty of this poetic line. On one of our flank movements on that memorable Sunday one of our boys fell into a wayside well and one of the boys had to stop and help him out. This incident gave rise to the following nursery rhyme:

"Ding dong bell, someone's in the well; Who pulled him out? Sgt. Sayres so stout."

For several days succeeding the battle of Santa Ana, Charles Hasson suffered from the delusion that he belonged to G troop, but he has since been made sergeant of the band and now sticks closely to his post.

Our assistant cook, Jerry Fleming, forsook the soup kettle to participate in the charge of Santa Ana, but he has been coaxed back to the kitchen again. Mort and Chape Mills, Roy Parcel, Ralph Wilson and George Spurgeon take to the life in the trenches like ducks to water. They jump up at midnight, fire several rounds to help repel the Phillipinos and within ten minutes are sound asleep again.

Since we have been in the trenches Oscar Ray, Billy Breman, Harry Fleming and Bob Morin have done enough foraging to make Dan Baker retire in shame. G troop almost lives off of pigs and chickens.

This afternoon while Captain Ellrich was pointing out the position of the Insurgents to some Japanese officers, his efforts were kindly assisted by the enemy, who sent a mauser bullet whistling, by their ears.

The boys say that a liberal translation of San Pedro Macati is Saint Patrick McCarty. This translation is extremely liberal.

Vancouver Independent, April 6, 1899, p3.

The remains of Edward S. Moore, who was killed at Manila on March 2, were shipped form Manila on the transport Morgan City on March 12, and will arrive at San Francisco about the 15th inst. The body will be immediately brought to Vancouver, where the funeral services will be held, conducted by Vancouver lodge No. 6, Knights of Pythias, of which order Toddy was an honored member.

Vancouver Independent, April 6, 1899, p3.

Thomas White, a private in Co. B, 24th Infantry, was drowned in the over-flow pond, immediately northeast of the commissary building, on the government reservation, last Monday afternoon, while swimming. White, in company with two other persons, had sum across the pond, and was returning when he gave out and sank to the bottom hardly without a struggle. His body was recovered in about an hour, and was buried in the government cemetery on Tuesday. He was 18 years of age. Vancouver Independent, July 26, 1899 p3.

Oscar Baker arrived home from Manila last Tuesday Evening. Oscar has passed an eventful time during the past year, having gone with his regiment the 4th Infantry, form Fort Sheridan, Illinois, to Santiago, and participated in the battle and siege of that name, and after returning to Fort Sheridan, he went with the 4th Infantry to Manila by way of New York and Suez canal route to Manila, where he participated in the fighting for several months. He was discharged June 15, and came home, having participated in the campaign in Cuba and the Philippines and made a tour of the world with in the space of a year. Vancouver Independent, July 27, 1899 p3.

Geo. M. Duncan, Co. G. 1st Wash., arrived in San Francisco last week form Manila and is in the hospital. He was wounded in the arm by a Mauser, and it was thought for awhile that it would be necessary to amputate the injured limb, but he is now getting along very nicely.

... First Lieut. William E. Weigle, Co. G, 1st Washington, arrived home last Tuesday morning form Manila. He has resigned his commission and will be mustered out Sept. 2. Lieut. Weigle says our boys have experienced lots of fighting, and have always acquitted themselves with honor. The health of the company was good, only a small per cent being sick. Charley Weston and Fred Man were both out of the general hospital, and convalescing. He thinks the boys will start home within a month or so. Vancouver Independent, Aug. 10, 1899, p3.

Among news in another column: [see note about Damphoffer at the beginning of part 3, last issue]

The awful news of the conviction and sentence of death by court martial of Corporal George Damphoffer, Co. B. 16th U.S. Infantry, was received from Manila last Friday morning. It appears that Corporal Damphoffer, in company with several comrades, criminally assaulted a native Filipino woman and for this he and Private Conine were sentenced to be shot, and another comrade 20 years imprisonment. The news was officially confirmed by General Otis on Monday, and nothing can now save these unfortunate boys except intercession by the president. Corporal Damphoffer was born in this city in 1879, and lived here until he enlisted in the 16th Infantry in 1896. He was through the battle of Santiago and received a wound in the shoulder. Last winter he spent several month at his home here, and departed with his regiment for Manila last March. The sentence will not be carried into effect until the case has been reviewed by the war department. Vancouver Independent, 21 Sept 1899, p3.

