JOSEPH LA MIRANDE:

His Will of 1795, Opelousas Post

Translated from the French and Edited by
Winston De Ville, F.A.S.G.

I, Joseph Lamirande, père, by my ordinary mark, and in the presence of the undersigned witnesses, finding myself in a state of illness in this Poste des Opeloussas, having come from my domicile at [i.e., de] Calcoussiou, distant about 30 leagues from here, I desire to put my affaires in order while I still have perfect cognizance and [considering] that Monsieur the commandant is at his residence at Atakapas, a great distance from here, I declare before my witnessing friends by me gathered that my last wishes are, from this moment, [that] the four children of the one called Babé, my Negress, be free, to wit: two mulattos and two mulatresses named Judith, Lise, Dieguo and Zenon, of which the first, for having received the payment by her mother and the three others, in consideration of the good, excellent and faithful service of the one called Babé, their mother...[torn] I leave in the hands of M[onsieur] Roujot, sindic of this Prairie, the depositing of this act with M[onsieur] the commandant. I declare also that, irrevocably, I sell to the said Babé, mother of the said four children, for the sum of 250 piastres, payable in cattle and horses, that which she will have this spring, at current price and in consideration of the good and past services she has given me and will give me until the end of my days with the same affection to which she voluntarily consents, in presence of the said witnesses. I add again that, should it be that I live four or five...[torn] permit to indemnify in the amount of 50 piastres. Such are my last wishes, which I can never revoke. ## THE FOURNERATS OF SOUTHWEST LOUISIANA

by John A. Young

The FOURNERATS are a small and relatively new family in Southwest Louisiana who settled in the Basile/Eunice area sometime after 1855. Since that time their numbers have increased and their names can now be found in telephone directories over much of southwest Louisiana.

This FOURNERAT drill started out as an attempt to help relatives of this author fill in some blanks in their genealogy. It is compiled from several sources and would not have been possible except for information obtained from the "Archives Generales du Department de la cote D'Or et du Lancienne Province de Blourgogne, France" by Mrs. Conway W. FOURNERAT of Oakdale, Louisiana and supplied to the author by her cousin, Ethel Matthews Parker of Fort Smith, Arkansas, a great-granddaughter of Eugene (Antoine) FOURNERAT. Additional information was obtained from Rev. Donald HEBERT's SOUTHWEST LOUISIANA RECORDS and oral history from Walter YOUNG who knew most of (Antoine) Eugene FOURNERAT's children.

The progenitor of the FOURNERATS in southwest Louisiana was Antoine FOURNERAT of Fleurey-sur-Duche, France. Antoine was an issue of the marriage of Edme and Madeline DUPLUS, m. 19 June 1827, at Saint-Seine-l'abbaye. Edme, a hat-maker, was the son of Claude, a farmer at Laignes, and Cecile FEVRE, m. 30 June 1788. In this marriage Claude stated he was a major son of Nicolas FOURNERAT, a laborer and Edmee JUNOT.

Edme and Madeline had at least one other son, Jean Baptiste, b. 1828. The family lived at Dijon, 16 rue du Chaignot, where Edme died 24 June 1831. (1)

Antoine, a barber (2) married Elisabeth MUTIN in Fleurey-sur-Duche on 17 Jan. 1848. They had two children. Noemi and Antoine (Jr.) when on 16 Nov. 1855, Antoine applied for a passport for New Orleans. It is believed he departed France in early 1856 (3), because on the French census taken that year he is shown "en voyage." In the 1866 census, ten years later, his wife and children are still shown as being at Fleurey-sur-Duche and Antoine is listed as "place of residence unknown for the past ten years." The children's ages given at this time are, Noemi, 12 years and Antoine (Jr.), 10 years (4).

Antoine is not heard from again but a Eugene FOURNERAT appeared in Natchitoches after 1856 and gains employment there as a barber. He and Marie, the barber shop owner's wife, became attracted to each other and departed Natchitoches together (5). No record of a marriage between them has been found (and is doubtful); however, three children are known to have been born of this relationship: Alcide, b. 9 July 1860; Marie Noemi, b. 13 Sept. 1862, bapt. Grand Coteau, parents listed as Eugene and Marie Azema AYEUESE or GAYO: and Andre, b. 10 Oct. 1873, bapt. Eunice, parents listed as Eugene and Marie AYEUSE (6).

Marie (AYEUSE or GAYO) died as a result of being gored by a bull soon after Andre was born and Eugene then married Elvina YOUNG, m. 6 April 1874, at St. Anthony Church in Eunice. At the time of his marriage, it is recorded that he is the son of Edmond FOURNERAT and Marie Madeline DUPLUS. It's very probably he gave the name as Edme but that it was listed as Edmond which was a much more common name at the time. Be that as it may, we now know what happened to Antoine (?). Eugene (formerly Antoine) and Elvina settled in what is now the northern part of Acadia parish, on the banks of Bayou des Cannes, just south of where present-day U.S. Hwy. 190 crosses the bayou. Eugene, a well-educated (8) and industrious person, operated a ferry at this location. During high water he would charge people a dime to carry them and their wagons across the bayou. In addition to the ferry, he operated a store and "buvette" (saloon), a tannery, and a boot-making shop. He later purchased a flatboat and hauled freight to Mermentau and up Bayou Nezpique to Millerville and the port at Viterabo. While on one such trip in January, 1886, he was found dead in the Mermentau River, the apparent victim of a robbery as none of his hides, money, or supplies were recovered. When word of his death was received by the family several days later, his oldest son, Alcide, was sent by hack (surry) to pick up the body for a proper burial. The body was wrapped in a blanket and placed on the back seat of the hack and Alcide then started the twenty or so mile trip home in late afternoon. After nightfall, it began to rain and sleet and Alcide lost his way on the open prairie. After traveling for some time, a light was sighted and shelter was requested. Upon explaining his situation, he was told to bring the body in and invited to sleep inside the house. His reply was that his father really didn't need to be inside as he had spent three or four days in the river but that he would appreciate it if he could put his horses in the barn and would accept the invitation to sleep on the floor. His explanation for this in later years was that the cold weather kept the body from further decomposing. (Antoine) Eugene FOURNERAT was buried in the Langley Cemetery four miles south of Basile. The grave marker has since disappeared but its location is still marked by the stump of a crape myrtle (his favorite tree) planted as a headstone at the time of his burial (9). Prior to his death, Eugene and Elvina, had five children.

that he is the Philibut FOURNERAT who died of consump-

64. It is conjecture on the author's part that Philibut was related. More work needs to be done on

AMERICAN DIARIES: An Annotated Bibliography, Volume 1: Diaries Written from 1492 to 1844, Published by Gale Research Co., Detroit, MI, xviii + 311 pages, annotations; Subject, Name, and Geographic Indexes, $85.00. Volume 2: Diaries Written from 1845 to 1980, xviii + 501 pages, annotations, Subject, Name, and Geographic Indexes, $98.00. Editors: Laura Arksey, Nancy Pries, and Marcia Reed

Published American diaries are a rich source of primary material for the study of American life, history, culture, and customs. With the publication of American Diaries, Vol. 1 and 2, students, teachers, researchers, and the general reading public will have access to a broad range of diaries and journals written by Americans. Although the bibliography is limited to English-language materials, a number of diaries written by non-Americans is included, if they are available in English and concerned with events occurring on American soil. Volume 1 covers works written from 1492-1844, while Volume 2 covers the period, 1845-1980. Entries are arranged chronologically, with diaries begun in the same year arranged alphabetically by the diarist's name. This arrangement enables all published diaries of a particular diarist to appear in one sequence, regardless of the time period covered. Entries include full bibliographic data and are extensively annotated. Where possible, annotations indicate the diary's emphasis and data on the diarist; historic events; modes of travel; religious affiliation; names of specific people, places, ships, etc.; customs and social milieu; and broad generic categories covered in the diary.

PASSENGER AND IMMIGRATION LISTS INDEX, 1987 Supplement, Edited by P. William Filby and Dorothy M. Lower. xxii + 645 pages. Bibliography of Sources Indexed. Published by Gale Research Co., Detroit, MI, $140.00.

More than 125,000 citations to names in over 100 published passenger and naturalizations lists are to be found in the Passenger and Immigration Lists Index: 1987 Supplement. The work covers passengers who arrived in the United States, Canada, or the West Indies from the sixteenth century through the early twentieth century. The 1987 Supplement is the sixth annual supplement adding hundreds of thousands of names to the nearly 500,000 citations contained in the original Passenger and Immigration Lists Index, First Edition. Altogether, over 1.4 million names are indexed in the base set and its six supplements, still just a fraction of the 20 million immigrants to North America from 1538 to 1900. The Supplement arranges all citations in a single alphabetic sequence. Citations have been compiled directly from over 100 additional published sources, including complete books as well as articles appearing in periodicals and books. Main entries in this supplement furnish the following information: name and age of passenger as given in the original source; date and place of arrival; code indicating the specific source containing the arrival record; page number on which the name occurs in original source; names of all accompanying passengers together with their ages and relationships to the main passenger. In addition to main entries the supplement contains computer-generated cross references for every accompanying passenger.

TOMBSTONE INSCRIPTIONS OF UNION CEMETERY (KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI) by Union Cemetery Historical Society, 2727 Main Street, Suite 120, Kansas City, MO 64108; Hardcover, 98 + pages, $15.00 plus $1.75 postage/handling, arranged alphabetically.

Union Cemetery lies on twenty-seven acres near downtown Kansas City, with an estimated fifty-five thousand graves. After many years of misuse and neglect, the Union Cemetery was deeded to the city of Kansas City in 1937. Since that time it has been cared for by the Board of Parks and Recreation commissioners of Kansas City. In 1984 the Union Cemetery Historical Society was formed to gather information about the cemetery and those interred there. This book lists only the headstones that are standing at this time. Each entry is listed alphabetically by surname and includes the section and lot number in the cemetery. A map at the end of the book shows the location of each section and lot. Information about the people buried there includes all data on the tombstones and the condition and/or description of the tombstone itself, especially if it is unusual.

THE CABILDO RECORDS OF NEW ORLEANS, 1769-1785: An Index to Abstracts in the Louisiana Historical Quarterly by Verda Jenkins Ruff; 80 pages, Paperback. $15.00 postpaid from the author, P. O. Box 385, Forest Hill, LA 71430.

For years, one of the major published sources for colonial Gulf South history and genealogy has been the Spanish-period "Cabildo" records abstracted as appendices in numerous issues of the LOUISIANA HISTORICAL QUARTERLY. Until now, using those records was frustrating for the lack of an index. The records indexed here are not included in two earlier indices to the LHQ, yet these are the materials most often needed by researchers in primary sources. The personal name index includes all the Spanish records published in the QUARTERLY. With over 6,000 entries, nationalities represented include not only the expected French and Spanish, but very many English and Anglo-American pioneers who settled or had business in the Spanish colony. This work makes available to researchers some of the first Latin and non-Latin settlers of the entire Mississippi Valley and the Gulf Coast.

The author traces the history of the family in Nova Scotia and into Louisiana after the Acadiana expulsion. The SAVOYE family in Louisiana is traced through six generations, giving dates and marriages where possible. # AN ORTEGO PUZZLE

by John A. Young

The ORTEGO name is a common one in the tri-parish area of St. Landry, Evangeline, and Acadia parishes of southwest Louisiana. Much has been written about the progenitor of the ORTEGOs; two articles that come to mind are "Joaquin de ORTEGA y PRIETO the Spanish Ancestry of a Gateway Pioneer in Colonial Louisiana" and "The ORTEGA Family: Three Generations in Louisiana" both by Winston DeVille, published in La Voix des Prairies, Vol. 3, No. 10 and Vol. 7, No. 24, respectively. Anyone with an ounce of ORTEGO blood in their veins or a cousin four times removed from an ORTEGO probably read these articles through at least three times!

Being related to the ORTEGOs through three different sons of Joaquin ORTEGO and Marie SOTO DE ST. DENIS (Joseph m. Emile FONTENOT; Joseph Marie m. Marie Josephe GUILLORY; and Anisette M. Osite LANDERNEAU) made me more ORTEGO than YOUNG/LEJEUNE. For that reason, while working on the LEJEUNE/YOUNG line of my ancestry, I was particularly interested in the ORTEGOs. As faith would have it, one of Joseph LEJEUNE/YOUNG's daughters married an ORTEGO. Joseph Joaquin Marcelin ORTEGO dit Cosse, s/o Joaquin and Marie Josefa Damesainte de SOTO y JUCHEREAU de ST. DENYS, married Louise LEJEUNE d/o Joseph and Marie HAY. That made my day! Of this marriage, I found (as had Mr. DeVille) eight children, to wit:

1. Celise ORTEGO, b. 28 Nov. 1818 (OC)
2. Silvanie ORTEGO, b. 29 Aug. 1820 (OC), m. 21 Aug. 1838 (St. Paul, Avoyelles), to Jean Baptiste BROUSSARD
  - a. Celine BROUSSARD, b. 30 Aug. 1839 (St. Paul, Avoyelles)
  - b. Marie Louise BROUSSARD, b. 19 Dec. 1840 (St. Paul, Avoyelles)
3. Joseph ORTEGO, B. 25 Mar. 1822 (OC)
4. Treville ORTEGO, b. 20 May 1824 (OC)
5. Adolph ORTEGO, b. 10 March 1826 (OC)
6. Eloise ORTEGO, b. 14 Oct. 1828 (OC)
7. Melanie ORTEGO, b. 23 Dec. 1832 (OC)
8. Celanie ORTEGO, B. 23 Feb. 1835 (OC)