The Manila Freedom, of August 10, states that the trial of the three members of the 16th Infantry was going on, and that the corporal, presumed to be George Damphoffer, would also be tried for neglect of duty, by failing to arrest the culprits. A letter, dated August 20, has been received from the corporal, and he does not mention that he was under arrest. There are some aspects in this case that are beyond understanding at this distance. Vancouver Independent, Sept. 28, 1899, p3.

Captain A.V. Richardson and wife left this morning for Fort Thomas where the captain is ordered to join his company.

W.H. Eldridge, chief clerk in the US Commissary Department has received orders to report to the commissary officer at New Orleans for Duty.

Lieut. Elting, who left Vancouver with Troop E, 4th cavalry, for Manila, over a year ago, returned home last Saturday, and after his leave of absence expires will join the 6th cavalry.

The transport Pennsylvania, bearing the returning regiment of First Washington volunteers, is expected in San Francisco, October 8, according to the estimate made by the owners of this ship.

Another column reports on the 85th US Volunteers organized at the post of Vancouver Barracks leaving for the Philippines. Roster of field, staff and line or officers was included. Vancouver Independent, Oct. 5, 1899, p3.

OUR COMPANY.

Company G, sent from this city, held its place on the firing line along with the regiment and participated in all its battles and marches. It left Vancouver in command of Captain M. F. Ellrich, First Lieutenant M. V. Rinehart and Second Lieutenant W.E. Weigle. Lieut. Rinehart resigned before the company reaches Manila, and Lieut. Weigle resigned Sept. 2. Sergt. Ried was promoted 2nd lieutenant but never received his commission. W. G. Cotchett was then made second lieutenant and he resigned to enter the Eleventh Cavalry. Reigle is now 2nd lieutenant, Oliver Clancy first sergeant, and Arthur Fletcher quartermaster sergeant.

The company lost one man by drowning, and the wounded were Sergt. Clancy, Privates George M. Duncan, William J. Keys, Robert E. Morin, Joseph B. Doman, J. _ Weatherby and George McNeil. The company left 23 men in Manila who re-enlisted in the volunteer regiment organized there. Those of the company now in the hospital at San Francisco are Martin L. Kays, T.J. Rinehart, J.T. Sayre, L.B. Smith, J.S. Loubert and Albert Herbert. Kays is reported to be in a critical condition.

The company will be home within three weeks and they will get a rousing old reception. Welcome home our brave boys, you have fought a good fight.

"Our Boys in Manila" was also a column in this issue. Vancouver Independent, Oct 12, 1899, p3.

LIEUTENANT HARRY BOUTELLE KILLED

In the dispatches from Manila last Friday, it was announced that Lieut. Boutelle has been killed that day. This information, though meager, was sufficient to convince his friends that Lieutenant Boutelle has met his death, as he was known to be in that section of the island where the army was operating. His death cast a cloud over the joy of receiving our volunteers, as he was universally liked by a large circle of acquaintances in this country and state. He was the only son of Captain F. A. Boutelle, retired, who is well known in Vancouver and through the army, his father having served for a number of years in the department of the Columbia, and was stationed here as inspector of small arms practice from 1892 until 1894.

Lieutenant Boutelle was appointed to the Third artillery July 8, 1898, transferred to the Fourteenth infantry December 24, and transferred back to the Third artillery in January, 1899.

Lieutenant Boutelle had seen hard service with his regiment while in the Philippines, and showed a degree of courage and soldierly qualities which gave promise of being the beginning of a brilliant career for the young officer had his life been spared. Vancouver Independent, Nov. 9, 1899, p3.

A ROYAL WELCOME

Given to the Returning Volunteers

Last Saturday Evening

Our boys are home. Eighteen months service in the army of the United States a year of which was spent in the Philippines, and seven months of which was spent on the firing line, had not wrought great havoc among them; but yet they all look the worse for wear and fear of their service. Several come home broken in health and debilitated, and one or two __ained, but time will doubtless heal these and before many months they will be themselves again. They have seen service, and hoard service, too, and every mother's son of them are glad to get home and be among friends again. Perhaps they now know what their friends and relatives think of them, and they also know they are welcome, thrice welcome home.