Silvanie ORTEGO is the only child that I have been able to find information on. There are indications that Joaquin Marcelin ORTEGO remained in the Opelousas area. In Hebert's Southwest La. Records, Vol. 4, p. 382, the following entries are found:

ORTEGO, Valentin (Joseph Marcellin & Melanie GUIORY) b. 2 Nov. 1843 (Opel. Ch.: v. 4, p. 255)

and on the next line:

ORTEGO, Valentine (Joseph Marcellin & Melanie GIORY) bt. 14 March 1843 at age 9 mths. (Opel. Ch.: v. 4, p. 196)

One or both of the entries is in error. One possibility is that Valentine was born 14 March 1843 and bapt. 2 Nov. 1843, at approximately nine months. In any case, the entries do tell us that Joseph Marcellin's first wife, Louisa LEJEUNE, apparently died sometime after Celanie was born (23 Feb. 1834) and that he then married Melanie GUILLORY sometime prior to 14 March 1843; however, I can find no record of this marriage. Another indication that such a marriage did, in fact, take place are the following entries in Hebert's Southwest La. Records, Vols. 7 and 8:

(ORTEGO Cont'd)

Vol. 7, p. 375

ORTEGO, Valentine m. 24 Oct. 1864 Bennett JOHNSON (Opel. Ct. Hse.: Mar. #2535)
 [The actual document lists her parents as "Causais ORTEGO et Melanie GUILLORY egallement pere et mere de cette derniere..."]

Vol. 8, p. 391

ORTEGO, Octavie (Cause & Melanie GUILLORY) m. 26 April 1867 Liviel MARCANTEL
 (Opel. Ct. Hse.: Mar. #3500)

As previously noted, Joseph Marcellin's dit name was "Cosse", therefore, it leaves little doubt that this is the same person.

My conclusions are:

1. Joseph Marcellin's wife, Louise LEJEUNE, died after their eighth child, Celanie, was born on 23 Feb. 1835.
2. Joseph Marcellin married Melanie GUILLORY after Feb. 1835 and before Nov. 1843, and at least two children were issue of this marriage, Valentine and Octavie.
3. We still don't know what happened to seven of the eight children born to Joseph and his first wife, Louise LEJEUNE.

[I would like to share information on this ORTEGO line with anyone having a connection to the family. If you descend from any of the eight children given for Joseph Marcellin ORTEGO and Louise LEJEUNE, contact me and let's solve the mystery about these children and their descendants.....John A. L'Heritage de L'Avoylles

by Michael D. Wynne

The following article appeared in the Avoylles News Leader-Avoylles Press, Marksville, La., Thursday, December 31, 1981. It is hereby reprinted with the permission of the author.

The next few columns will contain a publishing of an abbreviated history of Avoylles Parish that comes from a rare manuscript from this columnist's collection. The manuscript was originally written by a person signing his name "H. H. H." in October of 1884. After this parish history, future columns will concern histories of individual families, including a complete history of the McCann family.

"The parish of Avoylles-It's Early History and Present and Prospective Condition." Avoylles Parish is situated near the exact center of Louisiana on North and South line and is opposite the southwestern part of Mississippi, Wilkinson County, in that state, being just across the Mississippi River from it. It is in the alluvial district, all of it except Ward 1, being river, bayou, and lake frontage and averages 25 x 25 miles wide. It is bounded in the north by strips of Rapides, Catahoula, and Concordia, with the Red River as a natural boundary line, East by the Red and Atchafalaya Rivers, South by St. Landry and Pointe Coupee, with the Atchafalaya River as a line, West by St. Landry and Rapides Parishes. It's early organization, 1805, was a part of Rapides county, but some 20 years later it was made into a parish with it's present name, the meaning of which is unknown to any whom this correspondent interviewed in the parish. Information was given that the first settlers went there about 1750, but Martin's Louisiana History mentions it for the first time in 1758. The most accurate date of the first settlers was the tradition coming through the grandfather of Mr. A. D. Coco, who said that the first white man settling there was Joe Rabalais, in 1775, who came with a large body of cattle from Pointe Coupee to escape from high waters reaching the prairie country near Mansura, which is 28 to 30 foot bluff from the low lands all around it.

The first white child born there was the daughter of Mrs. Decuir, the married daughter of Rabalais. The child married a Bordelon who was also an early settler, and the descendants of these two families now number 120 voters and about 700 people, being among the largest families in the parish. Rabalais' other daughter married a Ducote whose descendants are the largest in the parish. Mr. Coco's grandfather, Doninic Coco, came from Nice with General Lafayette, and was a soldier under him in the Revolutionary War, and settled in this parish in 1782 and his descendants have grown till now they number near 500 people.

Unusually large family circles live here - the Ducotes being the largest, the Bordelon and Moyers next, Gremillions, then Cocos with 500 people and Bordelon with 780, the last two being the only ones whose approximate numbers could not be ascertained. All of the families trace their origins to the settlements of 1775 to 1778. The increase in these early settlers must have been very rapid, as in 1785 Martin records the population at 287, but a few years later, the record decreased very considerably in numbers. It is presumed that some sought homes in other localities rather than they died so fast.

Prior to the War between the States, a large portion of the bayou frontage was a sugar growing section, but now only a limited sugar interest is maintained, the large part now being a corn and cotton producing country, though some small rice farmers are to be found in the low places, generally on the Avoyelles prairie. There is in the parish a total acreage of 534,645 an area of 800 square miles as follows: Alluvial, 462,190; uplands, 40,062; prairie, 22,748; and 96,191 in cultivation as follows: in cane 1650; cotton, 37,038 corn, 5567; rice 153, potatoes, 1774, with small amounts of hay, oats and sorghum, with an agricultural yield of 4317 barrels of molasses, 1935 hogshead, and 748 barrels of sugar, 22,564 bales of cotton, 402,305 bushels of corn, 3015 barrels of rice, and 54,265 bushels of potatoes.

THE BOOK SHELF

MISSOURI QUERIES, Vol. 1, March, 1987, by Carolyn W. Weidner, W. 2206 Borden Rd., Spokane, WA 99204-9668; $5.00 each issue plus postage/handling costs $1.00 for 1-3 issues, softbound.

Queries for Missouri ancestors will be published in this volume free of charge and as often as you wish, with a request that you limit the queries to 50 words. The author belongs to a network of publishers of state query books that exchange queries if their state touches your query boundaries, thereby allowing your request to receive additional coverage in their publications. Each issue will contain at least 25 pages and an every name index. The author included a compiler's code list for state query books; 38 states are covered.

NEW YORK STATE QUERIES, Vol. 1, March, 1987, by Carolyn W. Weidner, W. 2206 Borden Rd., Spokane, WA 99204-9668; $5.00 each issue plus postage/handling costs $1.00 for 1-3 issues.

Using the same format as the Missouri Queries book reviewed above, Mrs. Weidner is providing a clearing house for queries on New York State ancestors. She particularly concentrates on Chamberlain, Buckaliw, Gilbert, Dennis, Veeder and Vosburgh family lines for New York. Researchers would fair well to take advantage of the free query service for their New York ancestors.

CHAMBERLAIN CHAIN by Carolyn W. Weidner, W. 2206 Borden Rd., Spokane, WA, 99204-9668; $5.00 per issue plus $1.00 post/handling, softbound.

Chamberlain researchers now have a publication from which to gather and send their material on their Chamberlain ancestors. Queries are free and information from Bible and Family records are welcomed. Each volume will have at least 35 pages on Chamberlain material including an every name index. Volumes will be divided into three sections: miscellaneous data such as Bible records, marriage records, county histories, census records, wills, obituaries, etc.; family branches that have been submitted; queries, all Chamberlain related.

INDEX FOR THE FREDERICK COUNTY SECTION OF SCHARF'S HISTORY OF WESTERN MARYLAND, Vol. 1 by Helen R. Long and INDEX FOR THE WASHINGTON COUNTY SECTION OF SCHARF'S HISTORY OF WESTERN MARYLAND, Vol. 2 by Helen R. Long, 2609 Millstead Circle, Manhattan, KS 66502, Paperbacks, $8.50 each including postage/handling.

Researchers using Scharf's HISTORY OF WESTERN MARYLAND have been frustrated with the incompleteness of the index to the volumes. Mrs. Long prepared a complete listing of all names mentioned in the Frederick County and Washington County section of that publication. All names of persons, places or things are in strict alphabetical order except buildings, businesses, cemeteries, churches, mountains, newspapers, rivers, schools, and organizations of all types. Those categories are listed by subject. Mrs. Long has saved researchers lots of time and energy when using Scharf's History. Both volumes contain 90+ pages. Scharf's HISTORY was originally published in 1882, unindexed.

LEE COUNTY, KENTUCKY RECORDS, 1870 CENSUS by Myrna Gulley Seal, 212 Ranch Court, Connersville, IN 47331; Softbound, 48 pages, indexed, $10.00.

The Lee County, Kentucky Federal Census was divided into eight precincts; Beattyville Precinct, Town of Beattyville, Coal Branch Precinct, Old Landing Precinct, Proctor Precinct, Town of Proctor, Sturgeon Precinct, and Thomas Precinct. They are listed in this publication as they appeared on microfilm. The ninth population census included the name of every person residing within the household on the 1st of June, 1870; their age, sex, color, profession, value of real estate, value of personal estate, place of birth, parentage, born within the year, whether the person can read, write, is deaf, dumb or blind, insane or an idiot, a male citizen of the US of 21 years of age and upward and the right to vote denied or not. The complete surname index provides ready reference to the census.

OWSLEY COUNTY, KENTUCKY RECORDS, 1870 CENSUS by Myrna Gulley Seal, 212 Ranch Court, Connersville, IN 47331; Softbound, 54 pages, indexed, $10.00

Owsley County, Kentucky was created in 1843 from Clay, Estill, and Breathitt counties. The 1870 Federal Census of Owsley County was divided into six precincts; Booneville Precinct, the Town of Booneville, Buffalo Precinct, Indian Creek Precinct, Island Creek Precinct, and Traveler's Rest Precinct. The 1870 census has been transcribed into this helpful volume in the same order as the original canvass, keeping families and neighborhoods intact for in-depth study. A handy index is included.

DESCENDANTS OF SAMUEL STURTEVANT by Robert H. Sturtevant, 3001 Inverness Drive, Waco, TX 76710, $38.00 per volume, $4.00 shipping/handling, hardbound, 869 pages.

This volume on the Sturtevant family is primarily a lineal history of 7,981 descendants of Samuel Sturtevant, the immigrant ancestor that came to American about 1639/1640. Samuel played an active part in the early growth of Plymouth, Massachusetts, the first permanent settlement in the United States. Working with men of strength such as William Bradford, Myles Standish, Edward Winslow, Thomas Prince, William Collyer, and Edmond Freeman, Samuel Sturtevant proved himself to be a valuable asset to the new colony. The book is intended for persons tracing and/or interested in their family background. It consists of 869 pages of narrative and pictures of a selected number of individuals. Prefacing the factual data on each indexed individual, the lineage (back to Samuel) is shown by index numbers offering the additional advantage of comparing where one line of the family branches off from another. Samuel's nine children are all traced. Sturtevant researchers will find this book to be a goldmine of information.

THE FOREBEARERS AND DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM TAYLOR AND MAHALA CROMWELL by Carrie C. Carte, P. O. Box 12612, Charleston, SC 29412; hardbound, 502 pages, indexed, $30.00.

This work concentrates on the descendants of the Taylor family of Russell County, Virginia and Roane County, West Virginia. The Taylors had originally come from Augusta County; that section of the James River near Norfolk, Virginia. The first of the family to come to Russell County was Samuel Taylor and his wife, Mary Ann (Polly) Price, a half Cherokee Indian. Samuel Taylor descended from James Taylor I, an immigrant from Pennington Castle outside of Carlisle, England, who came to American and Virginia in 1635. Over 2,000 members of the family are assigned numerical listings with additional data on others. Many excellent photographs of the family are included. Allied families are Lees, Chews, Allerton, Willoughby, Thompson, Brewster, Walker, and Gregory. Mahala Cromwell was a daughter of Charles B. Cromwell and Mary _____. Charles B. Cromwell was the son of William Cromwell of Halifax County, Virginia. An every name index is a handy reference.

CLIBORN-CLAIBORNE RECORDS by Lolita Bissell, 4221 Farrar Avenue, Nashville, TN 37215; hardbound, 370 pages, indexed, $40.00 postpaid.

This volume traces the ancestry of the Cliborn-Claiborn family from its roots in England in the 13th century through the Virginia immigrants and their involvement in the early history of America. Allied families are Archer, Baugh, Brown, Gower, Rudd, Sheppey, Skerme, Stapp, Stratton, and Tanner. Robinson-Robertson records from 1642-1742 for Henrico, Charles City and Prince George counties, Virginia, show the probable descent of Gen. James Robertson, "Father of Tennessee." The last section of this book gives first generation families of established patriots of the American Revolution. Louisiana's Territorial Governor, William Charles Cole Claiborne, is represented in this work. A every name index is included.

THE BRELAND FAMILIES OF THE SOUTHERN STATES, 1755-1850 by Charles B. Breland, 2718 Overton Road, Huntsville, AL 35801; Softcover, spiral bound, 107 pages, indexed, $10.00 postpaid.