The Washington regiment landed in the Philippines in November, 1898, and upon landing was assigned to outpost duty in the Paco district, and were there until February 4, when the Philippine insurrection broke out and they took to the fight and stayed with it until August 31. No volunteer regiment in the islands had so long a service as our regiment, and none have participated in more battles than they. Their fighting opened at 2:30 o'clock on the morning of February 5, when every one of the twelve companies formed a part of the battle line in front of Santa Ana, during the first attack by the rebels on Manila. The fine reputation they earned at this battle was sustained during all the campaign. In all the First Washington engaged in Twenty-seven battles and innumerable skirmishes, and in every one of these, Company G took an active part. As Captain Ellrich said at the auditorium, "when there was a light in sight, Company G. was always there."

It was definitely learned last Thursday that the boys would arrive in Portland on Saturday, and from the first ferry until after noon, fond mothers, and anxious fathers went their way to Portland to greet their sons as soon as the train should arrive. By 4:30 when the train arrived over a hundred Vancouver people organized themselves into a reception committee, with Co. G. Washington National Guard, under command of Captain Sparks, as an escort. The train was in two sections, and our boys were on the first car. They came in with a cheer and were greeted with cheers from one hundred onlookers ... The boys were escorted to the Auditorium, where a sumptuous repast had been prepared. The boys lost no time in getting on the outside of a goodly portion of this. Parents were invited to participate in the banquet with their sons. The hall was gaily decorated with flags, bunting, cut and potted flowers, and set off by the brilliantly shaded lights, making a magnificent display of colors.

The exercises of the evening then came on. Mayor Eastham delivered a brief address, extending a hearty welcome home to the volunteers. Addresses were also made by Judge A. L. Miller and Chaplain L. R. Groves. Miss Lennie Snodgrass read an original poem entitled "Vancouver's Welcome to Her Boys," written by Mrs. Clara L. Ryan of this city, which was warmly applauded. Mrs. E.E. Covert sang "The Star Spangled Banner" and other patriotic selections. The appearance of Captain Ellrich upon the platform in response to persistent calls from the audience called forth another ovation. He made a brief address and was followed by Lieutenant Reigle and Glenn Ranck. Owing to the crowded condition of the hall, it was impossible to hear the speakers, but their addresses were all good, short and were well chosen.

Six of the boys, Charles Weston, Nelson T. Hubert, Nicholas Geoghegan, Jos. Trotter, Arthur Cochran and Chas. O'Donnell arrived Friday evening.

Home Library Sharing Program

The Home Library Sharing Program is a program for CCGS members only. They can, if they so choose, make available their personal library of genealogical books, films, CDs and other resources to other CCGS Members.

A couple of members submitted their personal lists as guinea pigs to work out how it would work. Take a look at the "HLSP" on the GRS program at our library. Here you will find further explanation of this program. You will need your member ID #.

If you are interested in submitting a list of your genealogical resources to be put on the loan program, contact Jennifer WARREN and she will send you a copy of directions for participating in the HLSP. This program has great potential to expand the sources available for our research and is a benefit of CCGS membership.

A big THANK YOU to Harry HOWARTH who came up with the idea in the first place, to Roy KATSCHKE for designing the program format, and to Mary KATSCHKE for doing the data entry.

Handout Notebook

Have you taken a look at the "Handout Notebook" at the CCGS Library? This is the place where handouts from past general meetings, workshops, seminars, are kept. If you're interested in a particular article, you can make a photocopy of it.

The notebook has only a few articles at this time, arranged alphabetically with a listing in the front of the book. If you have an old handout that is not in the book and are willing to share it, please contact Jennifer WARREN. Handouts need not be only from CCGS events. If you have heard a speaker at another meeting and have a handout with useful information, you're invited to share that also.