Charles Breland attempts to answer two questions in this volume on the southern Breland family. Did John Breland, recorded in church records dated 1688 in London, immigrate with his children to Virginia? The first Brelands located in America in 1755 were Jacob, Abraham, and James. What were their relationship to each other? At least two Breland families came from North Carolina to South Carolina in the 1700's. Jacob Breland obtained land on the PeeDee River in 1755 and his probable son, Elisha, settled in Winton (now Barnwell) County. Abraham Breland came from Pitt County, North Carolina to settle in Beaufort District, and it is from Abraham that all southern Brelands appear to descend. His son, William Breland is the ancestor of most of the South Carolina Brelands. Specific data on the Breland family in South Carolina, Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama and North Carolina in addition to maps, copies or abstracts to actual deeds and grants for the Breland family are included in this book. An every name index is included.

BILLEAUDEAU: ERRATUM

By Winston De Ville, F.A.S.G.

In this writer's article titled "The Billeaudeau Family of France, St. Domingue, and Louisiana: A Progress Report" (La Voix, Vol. IV, No. 15 [Oct. 1983] pp. 63-66), he stated (p. 63) that the parents of Athenaise Billeaudeau were Francois Billeaudeau and Azelie Johnson (married 1844). That parentage, he now knows, is an error. The author wishes to acknowledge and thank Cindy Leger of Eunice, La., a Billeaudeau descendant herself, for first raising the question of a possible discrepancy in this matter.

In the 1870 federal census of St. Landry (now Evangeline) Parish (p. 199, dwelling no. 115, family no. 116), we find the subject Athenaise, age 24, correctly shown as the wife of Paul Johnson. Thus, figuring her birth year as ca. 1846, we turn to Donald J. Hebert, Southwest Louisiana Records (Cecilia, La.: 1976) Vol. IV, p. 41, citing St. Landry Catholic Church, Opelousas, La., Vol. 4, p. 274. There, "Athenais" is shown as the daughter of Michel Billeaudeau and Brigitte Ardouin, born 9 March 1846.

For over thirty years, the writer had, unwittingly, accepted as "fact" the incorrect parentage of this ancestor, his great-grandmother, based on the testimony of his grandfather and his contemporaries, who, one would believe, should have had such knowledge. A casual perusal of the census record cited above provided the clue to rectify the matter.

It is the eminent authority on evidence, Dr. Noel S. Stevenson, F.A.S.G., who wrote: "It is not reasonable to assume that [church records] are...correct. Any pedigree that depends solely on [church] registers for its authenticity is not acceptable to a competent genealogist. Church records are not compiled for genealogical purposes." (Genealogical Evidence: A Guide to the Standard of Proof Relating to Pedigrees, Ancestry, Heirship and Family History [Laguna Beach, Calif.: 1979]). In the case at hand, however, it was a church record that provided the evidence to rectify the matter, but without the census record, or another supporting piece of evidence, the baptismal record could not stand alone as "proof." Thus, until now, we eschewed it. Clearly, we in Louisiana have depended far too exclusively on a single source, usually the church record, for parental identity. While we enjoy the bounty of early and rich ecclesiastical registers, they should be used only in tandem with civil records and other data pertinent to family history, such as federal census schedules. It goes without saying, as the present case amply illustrates, that we should never rely on oral testimony.

Happily for the author's genealogy, although he "lost" two individuals from his pedigree, he lost no surnames. Billeaudeau, of course, was retained, and he is abundantly endowed with other descents from the Johnson family.

BIOGRAPHY OF HYACINTHE ROBERY
by Marshall P. Fontenot

Dr. Hyacinthe ROBERI or ROBERY (the latter is the way he signed his name), son of Jean Baptiste ROBERI and Pauline GUIDRI of Italy, was the ancestor of the ROBERIE families in the Imperial St. Landry Parish area. On naturalization papers filed at the St. Landry Parish Courthouse on June 11, 1852[1], Dr. ROBERY stated that he was born in Ceva, Piemont, Italy in 1804, had sailed from Harve, France in the year 1840 and had arrived in New York on September 1, 1840. A resident of Louisiana since 1841, he renounced Sardaigna and became a United States citizen that day.

On July 19, 1844, Hyacinthe married Celestie VIDRINE, daughter of Florentin VIDRINE and Celise LAFLEUR [2]. They had three children, Marius, Pauline, and Frederick. Marius ROBERI married Clara STEPHENS on October 24, 1868. Marius later became Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, and Post Master at Cataro, Grand Prairie, LA. Their second child, Pauline ROBERI, married a farmer, Theodule DOUCET, on October 25, 1865 [3]. Frederick ROBERI, nicknamed "Pay Day", was born May 2, 1851. All of the local ROBERIES descend from Frederick as Marius' sons died without male heirs. Frederick was also a farmer and eventually took over his father's general store on March 13, 1871.

Dr. ROBERY bought a forty arpent farm in Cataro, old Grand Prairie, along Coulee Tisaneau from Samuel Wallace [4] on January 21, 1860 (Sections 77 and 78, Township Four South, Range Three East). The doctor owned a general store on his forty arpents where he also practiced medicine. Most of the merchandise was purchased in New Orleans and brought by steamboat to Washington, LA. Dr. ROBERY belonged to the St. Landry Doctor's Medical Association in 1872 [5]. He also had a St. Landry Parish Doctor's License and a Parish Druggist License acquired for the year 1860 [6].

In 1875 Hyacinthe joined a newly formed French Literary Society called ATHENEE LOUISIANAIS, an organization formed in New Orleans, its aim to preserve the French language. The doctor authored literary short works such as A GLANCE AT THE PENITENTIARY SYSTEM, PARALLEL OF LANGUAGES, PARALLEL BETWEEN DEMOSTHENES AND CICERO, COMPARISONS ESTABLISHED BETWEEN CORNEILLE, RACINE AND VOLTAIRE AND DRUNKENNESS.

Two family stories about Dr. Hyacinthe's arrival in the United States add a bit of color to the gentleman's first experiences in his new country. Some descendants say that when Hyacinthe's ship arrived at the New York harbor, it began to sink before it docked and the good doctor grabbed onto the tail of a cow that brought him to the shore. Other descendants say that when the ship began to sink, the doctor had to float on a window shutter to get to shore. Another older descendant sheds some light on Hyacinthe's country doctor experiences here in Louisiana. It seems that Dr. ROBERY was in a hurry to make a house call and rushed his servant to hitch his horse to the gig, but before the servant could finish putting the bridle bit in the horses mouth, Hyacinthe jumped in and took off as fast as he could.

Dr. Hyacinthe ROBERY died in Grand Prairie, LA (Cataro) on May 13, 1883 at age eighty-two years, eleven days. Buried in the old Grand Prairie Cemetery, his tombstone says he was born in Italy, but his age given on the tombstone does not match with his birthdate on his naturalization papers.

MY PERRON ANCESTRY
by Joseph Jaycee Fontenot

Finding my ancestors has been an easy task due to the great work completed before me, like Fr. Donald Hebert's multivolume work, Southwest Louisiana Records, and due to the fact that most of my family came to this area early and are still here today.

My most difficult research came with my PERRON lineage. My mother was Theresa Verna PERRON, daughter of Hildevert PERRON (b. 04-01-1909, m. 12-29-1928, d. 09-01-1974) and Lilly FONTENOT (b. 06-25-1913, d. 08-16-1939). Hildevert went by the name "Gilbert" and later had his name changed to this. His nickname was "Tee Yil" and I always knew him as "Papere Yil". Hildevert and Lilly had seven children: Verniece, b. 1928, d. 1928; Anthony, b. 10-20-1938, m. Enola PITRE on 08-13-1949; Theresa Verna, b. 01-20-1933, m. Remie FONTENOT on 09-29-1950, d. 07-01-1979 (Remie FONTENOT d. 03-09-1978); Marie Vernamae, b. 12-09-1934, m. Johnny GUILLORY on 05-29-1962; Marie Hassie, b. 11-09-1936, m. Anthony SOILEAU; Nelson, b. 04-06-1938, d. 1938; Gilbert, b. 08-16-1939, m. Carrie CARRUTHERS on 04-09-1961.

Hildevert PERRON's father was Edmond PERRON, b. 07-02-1856, m. 04-21-1885 to Celise GRANGER, d. 10-17-1930. Edmond and Celise had nine children: Joseph Castin PERRON, b. 08-03-1888 (I could find no other information on him and only his sister Agnes could remember her mother talk about "Tee Castin"); Arcelus PERRON, b. 05-07-1894, m. Eugene COLE on 10-25-1912, d. 04-07-1981; Agnes PERRON, b. 05-02-1906, m. John FONTENOT; Amy PERRON, b. 05-15-1897, m. Joseph "Reego" FONTENOT; Celeste PERRON, b. 09-16-1890, m. Eli COLE on 11-24-1906, d. 03-06-1959; Donia PERRON, b. 08-24-1899, m. Mayo COLE on 07-26-1917; Merit PERRON, b. 07-09-1902, m. Francis COLE; Estine PERRON, m. Martha RIDER on 03-16-1907; Hildevert PERRON, b. 04-01-1909, m. Lilly FONTENOT on 12-29-1928, d. 09-01-1974.

Edmond PERRON was the son of Francois PERRON, b. 12-12-1799 and married on 12-31-1827 to Celeste Paul FONTENOT. My original information had given me the name of Paulin as Edmond's father, however, in a personal interview with Arcelus PERRON, he told me that his grandfather was Francois whose father was also Francois (this single interview is illustrative of the need to record your older relatives' memories of the family before they are lost forever). Francois PERRON and Celeste FONTENOT PERRON had twelve children: Francois PERRON, b. 01-28-1829; Louis PERRON, b. 11-18-1830, m. Evelina DESHOTEL on 05-27-1853; Celeste PERRON, b. 11-08-1832; Lise PERRON, b. 08-07-1835; Pierre PERRON, b. 12-12-1837, m. Marguerite Domitilde LAFLEUR on 05-19-1868; Adele PERRON, b. 12-03-1837; Paulin PERRON, b. 10-02-1841, m. Adeline AUCOIN on 04-19-1883; Xavier PERRON, b. 10-30-1843; Celine PERRON, b. 08-08-1846; Amelie PERRON, b. 03-02-1849; Olin PERRON, b. 03-03-1851; Edmond PERRON, b. 07-02-1856, m. Celise GRANGER on 04-21-1885.

The next Francois PERRON was more illusive, the only record available said he came from "Islas Negras". Someone said that was probably Santo Domingo and for me to give up. Thanks to Fr. Donald Hebert, I was able to do a lot better. He put me in touch with Anton Pregaldin who provided a wealth of information. His response to my first letter follows:

Dear Mr. Fontenot:

I have looked through my note books and some other sources that I have, without finding a very complete answer for you. However, I did come up with some reasonable hypotheses.

I think your ancestor Francois PERRON (who married at Opelousas in 1797) must be Francois PERRON, born May 16, 1761 and baptized at Kaskaskia, Illinois the next day, May 17. He is the only child I know of from the marriage (at Kaskaskia on May 14, 1754) of Francois PERRON and Marie Anne FOUILLARD (b. about 1727 at Kaskaskia, d. at Kaskaskia Jan. 13, 1773 [per his estate papers, archives of St. Genevieve] buried at St. Genevieve, MO on Jan. 15, 1773, aged 45, survived by her husband PERRON). Unfortunately, the Kaskaskia marriage record does not give the parentage of these people, but I think I have succeeded in identifying them (see below). Marie Anne FOUILLARD had been married twice before: to Jean Baptiste GIJARD (sp?), and (at Kaskaskia, June 14, 1747) to Francois-Xavier ROLLET.

In 1776 (Nov. 10) Francois PERRON was a witness to the marriage at St. Genevieve of his niece, Genevieve PERRON to Jean Baptiste KARPIN Dit POTTERIN. Her father Pierre PERRON of Detroit and Vincennes, Ind. was the son of Jean PERRON and Suzanne TOUCHET. Therefore, our Francois must be their son Francois, baptized at l'Ange-Gardien, Canada on July 16, 1713 (For further information on these PERRONS in Canada, consult Tanguay, Dictionnaire Genealogique.)

The only other FOUILLARD I know of is Jacques FOUILLARD (son of Jacques and of Anne JUBAU, of Bourg de la Trinite' Diocese of Quimper (sp?) in Brittany, aged about 31 in 1726), who married at Kaskaskia on Sept. 26, 1724, to Anne (a Natchitoches Indian). (Natalie Belting, Kaskaskia Under the French Regime reads the tribe as Natchez, however.)

I find no baptism for any child of that marriage; however, the registers of the Illinois parishes at that time are incomplete. Margaret Brown and Laurie Dean, The Village of Chartres in Colonial Illinois, 1720-1765, report a donation (document K-427) dated February 22, 1728. Pierre DUROY Dit DESLAURIERS gave a one-year old heifer to his godchild, Marianne, daughter of Sieur FOUILLARD. DUROY Dit DESLAURIERS made a will at Kaskaskia Nov. 25, 1746 (he was dead by January 17, 1747), in which he left legacies to Marianne FOUILLARD, widow of Jean Baptiste GYARD, and to her minor children. This seems to be the explanation (or a possible explanation) for the fact that the Opelousas register gives the name of Frs. PERRON's mother as Marie "DELAURIER". In the January 1, 1732 census of Kaskaskia (Charles Maduell, Census Tables of Louisiana, 1699-1732) I do not find the FOUILLARDS, but there is a listing for "DESLAURIERS", whose household consisted of himself and one child in the category of "natural children and orphans". From this we may reasonably guess that the FOUILLARDS had died by 1731, and that Pierre DUROY-DESLAURIERS had taken charge of his godchild.