070 MISCELLANEOUS TEXAS NEWSPAPER
 Kel ABSTRACTS - DEATHS VOLUME I. Compiled by Michael Kelsey, Nancy Graff Floyd and Ginny Guinn Parsons. While Texas is the focus of the majority of the death notices, there are numerous references to various other states. The authors have abstracted any mention of a death or implied death. Due to the severity of poor roads and insufficient rail and telegraph connections in Texas and across the antebellum SOUTH, it became paramount for the diffusion and assimilation of news that a reliable means of communication be established. Communication of news was primarily carried out by the mails, stages, steamboats and most importantly the newspaper. The common practice was for editors to place their newspapers on what was called an exchange list with other leading newspapers within their region or state. Once an editor received an "exchange" he merely gleaned from its pages political or social items that he found of interest or believed worthy of printing in his local newspaper. Reference is made to five-six newspapers published outside of the state of Texas. The book also contains a surname index for the ease of researchers. 271

CLARK COUNTY, WASHINGTON

(from Vol. 1, No. 1, page 8, Trail Breakers)

"What is now know as Clark County was originally called the District of Vancouver. It was established by the Oregon Provisional government on June 27, 1844, and included all that part of Oregon lying north of the Columbia River. On Dec 22, 1845, the provisional legislature changed the title from the district of Vancouver to Vancouver County. On July 16, 1849, the Territorial Legislature changed the name from Vancouver County to Clarke County. Clarke was in honor of Capt. Merriweather Clarke of the Lewis and Clarke Exposition. Gen. Joseph Lane, first governor of Oregon territory, appointed William Ryan sheriff of Clarke County on Sept. 8, 1849. David Stone was appointed prosecuting attorney for the third Judicial District, which included Clarke, Clatsop and Lewis counties. The first election for county officers was held of July 1, 1850. A quarter section of land was granted for a county seat. Fisher's Landing was considered but was never voted on. The site finally selected was the present site of Vancouver, but in the early days was called Columbia City. The first purchases of a lot was John Kelly, for lot No 5 in block 2 on Oct 22, 1850, for $1,000. But this land claimed by the Hudson's Bay Co, and by the War Department, as a pat of the reservation and by Amos Short and later his heirs, and part of by the Catholic Church. After much legal debate a site was finally selected and on January 26, 1855, the name was changed to Vancouver. A contract was given to C. C. Stiles to build a courthouse on Feb 18, 1854, to cost $983. This building was used as a military barracks for the volunteer force, in the Indian was of 1855-56. S. D Maxon was given a contract to build a jail.

The act establishing Washington Territory, from the then Oregon Territory was passed on March 2, 1853.

There were five U. S. land offices in Washington Territory; Vancouver, Olympia, Walla Walla, Spokane Falls and North Yakima.

On the following pages we have listed some of the Original Locators of Land in Clarke County, Oregon Territory.

SURNAME FILE by Delillah Knight

CCGS members have been requested to submit surname cards and ancestor charts. The surname cards are added to the surname index available to researchers visiting the CCGS library. Delillah Knight selected enough entries to fill four pages of the TrailBreakers for publication. Roy Katschke takes submitted ancestor charts and formats them for the Ancestor Charts section of our quarterly. Members are encouraged to update their shared information, which has helped both our members and other researchers. The surname underlined indicates the submitter whose address will be found at the end of the section

POSTAL INFORMATION

Typed envelopes will reach addresses one day earlier than those handwritten.

Postal machine scanners read envelope from the bottom up, starting with the zip code. If anything is typed lower than the zip code, the letter will be held until it can be manually sorted. Mail will also reach its destination at least a day sooner if you use zip codes, and using the additional 4-digit number is even better.

Self-addressed stamped envelopes (SASE) folded inside a letter is a violation of postal regulations because they jam postal sorting machines. It is recommended that you use a No. 9 envelope, which will fit inside the regular No. 10 business envelope without folding. Also, the post office sells a "message reply" double postal card for forty cents. If you're requesting a brief reply this is the most economical way to go.

Helen Rector called to volunteer to her list of vital record addresses for publication. It was an older copy, but it was good to be reminded that not all of us take the Clark Classes and get the advise from teacher Sharon Wodtke. Sharon includes a sample letter in her section of the syllabus for writing to the government for an up-to-date copy:

22 July 1996

U.S. Government Book Store
 1305 S.W. 1st
 Portland, Oregon 97201

Subject: DHHS Pub No. 93-1142

I would like to purchase the most recent (1) copy of
 "Where to Write for Vital Records: Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Divorce."

Thank you in advance for your timely assistance.

Sincerely,