Since Frs. PERRON, Sr. would have been 84 in 1797 it is unlikely that he was alive in 1797 and present at his son's wedding. Marie-Anne, of course, had been dead for 24 years at that point, so it would not be surprising if there was some inaccuracy about his name.

Finally, Jacques FOUILLARD was a contract employee of the Company at Ft. de Chartres, by a three-year contract he signed there on January 29, 1725. However, on June 7, 1726 (document K-403, Brown & Dean, Village of Chartres), Jacques GUILLOTENES Dit DUGABLON agreed to fulfill the contract for him, in return for certain payments totaling 600 livres. If FOUILLARD had come to Louisiana to work for the Company you may be able to find something about him in the records of the Company (if any) that may exist at New Orleans. However, I found no references to him in the book First Families of Louisiana, by Glenn Conrad, after a fairly superficial search.

[end of letter from Anton Pregaldin to Joseph Jaycee Fontenot]

"Islas Negras" was actually Illinois. While the information is at times sketchy, the following is what I have been able to put together with Mr. Pregaldin's help, along with Tanquay and Drouin.

Francois' parents were François PERRON, b. 05-16-1761 in Kaskaskia, Illinois, and Marguerite FONTENOT who were married on 06-04-1797 in Opelousas. Marguerite died on 11-27-1801. They had two children: Marie PERRON, bt. 02-07-1798, m. Joseph BRUNET on 01-30-1816; François PERRON, b. 12-12-1799, m. Celeste FONTENOT on 12-22-1827.

Francois PERRON (born in 1761) was the son of François PERRON, b. 07-16-1713, bt. at L'Ange-Gardien, Canada and Marie Anne FOUILLARD (de Laurier in record - see Pregaldin's letter). He was the only child of this couple.

Francois PERRON (born in 1713) was the son of Jean PERRON dit Lesuire, b. 08-24-1672 Canada(?) and Suzanne TOUCHEHT, b. 1688. They were married on 01-25-1706 at L'Ange Gardien, Canada. Jean died on 05-25-1745 at Deschambault and Suzanne died on 02-25-1758. This was Jean's second marriage, the first being to Anne GAUDIN. Jean and Suzanne had thirteen children: François PERRON, b. 04-13-1708; Nicolas PERRON, b. 06-01-1709, m. Francoise ARCAN on 05-02-1730; Pierre PERRON, b. 04-25-1711, m. 1739 to Marie-Francoise DUFOURNEL in Detroit; François PERRON, b. 07-16-1713, m. 05-14-1754 to Marie Anne FOUILLARD; Louise PERRON, b. 04-24-1716, m. 01-28-1732 to Pierre HENNE-LEPIRE; Louis PERRON, b. 04-03-1718, m. 08-05-1748 to Agatha ABRAHAM at St.-Frs.-du-Lac; Marie PERRON, b. 1720, m. 11-15-1739 to Louis NAUD; Antoine PERRON, b. 09-18-1723; Joseph PERRON, b. 04-15-1725, m. 10-18-1845 to Angelique ARCAN; Antoine PERRON, b. 05-16-1727, m. 01-12-1750 to Marie MAREOT; Marie Angelique PERRON, b. 04-29-1733; Jean Baptist PERRON, d. 05-13-1733; Marie Angelique PERRON, b. 09-25-1735, m. 1753 to Pierre-Marie MORIN.

Jean PERRON's first marriage was to Anne GAUDIN. They were married on 11-10-1698 at L'Ange-Gardien, Canada. Anne died on 11-19-1705 at Deschambault. They had four children: Jean Baptiste PERRON, b. 04-10-1700, m. 10-30-1724 to Genevieve BENOIT-ABUL; Paschal PERRON, b. 04-15-1702, m. 1728 to Marie-Louise LAROCHE; Gaspard PERRON, b. 02-28-1704, m. 01-02-1727 to Dorothea DeLIEGRE, d. 08-06-1733.

Jean PERRON dit Lesuire was the son of Daniel-Francois PERRON dit Suire and Louise GARGOTTINE who were married on 02-26-1664 at Chateau-Riche. They had six children: Antoine PERRON, b. 12-02-1664, m. 01-15-1691 to Jeanne TREMBLAY; François PERRON, b. 02-22-1666, d. 04-04-1666; Marie PERRON, b. 1667, m. 11-27-1691, d. 04-07-1706 at Baie-St. Paul; Madeleine PERRON, b. 04-07-1670, m. 10-17-1691 to Charles GAUDIN; Jean PERRON, b. 08-24-1672, m. 11-10-1698 to Anne GAUDIN and 01-25-1706 to Suzanne TOUCHET, d. 05-25-1745; Anne PERRON, b. 03-22-1676, m. 10-04-1697 to Joseph GRATON.

Daniel-Francois PERRON dit Suire was the son of François PERRON de la Rochelle, Aunis Ancetie de La-Frs.-Rodrique Masson and Jeanne SUIRE de la Rochelle, Aunis.

TALBOT COUNTY MARYLAND LAND RECORDS, Book Two compiled by R. Bernice Leonard, 200 East Chestnut St., P. O. Box 534, St. Michaels, MD 21663; Softbound, 134 pages, $13.50

Abstracts contained in this volume are from Volumes III, IV and V of the Talbot County, Maryland, Land Records, beginning in 1676 and extending through 1691. Talbot County was the parent county of Queen Anne, part of Dorchester and certain other lands now within the Delaware borders. Entries include all surnames, names of land tracts, waterways, mariners, merchants and ships. In addition to deeds, the land records contain wills, marriage contracts, manumissions, indentures, marriage references, parent/child relationships from which a lot of genealogical data can be extracted. References to death dates and the location of "dwelling Plantations" add to the usefulness of this work. Each volume section is followed by an every-name index.

SCOTT COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI MARRIAGE RECORDS, Books 1 through 5, 1872-1900 compiled by Marilyn P. Corley, 104 Poinsettia Drive, Forest, MS 39074; Soft-cover, 172 pages, $15.00 plus $1.50 ph.

Listings in this volume present the marriage bonds from the first five volumes of marriages for Scott County. The basic information includes names of both the bride and groom, dates of the license and the marriage itself, name of the officiating minister or justice of peace, and page number on which the entry appears. Sometimes other notations, such as parents or guardian granting permission to marry, will appear in the entries. Ms. Corley provides us with an index of ministers and officials and an index of brides and grooms.

AUSTIN COUNTY, TEXAS DEED ABSTRACTS 1837-1852 abstracted by Joyce Murray, 2921 Daniel, Dallas, TX 75205; 191 pages; Hardbound; $25.00 plus $2.00 p/h.

This volume of deed abstracts covers Austin County, Texas, which in 1837, included all or part of the present counties of Fort Bend and Waller. The book contains sellers, purchasers, date, witnesses, acreage, price and in many cases, the location of the lands with nearby rivers, roads and names of neighbors in Austin County. San Felipe de Austin was the seat of the local government of one of the three original departments of the state under Mexico and many of these instruments are from the late 1820's, and are abstracted from microfilm of Deed Records in Volumes A, B, C, D-E. In addition to the deed abstracts, powers of attorney, wills, bills of sale, deeds of gift (often stating relationship) and slave sales (listing owners) are included. Places of former residence are often listed. Three indexes are provided; a full name, a slave name, and a place name.

CHARLES JOHNSON: A 1794 VIGNETTE

Translated and with Comments by
Winston De Ville, F.A.S.G.

The following document, originally written in French, and apparently holographic, is among the Opelousas Post records now deposited at Louisiana State Archives. Because the state archives saw fit to film these records prior to devising an adequate retrieval system for them, the only citation we can offer is "La. State Archives, St. Landry Parish Documents, Microfilm Box 5;" we used the microfilm copy at the Alexandria Historical and Genealogical Library and Museum, Alexandria, La.

Because there was an agnatic series of Charles Johnsons, we do not know precisely which one the subject is. Initially, we believed he was the Charles Johnson who married Josephine Guillory at Opelousas in 1806 (Donald J. Hebert, Southwest Louisiana Records [Eunice, La.: 1974] pp. 318-320). That Charles, however, was born ca. June, 1788 (Ibid.), and would have been only thirteen years old in 1794 - possible, but highly unlikely.

If the subject did, indeed, write the one-page document (in a bold, clear hand), he was one of the few Louisiana Acadians who was that well educated. Even freed slaves and their descendants probably had a higher literacy level than colonials of Acadian descent (Winston De Ville, Opelousas...1716-1803 [Cottonport, La.: 1973] pp. 123-124).

We note that the signer spelled the surname "Jansonne." Today, it is common knowledge that the name was originally "Johnson," with the French variation "Jeansonne." We have altered no spellings, but have added some punctuations for clarity. The document follows:

To Monsieur

Monsieur Julien Lesassier, Captain and Interim
Commandant at Opelousas:

Charles Jansonne petitions, saying that, having found a cow-skin bearing his brand in Sr. Duplechand's tannery, with Sr. Francois Fontenau's brand freshly super-imposed [on it], he was led to believe that the animal had been skinned by the latter [Fontenau]. He prays that you order payment, [even] if no punishment is [ordered for] such cases. You will make the right decision and the petitioner will not cease to pray for the conservation of your days.

Opelousas, 9 September 1794

Charles jansonne

BIBLE RECORDS: TATES, REEDS, & YOUNGS
by John A. Young

A person never knows what pleasant surprises a new day will bring - to an artist a beautiful sunset would end a perfect day; for a genealogist, finding unpublished material on a family he is researching causes much the same wonderful feeling.

The information presented below is taken from the back pages of an old Bible apparently owned at one time by Catherine McDANIEL and handed down and now in the possession of Walter YOUNG, a descendant. Catherine McDANIEL first married Adam TATE, after his death in 1877, she married a second time to Emile REED in 1879. More information on these people will follow at the end of the Bible listings.

The information was recorded on five pages located at the back of the Bible, placed there especially for the purpose of recording births, deaths, marriages. The pages are now in a tattered condition but were at one time very attractive with scroll work all around the edges of the page. Each page had a title for its purpose, i.e., Births, Deaths, Marriages, with the last page being untitled but lined for additional information. It is apparent from the handwriting that more than one person made entries on the pages. The early entries are made in a very neat, firm hand in pen and ink, while the last entries appear to be made in pencil, though still legible. The entries are copied here as nearly the same as written in the book. Any added information is presented in parentheses. Although not numbered on the pages, each entry is numbered here for easy reference.

Some comments about the entries above follow. Note that the numbers in parenthesis are keyed to the above entries.

Adam TATE (Jr.) born 22 Feb. 1803 (16), the son of Adam and Marie Louise FONTENOT, married first Eugenie PITRE, daughter of Francois Jean PITRE, Jr. and Eugenie GUILLORY.

Adam and Eugenie had ten children prior to Eugenie's death in 1867. Adam married a second time to Catherine McDANIEL, b. 20 Dec. 1846 (6), the daughter of Gabriel and Louisa HAULIN (2). At the time of his second marriage, Adam was 64 years old and his new bride was 22 years old and younger than nine of Adam's ten children. There were no children from the marriage when Adam died on 12 Oct. 1877 (25).

Catherine McDANIEL then married Emile REED, b. 18 Feb. 1835 (5) [Rev. Hebert lists his date of birth as 12 Oct. 1836], the son of Adam and Edvise FONTENOT, on 17 June 1879 (7). This marriage was the third for Emile who had previously married Alexandrine DEVILLE on 21 Feb. 1854, the daughter of Alexandre and Azelie CHAPMAN, b. 15 July 1835, d. 3 Oct. 1874, and Alida LAFLEUR, on 25 Aug. 1865, the daughter of Marcelin LAFLEUR, Jr. and Olive FONTENOT, d. ca. 1871.

Emile and Catherine had at least eight children: Arnul (8); Leist or Beirt? (9); Moise (10, 20, 40); Jacope (Jacob?) (14, 30); Catherine (11, 28); Adac? (12, 29); Jonas (13, 19) and Mary (4, 36).

Mary REED, b. 16 May 1889 (36) is the only child I have been able to trace with any certainty. Mary married Moise CHAPMAN on 23 Oct. 1905 (3) and they had two children, Sabra, b. 5 Dec. 1906 (39) and Catherine b. 10 Dec. 1909 (40). Moise CHAPMAN died 29 April 1911 (48) and Mary REED then married Benjamin YOUNG on 12 Sept. 1912 (4). Benjamin had previously married Adeline DOUGET who died 12 June 1911 (49), and they had the following children: Siris, b. 13 May 1904 (41); Elrick, b. 27 July 1906 (42); Odia, b. 26 Feb. 1909 (43); and Alcide, b. 10 Jan. 1911 (44). Benjamin and Mary had the following children: Walter, b. 4 Aug. 1913 (38); Adeline, b. 5 Aug. 1919 (45), d. 31 March 1920 (53) and Nilas, b. 22 March 1922 (46). Benjamin YOUNG died 30 Nov. 1923 (47) and Mary REED then married a third time to Adraste VIDRINE. There was no issue from the marriage. Mary REED died on 23 Nov. 1946.
